At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Chad, situate at Longsdon, within the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek, and of the parish of Leek, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such consolidated chapelry and parish.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek, and of the said parish of Leek, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Chad, situate at Longsdon as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield, as such Bishop, and as the patron (in right of his See) as well of the vicarage of the said parish of Leek, as of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek, and of the said parish of Leek, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Chad, situate at Longsdon as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad, Longsdon.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad, Longsdon, comprising all those contiguous portions of the consolidated chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek, and of the parish of Leek, both in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which taken together are comprised within and are co-extensive with the limits of the civil parish of Longsdon.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.
