

To Edward Pellew Plenty (Senior), late of Newbury, in the county of Berks, but whose present address is unknown.

TAKE notice that on the 10th day of May, 1900, a writ of summons was issued in the action of Harrold v. Plenty 1900 H. No. 1562 which claimed:—
 1. A Declaration that the certificates for 10 ordinary shares of £10 each, and numbered 937 to 996 inclusive in Plenty and Son Limited having been deposited by the defendant in the hands of Frederick Joseph Jesser Harrold deceased the plaintiffs as executrix and executor of Frederick Joseph Jesser Harrold, are entitled to be considered in this Court as if they were mortgagees of the said shares and Judgment accordingly. 2. An account of what is due to the plaintiffs for principal interest and costs under and by virtue of their said security. 3. That the said security may be enforced by foreclosure. 4. Or in the alternative that the said security may be enforced by sale liberty being given to the plaintiffs to bid at any such sale. 5. Costs. And take notice that by an Order dated the 3rd day of December, 1900, it was ordered that the service of the said writ of summons by sending a copy of the Order together with a copy of the said writ of summons by a prepaid post registered letter addressed to this defendant at the registered office of Plenty and Son Limited and also by serving a copy of the Order together with a copy of the said writ of summons upon Edward Pellew Plenty, junior, and by publication of this notice once in the London Gazette and twice in each of the following newspapers, viz., the Standard and the Reading Mercury and Berks County Paper should be deemed good and sufficient service of the said writ of summons upon you. And take notice that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, London, within 8 days after the last of such advertisements, the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and Judgment may be given in your absence.
