ADDENDA to the Despatch, dated 2nd April, 1901, from Earl Roberts, K.G., G.C.B., to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for War, published in the Gazette of the 16th April, 1901.

The following should be included in the above-mentioned Despatch:—

At end of "Director of Railways Department," on page 2598 of the Gazette, add

"Brevet Major E. P. C. Girouard, D.S.O., held the important position of Director of Railways, and to his able administration, his power of organization, and his unflinching energy the success of his Department is mainly due. I am much indebted to him for his valuable services."

Government Postal and Telegraph Services and Capetown Police.

"These Services have had an immense amount of extra work thrown on them, which they have carried out to my entire satisfaction, and my thanks are due to Mr. Somerset French, C.M.G., and his Staff, for the very capable manner in which the Postal and Telegraph Services have been worked, and to Captain Jenner, Chief of Police, and his subordinates, for their loyal assistance."

After the seventh paragraph on page 2603 of the Gazette, add

"Colonel B. M. Hamilton, East Yorkshire Regiment, was selected in April, 1900, for the command of a Brigade, in which position he has done much hard work and proved himself a resolute and capable Commander."

After "the Portland Hospital, under Mr. A. Bowlby, F.R.C.S.," on page 2599 of the Gazette, add

"and Dr. H. H. Tooth."
