Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 19th day of July, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty

Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Hanley William with Hanley Child, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Ernest Edward Lea, of the Rectory, Eastham, Tenbury, in the county of Worcester, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Ernest Edward Lea is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Hereford, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said John, now Bishop of Hereford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said John, Bishop of Hereford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Hanley William with Hanley Child.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Ernest Edward Lea (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child now vested in him, the said Ernest Edward Lea as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 19th day of July, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas by virtue of the above-recited provisions of the said Order the trustees named in the first column of the schedules A and B to this Order hold the respective properties mentioned in the second columns of these schedules in trust for the respective units of the Territorial Force mentioned in the third columns of these schedules under and in virtue of the deeds the dates and parties whereof are respectively specified in the fourth columns of these schedules, and it is expedient that such properties should be transferred from those trustees to the respective County Associations mentioned in the fifth columns of these schedules.

Now therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice of the Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said properties respectively shall be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said trustees to and vested in the said respective County Associations and shall be held by said Associations for the benefit of the said units of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they were held by the said respective trustees, or for such other purposes as the respective Associations with the consent of the said respective units (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulation of the Army Council) shall direct.

Whitehall, July 22, 1910.

The KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the First Class to Mr. William Henry Pickering, one of His Majesty's Inspectors of Mines, and to Mr. George Handle Silkstone, an Enginewright, also the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Mr. Isaac Hodges, Mining Agent, Mr. Albert Moore, Chargeman Sinker, Mr. James Hosey, Sinking Contractor, and Mr. Alfred Jones, Surface Foreman, under the following circumstances.

A serious shaft accident occurred on the 7th May last, at the Water Haigh Mine, by which six men lost their lives. The mine, which is situated at Oulton, about five miles east of Leeds, consists of four pits in course of sinking to develop a new mining area. Shaft No. 1 where the accident happened had been sunk to a depth of 109 yards, and the work of lining it with brickwork was being proceeded with. Skeleton iron rings are used to support the shaft during the process and it is necessary to remove these as the work of the bricking progresses.

At about 8 A.M. on the day mentioned, seven workmen, including a chargeman, were standing on a heavy scaffold, secured by bolts into the side of the shaft, engaged in the work of removing one of the iron rings. The chargeman, evidently having noticed some indication of danger, sent one of the men to the surface to call the master sinker, and, shortly after he had left, the scaffold gave way. Five of the men were hurled to the bottom of the shaft, and killed on the spot; but one of them, Patrick McCarthy, met with a less merciful death, being trapped by the legs between the heavy scaffold and the side of the shaft and partly buried by shale falling from the side, where he lingered in agony for over seven hours. Persistent efforts were made to rescue McCarthy from his perilous position.

Silkstone, Moore, Hosey and Jones were among the first to descend the pit when it was known that an accident had happened. In response to McCarthy's cries for help, they tried to release him in spite of imminent danger from falling stones and bricks, but they were obliged to return to the surface for tools. Mr. Hodges, who had by this time reached the mine, immediately went down the pit and decided to build a temporary scaffold. Moore was given charge of this work and carried it out with admirable coolness and resource.

Mr. Pickering, His Majesty's Inspector of Mines, arrived on the scene just when this was completed, and accompanied by Mr. Hodges and Silkstone, Moore and Hosey, he entered the pit and reached the place where poor McCarthy was held a prisoner. In this descent Silkstone's head was severely injured by a falling stone, and Mr. Hodges and Hosey were also slightly injured. They found McCarthy still alive but the water was rising fast in the shaft and had reached his shoulders. It was evident that he would soon be drowned and that nothing could be done further to rescue him unless the water were lowered. Mr. Pickering at once sent all his fellow rescuers to the surface to enable a larger "bowk" to be put on and more men to be sent down to bale the water. In the meantime Mr. Pickering resolutely stayed by McCarthy—now almost delirious with his sufferings—and supporting his head on his arms and breast, he administered such comfort as he could to the dying man. Realising that McCarthy could not live until the water was baled out, Mr. Pickering decided that the only hope was immediate amputation of the legs, and at his request Mr. Hodges brought down two doctors and a Roman Catholic Priest, but McCarthy's terrible sufferings came to an end just as they reached him.

Mr. Pickering ran imminent risk of losing his life during the time that he stayed with McCarthy. Silkstone descended the pit no less than four times and did not desist until he had been severely injured. Mr. Hodges went down with three separate parties and displayed great bravery and skill in directing the work of the attempted rescue. Moore and Hosey also made three descents and showed great courage and presence of mind in face of danger, while Jones who organized the first rescue party was only prevented from continuing his brave endeavours by being injured so seriously that he could not return to work for six weeks.

On the 11th May, 1910, a terrible fire occurred in the Wellington Pit, Whitehaven, at a point about 4,500 yards from the shafts. Various rescue parties, with great courage and self-devotion and at considerable risk, descended the mine and endeavoured to extinguish the fire and penetrate to the persons in the workings beyond the same. Thorne and Littlewood, fitted with breathing apparatus, reached within a distance of 150 yards of the fire, but were driven back by the great heat and effusion of gases. The others got to within about 300 yards of the fire, working in the smoke backing from the fire. It was found impossible to penetrate to the scene of the fire or to rescue any of the entombed miners.

Had an explosion occurred—a by no means unlikely eventuality, seeing that the mine is a very gassy one—they would undoubtedly all have been killed.

Special gallantry was shown by John Henry Thorne, to whom the Edward Medal of the First Class has already been awarded, and by James Littlewood.

Re the MANOR OF OLD PARIS GARDEN.

Mr. Justice Parker at Chambers.

1907. C. 1265.

Between Causton v. Rider (By Original Action)
and Fortescue v. Causton (By Counterclaim).

WHEREAS by a judgment, dated the 1st day of June, 1910, of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the above action and counterclaim, the Court declared that the trusts of an indenture, dated the 20th December, 1897, and of a deed poll, dated the 3rd August, 1899, respectively described in the said judgment, ought to be performed and carried into execution, and did order and adjudge the same accordingly; and the Court ordered that the Trustees be at liberty to hold customary courts, so far as might be necessary for the protection of the estates of the copyholders of the Manor, or reputed or alleged Manor, of Old Paris Garden, and for the purpose of enabling surrenders and admittances to be had and made, and also to charge the now existing scale of treasurer's and steward's fees, but that the Trustees were not to exercise any further rights claimed by them (other than rights connected with escheat) without leave of the Judge. And the Court, being of opinion that it is not for the benefit of such copyholders that the Trustees should exercise their rights (if any) to forfeit the estate of a copyholder for waste or otherwise, or to charge any fine (other than such sums in the nature of a fine as are now charged under the name of treasurer's fees), or to insist on the necessity of a licence to demise, directed the following inquiries and accounts:—

1. An inquiry whether there are any, and what other, rights or incidents of tenure which it will be for the advantage of the copyholders for the time being from time to time to enforce. But such inquiry is not to be proceeded with without the leave of the Judge in person.

2. An inquiry of what the property (other than the freehold reversion of the said copyhold estates) subject to the trusts of the said indenture, dated the 20th day of December, 1897, and of the said deed poll, dated the 3rd day of August, 1899, now consists.

3. Accounts of all moneys come into the hands of the Trustees of the said indenture and deed poll.

And the further consideration of the action, together with the counterclaim, was adjourned, with liberty to any of the parties to apply as they may be advised.

And whereas by an Order dated the 12th July, 1910, the Judge dispensed with personal service of the said judgment upon the copyholders who are not parties to this action, and directed that in lieu thereof advertisements be published once in the London Gazette, once in the Times, and once in the South London Press, giving notice of the said judgment, and of the date when the accounts and inquiries therein directed would be proceeded with.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that the said inquiries and accounts directed by the said judgment will be proceeded with on Tuesday, the 18th of October, 1910, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the chambers of Mr. Justice Warrington and Mr. Justice Parker, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London.

And notice is hereby also given that, after the expiration of one month from the date of the publication of this advertisement, all persons claiming to be interested as copyhold tenants of the said Manor of Old Paris Garden will be bound by the proceedings in the above action and counterclaim in the same manner as if they had been originally made a party, and that they may, on entering an appearance at the Central Office, at the Royal Courts of Justice, London, within the time aforesaid, attend the proceedings, and apply to discharge, vary, or add to the said judgment.

Dated this 13th day of July, 1910.
