It may determine, as required, the procedure to be followed, reducing it to the minimum consistent with the proper administration of justice.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO LAND.

ARTICLE XXII.

Land Suits between Non-natives and Natives.

(1.) In land suits, the rights of non-natives may be proved either by occupation or by title-deeds establishing the sale or grant of the land in question.

(2.) When occupation is made the sole ground of a claim to ownership, visible and material proofs must be forthcoming, such as buildings, plantations, cultivation, cattle-rearing, improvements, clearing, or fencing. Occupation must be bonâ fide, and have been continuous during three years at least.

(3.) When the claim to a property is based on a title-deed coupled with occupation, the Court shall endeavour to ascertain whether the holder of the title-deed has substantially asserted his occupation by material acts showing that he has taken possession, such as : improvement of the land in any manner, even in part ; construction of roads, bridges, or paths ; surveys ; delimitation ; erection of sign-posts to mark boundaries ; habitual enjoyment of the produce ; or other acts proving open exercise of the right of ownership. The Court shall decide how far these acts can be held to cover the whole extent of the property in dispute, and shall confirm the claim in whole or in part accordingly.

(4.) When the claim to a property is founded on a title-deed alone, and this title-deed has been either lodged in a notary's office or registered in New Caledonia, Fiji, or the New Hebrides, at a date subsequent to the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, or else, on a title-deed which, whatever its date, has not been lodged in a notary's office or registered, this title-deed can only be rendered void if it is proved :—

(a.) That the agreement is not signed by the vendor or grantor, or by some person duly authorized by him, or that if the vendor or grantor did not know how to write or was incapable of signing, the agreement is not attested by two witnesses or in some other manner that establishes its authenticity according to English or French law ;

(b.) That the vendor or grantor did not understand the effect of the agreement ;

(c.) That the agreement was obtained by fraud, violence, or other improper means ;

(d.) That the terms and conditions of the agreement have not been fulfilled ;

(e.) That the land sold was not the land of the vendor or grantor or his tribe.

If the Court finds that the rights of the vendor or grantor extended only to part of the land in dispute, it may recognize the sale or grant to the extent of such part, and fix the boundaries thereof.

(5.) When the title-deed establishing the sale or grant of the land in dispute has been either lodged in a notary's office or registered in New Caledonia, Fiji, or the New Hebrides, at a date prior to the first January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

(A.) The right of action cannot be admitted :

(a.) Unless the claimant can prove, according as he acts in his own name or in his own personal interests or as Chief of his tribe and in its interests, that he or his tribe have a present right to the occupation of the land in dispute, and that this right would be infringed. If this right extends to part only of the property in dispute, the Court shall only entertain the action as to this part, if necessary, fixing the boundaries thereof ;

(b.) If it is proved that prior to the first January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, a transaction took place indicating that the title-deed applied to a property held lawfully and in good faith ; in particular, if it has been conveyed regularly and in good faith between non-natives for valuable consideration in accordance with the regulations and forms prescribed by the law of civilized peoples.

If in such a case the Court should, nevertheless, consider that the rights of the native claimant or his tribe would be infringed, it may, while confirming the title, order the payment of reasonable compensation to the said native party, or may reserve a portion of the land for this party in conformity with the general declaration contained in Article XXIV hereafter.

(B.) When the right of action is admitted, and the case is considered on the merits, the title-deed can only be invalidated if it is proved :

(b.) That the agreement was obtained by fraud, violence, or other improper means ;

(c.) That the land granted or sold was not the land of the vendor or grantor or his tribe.

If the Court finds that the rights of the vendor or grantor or his tribe extended only to a part of the land in dispute, it may recognize the sale or grant to the extent of that part, and fix the boundaries thereof. The Court may, in any case except where bad faith has been proved on the part of the grantee, confirm the title to the whole or part of the property, subject to the reservation for the native claimants, if the circumstances require it, of sufficient land for their needs, and the determination of the rights of way or other easements to be secured to them over the whole property.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Land Suits between Non-natives.

(1.) When no question arises as to the original land transaction with the natives, the Court shall be bound by the laws of the defendant's country.

(2.) Whenever questions do arise as to the original transaction with the native, the Regulations laid down in Article XXII shall be observed by the Court in all that concerns that transaction.

In cases covered by the same Article (5 (A), (b), 2nd paragraph) the Court shall indicate, if necessary, by which of the non-native litigants the payment of compensation is due.

(3.) When the Court, upon the evidence before it, considers that it cannot decide the questions that arise as to the original transaction with the natives—as, for instance, when it is confronted with two or more title-deeds, neither of which it is able to confirm as giving a good title—the Court shall decide according to the circumstances of the case, due regard being paid to priority of title.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Provisions common to all Land Suits.

(1.) In cases where land acquired in good faith has been improved or cultivated on the strength of a title which is found to be defective, this title may be confirmed in whole or in part upon the payment by the occupier to the person or persons entitled thereto of an indemnity, the amount of which shall be determined by the Court.

(2.) If the Court considers it necessary to decree the eviction of a bonâ fide occupier, it may order the payment of reasonable compensation to him.

(3.) Whenever it shall consider it necessary, the Court may assign to native claimants reserves of land in proportion to their requirements, and may determine the easements necessary to secure to them the full enjoyment of these reserves.

(4.) An occupier or holder of a title-deed who has been evicted shall, in the case of subsequent sale or grant of land and unless his bad faith has been established, enjoy a prior claim to the repurchase of the property from which he has been evicted. If the owner and the occupier or holder of a title-deed who has been evicted should disagree as to the amount to be fixed as the price of repurchase, the Court shall determine the amount. If there are several evicted persons claiming to exercise the prior right above specified, the Court shall fix, according to the facts of the case, the order in which these persons shall be entitled to exercise this right.

(5.) When a title-deed to a disputed property does not contain an adequate description of the land, the Court shall investigate and determine the situation and boundaries thereof.

(6.) It shall be the first duty of the Court, in all land suits, to endeavour to effect an amicable arrangement between the litigants.

(7.) Generally, the Court shall, in its decisions, pay due regard to the interests of the native populations and those of the non-native purchasers whose bad faith has not been established.

ARTICLE XXV.

Entry of Judgments.

(1.) When the Court, in conformity with the above regulations, shall have decided that a claim is valid, its decision shall be entered in a land register.

This entry shall declare :

(A.) The situation, extent, and boundaries of the land in question ;

(B.) The nature of the rights granted, and any limitations thereof.

(2.) A copy of the entry shall constitute a conclusive title to land.

ARTICLE XXVI.

Registration of Titles.

(1.) Any person may, though no dispute exists, require the Court to enter in the above-mentioned register a title-deed in his favour, and may obtain a copy thereof duly certified.

(2.) The Court shall cause the applications for registration to be published in the prescribed form. They shall be complied with and given effect to unless, within a period of one year from the date of their publication, they have been opposed. In case of opposition, the Court shall deal with them in accordance with the provisions of Articles XXII, XXIII, and XXIV above, and action must be taken by the objector before the Court within six months, or his claim will be barred.

(3.) Copies of the entries in the register issued in accordance with the above provisions shall constitute title-deeds transferable by way of endorsement. No subsequent charge on or transfer of property shall affect the land unless and until it is entered in the register and inscribed on the copy issued.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Sales and Grants of Land subsequent to the Convention.

(1.) From the date when the present Convention comes into operation, no sale or grant of land by a native to a non-native shall be valid, except on the following conditions :—

(2.) The sale or grant shall be effected by a written document, and shall take place in the presence of four witnesses, two of whom shall be natives, and of an officer or agent of one of the two Signatory Powers, or some other person duly authorized for the purpose, either by the President of the Joint Court or by the High Commissioners or their Delegates acting in concert.

(3.) The officer, agent, or person duly authorized shall testify to the presence and qualification of the witnesses, shall ascertain that the vendor or grantor was a free agent, understood the effect of his act, received the price or consideration agreed on, and was satisfied therewith, shall state these facts on the title-deed ; shall mention in it the situation and boundaries of the land ; and shall date and sign it, at the same time as the parties and witnesses capable of signing.

(4.) The purchaser or grantee shall, within six months from the date of the deed, make an application to the Joint Court for registration. This application shall be dealt with in accordance with Article XXVI of the present Convention.

(5.) If the Court considers that the price or consideration mentioned in the deed is manifestly inadequate, having regard to the importance of the land granted or sold, it may, as a preliminary to registration, order the payment of a larger sum or a further consideration.

(6.) In the event of the grantee failing to comply with the decision of the Court within six months from the date of such decision, the sale shall be cancelled in toto, and the sum of money or the consideration received by the native restored.

(7.) If the native is unable to restore such sum, the Court shall decide how much of the property represents the sum or consideration received by the native, and shall confirm the grantee in possession of such part.

(8.) Whenever the High Commissioners or their Delegates jointly consider that the amount of land acquired from the natives in one of the islands of the Group is so great that the land remaining undisposed of is indispensable for the needs of the natives, they may prohibit any new sale or grant of land in such island to non-natives.

(9.) Land reserved for the natives, either by the Joint Court, in accordance with Article XXIV of this Convention, or by the High Commissioners or their Delegates, under the preceding paragraph, may not be sold or granted to non-natives so long as the authority by whom the reserve was constituted does not cancel or modify its decision.

(2.) Each High Commissioner shall prescribe the regulations affecting the navigation in the Group of the vessels sailing under the flag of the Power which he represents.

(3.) The High Commissioners, the Resident Commissioners, and the persons appointed for the purpose shall, with regard to vessels sailing in the Group under the flag of the Power which they represent, exercise respectively the supervision, protection, and policing necessary to insure the carrying out of these regulations without prejudice to the rights to which the vessels of that Power are legally entitled.

ARTICLE XXIX.

Vessels not registered in the Group.

The present Convention shall not affect the rules laid down by the respective laws and regulations of the Power under whose flag the vessel sails, in the case of any vessel registered outside the Group.

ARTICLE XXX.

General Rules for all Vessels.

(1.) The High Commissioners shall jointly prescribe general rules applicable to all vessels, with regard to the conditions under which these vessels may use the ports and harbours of the Group.

(2.) They shall jointly enforce these rules, either personally or through their Delegates.

RECRUITMENT OF NATIVE LABOURERS.

ARTICLE XXXI.

Recruiting Licence.

(1.) No vessel shall recruit native labourers in the New Hebrides, including the Banks and Torres Islands, unless she sails under the flag of one of the two Signatory Powers, and unless she is provided with a recruiting licence issued by the High Commissioner representing the Signatory Power under whose flag the vessel is sailing, or by his Delegate.

(2.) In the case of professional recruiters, the recruiting licence shall only be issued on the deposit of eighty pounds as security, with the agent appointed by the High Commissioner, whose duty it will be to issue the recruiting licence, or by his Delegate.

(3.) The High Commissioners shall inform one another every month of the recruiting licences which they have issued. The same rule shall apply to their Delegates.

(4.) The recruiting licences shall be valid for one year only.

ARTICLE XXXII.

Register of Engagements.

All masters of recruiting vessels shall keep a register of engagements, in which there shall be entered without delay the name, sex, identification marks, the name of the tribe, place of recruiting, and place of destination of every native recruited, the name of the employer, the length of the engagement, the sum agreed on by way of premium and wages, and the amount of the advance paid to the native at the time of engagement.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

Engagement of Women and Children.

(1.) Women shall only be engaged:—

If they are married, with the consent of their husbands;

If they are unmarried, with the consent of the Head of the tribe.

(2.) Children shall only be engaged if they are of a certain minimum height, to be fixed by the Resident Commissioners jointly.

ARTICLE XXXIV.

Length of Engagements.

(1.) No engagements shall be concluded for more than three years.

(2.) They shall date from the day the labourer lands in the island where he is to be employed, but the time spent on board ship by the labourer shall count for wages.

ARTICLE XXXV.

Deaths on Board Recruiting Vessels.

(1.) A report in duplicate on every death occurring on board a recruiting vessel shall be drawn up immediately by the master. Such report shall describe the circumstances under which the death occurred.

(2.) Within twenty-four hours an inventory in duplicate shall also be drawn up of the effects left on board by the deceased. The amount of the wages to which the labourer is entitled from the day of engagement to the day of his death shall be stated in this inventory.

(3.) The master shall, on arrival, transmit to the competent authority a copy of the report and the inventory, as well as the objects and articles of value belonging to the deceased, and the premium and wages to which he was entitled.

The second copy of the report and the inventory shall be annexed to the register of engagements.

ARTICLE XXXVI.

Sickness of Labourers on Landing.

Every native recruited who, on landing, is found to be in such a state of health as to incapacitate him for the work for which he was engaged, shall be cared for at the expense of the recruiter, and the time spent in hospital and the time during which he is unable to work shall be included in the term of engagement.

ARTICLE XXXVII.

Delivery of Labourers to their Employers.

A recruiter who is acting as an agent for other persons cannot divest himself of his responsibility for the natives whom he has engaged until the signature of the employer has been affixed to the register of engagements opposite the name of the labourer.

ARTICLE XXXVIII.

Submission of Registers of Engagements on Arrival.

(1.) Within twenty-four hours of their arrival, all masters of recruiting vessels shall be obliged to present their register of engagements for signature by the competent person.

(2.) If irregularities are detected in the operations of the recruiter or in the keeping of the register of engagements, an official report shall be immediately drawn up by the person to whom the register has been submitted. This report shall be sent without delay to the competent authority.

The same course shall be followed if the register is not produced within the prescribed period.

ARTICLE XXXIX.

Notification of Engagements.

(1.) Every engagement of a native labourer shall be notified by his employer within three days from the date of landing.

The notification shall be made to the Resident Commissioner, to whose jurisdiction the employer is subject, or to the person appointed for the purpose.

(2.) The notification shall be registered, and the contract shall be signed by the Resident Commissioner, or by the person appointed for the purpose.

(3.) The two Resident Commissioners shall communicate to each other every month a list of the notifications of engagements received by them, or by the persons appointed for the purpose.

ARTICLE XL.

Re-engagement.

(1.) At the termination of the period of his engagement the labourer shall not enter into a fresh engagement—if he has not been previously sent home—without an authority in writing from the Resident Commissioner entitled to receive the notification of engagement, or from the person appointed for the purpose.

(2.) The authority shall only be given after the native has been examined in the presence of the employer, two non-native witnesses, and two witnesses, selected as far as possible from the same tribe as the labourer, and if the latter, of his own free will, declares that he wishes to re-engage.

(3.) No re-engagement shall exceed the term of one year. It shall be renewable on the same conditions.

ARTICLE XLI.

Records of Engagements.

(1.) Every employer shall keep posted up to date a separate record for each labourer in his service.

(2.) There shall be entered in this record the name and sex of the labourer, the identification marks, the name of the tribe, the place and date of recruiting, the name of the recruiter, the name of the vessel, and the duration and conditions of his engagement, as stipulated in the contract.

The days of absence from work on account of illness shall be entered by the employer in the record, and also any other days of absence.

ARTICLE XLII.

Additional Periods of Work.

(1.) Time lost through absence without good cause shall be added to the term of the engagement.

(2.) A labourer may further be retained after his term of engagement expires as a punishment for breaches of discipline to which he has been duly sentenced. In such case, the additional period of labour shall not exceed two months for each year of engagement.

ARTICLE XLIII.

Transfer of Engagements.

(1.) No transfer of a contract of engagement shall be permitted unless freely accepted by the labourer and authorized by the Resident Commissioner entitled to receive the notification of engagement, or by the person appointed for the purpose.

(2.) If the transfer is between British subjects or French citizens, the authority shall be jointly given by the two Resident Commissioners.

ARTICLE XLIV.

Duties of Employers.

(1.) Employers must treat their labourers with kindness. They shall refrain from all violence towards them.

(2.) They must supply them with sufficient food, according to the custom of the country, including rice, at least once a day, as part of their meals.

The Resident Commissioners shall fix jointly the amount of rice to be supplied to the labourers.

(3.) Employers must further provide their labourers with adequate shelter, the necessary clothing, and medical care in case of illness.

ARTICLE XLV.

Working Hours.

(1.) Labourers shall not be obliged to work except between sunrise and sunset.

(2.) They shall have daily, at the time of their mid-day meal, at least one clear hour of rest.

(3.) Except for domestic duties and the care of animals, labourers shall not be obliged to work on Sundays.

ARTICLE XLVI.

Payment of Wages.

(1.) Wages shall be paid exclusively in cash.

(2.) Payment shall be made, either before a person appointed for the purpose by the Resident Commissioner entitled to receive the notification of engagement, or, failing this, in the presence of two non-native witnesses, who shall certify the payment in the record above referred to by affixing their signatures by the side of that of the employer.

(3.) When it is obviously impossible for an employer to make use of this method of verification, he shall himself be authorized by the competent Resident Commissioner, or by the person appointed for the purpose, to enter the payment of the wages in the record.

(4.) Whenever the record does not show the rate of wages agreed upon at the time of the engagement, the rate shall be taken to be ten shillings a-month, and the employer shall not be allowed to produce evidence to show that a lower rate had been agreed upon.

ARTICLE XLVII.

Deposit of Wages.

(1.) Part of the wages may be deposited by the employers with the Resident Commissioner entitled to receive the notification of engagement, or the person appointed for the purpose, to be paid subsequently to the labourer, either during the term of engagement or at the expiration of such term, according as he desires.

The free consent of the labourer must be given before any part of his wages can be so dealt with.

(2.) The Resident Commissioner or the person appointed for the purpose may at any time order the retention and deposit of part of a labourer's salary.

ARTICLE XLVIII.

Punishments.

Any labourer who has given his employer just cause of complaint in respect of his conduct or work may, at the instance of his employer, be punished by the Resident Commissioner concerned or the person appointed for the purpose, by the imposition of extra work, by a fine, by prolongation of the term of engagement, within the limits provided in Article XLII, or by a summary punishment not exceeding one month's imprisonment.

ARTICLE XLIX.

Absence without good Cause.

(1.) Any labourer who without permission leaves his employer shall be liable in like manner to one of the summary punishments prescribed by the preceding Article, and shall be sent back to his employer to finish his term of engagement.

(2.) No one shall receive or employ or take on board any vessel a labourer who has left his employer without permission.

ARTICLE L.

Death during Engagement.

In the event of the death of a labourer, the employer shall be subject to the same obligations as those imposed by Article XXXV on masters of recruiting vessels.

ARTICLE LI.

Repatriation.

(1.) Every labourer who has completed his term of engagement shall be returned to his home at the first convenient opportunity by and at the expense of his employer.

(2.) Such labourer shall be taken back to the place where he was recruited, or, if this is impossible, to the nearest place thereto, from which the labourer can without danger rejoin his tribe.

(3.) In the case of unjustifiable delay exceeding one month in returning a labourer, the Resident Commissioner concerned, or the person appointed for the purpose, shall provide, at the expense of the employer, for the return of the labourer to his home at the earliest opportunity.

(4.) In case of persistent ill-treatment of a labourer, the Resident Commissioner concerned shall have the right, after two written warnings addressed to the employer, to cancel the contract and provide for the return home of the labourer at the employer's expense.

(5.) The Resident Commissioner concerned may in like manner cancel the contract and return a labourer to his home if the labourer did not freely consent to the engagement, or if he did not clearly understand and freely accept the terms of the engagement. In that case the expenses of returning him to his home shall be borne by the recruiter.

ARTICLE LII.

Register of Repatriation.

(1.) The names of labourers returned to their homes shall be entered on a register kept by the master of the vessel, in a similar form to that prescribed by Article XXXII, for keeping the register of engagements.

(2.) The signature of the employer upon the register shall prove that the labourer who is to be returned to his home has been handed over to the master of the vessel.

(3.) The master shall enter in the register the date when the native so to be returned to his home was put on shore, and shall mention the exact spot where he was landed.

(4.) The rules prescribed by Article XXXVIII with regard to the submission and signature of the register of engagements shall be applicable to the register of repatriation.

ARTICLE LIII.

In the event of the death of a labourer occurring during the return passage, the master of the vessel shall proceed as prescribed by Article XXXV.

ARTICLE LIV.

Powers of Control.

(1.) The High Commissioners, the Resident Commissioners, and the persons appointed by them for the purpose, shall have, with regard to their respective nationals, the right to employ any method of inquiry which may be necessary to ensure, as far as the recruiting and engagement of native labourers are concerned, the execution of the present Convention.

Employers shall be bound, for this purpose, to produce any labourer at the request of the competent authority.

(2.) A report shall be drawn up with regard to any irregularity or breach of regulations which may be discovered, and shall be forwarded without delay to the competent authority. The report shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

ARTICLE LV.

Short Engagements and Employment of Native Labourers without Engagement.

(1.) Non-natives may employ natives without restriction provided that they are not engaged for more than three months, with the option of renewal, and provided they are not removed to an island more than ten miles from the island of their tribe.

(2.) They may, in any case, employ without restriction natives who are known to have served non-natives for at least five years, and who are familiar with a European language or the vernacular in use between non-natives and natives.

ARTICLE LVI.

Penalties.

(1.) Any infringement by non-natives of the terms of the present Convention regarding the recruiting and engagement of native labourers shall be punishable by a fine of from four shillings to twenty pounds and by imprisonment of from one day to one month, or by either of the above penalties.

(2.) Damages may also be awarded to labourers for any injury suffered by them.

(3.) The Joint Court shall inflict the penalties and assess the damages.

(4.) In the event of conviction on a serious charge, or for a second offence, the recruiting licence, as well as the right of engaging labourers, may be withdrawn for a period not exceeding two years by the High Commissioner for the country to which the recruiter or employer belongs.

(3.) Any officer or agent of the police force holding an authority to that effect, who finds a native in possession of a prohibited weapon, or in a state of intoxication in a public place, shall arrest him and, after inquiry into the circumstances of the offence, shall draw up an official report for the information of the High Commissioners or their Delegates.

If the offence is proved, the native shall be punished by the Resident Commissioner having authority over the member of the police force making the arrest, or by the person appointed for the purpose, and the non-native suspected of complicity shall be prosecuted before the Joint Court.

(4.) Members of the police force shall not enter the house or premises of a non-native without his consent except as provided in the rules of procedure issued by the Joint Court, or the Regulations issued by the authority having jurisdiction over him.

PART II.

SIR EDWARD GREY TO M. GEOFFRAY.

*Foreign Office,
August 29, 1907.*

M. le Ministre,

The British Delegates on the Anglo-French Commission which met in London in May last to discuss the arrangements to be made under Article X, section 4, of the Convention of the twentieth October, one thousand nine hundred and six, respecting the New Hebrides, have submitted the results of their discussions to His Majesty's Government.

I have now the honour to inform you that His Majesty's Government approve the recommendations of the Commission, and I am glad at the same time to be able to record my appreciation of the conciliatory spirit in which its discussions were carried on.

His Majesty's Government concur fully in the Regulations drawn up in order to give effect to Article X (4) of the New Hebrides Convention, which are annexed hereto (Annex 1). These Regulations will be considered as forming part of the aforesaid Article X, and will be promulgated simultaneously with that Article.

In accordance with recommendations made after semi-official discussions between the Representatives of the two Governments, His Majesty's Government will instruct the British High Commissioner to omit from the text of the Convention to be published and made binding on British subjects in the Group the following words which occur in Article LI (4), "after two written warnings addressed to the employer" provided that the French Government deal similarly with the corresponding words in the French text, "après deux avertissements donnés par écrit à l'engagiste."

His Majesty's Government will authorize the British High Commissioner to postpone, with the concurrence of the French High Commissioner, the promulgation of Articles IX (2), XI to XIX inclusive, XXI to XXVII inclusive, LVI (3), LX (3 and 4), and LXI (2) until the Judges of the Joint Court have entered upon their duties in the Group.

British subjects, guilty of infringing the provisions of the Convention or the Regulations which the High Commissioners may make in order to give effect to them, will, for the time being, be prosecuted in accordance with Article XX and with the provisions previously in force before the British judicial authority, it being understood that the French Government will deal in a similar manner with French citizens.

His Majesty's Government take this opportunity to place on record the fact that the words "land suits" and "litiges immobiliers," which form the subject of provisions in Article XXII and following Articles of the Convention, include suits with regard to mines, minerals, and everything under the surface of the soil.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) E. GREY.

JOINT REGULATIONS RESPECTING SALARIES, &c., OF MEMBERS OF THE JOINT COURT IN THE NEW HEBRIDES.

The Undersigned, Louis Mallet, Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath; Frederick Fitchett, Doctor of Laws, Solicitor-General for New Zealand; Jean Weber, Sous-Chef de Bureau at the Ministry for the Colonies; Le Comte de Manneville, First Secretary French Embassy in London, delegated respectively by the Government of His Britannic Majesty and the Government of the French Republic in order to draw up, in conformity with paragraph 4 of Article X of the Convention respecting the New Hebrides, signed in London the twentieth October, one thousand nine hundred and six, arrangements as to the salaries, travelling allowances, leave, acting appointments, and in general all matters relating to the working of the Joint Court, have agreed to the following provisions, which they have resolved to submit to the approval of their respective Governments :—

They shall further be entitled to half-pay from the date of embarkation and to full pay from the date of arrival in the New Hebrides. Similar allowances shall be granted on the ultimate return home of those officers, upon determination of their appointments for any other reason than misconduct, provided they have served not less than three years or return home on the ground of ill-health.

They shall also, when travelling in the Group in the performance of their official duties, receive actual expenses of transport, together with one pound subsistence allowance for each night on land and five shillings for each night at sea.

III.—LEAVE.

Subject to the consent of the two High Commissioners, the officers mentioned in Article II may be granted leave on half-pay up to one-sixth of their resident service; but in the absence of special ground such leave shall not be granted before the completion of three years' service in the New Hebrides, nor thereafter at less than yearly intervals, nor for more than twelve months at any one time.

When the leave taken is not less than six months, the officers shall be entitled to a free passage to their own country and back.

IV.—AGE LIMIT.

Except in special cases, and with the express consent of the two High Commissioners, retirement shall be compulsory at the age of sixty.

V.—PENSIONS.

No member or officer of the Joint Court shall be entitled to a pension from New Hebrides funds.

In the absence or incapacity of the Public Prosecutor the Registrar shall act for him. In view of this provision, the Registrar shall not be either a British subject or a French citizen, and must possess the necessary legal qualifications.

In the absence or incapacity of the Registrar, the President shall appoint a suitable substitute irrespective of nationality.

Officers, while holding acting appointments, shall, if they are already on the staff of the Joint Court, receive a salary equal to half the combined salaries of their own post and of the officer for whom they are acting. If not members of the staff of the Joint Court when appointed, they shall be entitled to the same emoluments as the person for whom they are acting would have received.

VII.—BUSINESS OF THE JOINT COURT AND POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT.

All arrangements for the sittings of the Joint Court and the conduct of its business shall be made by the President.

The Registrar and staff of the Joint Court shall be under the control of the President, but their appointment shall not be revocable by him except with the concurrence of the two Resident Commissioners.

VIII.—GENERAL.

Subject to the approval of the two Governments, the two High Commissioners shall arrange jointly for all matters relating to the Joint Court not covered by the preceding Regulations.

Done in duplicate at London, the seventeenth May, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

M. GEOFFRAY TO SIR EDWARD GREY:

Ambassade de France, Londres, le 29 Août, 1907.

M. le Secrétaire d'Etat,

Les Délégués Français à la Commission Franco-Britannique qui s'est réunie à Londres au mois de Mai dernier pour discuter les arrangements à faire en exécution de l'Article X, paragraphe 4, de la Convention du 20 Octobre, 1906, relative aux Nouvelles-Hébrides ont soumis à M. le Ministre des Colonies les résultats de leurs travaux. Je suis aujourd'hui chargé de faire savoir à votre Excellence que mon Gouvernement approuve les solutions proposées par cette Commission, dont les discussions n'ont cessé d'être animées d'un esprit de conciliation et d'entente auquel je suis heureux de pouvoir ici rendre hommage.

Le Gouvernement de la République donne sa pleine et entière adhésion au Règlement rédigé en exécution de l'Article X (4) et ci-annexé (No. 1). Ce Règlement sera considéré comme faisant corps avec le dit Article X et sera promulgué en même temps que celui-ci.

Conformément aux recommandations faites par suite d'une discussion officieuse entre les

Représentants des deux Gouvernements, le Gouvernement de la République prescrira au Haut Commissaire Français d'omettre, dans le texte de la Convention qui sera publié et rendu obligatoire dans l'Archipel pour les citoyens Français, les mots suivants, figurant à l'Article LI (4), "après deux avertissements donnés par écrit à l'engagiste," étant entendu que le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique procédera de même pour les mots correspondants du texte Anglais, "after two written warnings addressed to the employer."

Le Gouvernement de la République autorisera le Haut Commissaire Français à ajourner, d'accord avec le Haut Commissaire Anglais, la promulgation des Articles IX (2), XI à XIX inclusivement, XXI à XXVII inclusivement, LVI (3), LX (3 et 4), et LXI (2) jusqu'à ce que les Magistrats du Tribunal Mixte soient installés dans l'Archipel. Les citoyens Français coupables d'infractions aux dispositions de la Convention ou des Règlements d'exécution pris par les Hauts Commissaires seront, à titre transitoire, poursuivis, conformément à l'Article XX et aux dispositions antérieurement en vigueur, devant l'autorité judiciaire Française, étant entendu que le Gouvernement Anglais procédera de même à l'égard des sujets Britanniques.

Le Gouvernement de la République profite de cette occasion pour déclarer que les procès et litiges immobiliers auxquels se réfèrent les Articles XXII et suivants de la Convention du 20 Octobre, 1906, comprennent également les procès et litiges concernant les mines, minerais et en général le sous-sol des Iles.

Je serais reconnaissant à votre Excellence de vouloir bien, en m'accusant réception de la présente note, me faire savoir si le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté le Roi approuve de son côté des dispositions ci-dessus énoncées afin que le complet accord établi entre nos deux Gouvernements soit ainsi officiellement constaté.

Veillez, &c.,

(Signé) GEOFFRAY.

Whitehall, November 13, 1907.

The KING was pleased, this day, at Windsor Castle, to present to Mr. Arthur Hardiment, an artizan of Tivetshall, in the county of Norfolk, the Albert Medal of the Second Class, conferred upon him, by His Majesty's command, for gallantry in endangering his own life in order to save the life of a child at Tivetshall Railway Crossing as detailed below:—

On the 30th August last, at the hour of 2.30 p.m., while the Cromer Express Train on its way from Norwich to London was approaching the level crossing at Tivetshall at the rate of 50 miles an hour, Hardiment and Horace Bloomfield, the crossing-keeper, were standing near one of the gates about 29 feet from the railway track when Bloomfield's little boy, aged 18 months, was seen to be making for the line from the opposite side of the track to join his father.

The cries of the men did not avail to stop the child, and Hardiment thereupon dashed across the line towards the child, knowing that the father, who had lost a leg and an arm, was incapacitated from attempting the rescue.

Notwithstanding that Hardiment was but a few paces from the railway track the risk to life was very great seeing that the train was only some 130 feet distant at the moment. Before he was clear of the track, the footplate of the engine had struck his left forearm fracturing both the bones and hurling him into a hedge nine feet away. Just before he was caught by the engine he had the satisfaction of knowing that the child had turned away from the approaching train and had escaped unhurt.

Whitehall, November 15, 1907.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 14th instant, to appoint the Reverend James Waring to the Living of Droylsden, Lancashire, void by the cession of the Reverend Frederick Knight, B.A., the last Incumbent.
