[In substitution for the Order in Council which appeared in the London Gazette of 7th March, 1902.]

At the Court at Saint James's, the 6th day of March, 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to

"all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend George Wyndham, Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing, dated the eighth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and one, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"We George Wyndham Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells do hereby represent to your Grace that there are in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells the perpetual curacy or vicarage and parish church of Publow and the vicarage and parish church of Stanton Drew with the chapelry of Pensford annexed.

"That the annual income of the said benefice of Publow is about two hundred and thirty pounds gross and according to the last census the population thereof was four hundred and twenty-nine.

"That the annual value of the said benefice of Stanton Drew with Pensford amounting to two hundred and twenty-five pounds is mainly derived from tithes which were commuted at the sum of two hundred and eighty-eight pounds and are now worth about two hundred pounds. According to the last census the population of Stanton Drew with Pensford was seven hundred and twelve, the population of Pensford being about two hundred and thirty but it is not separately stated in the census returns.

"That the chapelry of Pensford is believed to have contained about three hundred acres but the boundaries are not now known as it is merged in the parish of Stanton Drew.

"That there is in the said chapelry of Pensford a church or chapel distant from the parish church of Stanton Drew about two and a half miles by a very circuitous route in which church or chapel Divine Service is performed by the Incumbent of Stanton Drew at considerable inconvenience owing to the distance from the vicarage.

"That baptisms marriages and churchings have been from time immemorial and are now solemnized and performed in the church or chapel of Pensford and burials in the burial ground belonging thereto for the parishioners of the parish of Stanton Drew with Pensford residing in the neighbourhood of Pensford Church.

"That the said chapelry or district of Pensford is contiguous to the said parish of Publow forming practically one village and the church or chapel of the said chapelry is only about half a mile from the church and vicarage of Publow and it could be more easily visited by the Vicar of Publow than by the Vicar of Stanton Drew.

"That the population in the neighbourhood of Pensford is likely to increase very considerably within a short space of time there being at Pensford a station on the North Somerset Railway by which communication with Bristol (from which it is only six miles distant) is made easy, and also owing to the opening of a large mine in the vicinity which will afford employment for a large number of hands while on the other hand the parish of Stanton Drew is not very likely to increase to any large extent being almost entirely an agricultural district.

"That the patronage of the said perpetual curacy or vicarage of Publow is vested in myself as Bishop of Bath and Wells jointly with the Venerable Hilton Bothamley as Archdeacon of Bath and the Reverend John Galbraith Vicar of Chew Magna and that the Reverend Henry Howard Tripp is the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy or vicarage. And the patronage of the vicarage of Stanton Drew with Pensford belongs to the said Archdeacon of Bath alone in his official capacity, the Reverend John Wynn Werninck being the present Incumbent of such last-mentioned benefice.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838 the portion of the said chapelry of Pensford adjacent to Publow may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Stanton Drew and be united and annexed to the said perpetual curacy or vicarage and parish of Publow for ecclesiastical purposes as the parishioners would then be within half a mile of the vicarage instead of two and a half miles away.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Act I have prepared the following scheme which together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the said vicarages of Publow and Stanton Drew with Pensford I do submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same and such consents by your report to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop, and the Consents referred to in the said Representation, are as follows:—

"THE SCHEME.

"That the said chapel of Pensford with a district comprising two hundred and fifty-nine acres or thereabouts of land nearest to the parish of Publow set out in the schedule hereto annexed and coloured pink on the accompanying plan shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Stanton Drew and be united and annexed to the parish of Publow aforesaid for ecclesiastical purposes and that the parish be henceforth called or known as Pensford with Publow.

"That the said chapel and district shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said perpetual curacy or vicarage of Publow is and that the Incumbent of Publow shall have the exclusive cure of souls within the limits shown by a pink colour on the said plan.

"That the tithes of the lands so proposed to be transferred to the vicarage of Publow and which were commuted at the sum of forty-four pounds eighteen shillings and twopence (of the present annual value of thirty pounds or thereabouts) as set out in the schedule hereto annexed shall henceforth be received by the Vicar of Publow but that none of the other endowments belonging to the said vicarage of Stanton Drew with Pensford shall be affected by the proposed separation but shall continue to be payable to the Vicar of Stanton Drew as heretofore.

"That the Vicar of Stanton Drew for the time being shall not hereafter be liable to repair or contribute to the repair of the chancel of the said church or chapel of Pensford but that such and the same liability as now attach to him shall hereafter attach to the perpetual curate or vicar of Publow for the time being who shall become entitled to receive all moneys set aside for such repair and obtainable from the trustees of the Church Lands Charity.

"That all fees and ecclesiastical dues and payments (if any) for churchings marriages burials and ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within the parish of Pensford with Publow in respect of any inhabitants who may reside within the district now proposed to be transferred shall belong to the Incumbent and church officers of the said parish of Pensford with Publow.

"That the owners and occupiers of any lands and hereditaments in Pensford within the limits coloured pink on the said plan shall not hereafter be liable to contribute to the maintenance and repair of the parish church of Stanton Drew or to the expenses incidental to the due performance of Divine service therein but shall be so liable (subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act 1868) for or in respect of the said parish church of Publow and the said chapel of Pensford when thereto annexed.

"That the owners and occupiers of lands and hereditaments in Pensford within the limits coloured pink on the said plan shall not hereafter be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Stanton Drew but shall be entitled in common with the parishioners of Publow to accommodation in the church of Publow and in the church or chapel of Pensford.

"CONSENTS.

"We George Wyndham Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells Hilton Bothamley Archdeacon of Bath and John Galbraith Vicar of Chew Magna the persons or person entitled to nominate or present to the perpetual curacy or vicarage and parish church of Publow in case the same were now vacant and I Henry Howard Tripp Clerk Master of Arts the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy or vicarage and parish church of Publow and I the said Hilton Bothamley Archdeacon of Bath and as such the patron or person entitled to present to the vicarage of Stanton Drew with Pensford in case the same were now vacant and I John Wynn Werninck Clerk the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Stanton Drew with Pensford do hereby severally consent to the scheme above prepared and set forth and to every matter and thing therein contained."

HIS MAJESTY the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the decoration of the Albert Medal of the Second Class on Frederick Paffett, Chief Stoker, R.N., dated the 17th January, 1902.

The following is the account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the evening of June 10th, 1901, at about 9.30, His Majesty's ship "Daring," torpedo boat destroyer, was entering Portsmouth Harbour under easy steam, when an explosion suddenly took place in the after stokehold. A tube was blown out of the lower barrel of No. 2 boiler and the whole stokehold was filled with steam.

At the time of the accident there were five men in the stokehold—Chief Stoker Paffett and four stokers. Owing to the volume of steam it was impossible for them to see each other, but two men, though scalded and partly overcome by the great heat, managed to get up the ladder to the deck. Paffett, whose place of duty as Chief Stoker gave him the best opportunities of escape, was standing, when the accident occurred, with his hand on the port side ladder. He remained, however, in the stokehold and endeavoured to avert the consequences of the explosion in the only way possible, namely, by opening the steam valve of the starboard fan. With this object he went deliberately across the hold, groping for the valve which he could not see, the steam from the boiler striking full on his left arm which was shielding his face. But he found it impossible to reach the valve and it was only with difficulty that he was able to regain the ladder, badly scalded and almost unconscious. As he mounted the ladder he was able to save the life of Stoker Elliott, who was slipping down from above in a fainting condition. Paffett being a very powerful man, raised him on his left shoulder and lifted him to the deck; then, reaching the deck himself, aided by those above, he fell down completely overcome. He was much disfigured by burns and scalds; and has almost lost the use of his left arm.

HIS MAJESTY the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Albert Medal of the Second Class on James Sutherland, Leading Stoker, R.N., dated the 1st June, 1902.

The following is the account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the night of December the 2nd, 1901, His Majesty's torpedo boat destroyer "Salmon" was entering the port of Harwich in company with the Chatham Instructional Flotilla, when a collision took place between her and the steamship "Cambridge."

It appeared that the "Salmon" was sinking from the injuries she had sustained, and the order was given for the men to go forward and leave the ship by means of ropes which had been passed over the bows of the "Cambridge."

At the moment of the collision James Sutherland Leading Stoker, was in the mess deck asleep.

He went on deck immediately but remained behind when the order was given, and went to the stokehold to open the hatches.

He opened one and was in the act of opening the other when it blew open in his face and a stoker named Scholfield was seen coming up.

Sutherland assisted him out. Scholfield tried to go back for Bartlett, a stoker who was afterwards discovered to have been killed by the steam which the shock of the collision had caused to escape in great quantities from the pipes. He was prevented, however, by Sutherland, who sent him on board the "Cambridge" and said he would look after Bartlett.

Sutherland then by the aid of a light lowered from the "Cambridge" went down into the stokehold.

When he got down there was much steam, although the full force of it had gone. The chief danger, however, was from drowning, as it was full of water, and the ship was in great danger of sinking.

Sutherland found a Chief Stoker named Church in the far end of the stokehold, got behind him and floated him along. A rope was passed down the hatchway, and Church, who was nearly unconscious, was got out.

Sutherland, after looking round to see if anyone else was there, went on deck, searched the forward mess deck and stokers' mess deck, and then went on board the "Cambridge."
