Whitehall, July 29, 1904.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Liverpool, on Tuesday, the 19th instant, to lay the Foundation Stone of the new Cathedral:—

To His Most Excellent Majesty King
Edward VII.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Liverpool in Council assembled, humbly approach Your Majesty with the dutiful homage of ourselves and of the loyal community we represent, and desire to express the gratification with which we avail ourselves of the great privilege of welcoming Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort on the occasion of Your first visit to this City since Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms.

It is a matter of great satisfaction to our Citizens that Your Majesty has once more evinced Your deep interest in all that concerns the welfare of Your people by Your presence in this City for the purpose of laying the Foundation Stone of the new Cathedral, an edifice which we earnestly hope will not only serve to promote the highest interests of humanity, but also prove an important addition to the buildings which adorn and beautify our City.

We fervently pray that every blessing may attend Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, and that Your Majesties may long be spared to rule over this great Empire, to the promotion of the best interests of which Your Majesties' efforts have always been directed.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the City of Liverpool, the 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you most sincerely for your loyal and dutiful address of welcome on the occasion of this the first visit which I have paid you since My accession to the Throne.

"It is a source of sincere pleasure to Me once more to find Myself in your midst, and to see around Me so many proofs of industrial enterprise, so many magnificent buildings, so many benevolent institutions; and I am convinced that the Cathedral whose Foundation Stone it is My great pleasure to lay to-day will minister to the spiritual needs of this great community and will form a noble addition to the architectural adornments of your City.

"I shall ever watch with the highest interest the continued progress of your splendid City, and I cannot refrain from an expression of heartfelt gratification at the enthusiastic loyalty which has attended My progress and the proofs of attachment which are manifested by all those who have given so warm a greeting to-day to the Queen and to Myself."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Members of the University of Liverpool, humbly offer to Your Majesties our dutiful welcome to the City in which the University has been established by Your Majesty's Royal Charter.

On this the first visit of Your Majesty to Liverpool since the foundation of our University we humbly desire to convey to Your Majesty our heartfelt gratitude for the privileges and powers which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to confer upon us by that Charter.

We may perhaps be permitted to recall to Your Majesty the fact that the Charter of University College, Liverpool, was granted by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, who was also graciously pleased to allow Her name to be associated with the first Chair of Law in the College, which is now the Queen Victoria Chair of Law in the University of Liverpool.

Indebted as we are to Your Majesty for our existence as a University, we recognize the responsibilities of service which Your Majesty has laid upon us. We trust that knowledge for its own sake may be sought and treasured amongst us, but that we may also do our part in quickening intelligence and sympathy by humane studies, in the development of the sciences, and in their application to commerce and industry and to the relief of human suffering.

We humbly pray that the Divine blessing may rest upon Your Majesties, and that Your Majesties' reign may long continue to be one of progress and of peace over a united and loyal people.

Given under the Corporate Seal of the University of Liverpool, the 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"On behalf of the Queen and Myself I thank you for the loyal and dutiful address which you have presented to Us from the Members of the University of Liverpool.

"It was a source of sincere gratification to Me to be able to grant a Charter to the University for the furtherance of the objects for which My dear Mother incorporated University College, Liverpool.

"Though the period which has elapsed since the grant of the Charter has been but short, the efforts which have been made for the advancement of knowledge by the Authorities of the University are deserving of the highest eulogy, and will, I feel assured, be ultimately rewarded by results worthy of this great City. I am fully conscious that the development of all branches of literary and scientific education is of the greatest importance in furthering the high objects which we all have at heart.

"I earnestly hope that every success may attend you in the prosecution of the great work which has been entrusted to you."

May it please Your Majesty,

The Diocese of Liverpool was created in 1880. It comprises one of the most populous districts of Lancashire, including the City and port of Liverpool and the towns of Bootle, Ormskirk, St. Helens, Southport, Warrington, Widnes, and Wigan, and no less than a million and a quarter of people.

But this great Diocese has never possessed a suitable Cathedral Church. Other and greater spiritual needs claimed to be first met, and absorbed for nearly a quarter of a century the attention of Churchmen. Yet the vision of a Cathedral was never lost. It grew in strength and loftiness through years of waiting. Men looked for a stately building worthy of this great community, with its stores of wealth, its world-wide connexions, its untiring industrial activities, and its manifold interests, which should be reared by all and for all, and which should be handed down to those yet unborn as a witness for God and as a centre of spiritual life and work and worship.

This hope is now on the eve of fulfilment, and it is with the deepest sense of thankfulness to Almighty God that we have ventured to approach Your Majesty and our Gracious Queen to further our undertaking, and most respectfully to ask Your Majesty to be pleased to lay the foundation stone of this the Cathedral Church of Christ in Liverpool, humbly praying that God may grant Your Majesty and the Queen long and happy lives, and that He may abundantly bless this His work.

To which address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I heartily thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal address and for your good wishes.

"It gives Me deep satisfaction to lay the Foundation Stone of the Cathedral Church of the great Diocese of Liverpool, which will be the chief place of worship and the spiritual centre of this mighty community, and will, too, I am assured, be a noble building worthy to adorn this splendid City.

"I am well aware of the aspirations which have for many years been in the minds of Churchmen of this Diocese for the establishment of a Cathedral which shall do honour to God and bear witness to the spiritual zeal of Our Church. These aspirations have ever had My deepest sympathy, and I pray that the blessing of the Almighty may rest on the work and may enable you to bring it to a happy and successful fulfilment."

Whitehall, July 29, 1904.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Swansea, on Wednesday, the 20th instant, to inaugurate the King's Dock:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of Swansea, in Council assembled, desire humbly to offer to Your Majesties a cordial and heartfelt welcome to this ancient and loyal town.

We recall, with pleasure, Your visit in October, 1881, and are deeply sensible of the honour conferred upon us and the Principality of Wales by the present visit of Your Majesties and for the opportunity thus afforded of expressing our loyalty and devotion.

We acknowledge with gratitude Your efforts to extend the commerce of our Empire, and, by softening International differences, to promote peace and consequently the well-being of the whole world.

It will be pleasing to Your Majesties to learn that the Prince of Wales Dock, opened on the occasion of Your former visit, has added, in a large measure, to the success of our port, and we feel assured that the dock now being inaugurated by Your Majesties will further add to the prosperity of the neighbourhood in which

You have been graciously pleased to manifest such kindly interest.

We desire, on this auspicious occasion, humbly to thank Your Majesties for Your gracious presence, and we earnestly pray to Almighty God to vouchsafe to You, Sir, with Your Royal Consort, our Beloved Queen, long to reign in undisturbed peace and happiness over a loyal, united, and prosperous Empire.

Given under the Corporate Seal of the Borough of Swansea this 20th day of July, 1904.

Griffith Thomas, Mayor.
Jno. Thomas, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I heartily thank you, on behalf of the Queen and Myself, for your loyal address of welcome.

"It gives Me sincere pleasure to find Myself again in your midst, and to be present at the commencement of a new dock, which will, I feel sure, form an important and useful addition to the fine series of docks for which the port of Swansea is already celebrated; and I rejoice to learn that the Prince of Wales Dock, the opening of which I well remember, is doing its part, as I expected, to increase your prosperity.

"Both the Queen and I are always glad of the opportunity of forwarding any undertaking which tends to augment the maritime commerce of Our Empire and to promote International peace and good relations.

"We are grateful for your good wishes for Our welfare, and cannot refrain from an expression of Our heartfelt gratification at the signs of loyal enthusiasm and attachment to Our persons which we have observed during Our visit.

"We shall ever follow the progress of your town with sincere interest."

To their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chairman and Members of the Swansea Harbour Trust, as Representatives of the Merchants, Shipowners, and Traders of the Port of Swansea, crave leave on the occasion of this Your Majesties' first visit since Your Coronation, to express our devoted loyalty and attachment to Your Throne and Persons, and our deep gratitude for the distinguished honour Your Majesties confer upon us by cutting the first sod of our new dock, which it is proposed, with Your Majesties' gracious permission, to call "The King's Dock."

In 1881, Your Majesties were pleased to open the "Prince of Wales Dock," and it has been a source of much gratification to the inhabitants of this ancient Borough that you have so closely associated Yourself with its welfare, and by the gracious Act which Your Majesties this day perform, they confidently look forward to this new undertaking being as successful as that which was then so auspiciously inaugurated, and they trust that it will aid in developing the commerce and increasing the prosperity of the vast Empire over which Your Majesties so beneficently rule.

We humbly beg to offer thanks to Your Most Gracious Majesties for Your Royal Presence, and we most earnestly pray that the blessing of God may ever rest upon You, and the never failing love of all Your people attend You in a prosperous and glorious reign.

Given under the Common Seal of the Swansea Harbour Trustees at Swansea, this 20th day of July, 1904.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal address which you have presented to Me, and for the good wishes for Our welfare which you express. It is a great pleasure to Me to visit again this ancient Borough for the purpose of cutting the first sod of the new Dock which will form so important an addition to the fine series of Docks for which Swansea is justly celebrated. I have much pleasure in acceding to your wish that the dock should be called "The King's Dock." I am well assured that this great undertaking will be successfully completed, and will prove a source of increased prosperity not only to the Port of Swansea, but to the whole country, and will materially assist the development of international commerce."

To Their Most Gracious Majesties The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Members of the Swansea Chamber of Commerce, Incorporated, as representative of the commercial community of this County Borough and Port of Swansea, beg respectfully to associate ourselves with the sentiments of loyal homage and welcome already expressed by the Governing Bodies of the Town and Harbour.

We recall with grateful memory the previous visit of Your Majesties as Prince and Princess of Wales, in 1881, for the purpose of opening the Prince of Wales Dock.

It is satisfactory to be able to record that that undertaking has been eminently successful, being mainly responsible for the gratifying increase in the trade of the Port, which has more than doubled itself in the interval, and we regard this renewed indication of Your Majesties' gracious interest as a happy augury of similar success for the new enterprise which Your Majesties are about to initiate.

We devoutly pray that God's blessing may abundantly rest upon Your Majesties, and that Your Reign may be prolonged and prosperous.

In the name of the Swansea Chamber of Commerce, Incorporated.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I heartily thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal address of welcome, which you have presented to Us, and for the sentiments which you have expressed therein.

"I retain a pleasurable recollection of My earlier visit to the Borough of Swansea for the purpose of opening the Prince of Wales Dock."

"I have since watched with interest the progress of the Port, and it is a source of sincere gratification to Me to learn that the Dock which I opened has contributed so largely to its prosperity.

"I heartily trust that similar success may attend the present enterprise, which promises to materially increase the wealth of your seaport, and to be of great advantage to the industry and commerce of My Kingdom."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Members of the Swansea Improvements and Chamber of Trade Association, Limited, humbly beg to be permitted to offer to Your Majesties a cordial and loyal welcome to the ancient Borough of Swansea.

We gratefully appreciate and acknowledge the concern and interest Your Majesties evince in the welfare and prosperity of Your subjects, and we pray God to spare You long to reign over us.

Given under our Common Seal this twentieth day of July, nineteen hundred and four.

Secretaries.

Alfred Davies, Treasurer.

To His Most Gracious Majesty Edward VII, King of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

We are specially favoured by the continuance to our Institution of the Patronage which Your Majesty had, as Prince of Wales, extended to it for fifty years, as well as by the permission of our late Sovereign, the greatly beloved and deeply lamented Queen Victoria, in the Jubilee year of Her Reign to use the title "Royal" in the designation of the Institution.

We earnestly pray that the Divine Blessing may rest upon both Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal Consort throughout a long, beneficent, and glorious Reign.

We are, Sire, with profound respect, Your Majesty's most dutiful and most humble loyal subjects,

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal address and for the good wishes which you express for Our welfare.

"Your Institution, whose beneficent purpose it is to alleviate one of the saddest of human afflictions, will always, as in the past, have My most hearty sympathy, and I am happy to be its Patron.

"I rejoice to learn how well your system of education and training is carried out, and how large a measure of success has during many years attended your efforts; and I feel assured that you will continue your admirable work in the future, as in the past, with zeal and thoroughness, and that your endeavours will meet with their reward."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Governors and Board of Management of the Swansea General and Eye Hospital, desire, upon the occasion of Your Most Gracious Majesties' visit to this ancient Borough, to convey the assurance of our most devoted loyalty to Your Majesties' Persons and Throne, and our heartfelt appreciation of the honour Your Majesties have this day conferred upon our Institution.

We are fully and gratefully conscious of the warm and unfailing interest Your Majesties have ever taken in the welfare and progress of Hospitals generally, as was evidenced by Your Majesties' most gracious visit to our Wards in 1881. Your Majesties may be pleased to learn that through the benevolence of several generous benefactors we have been enabled to open a new Children's Ward, to erect a new Eye Hospital, an Operating Theatre on the most modern lines, as well as a Convalescent Home and a Nurses' Home, the latter being the tribute of the Swansea public to our late beloved and deeply lamented Sovereign Queen Victoria, in commemoration of the Jubilee of Her beneficent and glorious Reign.

We most earnestly pray that with the blessing of God Your Majesties may enjoy a long, peaceful, and happy Reign.

Signed on behalf of the Governors and Board of Management this 20th day of July, 1904.

Hyam Goldberg, Chairman.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal address which you have presented to Me.

"We have ever taken a sincere interest in all that may ameliorate the condition of the sick and suffering, and I am well assured that the Swansea General and Eye Hospital has performed admirable work with this object. The thanks of the community are due to the Medical Staff for the large amount of gratuitous service they have so nobly rendered, and to the generous benefactors whose munificent donations have enabled the Managers to enlarge the accommodation and extend the functions of the Hospital by the addition of important new buildings and Homes, one of the latter being, as you have reminded Me, a token of the affection borne by your fellow-townsmen to My late Dearly-beloved Mother.

"I pray that by the blessing of God this Institution may prove as beneficial in the future as it has been in the past."

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 84 of 1902:—

The Russian Government has given further notice, that the breakwaters under construction having been completed on 12th May, 1904, the following alterations would be made in the lighting of Windau:—

1. The lights (a red fixed light over a white fixed) on the north breakwater have been moved $5\frac{1}{2}$ cables N. $75^{\circ} W.$ from their former position, to the outer head of the breakwater, and re-exhibited at the same elevation (30 feet).

2. The red fixed light on the extremity of the old or inner north mole has been replaced by a red fixed light elevated 37 feet above the sea, and visible from the bearing of S. $49^{\circ} W.$, through west and north to S. $26^{\circ} E.$

3. The lights on the southern breakwater (blue fixed light over a white fixed light) have been moved $3\frac{1}{2}$ cables N. $36^{\circ} W.$ from their former position, to the outer head of that breakwater, and re-exhibited at the same elevation (30 feet).

4. A blue fixed light elevated 37 feet above the sea, and visible from the bearing of S. $31^{\circ} E.$, through south and west, to N. $49^{\circ} E.$, has been established on the south breakwater, at a distance of 130 yards S. $20^{\circ} W.$ from the red light on the old or inner north mole head.

Bad weather may prevent the above lights from being lighted.

Buoys.—The red bell buoy formerly situated at a distance of $12\frac{1}{2}$ cables N. $51^{\circ} W.$ from the Pilots Tower has been withdrawn. The channel in which there is now a least depth of 20 feet, is marked by spar buoys with red staffs on the northern side, and white staffs on the southern side.

Approximate position, lat. $18^{\circ} 6\frac{1}{2}' N.$, long. $38^{\circ} 38' E.$

A sounding of $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms was obtained when the vessel struck, but as it is probable that there is less water over this reef, it has been shown on the Chart as a rock having less than 6 feet over it.
