And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Blackawton, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Blackawton is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Thomas Francis Boulton, Clerk in Holy Orders, now Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of Loddiswell, in the said county of Devon.

"And whereas the said Thomas Francis Boulton is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Blackawton now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Exeter.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Archibald, now Bishop of Exeter, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, has executed this scheme as hereinbefore mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Blackawton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinbefore recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Blackawton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Thomas Francis Boulton (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Blackawton now vested in him, the said Thomas Francis Boulton as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized in that behalf by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and further on His Majesty's behalf, by and with the like advice, doth hereby direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

And whereas the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Saint David's, hath represented in a writing dated the twenty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Saint David's, do, in pursuance of the Pluralities Act, 1838, hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Pembroke and my diocese of Saint David's the vicarage of Saint David's which is a distinct and separate civil parish defined by well-known metes and bounds and having a population that by the census of one thousand nine hundred and one amounted to one thousand seven hundred and thirty-nine.

"That there is also in the same county of Pembroke and my diocese of Saint David's the vicarage of Llanhowell, which is also a separate and distinct civil parish defined by well-known metes and bounds adjoining the said parish of Saint David's, and has a population that by the census of one thousand nine hundred and one amounted to one hundred.

"That there is in the said parish of Saint David's a consecrated church or chapel of ease known as the church of Saint James the Great Carnhedryn.

"That the benefice of Saint David's is now held by the Reverend David James Jones, and has a vicarage house or residence.

"That the benefice of Llanhowell is now vacant, and has also a vicarage house or residence.

advantageously separated from the said parish of Saint David's and annexed to the said adjoining parish of Llanhowell for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants of the said parish of Saint David's have any right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any of the pews or sittings in the said church or chapel of ease of Saint James the Great Carnhedryn, nor does it appear that any of the inhabitants of the portion of the parish of Saint David's so proposed to be separated from that parish have any such right to the exclusive use of any of the pews or sittings in the cathedral or parish church of Saint David's.

"That it is proposed that the said church of Saint James the Great Carnhedryn should cease to be a chapel of ease to the parish of Saint David's and should become a chapel of ease to the parish of Llanhowell.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rentcharges and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint David's the patrons of the said vicarages of Saint David's and Llanhowell and of the Reverend David James Jones, clerk, vicar of the said vicarage of Saint David's in order that your Grace may if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to His Majesty in Council.

"J. St. David's."

Saint David's to Llanrhian at a point where such lane ends in such road, then along the said road in a north-easterly direction for a distance of about one hundred yards to a gateway on the east side of such road where the gateway leads into Dowrog-road and from such gateway along the Dowrog-road first south-east, then south, then south-east again and then east passing Drws-gobaith, thence south-east by a winding road into the main road leading from Saint David's to Letterston and from the point where the Dowrog-road runs into the main road, along such main road towards Saint David's for a distance of one hundred and fifty yards, more or less, to a gateway on the south-east side of the road, which gateway leads into a very narrow lane called Feidrlas, first south-east then north-east for a distance of sixty yards or thereabouts to a point in the south side of the said lane where a hedge runs due south and then south-east crossing a hedge and then south into the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint David's from the parish of Whitchurch at a point where the said boundary between the said two parishes of Saint David's and Whitchurch is drawn to the north of the moor known as Waun Llandruidion.

"That the said parish of Llanhowell so enlarged shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish was subject to before being so enlarged.

"That the church or chapel of ease known as the church of Saint James the Great Carnhedryn which is now a chapel of ease to the said parish of Saint David's and is situate together with the yard or enclosure surrounding the same in that portion of the said parish of Saint David's which is to be separated therefrom and marked "Saint James's Church" on the said map or plan shall cease to be a chapel of ease to the said parish of Saint David's to all intents and purposes and shall be a chapel of ease to the said parish of Llanhowell.

"That the endowment of the said benefice of Llanhowell so enlarged as aforesaid shall consist of the present endowment of such benefice.

"That marriages in respect of the inhabitants of the said portion of the parish of Saint David's so to be separated from that parish and united to the said parish of Llanhowell shall hereafter be performed in the parish church of Llanhowell and that the fees for all such marriages usually payable to the Incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Llanhowell.

"That baptisms churchings and burials in respect of the inhabitants of the said portion of the parish of Saint David's so to be separated from that parish and united to the said parish of Llanhowell shall hereafter be performed either in the parish church of Llanhowell or in the said church or chapel of ease known as Saint James the Great Carnhedryn and that the fees for all such offices in relation thereto usually payable to the Incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Llanhowell.

"That the Incumbent of the said parish of Llanhowell shall also have cure of souls within the limits of the said portion so to be united to such parish as part of his parish.

"That the right of patronage or presentation to the said benefice of Llanhowell shall remain as heretofore.

"That the inhabitants of the said portion of the parish of Saint David's so to be separated therefrom and united to the said parish of Llanhowell shall be exonerated from all liability (if any such now exists) to repair the cathedral church of Saint David's or any other church or chapel now or hereafter to be erected in the said parish of Saint David's.

"CONSENTS.

"We, the Very Reverend James Allan Smith, Dean or Precentor of the cathedral church of Saint David's, and the members of the chapter of such cathedral church being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the benefice of Saint David's, in the diocese of Saint David's, and county of Pembroke, in case the same were now vacant, and also entitled to present to the benefice of Llanhowell, in the same county and diocese, the same being now vacant.

"And the Reverend David James Jones, Clerk, Vicar of the said vicarage of Saint David's.

"Do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our consent to the scheme now proposed for separating the said portion of the parish of Saint David's from that parish and uniting the same to the adjoining parish of Llanhowell for ecclesiastical purposes.

"As witness the seal of the said Dean and Chapter, and the hand of the said David James Jones this twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six.

"David James Jones."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the twenty-second September, one thousand nine hundred and six, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that a certain portion or district of the said parish of Saint David's (the boundaries whereof are more particularly described in the scheme hereunto annexed and delineated in the plan also hereunto annexed being thereon edged with pink) may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Saint David's and annexed to the said parish of Llanhowell for ecclesiastical purposes only under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint David's the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said benefice of Saint David's in case the same were now vacant, and also to the said benefice of Llanhowell, the same being now vacant, and
