TUESDAY, 4 JULY, 1911.

Whitehall, July 1, 1911.

The following Address was presented to Their Majesties on Thursday, the 29th ultimo, on Their arrival at St. Paul's Churchyard to attend in the Cathedral a Service of Thanksgiving for Their Majesties' Coronation:—

CHRIST'S HOSPITAL.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

By the gracious permission of Your Majesty's royal predecessors it has been the privilege of the children of the Religious, Royal, and Ancient Foundation of Christ's Hospital, at some spot within the City of London, and usually within St. Paul's Churchyard, to offer, either in Latin or in the mother tongue, their humble greetings to the Sovereign on His first visit to the Lord Mayor and the Corporation.

Founded in 1553 as the result of a "fine supplication" addressed by Dr. Nicholas Ridley, Bishop of London, to King Edward VI of blessed memory, Christ's Hospital has ever enjoyed the favour and the interest of the Sovereigns of this realm, and Your Majesty, as a sailor, is well aware that in the reign of King Charles II there was established within our walls a Mathematical School for the special training of boys to serve as officers in the Royal Navy.

But, Sire, in approaching Your Majesty by gracious permission to-day, we are for the first time addressing a Sovereign who has honoured our House before His Accession to the Throne by holding the ancient office of President of Christ's Hospital, Your Majesty having been installed as such and received your charge on May 10, 1904, in succession to Your Majesty's beloved cousin and our ever gratefully remembered friend his late Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge. We recall how, soon after that installation, Your Majesty paid a visit to the Boys' School at Horsham and made yourself familiar with the many advantages of our new surroundings; how Your Majesty, with Her Majesty the Queen,—to whom also to-day we offer our most humble and hearty homage,—made an equally thorough inspection of the Girls' School at Hertford; and, finally, how on July 23rd, 1906, Your Majesties inaugurated the new Chapel and other buildings at Hertford.

Your Majesty has now been pleased to become our Patron, and, as we pray the Almighty to grant Your Majesty and Queen Mary a long, peaceful, and prosperous reign, we, the sons and daughters of this ancient House of piety and learning, rejoice to hope that Christ's Hospital will still prove the truth of the Prophet's promise that "Kings shall be thy nursing fathers and their Queens thy nursing mothers."

Dated this 29th of June, 1911.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

We are greatly touched by these loyal greetings from the children of the pious and venerable Foundation of Christ's Hospital, which has been so closely connected by ties of loyalty and favour with Our Throne and Family.

The words of your Address recall the occasion on which My beloved Father, on behalf of Queen Victoria, laid the foundation stone of the new schools at Horsham, and expressed the hope that the tradition of the old School would be continued and would flourish in its new surroundings. As President of your Foundation I have watched over your interests, and I know that the name of Christ's Hospital never stood higher than to-day, or better sustained the honour of its Royal Founder and the long line of its Royal Benefactors.

You will remain an object of Our special care, and it is Our earnest prayer that the blessing of God may attend the future of the School.

On leaving the Cathedral Their Majesties proceeded to the Guildhall, where the following Address was presented:—

CITY OF LONDON.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

May it Please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, approach your presence with the liveliest sentiments of devoted loyalty and attachment to welcome Your Majesties to this your ancient and loyal City of London, and to express the sense we entertain of Your Majesties' most gracious condescension in visiting to-day the Guildhall, whose history, for more than five hundred years, is associated with so many historic scenes.

We would also offer to Your Majesties our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the solemn occasion of the Coronation of Your Majesties the King and Queen, so recently celebrated in Westminster Abbey in accordance with the ancient custom of these Realms, confirming and consecrating Your Majesties' accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We rejoice to have this opportunity of expressing to Your Majesties the deep and devoted patriotism and loyalty of the citizens of London, a devotion which they share with all Your Majesties' subjects, both in the United Kingdom and in your Dominions beyond the Seas.

The privilege we this day enjoy in entertaining Your Majesties is greatly enhanced by the presence of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the direct heir to the Throne of these Realms, and upon whom we fervently hope and pray every blessing may be bestowed by Divine Providence.

In conclusion, we humbly pray that Your Majesties and all Your Royal House may be abundantly blessed by Almighty God, that His guidance and protection may be ever vouchsafed to you, and that Your Majesties may long be spared to reign over a happy, prosperous and contented people.

Signed by order of the Court,
JAMES BELL, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

In the name of the Queen and for Myself I most earnestly thank you, my Lord Mayor, the Corporation, and the Citizens of London for the well-chosen words in which you welcome Us to the Guildhall on Our first visit to the City of London after Our Coronation, and for all the good will to which your Address gives expression.

I thank you also for your allusion to the presence here to-day of My dear son, the Prince of Wales.

In the responsibilities which attach to the administration of the Empire, I am confident that My advisers will be strengthened by the steadfast loyalty and public spirit of the citizens of London, and I rejoice to hear renewed in this historic Guildhall the assurances of patriotism and devotion which have ever sustained My predecessors.

I beg you to believe, my Lord Mayor, that I shall strive by every means in My power to preserve the prosperity and pre-eminence of My Capital City, and to promote the welfare of every part of My Empire.

And I join in your prayer that God's blessing may abide with Us and with Our People.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties on Their return journey to Buckingham Palace:—

THE METROPOLITAN WATER BOARD.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George the Fifth and Queen Mary.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Metropolitan Water Board, presented the twentieth day of June, 1911.

We, the Metropolitan Water Board gratefully avail ourselves of Your Majesties' gracious condescension in permitting us to present our humble Address of loyal submission and devotion to the Throne on the illustrious occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation, and we devoutly pray that Your Majesties may long be spared in health and happiness to reign over a loyal and contented people, and by Divine Providence to continue the inestimable blessings of peace and prosperity which the Nation has so long enjoyed under the exalted Rule of Your Majesties' Royal House.

We further tender to Your Majesties our humble gratitude for the distinguished favour of being permitted to present this Address at a place replete with historical interest in connection with the water supply of the Metropolis, for it was at this New River Head where Your Majesties are now so graciously pleased to receive us that the citizens received centuries ago at the hands of Sir Hugh Myddelton and have ever since enjoyed the bountiful supply of pure water which he was enabled to bring to them by means of the Royal sympathy and financial succour of King James the First.

Given under our Common Seal the day and year aforesaid.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you very sincerely for your loyal and dutiful Address and for your prayers and good wishes.

I am well aware of the extreme importance of the duties entrusted to the Metropolitan Water Board and of the difficulties which have been successfully surmounted in ensuring to the population of London a continuance of that pure and abundant water supply upon which the health of the Metropolis largely depends.

Dwellers in London are perhaps too ready to accept this great boon as a matter of course, and it is well that we should have an opportunity of acknowledging the great debt we all owe to you and to your predecessors, and above all to Sir Hugh Myddelton for the enterprise and energy which have contributed to make the water supply of London the finest in the world.

GRAY'S INN.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The humble Address of the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the Honourable Society of Gray's Inn.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' loyal and dutiful subjects the Treasurer and Benchers of Gray's Inn avail ourselves of Your Majesties' gracious permission on the occasion of your passing the precincts of our Inn along the road which was at one time the private way of some of Your Majesty's illustrious predecessors, and known as the King's Way, to testify on behalf of all members of this Society the heartfelt loyalty and devotion to Your Majesties' Throne which have ever been entertained by this ancient Inn of Court. This Society has for more than five centuries carried on in this place its work of educating and of qualifying its members to take part in the administration of justice, of which Your Majesty and your predecessors are the fountain head.

The Society has called to the Bar many generations of men who have become renowned either as advocates or as judges sitting to administer justice as the representatives of the Crown.

From the time when this Society first acquired prominence in the reign of King Henry VIII it has received the countenance of many of Your Majesty's predecessors. The tradition of this Society affirms that Queen Elizabeth was entertained in our ancient Hall, and that the Society enjoyed the especial favour of that great Queen and the intimacy of her Court and Ministers, and to this day her memory is venerated on every Grand night when members of the Society and their guests toast each in his turn "The pious, glorious, and immortal memory of Good Queen Bess."

Under the immediate successor of Queen Elizabeth this Society shared the fame of its illustrious Treasurer, Francis Bacon, and at various times, when difficulties or dangers menaced the Throne, the members of the Society manifested their loyalty and their devotion.

We are proud to feel that our Inn is still favoured by Your Royal House. Your Majesty's Royal Father was, before his accession, graciously pleased to be a guest of this Society. Your Majesty's relatives, Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Connaught and Prince Arthur of Connaught are Masters of our Bench. The members of the Society will never forget that Your Majesty as Prince of Wales graced our House by Your presence as a guest in our Hall and Pension Room in Easter Term, 1907.

We heartily rejoice that the opportunity of Your Royal Progress through this part of the Metropolis enables us to join our voices to those of all Your other loyal subjects in proclaiming, on the happy occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation, the loyal devotion and affection which we feel for Your Majesties' Throne and Persons, and we fervently pray that the Almighty may grant to Your Majesty and to Your Most Gracious Consort happiness and all the blessings of this life, and that you may be spared for many years to reign over a loyal, united, and prosperous Empire.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It has given great pleasure to the Queen and Myself to receive the loyal and dutiful Address of the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the Honourable Society of Gray's Inn on the occasion of Our Coronation.

This ancient Society has for centuries occupied an honourable place among the Inns of Court. The training of those who devote their lives to the study and practice of the law is a function of primary importance in a civilized State. That great structure of reason and experience to which each generation makes its contribution, and which has been building since the remotest antiquity, has in our age reached a form and a refinement worthy of the respect of all nations. But no system of jurisprudence, however modern, however elaborate, can secure justice unless it is conducted by men of simple integrity and honour. The personal character of individuals, the observance of a strict professional standard, are the necessary allies of good laws and careful judgments. Your duty has been to safeguard and renew the honourable traditions of the Bar. The Courts of Justice, those who resort to them, and the public in general, owe much to the Inns of Court and to their Benchers for the vigilance with which they maintain the reputation of the Bar of this Country for fearless integrity and instructed good feeling. These are above the value of the highest gifts of forensic eloquence, and not less necessary than learning itself.

We thank you heartily for your warm expressions of devotion and affection to Our Throne and Persons. You may be assured of Our cordial good wishes for the prosperity of your Society, which has had in the past the favour of Our Predecessors and to-day includes two members of My family on its Bench.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

Lord President,
Lord Denman,
Lord Sandhurst,
Mr. J. A. Pease,
Master of Elibank.

WHEREAS the Territories of Africa situate within the limits of this Order are under the protection of His Majesty the King and are known as the Uganda Protectorate.

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the said territories.

And whereas by an Order of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council bearing date the 11th day of August, 1902, and entitled "The Uganda Order in Council, 1902," provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction within the said Protectorate.

And whereas by Article 15 of the said Uganda Order in Council, 1902, it was ordered that there should be a Court of Record in the Protectorate with full jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over all persons and over all matters in the Protectorate, and that such civil and criminal jurisdiction should, so far as circumstances admitted, be exercised in conformity with the Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, and Penal Codes of India, except so far as might be otherwise provided by law.

And whereas before the commencement of the said Uganda Order in Council, 1902, the territories or some part or parts of the territories thereunder constituting the Uganda Protectorate were constituted a local jurisdiction under the Africa Order in Council, 1889.

And whereas by Article 13 of the said Africa Order in Council, 1889, it was ordered that, subject to the other provisions of that Order, all His Majesty's civil and criminal jurisdiction exercisable in any local jurisdiction constituted under that Order should, so far as circumstances admitted, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the substance of the law for the time being in force in and for England and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

And whereas by Article 110 of the said Africa Order in Council, 1889, it was ordered that where by virtue of any Imperial Act or of that Order or otherwise any provisions of any Imperial Acts or of any law or of any Orders in Council other than that Order were applicable within any local jurisdiction or district constituted under that Order, or any form, regulation, or procedure prescribed or established under any such Act or law were or was so applicable, the same should be deemed applicable so far only as the constitution and jurisdiction of the Courts acting under that Order and the local circumstances permitted and for the purpose of facilitating application might be construed or used with such alterations and adaptations as might be necessary, subject to the further provisions contained in the said Article.

And whereas by Article 28 of the said Uganda Order in Council, 1902, it was ordered that on the commencement of that Order the said Africa Order in Council, 1889, should cease to apply to Uganda, provided that, where other provision was not made by Ordinance, any law, practice or procedure established by or under the said Africa Order in Council, 1889, and not superseded by the said Uganda Order in Council, 1902, should remain in force until such other provision was made.

And whereas doubts have arisen respecting the extent to which the law of England is in force in the Uganda Protectorate under the above-recited provisions, and it is expedient to remove such doubts and to amend Article 15 of the said Uganda Order in Council, 1902, in such a manner as to supersede Articles 13 and 110 of the said Africa Order in Council, 1889:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers on that behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Uganda Order in Council, 1911.

2. Sub-Article (2) of Article 15 of the Uganda Order in Council, 1902, is hereby revoked without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, and in place of the said sub-article the following shall be substituted:—

“(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, such civil and criminal jurisdiction shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised in conformity with the Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, and Penal Codes of India in force at the date of the commencement of this Order, and subject thereto and so far as the same shall not extend or apply shall be exercised in conformity with the substance of the common law, the doctrines of equity, and the statutes of general application in force in England on the 11th day of August, 1902, and with the powers vested in and according to the procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities at that date, save in so far as the said Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, and Penal Codes of India, and the said common law doctrines of equity and statutes of general application, and the said powers, procedure, and practice may at any time before the commencement of this Order have been, or hereafter may be, modified, amended, or replaced by other provision in lieu thereof, by or under the authority of any Order of His Majesty in Council, or by any Ordinance or Ordinances passed in and for the Protectorate. Provided always that the said common law doctrines of equity and statutes of general application shall be in force in the Protectorate so far only as the circumstances of the Protectorate and its inhabitants, and the limits of His Majesty's jurisdiction permit and subject to such qualifications as local circumstances render necessary.

3. This Order shall be published in the Uganda Government Gazette, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Knollys.

Sir William Carington.

Sir Arthur Bigge.

WHEREAS the territories of Africa situate within the limits of this Order are under the protection of His Majesty the King, and are known as the East Africa Protectorate:

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the said territories:

And whereas by an Order of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council bearing date the 11th day of August, 1902, and entitled “The East Africa Order in Council, 1902,” provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction within the said Protectorate:

And whereas by Article 15 of the said East Africa Order in Council, 1902, it was ordered that there should be a Court of Record in the Protectorate with full jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over all persons and over all matters in the Protectorate, and that such civil and criminal jurisdiction should, so far as circumstances admitted, be exercised in conformity with the Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, and Penal Codes of India, and the other Indian Acts which were in force in East Africa at the commencement of that Order, except so far as might be otherwise provided by law:

And whereas before the commencement of the said East Africa Order in Council, 1902, it was (amongst other things) provided by Article 11 of the East Africa Order in Council, 1897, that, subject to the other provisions of that Order, so far as the enactments, procedure, and practice of India therein specified were inapplicable, Her Majesty Queen Victoria's criminal and civil jurisdiction in the Protectorate should be exercised under and in accordance with the common and statute law of England in force at the commencement of that Order:

And whereas the said Order commenced and had effect on the 12th day of August, 1897:

And whereas by Article 28 of the said East Africa Order in Council, 1902, it was ordered that on the commencement of that Order the said East Africa Order in Council, 1897, should be repealed, provided that, where other provision was not made by Ordinance, any law, practice, or procedure established by or under the said repealed Order should remain in force until such other provision was made:

And whereas doubts have arisen respecting the extent to which the law of England is in force in the East Africa Protectorate under the above-recited provisions, and it is expedient to remove such doubts and to amend Article 15 of the said East Africa Order in Council, 1902:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers on that behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the East Africa Order in Council, 1911.

2. Sub-Article (2) of Article 15 of the East Africa Order in Council, 1902, is hereby revoked without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder and in place of the said Sub-Article the following shall be substituted:—

“(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, such civil and criminal jurisdiction shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised in conformity with the Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure and Penal Codes of India and the other Indian Acts which are in force in East Africa at the date of the commencement of this Order and subject thereto and so far as the same shall not extend or apply shall be exercised in conformity with the substance of the common law the doctrines of equity and the statutes of general application in force in England on the 12th day of August, 1897; and with the powers vested in and according to the procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities at that date, save in so far as the said Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, and Penal Codes of India and the other Indian Acts in force as aforesaid and the said common law doctrines of equity and statutes of general application and the said powers procedure and practice may at any time before the commencement of this Order have been, or hereafter may be, modified, amended or replaced by other provision in lieu thereof by or under the authority of any Order of His Majesty in Council, or by any Ordinance or Ordinances passed in and for the Protectorate. Provided always that the said common law doctrines of equity and statutes of general application shall be in force in the Protectorate so far only as the circumstances of the Protectorate and its inhabitants and the limits of His Majesty's jurisdiction permit, and subject to such qualifications as local circumstances render necessary."

3. This Order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the East Africa Protectorate, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation.

THE LIGHT RAILWAYS ACT, 1896.

MORLEY CORPORATION LIGHT RAILWAYS ORDER.

The Light Railway Commissioners have submitted to the Board of Trade for confirmation, under the above-mentioned Act, an Order made by them for the construction of Light Railways in the borough and parish of Morley, and amending the Morley and District Light Railways Order, 1901.

Any objections to the confirmation of the Order should be addressed to the Assistant Secretary (Railway Department), Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W., and must be lodged with the Board on or before the 28th July next.

These should be accompanied by copies of any clauses or amendments that may be desired to remove the objections, and copies of such objections and clauses or amendments should at the same time be sent to one of the Promoters' Agents named below.

Copies of the Order as submitted for confirmation may be obtained on payment of not exceeding one shilling per copy from Mr. Fred Thackray, Town Clerk, Morley; or Mr. R. Borough Hopkins, Borough Solicitor, Morley; or Messrs. Sharpe, Pritchard and Co., 9, Bridge Street, Westminster, S.W.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, July 3, 1911.

H. 8604.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated the 24th June, from His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Brussels, transmitting the following copy of a Sanitary Decree as published in the "Moniteur Belge" of the 23rd June, placing restrictions on the importation of manure, etc., into Belgium from Holland, Germany, France, and the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg.

Stomatite aphteuse.—Importation de fumier, etc.

Le Ministre de l'agriculture et des travaux publics,

Vu la loi du 30 décembre 1882 sur la police sanitaire des animaux domestiques;

Vu l'article 46 de l'arrêté royal du 20 septembre 1883, modifié par l'article 1er de l'arrêté royal du 27 mai 1899;

Attendu que la stomatite aphteuse a été constatée en Hollande, en Allemagne, dans le grand-duché de Luxemburg et en France,

Arrête :

Art. 1er. L'importation et le transit par les frontières de terre et de mer, de fumier, de foin, de paille, de boues, ainsi que de peaux, laines, poils, os, ongles, cornes, à l'état frais, de provenance hollandaise, allemande, grand-ducale et française sont subordonnés à la production d'un certificat délivré par le bourgmestre de la localité de provenance attestant que, pendant les vingt et un derniers jours, la stomatite aphteuse n'a pas été constatée dans la ferme d'où sortent ces produits ni dans un rayon de 100 mètres de cette ferme.

Le lait des dites provenances peut être admis à l'importation et au transit à la condition d'être accompagné d'un certificat de l'autorité locale compétente, attestant qu'il sort d'une étable où ne règne pas la stomatite aphteuse ou qu'il a été chauffé à une température suffisante pour détruire tout germe de maladie.

Art. 2. Le transit direct des produits cités à l'article 1er, sans déchargement par la voie ferrée, pourra s'effectuer en wagons plombés, sans production de certificat.

Art. 3. Le présent arrêté sera exécutoire le lendemain de sa publication au Moniteur.

Bruxelles, le 16 juin 1911.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 30TH JUNE 1911.)

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1910, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Transfer of Area from one Scheduled Area to another.

1. From and after the commencement of this Order the Area described in the First Schedule hereto shall, for the purposes of the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908 and any modification of such Order which applies to the Scheduled Area described in the Second Schedule hereto, form part of that Area, and cease to form part of any other Scheduled Area.

Commencement.

2. This Order shall come into operation on the seventh day of July, nineteen hundred and eleven.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and eleven.

A. W. Anstruther,
Assistant Secretary.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Area Transferred.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 17th day of October, 1910, made in an action in the matter of the estate of AGNES HOLME, Deceased, Holme v. Holme, 1910, H. 2051, by Mr. Justice Neville, the following inquiries were directed, namely:—

1. An inquiry who was the heir at law of the above named intestate, Agnes Holme, at the time of her death, and whether such heir is living or dead, and if dead, who by devise, descent or otherwise is entitled to such freehold estate (if any) of the intestate as descended to such heir at law.

2. An inquiry who was the heir of the intestate according to the custom of the manor or manors whereof her customary freehold estates are respectively holden, living at the time of her death, and whether such customary heir is living or dead, and if dead who by devise, descent or otherwise is entitled to such copyhold estates as descended to such customary heir.

3. An inquiry who were the persons entitled by virtue of or according to the Statute of Distribution to the estate of the intestate living at the time of her death, and whether any of them are since dead, and if so, who are their respective legal personal representatives.

Notice is hereby given, that any persons claiming to be interested under the said inquiries are personally or by their Solicitor, on or before the 15th November, 1911, to come in and enter their names and addresses in the book kept for that purpose, and prove their claims at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady and Mr. Justice Neville at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order.

Wednesday, the 22nd day of November, 1911, at 11.30 o'clock in the forenoon, at the said Chambers, Room 706, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 30th day of June, 1911.

H. HUGHES-ONSLOW, Master.

NOTE.—The said Agnes Holme (a daughter of Leonard Holme and Margaret (née Bleamire) his wife, who were married at Romaldkirk, Yorkshire, in the year 1826) died on the 19th January, 1910, and was buried at Romaldkirk aforesaid.

The said Leonard Holme was born at Orton, in the county of Westmorland.
