

THE INVESTING WITH THE MANTLE.

The King then standing, His Majesty was invested by the Sub-Dean with the Armilla or Stole and the Imperial Mantle, or Pall of Cloth of Gold, delivered to him by the Master of the Robes, the Lord Great Chamberlain fastening the Clasps.

THE ORB.

The King then sitting down, the Archbishop, having received the Orb from the Dean, delivered it into the King's Right Hand, saying: "Receive this Imperial Robe and Orb," &c. His Majesty then returned the Orb to the Sub-Dean, who laid it on the Altar.

THE RING.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, then receiving from the Keeper of the Crown Jewels the Ruby Ring, delivered the same to the Archbishop, who put it on the fourth finger of the King's Right Hand, saying: "Receive this Ring," &c.

THE SCEPTRES.

The Sub-Dean then brought from the Altar the Sceptre with the Cross, and the Sceptre with the Dove, and delivered them to the Archbishop.

The King having put on the Glove presented by the Lord of the Manor of Worksop (Duke of Newcastle) the Archbishop delivered the Sceptre with the Cross into His Majesty's Right Hand, saying: "Receive the Royal Sceptre," &c.; and then the Sceptre with the Dove into His Left Hand, saying: "Receive the Rod of Equity," &c.

THE CROWNING.

The Archbishop, standing before the Altar, and having St. Edward's Crown before him, took the same into his hands, and consecrated and blessed it with the Prayer, "O God, the crown of the faithful Bless," &c.

Then the Archbishop came from the Altar, assisted by other Bishops, the Dean of Westminster carrying the Crown; and the Archbishop took and placed it on His Majesty's Head; when the people with loud and repeated shouts, cried: "God save the King"; and immediately the Peers put on their Coronets; and the Kings of Arms their Crowns; the Trumpets sounding, the Drums beating, and the Great Guns of the Tower and the Guns in the Park being shot off.

The acclamation ceasing, the Archbishop pronounced the Exhortation: "Be strong, and of a good courage," &c. The Choir then sang the following: "Be strong and play the man," &c.

THE HOLY BIBLE.

The Sub-Dean, then taking the Holy Bible from the Altar, delivered it to the Archbishop, who, attended and assisted by the other Bishops, presented it to the King, saying: "Our Gracious King," &c.

The King then gave back the Bible to the Archbishop, who gave it to the Sub-Dean, to be by him replaced on the Altar, the Archbishops and Bishops going back to their Seats.

THE BENEDICTION.

The Archbishop then pronounced the Benedictions, the Bishops and the Peers following every part of the Benedictions with a loud AMEN. The Archbishop then turning to the people, said: "And the same Lord God Almighty grant," &c. The King then went to the Theatre, the two Bishops His Supporters, the Great Officers of State, the Noblemen carrying the Swords, and the Noblemen who had borne the Regalia, coming from their respective places and attending His Majesty.

THE INTHRONIZATION.

The King then ascended the Theatre and was Inthroned by the Archbishops, Bishops, and Peers around His Majesty; and, being so Inthroned, all the Great Officers of State, the Noblemen bearing the Swords, and the Noblemen who had borne the other Regalia, stood around about the steps of the Throne, when the Archbishop, standing before the King, pronounced the Exhortation, "Stand firm and hold fast," &c.
