

persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 19th day of July, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Stoke Poges, in the county of Buckingham, the parish of Staveley, in the county of Derby, and the parish of Rothersthorpe, in the county of Northampton respectively, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations to His Majesty in Council, stating that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parishes of Stoke Poges, Staveley, and Rothersthorpe aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

STOKE POGES.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Giles, in the parish of Stoke Poges, in the county of Buckingham; and, after the thirtieth September, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in so much of the churchyard as is not reserved for the burial of members of the Allhusen family, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(c) In the said portion of the churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

STAVELEY, DERBYSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint John the Baptist, in the parish of Staveley, in the county of Derby; and in the churchyard, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b) In the earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard in which the remains of members of the Goodlad family are interred, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the said family, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave:

ROTHERSTHORPE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, in the parish of Rothersthorpe, in the county of Northampton; and in the churchyard, with the following exception, that is to say:—

In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such Representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the twenty-ninth day of August next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such Representations one month before the said twenty-ninth day of August.

Almeric FitzRoy.

*Chancery of the Royal Victorian Order,
St. James's Palace, July 16, 1910.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to make the following appointment to the Royal Victorian Order:—

To be Commander:

Brigadier-General William Robert Robertson, C.B., D.S.O., Brigadier-General, General Staff, Aldershot Command.

Whitehall, July 21, 1910.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to confer the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom upon the undermentioned gentlemen, and the heirs male of their respective bodies lawfully begotten:—

The Right Honourable Richard Knight Causton, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, style and title of Baron Southwark of Southwark in the County of London.
