At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Fenny Stratford, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas by an Indenture made the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight, between Dora Nesbitt, of Number 12, Grosvenor-street, in the administrative county of London, widow, of the first part, the Reverend Frederick Francis Field, of Woughton Rectory, Bletchley, in the county of Buckingham, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Henrietta Frances Field, his wife, of the second part, and the Right Reverend Francis, by Divine permission, Bishop of Oxford, of the third part, after reciting that the said Dora Nesbitt was seised in fee simple of the advowson of the said benefice of Fenny Stratford, it was witnessed that in consideration of the sum of seven hundred pounds paid to her by the said Frederick Francis Field and Henrietta Frances Field, the receipt of which sum was thereby acknowledged the said Dora Nesbitt as beneficial owner and at the request and by the direction of the said Frederick Francis Field and Henrietta Frances Field did thereby convey and the said Frederick Francis Field and Henrietta Frances Field did thereby confirm unto the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Fenny Stratford to hold the same unto and to the use of the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in fee simple.

"And whereas the said conveyance was made with the intention of vesting the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage or presentation in the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, in right of his See and the parties thereto are desirous that anything which by way of further assurance or otherwise may be required effectually to carry out that intention may be done and have applied to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that a scheme under the Acts herein-before mentioned may be prepared for the said purpose and submitted to Your Majesty in Council.

And whereas the said Dora Nesbitt, Frederick Francis Field, Henrietta Frances Field, and Francis, Bishop of Oxford, are consenting to this scheme, the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, both as party to the said Indenture of the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and as Bishop of Oxford, the diocese wherein the said benefice of Fenny Stratford is situate, approving of and accepting the transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage or presentation as required by the Acts before mentioned or some or one of them.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Fenny Stratford which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Fenny Stratford.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Dora Nesbitt, Frederick Francis Field, and Henrietta Frances Field (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Fenny Stratford shall be transferred to the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of

Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Marston, in the county and diocese of Oxford.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marston is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Mary Sophia Evans, of Baldwins End, Eton College, in the county of Buckingham, Widow.

“And whereas the said Mary Sophia Evans is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marston now vested in her as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Oxford.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Francis, now Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Marston which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Marston.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Mary Sophia Evans (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marston now vested in her the said Mary Sophia Evans as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Surfleet, in the county and diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Surfleet is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Venerable John Bond, of the Precentory, in the city of Lincoln, Clerk in Holy Orders and Archdeacon of Stow, in the county and diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas the said John Bond is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Surfleet, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Surfleet, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Surfleet.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the "Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868" section three duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868' section three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity in Ely (hereinafter called the said Dean and Chapter).

"Whereas under and by virtue of an Order in Council of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria bearing date the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and duly published in the London Gazette of the eighth day of the same month there is now payable by us to the said Dean and Chapter an annual sum of five thousand and two hundred pounds until the said Dean and Chapter shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to them in addition to the income from certain other estates transferred to or retained by the said Dean and Chapter as in the same Order in Council is mentioned a clear annual income therefrom after deducting rates taxes the cost of agency and other outgoings amounting to the annual sum aforesaid.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have not yet been put into possession of real estates in substitution for the said annual sum of five thousand two hundred pounds but the said annual sum continues payable by us in full under the provisions of the said Order in Council.

"And whereas at the request and on behalf of the said Dean and Chapter we the Ecclesiastical Commissioners have paid to the County Council of the Isle of Ely the sum of five hundred pounds in consideration of certain bridges at Ely being taken over by the County Council as county bridges and the said Dean and Chapter being thereby relieved from the perpetual burden of the maintenance of the said bridges hitherto resting on the said Dean and Chapter.

"And whereas the payment of the said sum of five hundred pounds was so made as aforesaid in pursuance of an agreement between us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the said Dean and Chapter that in consideration thereof the annual sum of five thousand two hundred pounds above mentioned should be reduced in the manner hereinafter appearing.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter and with the consent of the Right Reverend Frederic Henry Bishop of Ely as Visitor of the said Dean and Chapter testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals that for the consideration hereinbefore mentioned the payment of the annual sum of five thousand and two hundred pounds mentioned in the said Order in Council of the seventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine shall be reduced by the annual sum of fifteen pounds as from the twenty-fourth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine and that the said Order in Council of the seventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine shall henceforth be read and construed as if the annual sum of five thousand one hundred and eighty-five pounds were substituted for the said annual sum of five thousand and two hundred pounds wherever the said annual sum of five thousand and two hundred pounds is therein mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the sixteen districts and new parishes of Cowling; Cullingworth; Denholme Gate; Eastwood; All Saints, Leeds; Saint Philip, Leeds; Little London, commonly called Saint Matthew, Leeds; Morton; New Wortley;

"Whereas by the Orders of Her said late Majesty in Council, which are specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme, the said districts and new parishes were severally constituted under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said districts and new parishes have under the provisions of the said Act become new parishes of the character contemplated by such Act.

"And whereas no assignment of the patronage of any of the said districts and new parishes was made by any of the said Orders and no such assignment has since been made.

"And whereas the said augmentation of the incomes of the said districts and new parishes will be contributed upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us expedient) the whole right of patronage of each of the said districts and new parishes and of the nomination or presentation of the Vicar or Incumbent thereto should be assigned to the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, and his successors Bishops of Ripon, in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John James Pulleine, Bishop Suffragan of Richmond, and Rector of the said rectory of Stanhope, has nominated the said William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, as the person to whom and to whose successors he wishes the whole right of patronage of each of the said districts and new parishes to be assigned.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the assignment of the patronage and right of nomination and presentation of and to each of the said districts and new parishes which has been proposed to us as aforesaid may properly be effected.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of each of the said districts and new parishes and of the nomination or presentation of the Vicar or Incumbent thereto shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-fifth day of the same month, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Biley, otherwise Byley cum Gatehouse, within the limits of the parish of Middlewich, in the said county of Chester and in the said diocese of Chester, and the said consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Biley.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Biley, otherwise Byley, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, shall be altered so that all that part of the parish of Lower Peover, in the said county of Chester and in the said diocese of Chester, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dis severed from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, being all that portion of the parish of Lower Peover, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon the west partly by two detached portions of the parish of Great Budworth, and partly by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Lostock Gralam, both in the said county and diocese, upon the south-west partly by the last named new parish and partly by the said new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, upon the south by the said new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east, upon the north-east, and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the road leading from Holmes Chapel to Knutsford, where the boundaries of the said new parish of Biley, otherwise Byley, the parochial chapelry of Church Hulme, in the said county and diocese, and the said parish of Lower Peover all meet, and extending thence first northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of thirty-four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Wash-lane, and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the said Wash-lane for a distance of seventy-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Middlewich to Knutsford and with the lane leading to Hulme Hall and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the middle of the lane leading to Hulme Hall for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading to Lach Dennis, and extending thence westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of forty-six chains or thereabouts to the point opposite to the place where the boundary which divides the said parish of Lower Peover from one of the detached portions of the said parish of Great Budworth commences to follow the fence on the southern side of the said footpath, and extending thence southward in a straight line to the said boundary."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke the Less, Gloucester, situate within the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke, Gloucester, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Gloucester, of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Paul, Gloucester, and of the parish of Hempsted, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Gloucester, of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Gloucester, and of the said parish of Hempsted, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke the Less, Gloucester, situate as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester, as such Bishop, and also as the Patron (in right of his See) of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Gloucester, as well as of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Gloucester, and with the consents of Julia Charlotte Higford, of Hartsfield, near Betchworth, in the county of Surrey, widow of the late Higford Higford, formerly of Hartsfield aforesaid, Esquire, of the Honourable Norman Macleod Sinclair, of No. 12, Palace-gardens-terrace, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, of Margaret Higford, of Hartsfield aforesaid, Spinster, of Lilian Sinclair, wife of the said Norman Macleod Sinclair, of Katharine Bingley, wife of Henry Campbell Alchome Bingley, of No. 2, Hare-court, Temple, Barrister-at-Law, of Sybil Anne Beaumont, wife of Francis Montagu Beaumont, of Buckland Court, near Betchworth aforesaid, a Major (retired) in Your Majesty's Army, and of Alice Mary Eckbo, wife of Eivind Eckbo, a Captain in the Army of the Kingdom of Norway, as the Patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Hempsted (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Gloucester, of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Gloucester, and of the said parish of Hempsted, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Luke the Less, Gloucester, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke the Less, Gloucester.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

Griggs and Company Limited from the premises belonging to Messrs. Moreland and Sons, and extending thence first north-westward to the said fence and then first north-westward, then north-eastward and then again north-westward along the middle of said fence for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its western end, and continuing thence north-westward in the last direction and in a straight line for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Gloucester and Berkeley Canal, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said canal (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Hempsted from the said new parish of Saint Luke, Gloucester) for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence forming the boundary between the premises belonging to Messrs. And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Gloucester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Master of the Horse.
Lord Sandhurst.
Mr. Samuel.
Sir Hudson Kearley.
Mr. James Stuart.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in a session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty's reign (shortly entitled "The Judicial Committee Act, 1844"), it was enacted that it should be competent to Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to provide for the admission of Appeals to Her Majesty in Council from any judgments, sentences, decrees or orders of any Court of Justice within any British colony or possession abroad, although such Court should not be a Court of Errors or Appeal within such colony or possession, and to make provision for the instituting and prosecuting of such Appeals, and for carrying into effect any such decisions or sentences as Her Majesty in Council should pronounce thereon;

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, provision was made for Appeals from the Supreme Court of the colony of Queensland to Her Majesty in Council;

And whereas the colony of Queensland is now a State of the Commonwealth of Australia, constituted by an Act passed in a session of Parliament held in the sixty-third and sixty-fourth years of Her late Majesty's reign, and entitled "An Act to constitute the Commonwealth of Australia";

And whereas it is expedient, with a view to equalizing as far as may be the conditions under which His Majesty's subjects in the British Dominions beyond the Seas shall have a right of Appeal to His Majesty in Council, and to promoting uniformity in the practice and procedure in all such Appeals, that the said Order in Council, dated the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, should be revoked and new provision made for Appeals from the said Supreme Court to His Majesty in Council;

It is hereby ordered by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council be and the same is hereby revoked, and that instead thereof the Rules hereunder set out shall regulate all Appeals to His Majesty in Council from the said State of Queensland.

1. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Appeal" means Appeal to His Majesty in Council;

"His Majesty" includes His Majesty's heirs and successors;

"Judgment" includes decree, order, sentence, or decision;

"Court" means either the Full Court or a single Judge of the Supreme Court of Queensland exercising the powers of the Full Court.

"Record" means the aggregate of papers relating to an Appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence, and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the Appeal;

"Registrar" means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the Records in the Court appealed from;

"Month" means calendar month;

Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

2. Subject to the provisions of these Rules, an Appeal shall lie:—

(a) as of right, from any final judgment of the Court, where the matter in dispute on the Appeal amounts to or is of the value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards, or where the Appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards; and

(b) at the discretion of the Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the Appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance, or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

3. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the judges, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding according to the opinion of the Chief Justice, or, in his absence, of the senior puisne Judge of the Court, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an Appeal therefrom, and not for any other purpose.

4. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within twenty-one days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the Applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

5. Leave to appeal under Rule 2 shall only be granted by the Court in the first instance:—

(a) upon condition of the Appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court, but not exceeding three months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, in a sum not exceeding five hundred pounds, for the due prosecution of the Appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the Respondent in the event of the Appellant's not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the Appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the Appellant to pay the Respondent's costs of the Appeal (as the case may be); and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the Appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the Record and the dispatch thereof to England as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

6. Where the judgment appealed from requires the Appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the Court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the Appeal, as to the Court shall seem just, and in case the Court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the due performance of such Order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

7. The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

8. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Record.

9. Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether in Queensland or in England), shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

10. The Record shall be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the schedule hereto, It may be so printed either in Queensland or in England.

11. Where the Record is printed in Queensland, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council forty copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal, if any, of the Court.

12. Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

13. Where part of the Record is printed in Queensland and part is to be printed in England, Rules 11 and 12 shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in Queensland and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

14. The reasons given by the judge, or any of the judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such judge or judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time when the Record is transmitted.

15. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

16. An Appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

17. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

18. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as in the opinion of the Court the justice of the case requires.

19. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

20. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the dispatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

21. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the dispatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the Record subsequently to its dispatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The Case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in Queensland or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively, and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of Appeal. References by page and line to be relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in Queensland, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with and execute any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

Almeric Fitz-Roy.

SCHEDULE.

I. Records and Cases in Appeals to His Majesty in Council shall be printed in the form known as Demy Quarto (i.e., fifty-four ems in length and forty-two in width).

II. The size of the paper used shall be such that the sheet, when folded and trimmed, will be eleven inches in height and eight and a half inches in width.

IV. The number of lines in each page of Pica type shall be forty-seven or thereabouts, and every tenth line shall be numbered in the margin.
