TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1910.

Scottish Office, Whitehall, 23rd June, 1910.

At St. James's Palace on the 22nd instant The King received on the Throne Deputations with Addresses from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, the Corporation of the City of Edinburgh, and the University of Edinburgh, as follows:—

Church of Scotland.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in General Assembly, desire to be permitted, with all loyal respect, to tender to Your Majesty, to our gracious Queen, and to Your Royal Family, an expression of our deep sympathy with You in the great and unlooked-for loss by death of one so near and precious to You as our late beloved Sovereign of glorious memory, in intercourse with whom Your Majesty enjoyed, as we have learned from Your Majesty's own words, not only a father's love, but also the affectionate intimacy of a dear friend and adviser,—and whose reign, though short, had gained for Him, in unsurpassed degree, the affectionate trust of His people and the honour of the whole world.

The greatness of the two successive reigns of Your Royal Grandmother and Father, and the blessings which the nation owes to Their thoughtful care and Their devotion to the public good, make the beginning of a new reign momentous to the whole people, and we desire to assure Your Majesty that our eyes are turned toward You, with concern indeed, that a time of sore bereavement should also be one of greatly increased responsibilities, but with thankful expectancy and hope for the future, because of the confidence we have in Your Majesty's high purpose, faith in God, trust in Your people, wide knowledge of them, and strong desire for the progress in all good of those over whom in the providence of God You have been called to reign.

Never before have the people of this country been so conscious of the blessing to them of a constitutional Sovereign, uniting in one loyalty and trust men of many conflicting opinions and interests,—men even of different races and regions of the world. Nor ever have our people been more aware of the delicacy, the difficulty, and the toilsomeness of the tasks to which Your Majesty is called as their Sovereign. We ask leave to assure Your Majesty of the loyal and devoted support which the ministers, elders, and members of the Church of Scotland will unanimously give You, and of the earnest prayers which we shall continually offer that Your Majesty may be sustained by an unfailing assurance that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has called You to a place than which there is none greater for its influence on the happiness of men and the history of the world, will constantly supply You with His own grace and guidance, that He will make You equal in body, mind, and spirit, to the successive duties which He lays upon You, that He will uphold You by the increasing trust and affection of Your people, and that He will bless You in the comfort of Your family life, especially in the presence by Your side of Her whom, in His great goodness, He has given to be Your helpmate. We are assured that in thus addressing Your Majesty we express not only our own earnest wishes, but also the general mind and feeling of the people of Your Majesty's ancient kingdom of Scotland.

We are greatly encouraged in our work for the spiritual good of our beloved country by knowing that Your Majesty, on the first day of your accession to the Throne, signed the Declaration provided for in the Act of Union of the Kingdoms, that You will maintain and preserve inviolably the settlement of the true Protestant religion, with the government, worship, discipline, rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland as established by law. We are equally encouraged by Your Majesty's expressed determination that the countenance and favour which the Church of Scotland received from Your Illustrious Father it shall ever receive undiminished from Your Majesty. It is also very welcome to our hearts that Your Majesty, our gracious Queen, and Your Royal Family, are familiar with Scotland and with the worship of the Scottish Church.

That Your Majesty's reign may be long, that its years may be years of peace, that it may be another reign in succession of increasing honour, stability, power for good in the world, loyal allegiance to the Sovereign from the whole people, and rich blessing from God upon Yourself and Your Royal Consort, is the heart's desire and prayer of,

May it please Your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by

PEARSON M'ADAM MUIR, D.D.,
Moderator.

Edinburgh, 28th May, 1910.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I am pleased to receive your dutiful Address presented to Me here in accordance with the ancient privilege which happily accords with the close attachment of the Church of Scotland to the Throne.

"I thank you for the words in which you have so justly commemorated the reigns of Queen Victoria of revered memory and of My beloved Father. While I join with the Nation in mourning its irreparable loss, I cherish with pride that devotion to duty and love for His people which will ever characterise the memory of our late beloved Sovereign.

"I thank you also most heartily, on behalf of Queen Mary and Myself, for the earnest assurances you have given of your devotion to the Throne, and I am deeply sensible of the strength to be drawn from your prayers on Our behalf.

"The recent meeting of your General Assembly afforded Me the opportunity, of which I gladly availed Myself through My Commissioner, of renewing to the Ministers and Elders of that venerable Body the assurance of My firm determination to maintain undiminished the rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland as by law established.

"I welcome this occasion of confirming in your presence the declaration made upon My accession to the Throne.

"I know well how great are the services rendered by the Church of Scotland to the cause of religion and humanity, and it is My firm trust that under the hand of God her labours will have issue more and more manifest in the future which lies before her."

City of Edinburgh.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, humbly offer to Your Majesty our congratulations on Your accession to the Throne of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, and we trust that Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort will be long spared to reign over Your loyal subjects in these realms.

We respectfully assure Your Majesty of our loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's Person, Throne and Government.

The high conception of public duty which Your Majesty displayed as Prince of Wales and the intimate knowledge which You have acquired of the affairs of Your vast empire, are an assurance to us that Your Majesty will worthily maintain and uphold the great traditions which have gathered round the British Throne during the reigns of Your Grandmother, the Great and Good Queen Victoria, and of Your illustrious and beloved Father, the late King Edward.

We assure Your Majesty of the unswerving loyalty and fidelity of the Citizens of Your City of Edinburgh, the Capital of Scotland.

Given in name and by authority of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the tenth day of May, 1910.

(L. S.)

W. S. BROWN, Lord Provost.
THOMAS HUNTER, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you for your loyal and dutiful address.

"The Citizens of Edinburgh, the Capital of My Kingdom of Scotland, are the inheritors of many honourable traditions, and I am glad to receive you, their representatives, here to-day in the exercise of your ancient privilege.

"I appreciate your reference to the illustrious reigns of Queen Victoria and of My beloved Father, and I am grateful for your expressions of loyalty to My own person.

"In discharging the duties to which I have been called, I rely with confidence upon the loyal support of My Scottish subjects, and am assured that not least distinguished in zeal and earnestness will be the people of the city of Edinburgh, which has ever been a notable centre of light and civilisation in the history of these realms."

University of Edinburgh.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Senatus Academicus, and University Court... of the University of Edinburgh, humbly tender to Your Majesty an expression of the profound sorrow which has been evoked by the death of our much beloved Sovereign, King Edward the Seventh.

We respectfully offer to Your Majesty, to Queen Mary, the Queen Mother and the other Members of the Royal Family, our humble sympathy in the irreparable bereavement which Your Royal House has sustained.

We recall with devout gratitude that the reign of King Edward, shortened though it has been by His premature death, was one full of blessings to His country and His people. Under His sway the nation has rejoiced in the possession of peace within its boundaries; cordial relations have been established and preserved between the British Empire and other civilised countries; and by His late Majesty's tact and influence good feeling has been promoted amongst all the nations.

We would refer to an incident in the life of King Edward. In 1859-60, as Prince of Wales, He matriculated as a student of this University, and attended the prelections of one of the professors. Since that time the number of the professors and teachers has greatly increased, the buildings of the University have been extended, the methods of teaching have been greatly improved, and students have congregated from all parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, from the Empire of India, and from Your Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas.

And now in a spirit of dutiful loyalty we would beg to offer to Your Majesty our congratulations on Your succession to the historic Throne of these Kingdoms, and to assure Your Majesty of our unswerving fidelity to Your person.

It is our humble and heartfelt prayer that Your Majesty, following in the steps of Your august predecessor, may long be spared to reign over a prosperous and united people.

ARTHUR JAMES BALFOUR
(Chancellor).

GEORGE WYNDHAM (Rector).
WM. TURNER (Principal).

MALCOLM C. TAYLOR,
Secretary, University Court.
L. J. GRANT,
Secretary of Senatus.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I am glad to receive you here to-day in accordance with the honourable privilege of your University.

"I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address and especially for the tribute you have paid to the reign of My beloved Father, and for the expression of your sympathy in the loss which has been sustained by Myself and My Family.

"It gave me great pleasure to listen to the record which you have recited of the growth and increasing prosperity of the University of Edinburgh since the time when as Prince of Wales My dear Father matriculated as a student. The work of the Universities is of far-reaching importance to the welfare of My people, and I feel confident that every extension of the sphere of their influence will be attended with beneficent results. I shall follow with deep interest and continual good wishes the work which is being done by your University in furthering the advance of sound learning and education."

Deputations from the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh and from the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh were subsequently introduced and presented their Addresses as follows:—

Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, humbly approach Your Majesty to express our profound sympathy in the great bereavement which has been suffered by Your Majesty, Your Royal Consort, The Queen Mother, and the other Members of the Royal Family, in the death of our much beloved Sovereign, King Edward.

With the Nation at large we mourn the loss of one whose life was so conspicuously devoted to the maintenance of peace, not only within the confines of the Empire over which He ruled, but throughout the world.

This influence was achieved in great measure by His unfailing tact, His accurate knowledge of mankind, His geniality of disposition, His gift of recollection and recognition of individuals, and His conspicuous devotion to the discharge of every duty.

To us as Members of the Medical Profession, King Edward's active interest in the health of His subjects comes specially home. The influence of His work, as Prince of Wales, on behalf of the London Hospitals was felt far beyond London, while the great interest He took in the subjects of Cancer and Consumption will, we believe, yield abundant fruit in the future.

We most loyally and heartily congratulate Your Majesty on Your Accession to the Throne, and we confidently anticipate that Your wide experience of travel and consequent familiarity with all parts of Your Dominions and their inhabitants will specially appeal to a Nation which loves a sailor King.

We hail with satisfaction Your love for the country, for field sports, and for quiet domesticity, as a means of directing the trend of thought towards that simpler existence and plainer life on which we, as medical men, lay so much stress.

In assuring Your Majesty of our most loyal and dutiful allegiance, we warmly express the hope that with Your Gracious Queen Consort You may long be spared to reign over a happy and prosperous Empire.

Signed in name and under the seal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh this the twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and ten years.

W. ALLAN JAMESON, President.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"It is with great satisfaction that I am able to receive at your hands the Address from the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, and I thank you for your dutiful expression of loyal allegiance to Queen Mary and Myself, and for your profound sympathy with Our present grief:

"I am much gratified by your sympathetic references to the personal qualities of My beloved Father the late King, and the practical aid which He vouchsafed to measures designed to ameliorate the condition of the sick and disabled. You may rest assured that the cause of medical science, in which He took so deep a personal interest will continue to have My warmest support."

Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.

Unto the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, under their Corporate Seal.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, in meeting assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to Your Most Gracious Majesty the expression of our sincere and respectful condolence on the lamented death of Your Royal Father, our dearly beloved Sovereign, King Edward the Seventh.

While deeply mourning the great bereavement which has befallen Your Royal House and the whole British Empire, we are comforted by the reflection that our late illustrious King so beneficently reigned over His subjects as to elicit the deepest devotion and warmest loyalty of all ranks and classes.

Very specially do we recognise the great debt of gratitude due to King Edward for the powerful assistance and encouragement He ever gave to scientific advancement in our profession, and for the deep interest He ever took in those practical results which have contributed to improve the comfort and health of the nation.

We rejoice that our late lamented King, by the zealous discharge of the multifarious duties of His high and exalted station, by His deeply sympathetic nature, and by His constant thought for the welfare of all His subjects, was acclaimed a wise Ruler and revered as a Gracious Sovereign.

In tendering to Your Majesty our respectful congratulations on Your accession to the Throne of these Realms, it is our fervent desire and prayer that Your Majesty and Your Royal and Gracious Consort may long be spared to reign over a free, happy, loyal and united people.

Signed and sealed in name and by authority of the Royal College at Edinburgh, on the seventeenth day of May, nineteen hundred and ten.

(L. S.)

JOSEPH MONTAGU COTTERILL, President.

R. M'KENZIE JOHNSTON, Secretary.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"It is with great satisfaction that I am able to receive at your hands the Address from the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, and I thank you for your dutiful expression of loyal allegiance to Queen Mary and Myself and for your profound sympathy with Our present grief.

"I am much gratified by your sympathetic references to the personal qualities of My beloved Father the late King, and the practical aid which He vouchsafed to measures designed to ameliorate the condition of the sick and disabled. You may rest assured that the cause of medical science in which He took so deep a personal interest will continue to have My warmest support."

At the Court at Saint James's, the 21st day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by section eight of the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That

"whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; "

And whereas by section twenty-three of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Act, 1841, it is enacted, "that whenever it shall be made to appear to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that it would be expedient to make an exchange of an advowson or of any right of patronage, for any other advowson or right of patronage, with a view to proceedings being taken for the union of two or more benefices, under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the patron or patrons of every such advowson or right of patronage, and also in case any such advowson or right of patronage shall be vested in or belong to any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, or in the case of benefices lying in more than one diocese then with the consent of the Bishop of each diocese, and where a Bishop shall be himself one of the patrons with the consent of the Archbishop of the Province, to certify the same to such Archbishop; and that thereupon, if the said Archbishop shall think fit, proceedings may be taken, under and in pursuance of the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, for effecting the union of such benefices; and the said Archbishop, at the same time that he shall certify to His Majesty in Council the inquiry and consent referred to in the same Act, shall transmit such certificate of the said Commissioners to His Majesty in Council, together with an abstract of the title to any advowson.

"or right of patronage mentioned in the certificate of the said Commissioners other than advowsons or rights of patronage belonging to any such Ecclesiastical Corporation as aforesaid, and the opinion of counsel on such title; and that thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, in any Order for such licence made and issued under the provisions of the same Act, to order that such exchange as aforesaid shall take effect; and upon such Order being made and registered pursuant to the said Act, the said exchange shall be valid and effectual, without any other assurance in the law, and notwithstanding that the advowsons or rights of patronage, or any or either of them, exchanged by virtue of the said Order, were, or was previously thereto, vested in or belonged to any such Ecclesiastical Corporation as aforesaid; and the respective exchanges, their heirs, appointees, successors and assigns, shall thenceforth stand seized of the advowsons or rights of patronage so taken in exchange, in the same manner to all intents and purposes and subject to the same trusts, powers, limitations, charges and incumbrances (if any), as the advowsons or rights of patronage by them given in exchange were respectively held and were subject."

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Salisbury, as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the vicarage of Toller Porcorum, otherwise Great Toller, and the vicarage of Toller Fratrum, otherwise Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed, both in the county of Dorset, having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed fifteen hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice, we enquired into the circumstances of the case:

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that Robert Williams, of Bridehead, in the said county of Dorset, Member of Parliament, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the said vicarage of Great Toller (if the same were now vacant) and the Right Honourable Philip George, sixth Baron Wynford, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the said vicarage of Little Toller with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed (the same being now vacant), have consented to the proposed union and to the exchange of patronage hereinafter referred to:

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown:

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Salisbury, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consents in writing of the said Robert Williams and the said Baron Wynford as Patrons of the said benefices of Great Toller and Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle respectively and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are herewith annexed:

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consents aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes, and further that in pursuance of a certificate by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, dated the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, we recommend that the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of Little Toller with Wynford Eagle should be exchanged for the advowson or right of patronage of West Compton alias Compton Abbas West, in the said county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury, and we therefore transmit herewith to Your Majesty in Council such certificate together with abstracts of the title to the said advowsons respectively, and Counsel's opinion thereon.

"Randall Cantuar."

And whereas the certificate of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the consents of the Patrons referred to in the Archbishop's said certificate are as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the Right Honourable Philip George, Baron Wynford, Patron of the benefice of Little Toller, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, and with the consent also of Colonel Robert Williams, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament and Patron of the benefice of West Compton (alias Compton Abbas West), in the same county and diocese, do hereby certify to your Grace, in pursuance of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, that it has been made to appear to us that with a view to proceedings being taken under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, and the Acts amending the same for the union of the said benefice of Little Toller with the benefice of Great Toller in the same county and diocese, it would be expedient to make an exchange of the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of Little Toller for the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of West Compton."

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury:—

"We, Robert Williams, of Bridehead, in the county of Dorset, Member of Parliament, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the vicarage of Toller Porcorum otherwise Great Toller, if the same were now vacant, and to the rectory of Compton Abbas West, otherwise West Compton, the same being now vacant, and the Right Honourable Philip George, sixth Baron Wynford, being the Patron or person now entitled to present to the vicarage of Toller Fratrum, otherwise Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed, the same being now vacant, do, by this writing under our hands, signify to your Grace our consents (1) to the exchange of the patronage of the benefice of Little Toller with Wynford Eagle annexed, for the patronage of the benefice of West Compton, and (2) to the union of the said vicarage of Toller Porcorum, otherwise Great Toller, with the said vicarage of Toller Fratrum, otherwise Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed, into one benefice with the cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and that the patronage of such united benefice shall become vested in and be exercised by me, the said Robert Williams, Patron of the present benefice of the vicarage of Toller Porcorum, otherwise Great Toller, my heirs and assigns.

"R. Williams.
"Wynford."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the vicarage of Toller Porcorum, otherwise Great Toller, situate in the county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury, and the vicarage of Toller Fratrum, otherwise Little Toller, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of Little Toller, with Wynford Eagle annexed, shall be exchanged for the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of West Compton, otherwise Compton Abbas West, in the said county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury.

Position.—Ardgatan Point, lat.  $56^{\circ} 11\frac{1}{2}'$  N., long.  $4^{\circ} 46\frac{1}{2}'$  W.

Extracts from Bye-Laws.

1. (a) In the following Bye-Laws the expression "range area" shall be understood to apply to the area enclosed between lines starting at the discharging station which is situated at a point on the west shore of the Loch, about midway between Ardgatan Point and the head of the Loch; these lines starting 100 yards east and 100 yards west of the line of targets which extends 7,000 yards therefrom in a southerly direction through the middle of the area, and ending at its extreme limit, 200 yards east and 200 yards west of such centre line.

(b) The range area actually in use at any time will be limited as regards its length by the most southerly target in use at that time, and such target and the intervening targets will be indicated by flags, as described in Bye-Law No. 3.

(c) The limits of the total range area will be indicated by white obelisks. These will be erected at or near highwater mark at each end of the range, and on both sides of the Loch.

2. The torpedo range will be in use for running uncharged torpedoes for several hours daily with the exception of Sundays, and, as a general rule, Saturday afternoons. But on Saturday afternoons, from the 15th June to the 15th September, both dates inclusive, the range area shall not be closed to the public.

There will be intervals between consecutive runs.

3. (a) When the range is in use, flags (as described below) will be hoisted at the discharging station, at the furthest target in use at the time, and at the intervening targets.

(b) When red flags are hoisted halfway up, it will be a warning signal that preparations are being made for a torpedo to be run, and that the range must be cleared.

(c) When this warning signal is exhibited any vessel within the range area must move out of it with all reasonable speed.

(d) The red flags will be hoisted "close up" immediately before the torpedo is discharged, and kept flying in that position until the torpedo has completed its run, which occupies from two to six minutes.

(e) When white flags are hoisted it will be a sign that running torpedoes is temporarily suspended.

Vessels or boats having occasion, in the course of their passage, to cross the line of range, or to enter any portion of the range area, as defined by Bye-law No. 1 (b), may do so at any time when white flags are displayed. On such occasions the person in charge of the vessel or boat must cross or pass through the said area with all reasonable speed, and must pass well clear of the targets.

4. Floating targets, on which lights will be exhibited during such hours and in such a manner as may be prescribed by the Board of Trade, will be moored at intervals of about 1,000 yards from the discharging station on the line of range.
