*Scottish Office, Whitehall,
December 19, 1904.*

The KING has been pleased by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 17th day of December, 1904, to direct the issue under the Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept and made use of in place of the Great Seal of Scotland of a Commission to enquire into matters concerning the Free Church of Scotland and the United Free Church of Scotland, as follows:—

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith.

To Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Victor Alexander, Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Commander of Our Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Knight Grand Commander of Our Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Chairman;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Alexander Smith, Baron Kinnear, one of the Senators of Our College of Justice in Scotland; and Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Ralph William Anstruther, Baronet. Greeting!

Whereas prior to the 31st October, 1900, the Free Church of Scotland held, directly, or through the medium of Trustees, various funds and properties hereinafter called "the General Property," and further funds and properties were held by Trustees in connection with the various congregations connected with the said Church hereinafter called "the Congregational Property":

And whereas in 1900 certain Members of the Free Church entered into a union with the United Presbyterian Church and the Church formed by that Union was designated the United Free Church of Scotland, but certain other members of the Free Church refused to enter the Union, and remained as the Free Church:

And whereas after the Union the United Free Church of Scotland continued to hold and administer the said funds and properties:

And whereas there ensued litigation between the said Free Church and the United Free Church as to their respective rights so far as held by the General Trustees' final judgment in which litigation was pronounced by the House of Lords in August, 1904:

And whereas by the judgment of the House of Lords it was declared that the General Property therein dealt with did not belong to the United Free Church, and that said Church had no right, title, or interest therein, but that the same was vested in the Free Church upon the Trusts of the constitution thereof: and in a case as to Congregational Property appealed to the House of Lords the claim of the United Free Church thereto was negatived:

And whereas it is doubtful how far the Free Church are or may be in a position to carry out the Trusts as declared by the House of Lords:

And whereas there were certain other funds and properties in which, prior to 31st October, 1900, the Free Church was interested, being the General Property so far as not dealt with by the Judgment of the House of Lords, and the Congregational Property other than that dealt with by the case in the House of Lords and four other cases ruled thereby which funds and properties are the subject of dispute between the United Free Church and the Free Church, and it is apprehended there may be further litigation between the parties:

And whereas it is desirable to make provision for the application of the General Property in so far as the Free Church is not or may not be in a position to carry out the Trusts thereof, and also to make provision as to the future ownership and right to the occupation and use of such other congregational and other properties and funds, and to obviate the necessity for further litigation:

And whereas enquiry is expedient:—

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge, discretion, and ability, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these Presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Victor Alexander, Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Alexander Smith, Baron Kinnear, and Sir Ralph William Anstruther to be Our Commissioners to enquire into all the facts connected with the said funds and properties, and to report as to whether any or what action should be taken thereon by legislation or otherwise.

And for the better enabling you, Our said Commissioners, to make the said enquiry, We do by these Presents authorize and empower you to call before you, or any two of you, such persons as you may judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the matters herein submitted for your consideration, and every matter connected therewith; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, papers, or records, as you shall judge likely to afford you the fullest information on the subject of this Our Commission; and to enquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do further by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any two of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals upon the matters referred to you as aforesaid, and that you may have power to certify to Us, from time to time, your several proceedings in respect of the matters aforesaid, if it may seem expedient to you so to do.

And We further will and command, and by these Presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our said Commissioners, or any two of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And for your assistance in the execution of these Presents, We do hereby nominate and appoint Our trusty and well-beloved Robert Alleyne Lee, Esq., Advocate, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, in the fourth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
A. Graham Murray.

Scottish Office, Whitehall,
December 19, 1904.

The Secretary for Scotland has issued a Commission to Sir John Cheyne, K.C., in the terms following:—

Whereas a Commission has been appointed under the Royal Sign Manual to enquire and report as to matters concerning the ordering of the properties General and Congregational held in connection with the Free Church of Scotland as it existed prior to the thirty-first day of October, 1900, and it is very desirable that, pending such investigation, litigation should be suspended and opportunities afforded for congregations to worship and provision made for the interim use and occupation of churches, mansees, mission halls, and other like properties: Now therefore I, the undersigned, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby appoint Sir John Cheyne, K.C., as Commissioner forthwith to examine into the circumstances connected with the actual occupation and use of the churches, mansees, mission halls, and other like properties connected with the Free Church of Scotland prior to the thirty-first day of October, 1900: and to determine, without prejudice to the eventual rights of parties, what should be the interim state of possession of the said properties until the whole matter is regulated by Act of Parliament or further determined by action at law; and I appoint James C. Pitman, Esq., Advocate, as Sub-Commissioner and Secretary, with power to hold such enquiries as Sir John Cheyne may direct.

Given under my hand and Seal at Whitehall, this seventeenth day of December, 1904.

To authorise the Corporation to construct and maintain, with all necessary and proper rails, plates, sleepers, works, and conveniences, the tramway hereinafter described in the parishes of Wavertree and West Derby, and the township or extra parochial place of Toxteth Park, all in the city of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, or some part or parts thereof, namely:—

A tramway (to be called Tramway No. 3) commencing in Hill-street, at its junction with Sefton-street, and passing along Hill-street and Upper Hill-street, crossing Princes-road, and continuing along Selborne-street and Beaumont-street, crossing Lodge-lane, and continuing along Earle-road, Lawrence-road, and Wellington-road, and terminating in Picton-road by a junction with Tramway No. 3 proposed to be authorised by a Provisional Order, for which application has been made to the Board of Trade under the short title of "The Liverpool Corporation Tramways Extensions Order 1905."

In the following instances the intended tramway will be so laid that for a distance of 30 feet or upwards a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpath on both sides of the streets or roads hereinafter mentioned, and the nearest rail of the tramway (that is to say):—

(a) In Wellington-road and Lawrence-road between a point in Wellington-road opposite the south side of Picton-road and a point in Lawrence-road 0·7 chain east of Whitman-street.

(b) In Earle-road between points respectively 0·6 chain and 3 chains east of Webster-road.

(c) In Selbourne-street on both sides between a point opposite the west side of Park-way and a point opposite the north-east side of Prince's avenue.

The said tramway is intended to be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, and it is not proposed to run on the said tramway carriages or trucks adapted for use on railways.

To extend and make applicable to the intended tramway all or some of the powers and provisions contained in the said Bill with reference to the tramways, which by the Bill the Corporation are seeking power to construct and maintain, including the power to acquire lands by compulsion or agreement, to work the tramway by mechanical power, to levy tolls, rates, and charges and all incidental powers.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or that may in any way interfere with any of the objects of the intended additional provision, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given that plans and sections of the intended tramway and plans of the lands proposed to be acquired or appropriated under the powers of the proposed additional provision, with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 21st day of December instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster at his office at Preston, and with the Town Clerk of the city of Liverpool at his office at the Municipal Buildings, Liverpool.

Dated this 19th day of December, 1904.

EDWARD R. PICKMERE, Municipal-buildings, Liverpool, Town Clerk.
