TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1910.

Whitehall, June 13, 1910.

The following Address has been received by the Secretary of State for the Home Department from the Civil Servants of the United Kingdom for presentation to The King, and has been presented to His Majesty accordingly:—

May it please Your Majesty,

The Civil Servants of the Crown throughout the United Kingdom desire to tender to Your Majesty their profound sympathy in the loss which has befallen Your Majesty and the Empire by the death of His late Majesty: and to express their deep devotion and loyalty to Your Majesty's person, and their prayers for Your Majesty's long and prosperous reign.

G. H. Murray,

Secretary of the Treasury,
on behalf of all Civil Servants of Great Britain and Ireland.

To which Address the following gracious reply has been sent by His Majesty's command:—

*Home Office, Whitehall,

Sir,

I have had the honour to lay before The King the Address of Condolence from the Civil Servants of Great Britain and Ireland on the death of His late Majesty, and I am to say that The King highly appreciates this expression of sympathy, and desires me to request that you will convey

His sincere thanks to the Civil Servants of the Crown.

The King is pleased at the assurances of loyalty and devotion contained in the Address. He knows that novel and arduous duties, requiring for their discharge superior personal qualities besides knowledge and industry, are constantly being imposed upon the Departments of State by the legislative Measures needed to regulate the growing complexity of national life, and by an increasing refinement in the details of administration.

He is sure that the good service which was rendered during King Edward's Reign will be loyally continued to Himself and to His Ministers.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Sir George H. Murray, G.C.B., I.S.O.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Whitehall, June 13, 1910.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty, at St. James's Palace, on the 9th instant:—

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, humbly approach Your Majesty for the purpose of giving expression to our feelings of profound sorrow on the sudden and lamented death of our late greatly beloved and most gracious Sovereign, King Edward the Seventh, Emperor of India, the memory of whose illustrious and beneficent reign will ever be cherished in the hearts of His people and the history of His country.

His high sense of His kingly duties, His sound judgment and exalted motives were recognised and acknowledged not only by His own devoted subjects but also by the rulers and peoples of the civilised world, whilst His efforts for the maintenance of peaceful relations between them will remain a lasting memory of the benign influence He so wisely exercised.

The accession of Your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms in succession to Your Royal Father, our late revered King, inspires us with the hope and confidence that, actuated by His lofty example, Your Majesty will maintain and uphold the greatness of our Empire and the integrity of its institutions.

We earnestly pray that in the discharge of Your exalted duties Your Majesty and Your illustrious Consort may be blessed with health, and that a long and prosperous Reign over a free, loyal, and contented people may by the blessing of the Almighty be vouchsafed to you.

Signed by Order of the Court,

JAMES BELL, Town Clerk.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with feelings of the deepest grief and most respectful sympathy to express to Your Majesty our devoted attachment to Your Majesty's person and Government, and our heartfelt sorrow and condolence on the sudden and greatly lamented death of our late beloved Sovereign, His Majesty King Edward VII, whose ever conscientious and patriotic fulfilment of the duties of His exalted office won for Him the love and devotion of His faithful subjects, and whose earnest endeavours for the welfare of His Empire, the furtherance of international amity, and the peaceful progress of civilised nations are so extensively and cordially acknowledged.

Whilst with humility and resignation we submit ourselves to the inscrutable will of Almighty God we with heartfelt gratification hail Your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne of Your Ancestors in the certain belief that Your Majesty will follow in the footsteps of Your illustrious Father, our late revered Sovereign, and at the same time maintain and uphold the Constitutional Government of these Realms.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty and Your gracious and illustrious Consort, Her Majesty Queen Mary, may be long spared to reign over a loyal, united and contented people.

Signed by Order of the Court,

JAMES BELL, Town Clerk.

To which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you most heartily on behalf of Queen Mary and Myself for your loyal and dutiful Addresses, and am touched by your words of condolence with Me in My sorrow at the death of My beloved Father.

"It is a source of consolation to Me to feel that the hearts of My subjects in My capital City are deeply moved in sorrow by Our bereavement, and that, as you truly say, the loss which falls upon Me and My family is shared by the many Peoples who dwell securely within the circle of the British Empire, and whose welfare and contentment were the main object of King Edward's life.

"I humbly join in the prayer which you offer to Almighty God that He in His great mercy may give Me strength to follow in the footsteps of My Father and that I may be enabled to continue his efforts to consolidate the foundation of Peace among the Powers of the world and to promote the spirit of good will among all classes of My subjects here at home."

The following Address was presented to His Majesty at St. James's Palace, on the 9th instant:—

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President, Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London for Promoting Natural Knowledge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London for Promoting Natural Knowledge, humbly beg leave to offer our most heartfelt sympathy with Your Majesty in the great and sudden sorrow which has befallen You in the death of Your universally beloved and revered Father, our late Sovereign, King Edward VII.

Your Majesty's loss is mourned by the whole Empire and by the wide world beyond. We desire to express not only our keen share in the universal grief, but our sense of personal bereavement; for we are proud to remember that no less than forty-seven years ago The King was graciously pleased to enter the Fellowship of the Royal Society, and later, on His accession to the Throne, to become our Patron. In the cultivation of the arts of peace wherein His Majesty was so active and so successful, He recognised that among these arts the development of Science holds a high place, and that the promotion of Natural Knowledge, for which the Royal Society was founded by one of His Royal Ancestors, was an object ever worthy of His fostering care. We mourn that a life so beneficent should have closed so soon.

While thus seeking to express our profound sorrow, we ask leave, Sire, at the same time to lay at Your Majesty's feet our unfeigned and cordial congratulations upon Your accession to the Throne of Your Ancestors. Your Majesty enters upon the duties of Your high station with a wider personal knowledge of the Empire and its various peoples than was ever possessed by any previous Sovereign of this country. Your subjects have had many proofs that this extended knowledge has been accompanied by an active sympathy with every cause and movement that will promote their welfare and happiness. The interest which Your Majesty has shown in the progress of discovery and invention assures us that these elements of national greatness will continue to receive Your favour and protection.

That, with these happy auguries for the future, Your Majesty's reign may be long, happy and glorious, and that You may ever rule in the hearts as well as over the persons of a loving, dutiful and grateful people is the earnest wish and ardent prayer of

Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects,

(L.S.) THE PRESIDENT, COUNCIL AND FELLOWS
OF THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF LONDON.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you for your loyal Address of condolence from the President, Council, and Fellows of the Royal Society on the death of My beloved father. It is a consolation to feel that your Society, numbering amongst its Fellows the most distinguished Men of Science of this Country, sympathises with Me in My terrible bereavement.

"Your words of appreciation of the character of the late King are very welcome to Me. He always regarded with the deepest interest those scientific discoveries, and those applications of discoveries already made which have been of such supreme importance in the advancement of civilization. I also have watched with close attention the work of your Society, and it is My sincere hope that its prosperity will continue, and that a Fellowship of the Royal Society will always be esteemed one of the highest honours which can be earned by devotion to the cause of science.

"I desire to thank you most cordially for your congratulations on My Accession to the Throne, and to assure you of My sympathy and support in your beneficent efforts for the promotion of natural knowledge. I gladly accede to your request that I should inscribe My name as Patron in your Charter Book."

The following Address was presented to His Majesty, at St. James's Palace, on the 9th instant:—

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Council of the Administrative County of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Council of the Administrative County of London, the representative authority of the inhabitants of the capital of the Empire, humbly approach Your Majesty that we may lay before Your Majesty the expression of our feelings on the occasion of the death of our late much-loved King and of the accession of Your Majesty to the Throne.

We venture humbly to assure Your Majesty that we share to the full the sorrow which the death of His late Majesty King Edward VII has awakened in the hearts not only of the people of this Kingdom, but of our fellow subjects in the dominions beyond the seas and in India.

We ask also leave to say that in an especial degree this loss appeals to us because of the many signal acts of Royal favour with which His late Majesty honoured us, and the sympathy and recognition which He always gave to the work which has fallen to us to perform for the capital of the Empire, in the governance of which His Majesty took a great and abiding interest, and in the midst of which He frequently made his residence, ever caring for the health, beauty and comfort of this great county.

In the grief of Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal House, and especially in the pre-eminent grief of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Alexandra, we venture to express very respectfully the sympathy of the people of London.

We pray Your Majesty to believe that we hail with the utmost satisfaction Your Majesty's accession to the Throne. Assured as well by the gracious messages addressed to the nation as by the recollection of Your Majesty's personal interest in the great work in which we are engaged, we are confident that our labours for the amelioration of the lot of those least fortunately placed, the education of the future industrial population of London, and the provision of the many and varied necessities essential for the well-being of so vast a community, will receive at Your Majesty's hands a continuance of Royal sympathy and support. We gratefully recall that Your Majesty and Her Majesty Queen Mary, as Prince and Princess of Wales, honoured the Council by inaugurating its electrified tramway system, visiting its suburban working class cottages at Tooting, and opening Rotherhithe-tunnel, and by being present on other notable occasions associated with its municipal work.

We humbly assure Your Majesty of our whole-hearted loyalty and of our devotion to the persons of Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Gracious and Royal Consort, Her Majesty Queen Mary, daughter of a much loved Princess of the British Royal House. We venture to express the belief that the recurrence of Royal names belonging to the history of our country which the accession of Your Majesty has brought about in the titles assumed by Your Majesty and Her Majesty the Queen augurs well for the continuance of that progress in material and moral welfare which has hitherto fallen to the lot of our beloved country; and we humbly pray that Your Majesty may long be spared by the blessing of Almighty God to reign over these realms receiving ever the respect, love and homage of a people devoted to their free institutions.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious answer:—

"I thank you most cordially for the Address of Condolence from the Council of the Administrative County of London on the death of My beloved father, for the words of heartfelt sympathy which it contains, and for your appreciation of the interest taken by the late King in the welfare of this great City.

"I wish also to convey to you the thanks of the Queen and Myself for your expressions of devotion to Our Persons, and of My beloved Mother for your sympathetic allusions to Her terrible loss.

"I have long watched with interest the progress of the many duties undertaken by the Council. I am aware of the difficulties they have to meet and of the labour and effort by which they are overcome. Great advance has been made in the provision of accommodation for persons of the working class; and educational work of the Metropolis has never been more efficiently conducted than at present. The broad and noble streets which you have opened through crowded areas, the vast network of tramways by which you have enabled workmen employed in the central districts to live on the confines of the country, the tunnels by which you have united the two sides of the river, the great parks which you have provided for the recreation of the people, are works of lasting public utility of which you and the officers who have worked for you may well be proud.

"I desire to assure you of My confidence in the successful continuance of your work in every department, and in the maintenance of that high standard of public spirit which has rendered you worthy to preside over the destinies of the great Metropolitan County."

At the conclusion of the City's audience of His Majesty at St. James's Palace, the Lord Mayor was received by Queen Alexandra at Buckingham Palace, and there presented to Her Majesty the following Addresses:—

To Her Majesty Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, humbly approach Your Majesty with feelings of profound grief to offer to Your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the great loss Your Majesty, the Royal Family and the Empire have sustained by the lamented death of His late Most Gracious Majesty, King Edward VII.

The feelings of devoted attachment which the people of these realms have so long entertained for Your Gracious Majesty, and the place which by Your virtues and amiable conduct as Queen, Wife and Mother You have filled in their hearts, they trust will be a source of consolation to Your Majesty in the heavy bereavement which with such painful suddenness it has pleased God to visit You and the Members of Your Royal Family.

We recall the unremitting and exemplary solicitude shown by Your Majesty not only in this last but on previous occasions on which His late Majesty was afflicted by severe illness and when the nation was deeply stirred by Your self-sacrificing devotion, and we desire to assure Your Majesty that sentiments of the highest respect, affection and gratitude for the earnest interest You have evinced in support of His late Majesty's endeavour to promote the happiness of the people of Your country will ever be retained by them.

We fervently pray that under Divine Providence Your Majesty may be strengthened to endure the great affliction with which You have been visited, and that Your Majesty may long be spared to continue to afford in Your exalted station an example of those virtues for which you are so distinguished.

Signed by Order of the Court,

JAMES BELL, Town Clerk.

To Her Majesty Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, humbly approach Your Majesty with feelings of profound sorrow to offer to Your Majesty our heartfelt sympathy in the irreparable loss Your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Empire have sustained by the lamented death of His late Most Gracious Majesty King Edward the Seventh.

During the many years of Your Majesty's wedded life, as Princess and Queen Consort, the people of these Realms have, with sincere and ever-increasing love and gratitude, watched and appreciated the sympathetic and loyal help You rendered to His late Majesty in His noble efforts to further the cause of charity and the welfare of His people, whilst the anxiety You have shown in the education and happiness of Your Royal Children, and Your exemplary devotion to His late Majesty in His severe illnesses, have enshrined Your Majesty in the hearts of the people.

That Divine consolation may be given to Your Majesty to bear with resignation the great bereavement You have sustained is the earnest prayer of a devoted people.

Signed by Order of the Court,

JAMES BELL, Town Clerk,

To which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I am deeply touched by the Addresses of condolence which you have handed to Me. It is some consolation to Me in My terrible bereavement to feel that the heart of the great City of London goes out to Me, that I possess their sympathy in My overwhelming grief and that they so fully understand My deep sense of the irreparable loss which has befallen Me. I am sincerely grateful for the kind words of your Addresses, and I trust that you will convey to the Aldermen and Common Council My heartfelt thanks."

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Tatsfield, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tatsfield is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower, of Titsey-place, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, during his life, and the said Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tatsfield should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, now Bishop of Southwark, is consenting to the transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed and has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinafter mentioned

Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Tatsfield which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Tatsfield.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom together with the said Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage shall be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Archibald Gresham Leveson Gower, of Linton Vicarage, Maidstone, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Reverend Richard Busk Paterson Wells, of Cartmel Vicarage, Carnforth, in the county of Lancaster, Clerk in Holy Orders (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Tatsfield shall be transferred to the said Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower, Frederick Archibald Gresham Leveson Gower, and Richard Busk Paterson Wells, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Granville Charles Gresham Leveson Gower, Frederick Archibald Gresham Leveson Gower, and Richard Busk Paterson Wells, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Catherington, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Catherington is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Samuel Gilbert Scott, of the Rectory, Havant, in the county of Southampton, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Winchester.

"And whereas the said Samuel Gilbert Scott is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Catherington now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, now Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Catherington, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Catherington.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Samuel Gilbert Scott (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Catherington, now vested in him the said Samuel Gilbert Scott as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same bishoprick (and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same bishoprick) for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Paul, Wimbledon Park, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Wimbledon Park, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Robert Hamilton Few, of Southery Grange, Wimbledon, Esquire, and the Reverend Walter Lock, Doctor in Divinity, Warden of Keble College, Oxford, as Trustees of a deed poll dated the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, under the hands and seals of Frederick Earl Beauchamp, Philip Charles Hardwick, John Liddon, the said Robert Hamilton Few, and Henry Trelawny Boodle, with power to convey the right of patronage to any corporation having power to hold Church patronage and so that such corporation shall not have power to sell or otherwise part with or dispose of for any valuable consideration the said right of patronage.

"And whereas by section forty-two of the above mentioned Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, it was enacted that it should not be lawful for any spiritual person to sell or assign any patronage belonging to him by virtue of any dignity or spiritual office held by him and that every such sale or assignment should be null and void to all intents and purposes.

"And whereas the said Robert Hamilton Few and Walter Lock are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Wimbledon Park, now vested in them as aforesaid, should under the powers conferred on them by the said deed poll be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Southwark.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, now Bishop of Southwark, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Paul, Wimbledon Park, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint Paul, Wimbledon Park.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Robert Hamilton Few and Walter Lock (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Wimbledon Park, now vested in them the said Robert Hamilton Few and Walter Lock as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Little Clacton, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Clacton is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Frederick Peel Yates, of the Vicarage, Little Clacton, in the said county of Essex, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Frederick Peel Yates is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Clacton, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Little Clacton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Little Clacton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Frederick Peel Yates (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Clacton, now vested in him the said Frederick Peel Yates as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing a transfer of the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage to the Bishop of any new Bishoprick which may be constituted with a diocese comprising within its limits the said parish of Little Clacton, or from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section thirty of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as amended by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1893, it is provided (inter alia) that if a majority of the whole Council of a borough agree to petition and the Council thereupon petition the King for the alteration of the number and boundaries of its wards or for the alteration of the boundaries of its wards without any alteration of their number, it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to fix the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided and the borough shall be divided into that number of wards, and that where an Order in Council has been so made the Secretary of State shall appoint a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards and apportioning the Councillors among them:

And whereas a humble petition was presented to His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh by the Council of the county borough of Southampton, praying that His said late Majesty in Council would be pleased to make an alteration of the boundaries of the wards of the said borough, which said petition His said late Majesty was pleased to refer to a Committee of the Privy Council:

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section four hundred and forty-five of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that where the Board of Trade certify that the laws and regulations for the time being in force in any foreign country and relating to overloading and improper loading are equally effective with the provisions of that Act relating thereto, His Majesty in Council may direct that on proof of a ship of that country having complied with those laws and regulations, she shall not, when in a port of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the said provisions of that Act, nor shall there arise any liability to any fine or penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions:

And whereas by section one of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, provision, as is more particularly therein mentioned, is made for applying to foreign ships when in ports in the United Kingdom certain sections of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, which relate to loadline, without prejudice to any direction of His Majesty in Council given under the said section four hundred and forty-five of the last-mentioned Act:

And whereas the Board of Trade have certified that certain statutory regulations which have been approved by the Government of the Netherlands relating to overloading, so far as regards the assignment of loadlines to ships belonging to the Netherlands on and after the first January, one thousand nine hundred and nine, are equally effective with the corresponding regulations in force in this country respecting the assignment of loadlines to British merchant ships:

Now therefore, His Majesty in Council doth direct that on proof that ships belonging to the Netherlands have complied with the aforesaid regulations of the Government of the Netherlands, such ships shall not, when in ports of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts relating to overloading, nor shall there arise any liability to any fine or penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section four of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, it is provided that sections four hundred and twenty-seven to four hundred and thirty-one of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (hereinafter called the Principal Act), relating to life-saving appliances shall, after the appointed day, apply to all foreign ships while they are within any port of the United Kingdom as they apply to British ships: Provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that those provisions shall not apply to any ship of a foreign country in which the provisions in force relating to life-saving appliances appear to His Majesty to be as effective as the provisions of Part V of the Principal Act, on proof that those provisions are complied with in the case of that ship:

And whereas by section five of the said Act it is provided that the said appointed day shall be the first day of January, nineteen hundred and nine, or such other day not being more than twelve months later, as the Board of Trade may appoint:

And whereas the Board of Trade have appointed the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to be the day after which the provisions of the Principal Act relating to life-saving appliances should apply to all foreign ships while they are within any port of the United Kingdom as they apply to British ships:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that the provisions in force in the Netherlands relating to life-saving appliances are as effective as the provisions of Part V of the Principal Act:

Now therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the provisions of sections four hundred and twenty-seven to four hundred and thirty-one of the Principal Act shall not apply to any ship of the Netherlands while within any port of the United Kingdom, if it is proved that the aforesaid provisions in force in the Netherlands relating to life-saving appliances are complied with in the case of that ship.

The KING has been pleased to approve of the Albert Medal of the First Class being conferred upon Mr. Charles Wagner and the Albert Medal of the Second Class upon Mr. Alexander James Stewart, both of Pietermaritzburg, for gallantry in saving life as detailed below:—

On the 15th November, 1899, near Chieveley Station, in Natal, an armoured train which had been sent out on patrol was intercepted by the Boers and three carriages were thrown off the line. These vehicles lay between the rest of the train and the track over which it must travel on its homeward journey, and until they were removed the train, the engine and its escort—about 150 men—were exposed to a severe converging fire of rifles and artillery from the surrounding hills.

The sole means by which the line could be cleared was the engine, which moving to and fro butted at the wreckage until after about 50 minutes' work it was heaved and pushed off the track. The part played by the driver of the engine, Charles Wagner, and by the fireman, Alexander James Stewart, was therefore indispensable to the rescue of the wounded with whom the engine and its tender became crowded. The working of the engine itself was a difficult matter, because at each collision with the wreckage at which it was butting it might easily have been derailed.

The danger was exceptional. The heavy fire of shells and bullets inflicted many casualties, and more than one quarter of all in the train were killed or wounded. The shells repeatedly struck the engine and at any moment might have exploded the boiler. The driver, a civilian, under no military code, was wounded severely in the scalp by a shell-splinter almost immediately. Although in great pain he did not fail during the whole of this affair to manage his engine skilfully, and by clearing the line saved from death and wounds a proportion at least of the 50 or 60 persons who effected their escape upon the engine and its tender.

Both the driver and his fireman are still in the service of the Natal Government Railways.

No. 824.—BALTIC—SWEDEN, SOUTH COAST.

Karlskrona Approach—Submarine Mining Practice.

Position.—Drottningskär, lat.  $56^{\circ} 6\frac{1}{2}' N.$ , long.  $15^{\circ} 34' E.$

Details.—Submarine mining practice is now being carried out in the Great (Southern) and Eastern Channels leading to Karlskrona, and will be continued until the 30th September, 1910. The undermentioned directions have been published for the guidance of vessels wishing to enter the harbour.

Directions.—During the progress of mining exercises in the Great Channel, a passage is kept free for traffic either eastward or westward of the leading mark. The former is indicated by a ball hoisted at the masthead of Drottning-skär flagstaff, when vessels should keep close to the red buoy in the narrows abreast of Drottning-skär; the latter by a ball hoisted at half-mast on the same flagstaff, when vessels should keep close to the black buoy off the obstruction extending from Drottning-skär citadel. By night, vessels can enter as usual by keeping in the sector of occulting white light shown from Godnatt Lighthouse. Vessels must comply with all directions given from the guard-boat, which carries a blue and white chequered flag, and hails approaching vessels. Vessels or boats employed in mining operations, when at anchor, show a red flag on the side on which vessels can pass. When mining exercises are being carried out in the Eastern Channel, a guard-boat, also carrying a blue and white chequered flag, is stationed there to warn vessels.

Note.—The guard-boat will hail vessels by firing a blank charge and by waving the blue and white chequered flag.
