ORDER of the Local Government Board: Motor Car Act, 1903: Regulations under Section 9 (1).

COUNTY OF SURREY.

DORKING AND LEATHERHEAD URBAN DISTRICTS.

To the County Council of Surrey;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that, within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by Us, the Local Government Board, with a view to the safety of the public on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour;

And whereas the County Council of Surrey having made application to Us to make a Regulation in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising certain roads or parts of roads situate within the urban districts of Dorking and Leatherhead, in the county of Surrey, We directed a Local Inquiry to be held into the matter by one of Our Inspectors, and the Inquiry was held accordingly, and Report has been made to Us thereon :

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us in that behalf, We do, by this Our Order, make the following Regulations :—

ARTICLE I.—The provisions of sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Act with respect to the driving of a motor car at a speed not exceeding ten miles per hour shall apply and have effect within the limits comprising the roads or parts of roads which are specified in the Schedule hereto.

ARTICLE II.—These Regulations shall come into operation on the tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

SCHEDULE.

Urban District of Dorking.

So much of the main road from London to Horsham (including High-street, Market-place, and South-street) as extends from Pippbrook Mill to the Queen's Head Public House at the end of South-street; and

So much of West-street as extends from its junction with High-street to the entrance to the Drill Hall.

Urban District of Leatherhead.

So much of the main road from Epsom to Guildford (including High-street and part of Bridge-street) as extends from the eastern corner of the Institute to a point in the road situate 120 yards east of Leatherhead Bridge;

Church-street, extending from its junction with High-street to its junction with Church-lane; and North-street, extending from its junction with High-street to the Bull Hotel.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

John Burns,
President.

Thos. Pitts, Assistant-Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

City of Coventry.

Whereas by section 8 of the Motor Car Act, 1903 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1903"), it is enacted that the Local Government Board may by regulations made under section 6 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1896"), prohibit or restrict the driving of any motor cars, or of any special kind of motor cars, on any specified highway or part of a highway, which does not exceed sixteen feet in width, or on which ordinary motor car traffic would, in their opinion, be especially dangerous:

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the city of Coventry have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made under section 6 of the Act of 1896 and section 8 of the Act of 1903, for prohibiting the driving of motor cars along Love-lane, in the said city.

Notice is hereby further given, that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board, at their office, Whitehall, London, S.W., on or before the seventeenth day of May, 1909.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the Council of the said city, addressed to the Town Clerk.

Dated this twenty-sixth day of April, 1909.

J. S. Davy, Assistant Secretary,
Local Government Board.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1907.

WHEREAS the Urban District Council of Oulton Broad have applied to the Local Government Board to declare certain parts and certain sections of the said Act to be in force in the urban district of Oulton Broad.

And whereas proof having been given to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board of the advertisement required by sub-section (2) of section 3 of the said Act, the Local Government Board, in exercise of their powers in that behalf, have made an Order, bearing date the twenty-second day of April, 1909, whereby they declared, specified, and directed:—

That on and after the day on which the said Order comes into operation, sections 15, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33 comprised in Part II; Part III; Part IV and Part X of the said Act, shall be in force in the urban district of Oulton Broad, subject to the conditions and adaptations as in the Order is contained to sections 25 and 27 of Part II, sections 35 and 38 of Part III, and section 59 of Part IV.

And that the said Order shall come into operation on the 3rd day of June, 1909.

Dated this 27th day of April, 1909.

C. G. TAYLOR,

Clerk to the said Council.

Victoria Chambers, Lowestoft.

Whereas the benefice of Llanerchaeron with Dihewyd, in the county of Cardigan and diocese of Saint David's (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the fifteenth day of April instant by the retirement, under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Rees Williams (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of ninety-five pounds ten shillings and seven pence (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund, first to the Incumbent of the said benefice, and his successors, Incumbents thereof, the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said fifteenth day of April instant, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Llanrhaidr-yn-Mochnant, partly in the county of Denbigh and partly in the county of Montgomery and wholly in the diocese of Saint Asaph (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the tenth day of March last past by the retirement, under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Thomas Henry Evans (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of about ninety pounds, now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations) do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent, subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said tenth day of March last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Mary, Ambleside, in the county of Westmorland and in the diocese of Carlisle, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage and to his successors a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Ambleside, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of two hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Holy Trinity, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of six pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Holy Trinity, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one other yearly sum of six pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the tenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-second day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Edward the Confessor, Barnsley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Edward the Confessor, Barnsley, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

BOROUGH OF BURTON-UPON-TRENT.

Tramways Act, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Burton-upon-Trent, acting by the Council (hereinafter called the Corporation), under or by virtue of section 19 of the Tramways Act, 1870, section 33 of the Burton-upon-Trent Corporation Act, 1901, section 4 of the Burton and Ashby Light Railway Order, 1903, the agreement dated 31st day of December, 1902, therein referred to, and the Burton-upon-Trent Corporation Tramways Order, 1903, (confirmed by the Tramways Orders Confirmation (No. 1) Act, 1903), or some or one of them, and any other power or authority them thereunto enabling to make and grant a lease to the Midland Railway Company (hereinafter called the Company), or right of user of certain tramways constructed by the Corporation under the said Burton-upon-Trent Corporation Tramways Order, 1903, as follows, namely:—

Tramway No. 2, forming a junction at the borough boundary with the light railway of the Company.

Tramway No. 4, forming a junction in Bearwood Hill-road with Tramway No. 3 of the Corporation for the purpose of the conveyance of passengers, passengers' luggage, parcels, animals, goods, and minerals, together with the right to demand and take tolls, rates, and charges authorised by the said Tramways Order.

The term of the lease is twenty-one years from the 1st July, 1906.

The rent reserved is £825 per annum.

A general description of the covenants and conditions contained therein is as follows:—

The Company covenants with the Corporation:

1. To pay the rent by equal half-yearly instalments.

2. To pay rates, taxes, and outgoings.

3. To repay to the Corporation all sums of money expended in the maintenance repair or renewal of the tramways and the equipment thereof, and so much of the roads as are required to be maintained and repaired by section 28 of the Tramways Act, 1870.

4. To work the tramways efficiently and observe all obligations imposed upon the Corporation or their lessees in respect of the running of cars on the tramways except those to be observed by the Corporation, and to indemnify the Corporation against all actions.

5. Not to exercise the right of user (except by consent) otherwise than by means of cars and carriages making a through journey between any point outside the borough distant one mile at least from the borough boundary and the terminus in Wellington-street, with liberty to pick up or set down at any Corporation or authorised stopping place and proviso in case of breakdown, or there being a Burton Railway Station terminus.

6. To observe all Corporation bye-laws and not to make any bye-laws which may conflict therewith, with proviso for reference in case of dispute.

7. To keep the carriages clean, in proper state of repair, efficiently lighted, and fit for use.

8. Not to use any motive power other than electrical power, except in cases of emergency, and to use such power according to regulations.

9. Not to use the tramways without the Corporation's consent for the carriage of animals, minerals, or goods, except between the hours of 11 o'clock at night and 5 o'clock in the morning, such traffic to be conducted in accordance with the Corporation's regulations and to pay all penalties thereby imposed, not exceeding £5 for any one breach.

10. Not to remove, destroy, injure, or interfere with any rails, works or tramway apparatus except in case of emergency, and then at the Company's risk.

11. To give notice to the Corporation of any defects or want of repair of the tramways equipment or roads known to them or their servants.

12. To indemnify the Corporation from all damages, costs, and expenses in respect of accidents caused by the working by the Company of the tramways, but the Company not to be responsible, and to be indemnified by the Corporation in respect of any accidents caused through the defective repairing, maintenance, or renewal of the tramways and equipment to which accidents no negligence of the Company shall have contributed.

13. To take from the Corporation all electrical energy for the tramways, and not use regenerative motors thereon without notice.

14. To pay 1.3d. for every Board of Trade unit of electrical energy supplied, with power from time to time, after notice, to agree on new price or refer same to arbitration.

15. Not to assign, transfer, underlet, or part with the demised premises, or any part thereof, without the consent of the Corporation.

16. To yield up the tramways on determination of demise in accordance with the covenants and obligations of the lease.

The Corporation covenants with the Company:

17. To make regulations to enable the Company to enforce the tolls, rates, and charges.

18. For quiet enjoyment by the Company, on payment of rent and other payments and performance of obligations of lease.

19. To repair and maintain the tramways equipment and roads at the expense of the Company, or failing which, or in case of emergency, the Company might do so.

20. To supply all electrical energy required (unless prevented by strikes, &c.) under the regulations of the Board of Trade, on the following conditions:—

(a) The Company to give notice if requiring electrical energy after the Corporation's working day.

(b) The energy to be delivered at feeder box as a continuous current at a pressure of not less than five hundred volts.

(c) Not to be required to supply a demand exceeding a maximum of one hundred and forty kilowatts (unless agreed) for a longer period of time than two minutes, but for a less period maximum may be increased to deal with peak loads. Proviso for alteration of maximum after eight months' notice.

(d) Amount of energy supplied to be ascertained by two Watt-hour meters sealed and fixed in feeder box. Proviso as to testing and recalibration of meters.

(e) Readings of meters to be taken once a month in presence of engineers of both parties or their representatives.

(f) Accounts of energy supplied to be rendered quarterly within seven days of quarter days named and deemed correct if not objected to within fourteen days of delivery.

21. Power to Company, paying rent, and other sums, and performing covenants and conditions under this proposed lease, and giving twelve months' previous notice of intention to do so, to take a renewed lease of same premises for twenty-one years from the expiration of this proposed lease, at a rent to be agreed on, or, failing agreement, to be settled by arbitration, not being less than £825 per annum, and subject to such covenants and conditions as, failing agreement, may be settled by arbitration, with option to the Corporation to determine the same on the transfer of the whole or any part of the portion of Railway No. 1 authorised by the Light Railway Order lying between the borough boundary and the existing railway station at Swadlincote to the local authorities or County Council, such option not to be exercised during any lease to the Company of the said portion of the railway, and with power to the Company to determine the lease, if the said portion of Railway No. 1 should be sold under section 81 of the Light Railway Order to the local authorities, and a lease thereof not granted by them to the Company under the same section.

The proposed present lease is also subject to the conditions following:—

22. Power to the Corporation to re-enter and determine the lease, if rent in arrear for thirty days, but this provision not to apply while the Company remain lessees.

23. Reservation to the Corporation as owners of the tramways, local or road authority, or in any other capacity of full exercise of all rights, powers, authorities, and privileges in relation to the tramways, or the streets or roads, gas and water pipes, sewers, drains, electric cables, and works in or under the streets or roads in which the tramways are laid, without being responsible for delay, interruption, or loss of traffic, but subject nevertheless to any statutory conditions under which the same powers are exercised.

24. Reservation to the Corporation and their assignees of the right at all times to run over and use the said tramways by cars or carriages for traffic of all descriptions; for that purpose to utilise the electrical energy supplied to the Company, and to take tolls, rates, and charges, but only in accordance with the following conditions:—

(a) The Corporation to run according to time tables to be agreed on or settled by arbitration.

(b) The Corporation minimum fares and charges to be agreed on or settled by arbitration, and not to be higher than the Company's fares and charges.

(c) The Corporation to keep accurate accounts of the miles run and accounts and records to be open to the Company's inspection, and statement of such running rendered to the Company weekly, and facilities given for checking same.

(d) The Corporation to pay 4½d. for each such mile run, the price to include electrical energy, and to be paid quarterly. The Corporation or the Company may require the price altered at the times and in manner set out in Clause 14.

(e) Cars and carriages used to comply with requirements of Acts, Bye-laws, and Regulations, and with equipment to be approved by Company's Engineer, and kept in good working order.

(f) The Corporation to comply with the Bye-laws, Regulations, Rules, and Instructions in force on the said tramways.

(g) The Corporation and servants to comply with enactments relating to the said tramways and indemnify the Company against all damages, costs, and expenses through accidents or injuries caused by the Corporation's user.

25. The Corporation not to authorise any other company, corporation, or person to run over and use the tramways without the Company's consent during the lease or renewal thereof except assignees being the lessees, licensees, or assignees of the tramways of the Corporation over which the Company have running powers, in which case the Corporation are not to use the leased tramways.

26. As to service of notices by either party.

27. As to settlement of disputes by arbitration.

28. "Passengers' luggage" defined.

SCHEDULE.—Tramways to be leased as set out in the commencement of this notice.

A copy of the lease is deposited for public inspection during office hours at the Town Clerk's offices in the Town Hall, Burton-upon-Trent, and the lease may be made and completed at any time after one month from the first insertion of this notice.

Dated this 28th day of April, 1909.

No. 00144 of 1909.

In the Matter of JOHN LANCASTER AND COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition was, on the 6th day of April, 1909, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm a Special Resolution of the said Company passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 17th day of December, 1908, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 14th day of January, 1909, and which resolution is as follows:—

That the provisions of clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with respect to the Company's objects be altered by inserting immediately after paragraph (6) the following new paragraphs, namely:—

(7) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect thereof, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, and information so acquired.

(8) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in, or securities of, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such Company, and to sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with such shares, stock, or securities.

(9) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, licences, patents, engines, machinery, ships, barges, rolling stock, plant, and stock-in-trade.

(10) To sell any part or section of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares or debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company.

(11) To promote any companies for acquiring all or any of the property rights and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company.

(12) To lend money to such persons and corporations, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to give any guarantee or indemnity as may seem expedient.

(13) To obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company.

(14) To raise or borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem, purchase, and pay off any such securities.

(15) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, enfranchise, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company.

And by altering the numbers of the paragraph now numbered (7) into (16).

And notice is hereby further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before The Honourable Mr. Justice Neville on Tuesday, the 18th day of May, 1909; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the proposed alteration of the Company's objects under the above Act should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his Counsel for the purpose; and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. Currey and Co., of 14, Great George-street, Westminster, S.W., on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

In the Matter of REBMAN Limited and Reduced; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1877; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1907.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 6th day of April, 1909, confirming the reduction of the capital of the above named Company from £20,000 to £2,000, and the minute (approved by the Court) showing, with respect to the capital of the Company as altered, the several particulars required by the above statutes, were registered by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies on the 28th day of April, 1909; and further take notice, that the said minute is in the words and figures following:—

The capital of Rebman Limited is henceforth £2,000, divided into 40,000 shares of 1s. each, instead of £20,000, divided into 5,000 preference shares of £1 each and 15,000 ordinary shares of £1 each. At the time of the registration of this minute 28,920 shares have been issued, upon each of which 1s. has been and is to be deemed to be paid, and the residue of the said shares, viz., 11,080, are unissued. Upon any increase of capital the company is to be at liberty to issue any new shares with any preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions attached thereto.
