BOROUGH OF DERBY.

Tramway Bye-laws.

NOTICE is hereby given that the following Bye-laws were duly made at a Meeting of the Council of the Borough of Derby, held at the Guildhall, Derby, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of May, 1905.

Dated this 16th day of May, 1905.

G. TREVLYAN LEE,

Town Clerk.

Town Clerk's Office,
15, Tenant-street, Derby.

BOROUGH OF DERBY.

Derby Corporation Tramways.

BYE-LAWS made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, being the promoters of the Derby Corporation Tramways Undertaking, and the Local Authority, under and in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870, at a meeting of the Council of the said borough, held at the Guildhall, in the said borough, on the third day of May, 1905.

Interpretation.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the word "Corporation" means the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby; the word "tramways" means the tramway system worked by the Corporation whether situate within the borough of Derby or in any other district; the word "car" means any carriage or car run upon the tramways for the conveyance of passengers; the word "conductor" means any officer or servant of the Corporation having charge of or helping in the charge of a car; and the word "driver" means any officer or servant of the Corporation driving or helping to drive a car.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise unless so directed by the conductor. All persons desiring to alight from any car shall do so before any person enters or mounts upon such car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desiring to enter or mount upon the car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

3. No passenger shall smoke or carry a lighted pipe, or cigar, or cigarette, in or upon any car, except in the portion (if any) of such car set apart for the purpose.

4. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any car, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

5. No person in a state of intoxication, or affected with any dangerous, contagious, or infectious disorder or disease, shall enter or mount upon any car, nor shall any article, likely to spread any contagious or infectious disorder or disease, be placed by any person upon any car.

6. No person shall swear, or use obscene, or offensive, or abusive language whilst in or upon any car, or spit or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any car, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice in or on the car, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage a car. Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

8. No person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a car, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, nor any person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might, for any other reason be offensive to any passenger, shall be entitled to enter or mount upon or remain in or upon any car, and any such person may be prevented from entering or mounting upon any car. No such person shall enter or mount upon any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if any such person be found in or upon any car shall, on the request of the conductor, leave such car.

9. Each passenger shall on demand, or if not demanded, before leaving the car, pay to the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, the fare legally demandable for the journey, or for the stage thereof, for which it is demanded. Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

10. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do to the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, and shall also, when requested so to do by the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

11. No passenger shall wilfully alter or deface his ticket so as to render the number, or any material portion thereof, illegible, or shall use or attempt to use a ticket for any car or on any day for which such ticket is not available, or use or attempt to use a ticket which has been used on a previous journey.

12. A passenger, not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the tramways, shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

13. No passenger shall bring on to any car any luggage other than his own personal luggage.

14. No person other than the driver or conductor of a car, or a servant of the Corporation, in the performance of his duties, shall travel or ride upon the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or shall stand in any case on the outside, or except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, in the interior of any car. No person except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or mount upon any car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any car.

15. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided in such interior, no person beyond such number shall enter or mount upon or remain therein except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained.

When the car contains on the outside thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter or mount upon or remain thereon.

16. No person shall enter, or mount upon, or leave, or attempt to enter, or mount upon, or leave any car whilst such car is in motion.

17. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares they shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid, but shall have the right to complete their journey by the next available car. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter or mount upon a disabled or injured car.

18. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any car except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to any passenger. No person shall take a dog or other animal into or on any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any car shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the car immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request such dog or other animal may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

19. No person shall travel in or on any car with loaded firearms, or with any article, instrument, or implement, or any material or substance which may be dangerous or offensive to the passengers.

20. No person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car, or its equipment, or signal a car to start. Any person acting in contravention to this Bye-law shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

21. The person in charge of any vehicle standing or travelling on any part of the road so as not to leave sufficient space for a car to pass, shall, upon the driver of the car sounding his bell or whistle as a warning, cause such vehicle to be removed with reasonable dispatch so as not to obstruct the car. This Bye-law shall only apply to tramways within the borough of Derby.

22. No person shall in any way wilfully impede or interfere with the traffic on the tramways within the borough of Derby.

23. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any car within the borough of Derby, or obstruct or impede any conductor, driver, or other servant of the Corporation, acting in the performance of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway of the Corporation, whether within the borough of Derby or in any other district.

24. Every conductor and driver of a car shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these Bye-laws, and prevent any breach thereof.

25. There shall be placed, and kept placed, in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

26. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and for a continuing offence to a penalty not exceeding ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues. If any such offence or breach of any of these Bye-laws shall be committed by any person whilst on any car, such person shall be also liable to be immediately removed from the car, and any such person who shall have paid his fare shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of fare so paid.

27. From and after the date of these Bye-laws coming into force, the Bye-laws and Regulations made by the Derby Tramways Company Limited which came into force on the 10th day of July, 1880, and the Bye-laws and Regulations made by the Corporation on the 4th day of January, 1888, shall be repealed.

28. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the seventeenth day of July, 1905.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the within-named Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Derby, by the order and direction and at a meeting of the Council of the said borough, held on the 3rd day of May, 1905, in the presence of

W. H. BAILEY, Deputy Town Clerk.

No. 435.—CANADA—QUEBEC, RIVER ST. LAWRENCE.

Red Islet, and White Reef Light-vessels—Submarine Fog Bells Established

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, dated 4th April, 1905, that on the opening of navigation, the light-buoy marking Prince Shoal, Saguenay River entrance, situated at a distance of 3½ miles, N. 30° W. from Red Island light, would be replaced by a light-vessel exhibiting three fixed dioptric lights, as follows:—(1) A red light on the stay between the masts at an elevation of 49 feet above the sea; (2) a white light from the foremast at an elevation of 25 feet, and (3) a white light from the mainmast at an elevation of 31 feet above the sea; these lights should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 9 miles: the light-vessel, which is painted red, and marked "Prince Shoal" "No. 7," carries a red ball at the mainmast head; when out of position this ball is lowered.

During thick or foggy weather, a steam whistle will give one blast every minute, thus:—blast, twelve seconds; silent interval, forty-eight seconds.

A submarine bell has been established on board this light-vessel, which will be struck seven times (the light-vessel's number) every twenty-two seconds, each stroke being separated by an interval of two seconds, each group by an interval of ten seconds.

Approximate position, lat. 48° 6½' N., long. 69° 37' W.

Also, that submarine bells have been established on board the undermentioned light-vessels in addition to the fog whistle:—

a. Red Islet Bank.—The submarine bell on board this light-vessel will be struck three times in succession (the light-vessel's number) ever fourteen seconds, the interval between each stroke being two seconds, and between each group of strokes ten seconds.

Approximate position, lat.  $48^{\circ} 6\frac{1}{2}'$  N., long.  $69^{\circ} 29'$  W.

b. White Island Reef.—The submarine bell on board this light-vessel will be struck five times in succession (the vessel's number) every eighteen seconds, the intervals being two seconds between each stroke and ten seconds between each group of strokes.

Approximate position, lat.  $47^{\circ} 59'$  N., long.  $69^{\circ} 37\frac{1}{4}'$  W.

NOTE.—The above intervals may vary slightly in consequence of the uneven air or steam pressure used in production of the sound.

Mariners should listen for these fog bells below the water-line, and close to the hull of the vessel; if a receiving apparatus is fitted, the signal should be heard at a distance of about five miles, and its direction determined; where no such apparatus is found, the distance it should be heard would be from one to two miles according to draught and construction of the vessel.

Seamen are invited to report to this department whether these submarine bells are, or are not, heard when approaching these light-vessels in fog.

Outer Tistlarne—Intended Light and Fog Signal.

The Swedish Government has given notice, dated 19th April, 1905, that it is intended to establish a group occulting light, showing groups of two eclipses every ten seconds on Outer Tistlarne; it will show white from the bearing of  $N. 8^{\circ} W.$ , through north and east, to  $S. 62^{\circ} E.$ , and red in other directions. The light will be of the 2nd order.

A mechanical fog-horn giving, during thick or foggy weather, one blast of five seconds' duration every fifteen seconds, will also be established near the lighthouse.

Approximate position, lat.  $57^{\circ} 30\frac{3}{4}'$  N., long.  $11^{\circ} 43\frac{3}{4}'$  E.

[Variation  $9^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1905.]

Further notice will be given when information has been received that this light has been established.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Baltic, No. 2842a; The Kattegat, No. 2114; Nidingen to Hönö, No. 196. Also, List of Lights, Part III, 1905, page 25; and Baltic Pilot, Part I, 1904, page 68.

No. 437.—MEDITERRANEAN—MALTA,

APETITION has been presented to the Lords of Council and Session (Second Division, Mr. Campbell, Clerk), by JAMES THOMSON, sometime Tailor and Clothier, Edinburgh, now residing at Nymagee, New South Wales, with the consent and concurrence of Hugh Thomson, 24, Oluny-gardens, Edinburgh, as Mandatory and Factor and Commissioner for the said James Thomson, and also for his own interest in the premises, praying their Lordships, inter alia, to appoint a meeting of the creditors on the sequestrated estates of the said James Thomson, and of his firm of Thomson and Ross, Tailors and Clothiers, High-street, Edinburgh, to be held at such time and place as might be fixed by the Court, in order to their taking such action, if any, as in the circumstances they might be advised; and thereafter, in the event of the said creditors failing to meet, or failing to take any action in regard to the said sequestrated estates of the said James Thomson and his said firm of Thomson and Ross, upon resuming consideration of said Petition, and after such further inquiry, if any, as to their Lordships might seem necessary, to declare the sequestrations of the said James Thomson and of his said firm of Thomson and Ross, awarded by the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills on 27th January, 1862, to be at an end, and the said James Thomson reinvested in his estates; and to grant warrant for recording the deliverance so pronounced in the Register of Sequestrations and the Register of Inhibitions, upon which Petition their Lordships of the Second Division have been pleased to pronounce the following interlocutor:—

"Edinburgh, 16th May, 1905.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the walls and in the Minute book in common form, and to be advertised in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes; further appoint a meeting of the creditors on the sequestrated estates of James Thomson and his firm of Thomson and Ross, designed in the Petition, to be held on Friday, the 26th day of May next, at twelve o'clock noon, in Dowell's Rooms, George-street, Edinburgh, in order to their taking such action, if any, as they may be advised.

"J. H. A. MACDONALD, I.P.D."

Of all which intimation is hereby given in terms of said interlocutor.

To HENRY DIOGENES JEFFRIES, formerly of 85, Finsbury-pavement, in the county of London.

TAKE notice, that on the 4th day of April, 1905, a Writ of Summons was issued in the action of Peggs and Lee v. Jeffries and Felgate, 1905, P. 694, which claimed:—1. A declaration that an indenture of mortgage, dated the 7th day of March, 1887, and made between the defendant Henry Diogenes Jeffries of the one part, and the plaintiff George Henry Peggs and James Charles Hunter of the other part, constitutes a first charge upon the leasehold premises Nos. 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, and 11, Narrow-street, Limehouse, in the county of Middlesex, and other the property comprised therein. 2. To have an account taken of what is due to the plaintiffs for principal, interest and costs on the said mortgage and an indenture of transfer, dated the 24th day of December, 1887, and made between the plaintiff George Henry Peggs and the said James Charles Hunter of the one part and the plaintiffs of the other part. 3. Payment by the defendant Henry Diogenes Jeffries. 4. To have the said mortgage enforced by foreclosure or sale. 5. A receiver. The defendant, Percy St. George Felgate, who as legal personal representative of George Beverley Wyatt Digby, deceased, claims to be entitled to a charge upon the said leasehold premises and property, is sued as such legal personal representative. And take notice, that by an Order of Mr. Justice Kekewich dated the 3rd day of May, 1905, it was ordered that the publication by advertisement in this form of the said Writ of Summons and of the said Order once in the London Gazette and twice in the Times and twice in the Daily Chronicle at intervals of a week each should be deemed good service of the said Writ of Summons upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, London, within eight days after the last publication of such advertisements the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and Judgment may be given in your absence.—Dated this 17th day of May, 1905.
