8. A keeper and any person employed in a house shall at all times, by day or night, when required by an officer appointed by the Council for the inspection of seamen's lodging-houses, or by an officer of the Board of Trade, or of the police, give him or them or any of them free access to all parts of such house and to the register of seamen lodgers hereinafter referred to.

9. A keeper shall not at any one time receive, cause, or suffer to be received into a house, or into any room therein, a greater number of lodgers than shall be from time to time allowed by the certificate of the Clerk of the Council. Such certificate shall be supplied by the Council to the keeper, and he shall produce such certificate whenever required by any officer appointed by the Council for the inspection of seamen's lodging-houses.

10. A keeper shall fix and keep fixed in a conspicuous place in each room appointed for use as a sleeping apartment in a house, a ticket signed by the Clerk of the Council, stating the number of lodgers allowed to be received into such room, and a keeper and any person employed in a house shall not at any time conceal, deface, alter, or obliterate, or permit, or suffer to be concealed, defaced, altered, or obliterated any letters or figures on such ticket.

11. Notwithstanding that the maximum number of lodgers to be received into a house or into any room therein may not have been fixed by the Council as hereinbefore provided, a keeper shall not cause or suffer a greater number of persons than will admit of the provision of four hundred cubic feet of free air space for each person to occupy at one time as a sleeping apartment a room which is used for that purpose.

12. Whenever the Council shall consider it necessary to reduce the number of lodgers to be received into any room in a house, the keeper shall, upon receiving notice in writing to that effect, under the hand of the Clerk of the Council, cease to permit such room to be occupied by any greater number of lodgers than that specified in such notice.

13. A keeper shall not at any time cause or suffer any room which may be appointed for use as a kitchen, scullery, or sitting room, or any underground room which does not comply with the provisions of sub-section 1 of section 96 of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, to be used as a sleeping apartment.

14. A keeper shall cause all such means of ventilation as may be provided in or in connection with any room, passage, or staircase in a house, and in, or in connection with, any water-closet or urinal belonging to a house to be maintained at all times in good order.

15. A keeper shall cause the windows of every room, and of every passage, staircase, and water-closet in a house to be kept fully open for such time on each day as may be necessary for the purposes of ventilation, and shall cause the windows of every room which may be appointed for use and occupation as a sleeping apartment to be kept fully open from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. each day during the months of October, November, December, January, February, March and April, and from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. each day during the months of May, June, July, August, and September.

Provided that such keeper shall not be required in pursuance of this by-law to cause any window in any room to be opened or to be kept open at any time when the state of the weather is such as to render it necessary that the window shall be closed, or when any bed in such room may be occupied by any lodger in consequence of sickness or of other sufficient cause.

16. A keeper shall, in the first week in the month of April, and, if required in writing by the Council, in the first week in the month of October, in every year, cause every part of a house to be cleansed, and shall, at the same time, except as in such cases as are hereinafter specified, cause every area, the interior surface of every ceiling and wall of every water-closet belonging to the premises, and the interior surface of every ceiling and wall of every room, staircase, and passage in the house, to be thoroughly stopped, cleansed, and lime-washed or distempered. Provided that if any such interior surface is painted or covered with material which is such as to render the lime-washing thereof unsuitable or inexpedient, this by-law shall be deemed to be satisfied, so long as such surface is thoroughly cleansed, and the paint or other covering thereon is renewed, if such cleansing or renewal be necessary for the purpose of keeping the house in a cleanly and wholesome condition.

17. A keeper shall as often as may be necessary to keep the same in a clean and wholesome state, cause all the rooms, passages, stairs, floors, windows, doors, and walls of a house to be thoroughly cleansed and freed from vermin, and shall also cause the floors of every room to be thoroughly swept daily, before the hour of ten in the forenoon, and to be well and sufficiently washed on Friday in each week before the hour of twelve noon.

18. A keeper shall cause all bed clothes and bedding and every bedstead used in a house to be thoroughly cleansed as often as shall be required for the purpose of keeping such bed clothes, bedding, and bedsteads in a clean and wholesome condition, and free from vermin.

19. A keeper shall, for the use of the lodgers received into a house, cause to be provided a sufficient number of chamber utensils, and a sufficient number of washing basins or other proper receptacles for water, of adequate capacity and suitably placed, and a sufficient supply of water, and a sufficient number of towels for use in connection with such washing basins and other receptacles, and shall cause such basins or receptacles to be kept clean and in good order, and the supply of towels to be renewed as often as may be requisite.

20. A keeper shall cause every room which may be appointed for use and occupation as a sleeping apartment in a house to be furnished with such number of beds and bedsteads, and with such a supply of bed clothes as may be sufficient for the requirements of the number of lodgers authorised to be received into such room, and he shall cause every sleeping apartment to be furnished with bedsteads and bedding of a size adapted for one person only.

21. A keeper shall cause all solid or liquid filth or refuse to be removed once at least in every day before the hour of ten in the forenoon from every room in a house, and shall once at least in every day cause every vessel, utensil, or other receptacle for such filth or refuse to be thoroughly cleansed.

22. In the event of any inmate of a house, whether a lodger or otherwise, being ill of any infectious disease, the keeper shall forthwith give intimation in writing of the same to the Medical Officer of Health of the county and of the district, and shall adopt all such precautions as may be necessary to prevent the spread of such infectious disease. Such keeper shall not, at any time while such inmate is suffering from such infectious disease, cause or allow any other person, except a person voluntarily in attendance on such inmate, to use or occupy the same room as such inmate.

Where in pursuance of the statutory provision in that behalf, the sanitary authority may order the removal of such inmate to a hospital or other place for the reception of the sick, such keeper, on being informed of such order, shall forthwith take all such steps as may be requisite on his part to secure the safe and prompt removal of such inmate in compliance with the order of the sanitary authority, and shall, in and about such removal, adopt all such precautions as, in accordance with any instructions which he may receive from the Medical Officer of Health of the county or of the district, may be most suitable for the circumstances of the case.

Where, in consequence of the illness of such inmate, there may be reasonable grounds for apprehending the spread of infection through the admission of a lodger to any room or rooms in a house or through the admission to such room or rooms of the maximum number of lodgers authorized to be received therein, such keeper, after being furnished with the necessary instructions from the Medical Officer of Health of the county or of the district, and until the grounds for apprehending the spread of infection shall have been removed, shall cease to receive any lodger into such room or rooms or shall receive therein such number of lodgers, being less than the maximum number, as the exigencies of the case may require.

23. A keeper shall provide sufficient and proper water-closet accommodation in a seamen's lodging house in the proportion of one such closet to every twelve or fractional part of twelve persons in a house authorized to receive not more than twenty-four persons; one to every fifteen or fractional part of fifteen persons in a house authorized to receive more than twenty-four and not more than sixty persons; one to every twenty or fractional part of twenty persons in a house authorized to receive more than sixty and not more than one hundred persons; and one to every twenty-five or fractional part of twenty-five persons in a house authorized to receive more than one hundred persons. He shall cause all water-closets in a house and every part of the apparatus of such water-closets to be kept clean, and shall cause the same and every drain or means of drainage with which they or either of them may communicate, to be maintained in good order and efficient condition.

24. A keeper shall cause every part of the structure of a house to be maintained at all times in good order and repair.

25. A keeper shall cause the yard, area, forecourt, or other open space within the curtilage of a house to be maintained at all times in good order and thoroughly clean, and free from any accumulation of filth or other refuse.

26. A keeper and every person employed in a house shall not receive any female lodger into such house.

27. A keeper and every person employed in a house shall not knowingly lodge, or knowingly harbour, any thief or reputed thief, any prostitute or reputed prostitute, or any other person of improper character.

28. A keeper shall keep a register and shall enter therein the name, age, and nationality of every seaman lodger received into a house, the name of the last vessel from which such seaman lodger was discharged, and the port of discharge, with the name and port of registry of any vessel he may join while resident in such house, and his declared destination on leaving.

29. A keeper shall put up or affix and keep up or affixed a copy of these by-laws in a suitable and conspicuous position in the common sitting-room of a house in such a manner that the contents of such copy may be clearly and distinctly visible and legible, and shall enter upon the space left for the purpose at the foot of that copy, a scale of the charge per day for board, lodging, and necessities made in such house, and shall not make a higher charge than is provided by the scale on any pretence whatever.

30. Upon the Council being satisfied that any keeper has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or the Acts amending the same, or that such keeper has kept, or is keeping, or is allowing to be kept, a house in which drunkenness, gambling, opium smoking, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or is or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from such house any person of improper or immoral character who may have entered therein, or has failed, or is failing to comply with these by-laws or any of them, the Council may suspend or revoke all licences granted to such keeper.

31. No person shall obstruct any officer or person engaged in securing the execution of these by-laws.

32. Every person offending against any of the foregoing by-laws, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence, and in the case of a continuing offence to a penalty of five pounds for every day during which the offence may be continued after conviction for the first offence.

33. These by-laws shall come into force on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, from which date the by-laws made by the Council on the eighteenth day of June and the twenty-third day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one, relating to seamen's lodging-houses in the county shall be repealed.

The foregoing by-laws were made by the London County Council on the sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and the fourteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and the common seal of the Council was hereunto affixed on the sixteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

G. L. GOMME,
Clerk of the Council.

Approved.
