TUESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1909.

At the Court at Sandringham, the 2nd day of December, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Falfield, in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Falfield is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for Sir George Banks Jenkinson, Baronet, of Eastwood, in the county of Gloucester, during his life, and the said George Banks Jenkinson is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

“And whereas the said George Banks Jenkinson is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Falfield should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar Charles Sumner, now Bishop of Gloucester, in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Falfield which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Falfield.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said George Banks Jenkinson, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edgar Charles Sumner, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom, together with the said George Banks Jenkinson, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of the Venerable Edward Chessall Scobell, of the Rectory, Upton Saint Leonard, Gloucester, Archdeacon of Gloucester, and the Reverend Alan Whitmore Cornwall, Clerk in Holy Orders, now Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Thornbury, in the said county of Gloucester (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Falfield shall be transferred to the said George Banks Jenkinson, Edward Chessall Scobell, and Alan Whitmore Cornwall, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Banks Jenkinson, Edward Chessall Scobell, and Alan Whitmore Cornwall, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Gloucester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Sandringham, the 2nd day of December, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the thirtieth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas under the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service it is provided that to qualify a Captain whose seniority brings him in turn for advancement to the Active List of Flag Officers, he must have served during peace for a total period of six years:

"And whereas, owing to the abnormal shortening of the time on the Captains' List, it is anticipated that Captain David Beatty, M.V.O., D.S.O., A. de C., will reach his turn for promotion before he completes the full period of six years.

"And whereas this officer was severely wounded in action in China, and was consequently prevented from receiving an appointment for a considerable period:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the promotion of Captain David Beatty, M.V.O., D.S.O., A. de C., to Flag rank in his turn notwithstanding the Regulation above referred to.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
