PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Bishops Resignation Act, 1869, a representation has been made to His Majesty by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, by Divine Providence, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, at the instance of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, by Divine Permission, Lord Archbishop of York, that the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, is desirous of resigning his Archbishopric (such resignation to take formal effect upon the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eight), by reason

Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint James, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint James, Camberwell, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in William Minet, of Fountain-court, Temple, E.C., in the county of Middlesex, Barrister-at-Law.

"And whereas the said William Minet is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint James, Camberwell, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Southwark.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint James, Camberwell, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint James, Camberwell.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Minet (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint James, Camberwell, now vested in him the said William Minet as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John William, now Bishop of Carlisle, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Sutton, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Bridekirk, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Christ Church, Great Broughton, now vested in him, the said Alfred Sutton, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Bridekirk as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Alfred Sutton and from his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Bridekirk, to the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle, and his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Monmouth, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the borough of Monmouth, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said borough as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the nineteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said borough without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said borough shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, December 21, 1908.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Saint John's College, Oxford, on the sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight (and sealed on the twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute III, clause 1, paragraph 1 of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"The number of Fellowships, exclusive of the Fellowships held ex-officio by the Professor of Arabic and the Sibthorpe Professor, shall not be less than fourteen nor greater than eighteen. Of these so many, not exceeding nine at any one time, as the College shall from time to time deem necessary, shall be Official Fellowships, and the remainder Ordinary Fellowships." And in clause 1, paragraph 3, of the same Statute:—"Ordinary Fellowships shall be tenable for seven years from the day of election. But in the computation of such period of seven years, any time may be excluded, not exceeding two years, during which the Fellow has, since his election, been resident in the University, and employed by the College in its educational work upon the terms of having the tenure of his Fellowship so extended: Provided that there shall not be at any one time employed by the College in its educational work more than two holders of Ordinary Fellowships who shall be entitled to an extension of their Fellowships on those terms." And in clause 13, paragraph 1, of the same Statute:—"The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, from time to time at any stated General Meeting elect, without public notice or examination to an Ordinary Fellowship any Professor or Public Reader in the University, any Sub-Librarian or Assistant Librarian in the Bodleian Library, or any person whose attainments in Literature, Science, or Art shall in their judgment qualify him to be a Fellow, and who shall undertake if required, to perform any definite literary, scientific, or educational work in the College, or in the University, or (under the direction of the College or the University) elsewhere, which work shall be specified in the Resolution by which he is elected. Provided that the number of persons so elected shall never exceed three at any one time and that, if the emoluments exclusive of fees of a Professor so elected exceed Seven hundred pounds a year, he shall not receive as the emolument of his Fellowship a greater sum than will amount, together with the emoluments of his Professorship, to Nine hundred pounds a year." And in clause 13, paragraph 4, of the same Statute:—"Fellowships held on this tenure shall be reckoned in the number of eighteen, but not in the number of fourteen, mentioned in clause 1 of this Statute."

And whereas in Statute XX, clause 2, it is enacted:—"So long as any existing Fellow of the College, whether holding his present Fellowship under the Ordinance of 1861 or under the older Statutes, continues to take part in the educational work of the College as Tutor or Lecturer, he shall in the construction of Statute III, clauses 1 and 12, be reckoned in the number of nine Official Fellows mentioned in clause 1 and (if resident in College) in the number of four Official Fellows mentioned in clause 12 of that Statute."

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the fifty-fourth section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument under our Seal alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out in manner following, that is to say:—

In Statute III, clause 1, paragraph 1, by omitting the words "not exceeding nine at any one time."

In clause 1, paragraph 3, of the same Statute, by adding at the end of such paragraph the words "This paragraph shall not apply to Ordinary Fellows elected under clause 13."

In clause 13, paragraph 1, of the same Statute, by omitting the words "the number of persons so elected shall never exceed three at any one time and that."

By inserting after paragraph 2 of clause 13, of the same Statute, ending with the words "private income," a new paragraph to the following effect:—

"Fellows elected under this clause may be elected for any period of not less than three years and not more than seven years from the day of election."

In clause 13 of the same Statute, by omitting the last paragraph of such clause, beginning with the words "Fellowships held," and ending with the words "this Statute."

In Statute XX, clause 2, by omitting the word "nine."

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight.
