the Managers of Metalliferous Mines should be compelled to hold such certificates, and whether certificates granted by Colonial Governments should not be accepted in this country; and

What steps could be taken for the better prevention of Accidents in Quarries.

And whereas We have deemed it expedient that a further Commission should issue to inquire into and report on the health and safety of persons employed in Metalliferous Mines and Quarries, and also to deal with any matter in relation to Metalliferous Mines and Quarries which was referred to the Commissioners appointed by the aforesaid Royal Warrant of the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven:

And We do by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid:

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield, is vested in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Cuckfield, in the said county of Sussex and in the said diocese of Chichester:

"And whereas the Reverend Robert Fisher, Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Cuckfield, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield, now vested in him as aforesaid, as such Vicar or Incumbent, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Robert Fisher, Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Cuckfield, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield, now vested in him, the said Robert Fisher, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Cuckfield as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Robert Fisher, and from his successors, Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Cuckfield, to the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and his successors in the said Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 31st day of May, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Eglwys Newydd, in the county of Cardigan in the diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Eglwys Newydd is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for Thomas James Waddingham, of Hafod, near Aberystwyth, in the said county of Cardigan, a Justice of the Peace, during his life, and the said Thomas James Waddingham is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Thomas James Waddingham is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Eglwys Newydd should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Saint David's, in token of his willingness to accept jointly with the other persons hereinafter mentioned the transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed and in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Eglwys Newydd, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Eglwys Newydd.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Thomas James Waddingham, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the person to whom, together with the said Thomas James Waddingham and the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of the Reverend Morgan Jones Powell, of Saint Michael's Vicarage, Aberystwyth, in the said county of Cardigan, Doctor of Divinity, Clerk in Holy Orders (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Eglwys Newydd shall be transferred to the said Thomas James Waddingham, John, Bishop of Saint David's, and Morgan Jones Powell, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Thomas James Waddingham, John, Bishop of Saint David's, and Morgan Jones Powell, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint David's.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Greetham, in the county of Rutland, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Greetham is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in certain Trustees upon trust for Alan George Finch, of Burley on the Hill, Oakham, in the county of Rutland, Esquire, during his life, and the said Alan George Finch is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Alan George Finch is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Greetham should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend the Honourable Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Greetham, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Greetham.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alan George Finch, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Greetham shall be transferred to the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, sanction was given for the payment of special allowances to Junior Captains and other Officers selected for the Staff of the Royal Naval War College:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the special allowance therein laid down for Junior Captains should be applicable to all Captains of Your Majesty's Navy while serving on the Staff of the Royal Naval War College:

"And whereas we further consider that the qualifications required of the Royal Marine Officer selected for the Staff of the War College merit a higher rate of extra remuneration than the allowance of four shillings a day sanctioned by the above-mentioned Order in Council.

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the following proposals:—

"The special allowance of six shillings a day to be payable, as from the first January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to all

Captains Royal Navy serving on the Staff of the Royal Naval War College whatever may be their seniority.

"In the event of a Major or Captain of the Royal Marines of five years' seniority, who has passed the Staff College, being selected for the Staff of the Royal Naval War College, the special allowance to be increased, at the discretion of the Admiralty, to six shillings a day, to take effect on the relief of the Officer now holding the appointment.

"Power to be reserved to the Admiralty to grant the temporary rank of Major to a Captain of five years' seniority when selected for the Staff of the War College.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas in order to meet the requirements of Your Majesty's Naval Service, we have recently found it necessary to institute an advanced course of training for a proportion of the Gunners of Your Majesty's Fleet:

"And whereas instructional work of a more advanced nature will consequently devolve upon the Naval Instructor of Your Majesty's Ship "Excellent," in addition to his other duties:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction a tuition allowance of one hundred pounds per annum being paid to this Officer as from the fourteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the place of the allowance of thirty-six pounds ten shillings per annum authorized by Order in Council of the thirteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and two.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

"And whereas under Chapter XXXVIII of the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service extra pay at various rates is authorized to be paid to Officers, Petty Officers, Men and Boys of Your Majesty's Navy when employed on extra duty:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the rates of extra pay therein laid down are in some instances unnecessarily high when the extra duty is performed by the native ratings (Kroomen, Seedies, Goanese, &c.) employed in Your Majesty's ships on foreign stations:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us to pay such rates of extra pay in the case of native ratings, within the limits laid down in the above mentioned Regulations for European ratings, as we may from time to time determine.

"And whereas by Orders in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eight, sanction was given to the payment of allowances at the rate of sixteen pounds and twelve pounds per annum respectively to persons employed as Printers and Assistant Printers in the offices of Commanders-in-Chief in Your Majesty's Fleet:

"And whereas it has been found necessary in certain instances to employ persons as Printers and Assistant Printers in the offices of Flag Officers in Your Majesty's Fleet other than those holding appointments as Commanders-in-Chief:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment at our discretion of allowances at the rate of sixteen pounds and twelve pounds per annum respectively to persons employed in the offices of any Flag Officer, subject to the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury in each instance, and with retrospective effect to meet the case of persons who may have been already so employed:
