TUESDAY, 8 AUGUST, 1911.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Suffragans Nomination Act, 1888, it is enacted, that from and after the passing of that Act, for the purposes of the Act of the 26th year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, chapter 14, intituled "An Act for Nomination and consecration of Suffragans within this Realm," such other towns as His Majesty the King may from time to time by Order in Council direct, shall be taken and accepted for sees of bishops suffragans, as if they had been included in that Act, and that that Act shall be construed and have effect accordingly:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, under and by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the said recited Act, and all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, and by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, is pleased to direct, and doth hereby direct that the town of which the name is scheduled to this Order, shall be taken and accepted for a see of a bishop suffragan as if it had been included in the above-mentioned Act of the 26th year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, chapter 14.

SCHEDULE.

Name of Town.	County in which Town is situate.
Willesden	Middlesex.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parishes of Upton Snodsbury and North Piddle, in the county of Worcester.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and made or expressed to be made between Charles Walker and the Reverend Thomas Walker of the first part, the said Charles Walker and George Thomas Woodrooffe of the second part, Benjamin Bomford of the third part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part, the messuages, lands and hereditaments commonly known as the Cowsden Hall Estate situate in the parishes of Upton Snodsbury and North Piddle in the county of Worcester containing two hundred and sixty acres one rood and eighteen perches or thereabouts more particularly described in the first and second schedules to the said indenture and delineated and coloured pink on the plan drawn thereon became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and made or expressed to be made between Benjamin Bomford of the one part and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part the messuages, lands and hereditaments situate in the said parishes and county containing together two hundred and ninety-six acres one rood and twelve perches or thereabouts more particularly described in the schedule to the said indenture and delineated and verged pink on the plan drawn thereon became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the messuages, lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said messuages, lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such messuages, lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Acts all or any of the said messuages, lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the township of Cummersdale in the parish of Saint Mary, Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made or expressed to be made between John Dalton, Pattinson Dalton, Thomas Wright of Southwaite in the parish of Hesket, in the county of Cumberland, and Thomas Wright of the city of Carlisle in the said county of the one part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, all that piece or parcel of land known as Plantation Close, situate in the township of Cimmersdale, in the parish of Saint Mary, Carlisle, in the said county, containing by admeasurement two acres two roods and seven perches or thereabouts, and delineated and coloured green on the plan drawn on the said indenture became with its appurtenances and is now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and made or expressed to be made between the Very Reverend William George Henderson, D.D., Dean, and the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Carlisle of the first part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the second and third parts, all that piece or parcel of land situate in the said township and parish forming part of the field numbered 112 on the Ordnance Survey Map for the said parish, and containing by admeasurement six thousand one hundred and twenty square yards or thereabouts, and delineated and verged pink on the plan drawn thereon became with its appurtenances and is now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid; with their appurtenances, and all our estate right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale, from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure of Eggiden otherwise Egdean (hereinafter called 'the said benefice of Egdean') in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Egdean is vested for an estate in fee simple without encumbrances in Mary Frances Cattley, of Egdean, in the said county of Sussex, spinster.

"And whereas the said Mary Frances Cattley is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Egdean, now vested in her as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chichester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, now Bishop of Chichester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Egdean, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Egdean.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Mary Frances Cattley (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Egdean now vested in her, the said Mary Frances Cattley, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Ulting, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Ulting is vested for an estate in fee simple without encumbrances in the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College, in the University of Cambridge, hereinafter called the said Master and Fellows.

"And whereas the said Master and Fellows are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Ulting, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar, now Bishop of Saint Albans, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Ulting, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Ulting.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Master and Fellows (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Ulting, now vested in them, the said Master and Fellows, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, Starbeck, situate within the district parish of Bilton with Harrogate, commonly called Christ Church, High Harrogate, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate and of the parish of Knaresborough which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate and of the said parish of Knaresborough should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, Starbeck, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, as such Bishop, and as patron, in right of his See, of the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate and of the said parish of Knaresborough, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate and of the said parish of Knaresborough which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew, Starbeck situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Starbeck.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Starbeck, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the district parish of Bilton with Harrogate, commonly called Christ Church, High Harrogate, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded upon the north by the new parish of Bilton, upon the east by the parish of Knaresborough, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Knaresborough from the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate at the point where such boundary which follows the western side of Forest Lane crosses the middle of the eastern end of Hookstone Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Hookstone Road for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Stonefall Avenue and Wetherby Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Wetherby Lane for a distance of three chains precisely, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward in a line parallel to and at a distance of three chains from the middle of Stonefall Avenue for a distance of nineteen chains and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the stream called Rud Beck, and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of Rud Beck for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the fence forming the western boundary of the close numbered 1 upon the map or plan annexed to this representation, and extending thence north-westward to and along the said fence and along the fences forming the western boundaries of the closes numbered 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 upon the said map or plan (thereby passing to the west of the house called Forest Lodge) for a distance in all of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence forming the western boundary of the said close numbered 6 meets the southern side of Knaresborough Road, and extending thence first north-westward to and then north-eastward along the middle of Knaresborough Road for a distance of three chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the fence forming the south-western boundary of the close numbered 7 upon the said map or plan, and extending thence north-westward to and along the last mentioned fence and along the fences forming the south-western boundaries of the closes numbered 8 and 9 upon the said map or plan for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts to the western corner of the said close numbered 9, and extending thence north-eastward along the fence forming the north-western boundary of such close for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence forming the south-western boundary of the close numbered 10 upon the said map or plan, and extending thence north-westward first in a straight line to the last mentioned fence and then along such fence for a distance in all of twelve chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where such fence meets the southern side of the footpath leading from Granby Terrace and The Stray past the northern side of Bogs Farm into Bogs Lane, and extending thence first north-westward to the middle of the said footpath and then first north-eastward, and then southward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bogs Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Bogs Lane for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway running past the western side of the house called Longlands to Bilton Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of fifteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading past the northern side of the said house called Longlands to Bilton Hall Lane upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate from the said new parish of Bilton.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Knaresborough which is bounded upon the west by the above described portion of the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north, upon the north-east, upon the east, and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the said footpath leading past the northern side of the said house called Longlands to Bilton Hall Lane, where the boundaries of the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate, the said new Parish of Bilton, and the said parish of Knaresborough all meet, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bilton Hall Lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of Bilton Hall Lane for a distance of five chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading towards Knaresborough, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading from Bilton Hall across the Knaresborough and Harrogate Road and past the eastern side of the house called Belmont Farm into Forest Lane, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the last mentioned footpath for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to its junction near the southern end of the house called Belmont Farm with the footpath leading into Cass Lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cass Lane and with the footpath leading past the house called Stoneface Farm into Forest Moor Road, and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Forest Moor Road, almost opposite to the northern end of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close numbered 11 upon the said map or plan annexed to this representation, and extending thence first southward to the said fence and then south-eastward along such fence and along the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close numbered 12 upon the said map or plan for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary of the parish of Spofforth in the said county and diocese which here coincides with the boundary of the civil parish in Knaresborough Outer and extending thence first south-westward and then in various directions along the boundary of the said civil parish (thereby following in one part the said boundary of the parish of Spofforth and in another part the southern side of Forest Moor Road) for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts to the point where such civil parish boundary meets the eastern side of Forest Lane, and continuing thence south-westward in a straight line across Forest Lane to a point upon its western side upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Knaresborough from the said district parish of Bilton with Harrogate."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ripon.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, August 8, 1911.

The following Statute, made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, Oxford, on the fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and sealed on the twenty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, altering and amending Statute III, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THE HUMBLE PETITION of the Warden and College of the Souls of All Faithful People deceased of Oxford, commonly called All Souls College.

Whereas the University of Oxford Commissioners under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, did by an Instrument under their seal, dated the 16th day of June, 1881, make certain Statutes thereunto annexed for your Petitioners who are therein described as "the College of All Souls of the Faithful Departed, commonly called All Souls College, in the University of Oxford."

And whereas such Statutes were approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the 3rd day of May, 1882.

And whereas at a general meeting of the Governing Body of our said College specially summoned for that purpose and held on the 5th day of June, 1911, it was unanimously resolved as follows, namely:—

1. That Clause 6 and the subsequent clauses of Statute III should be re-numbered respectively and be henceforth known by the next higher numbers to the existing ones; thus Clause 6 should henceforth be known as Clause 7 and the same course be adopted with regard to the subsequent clauses of this Statute.

2. That a new Clause 6 should be inserted in Statute III immediately after Clause 5 of such Statute and to be in the following words, namely:—

6. Every Fellow elected under the foregoing clauses shall undertake to pursue during the tenure of his Fellowship some course of study or investigation to be specified by him to the Warden and Fellows and approved by them. The Warden and Fellows may from time to time make regulations by by-law for giving effect to this requirement. This clause shall operate without prejudice to the interest of any Fellow elected before the 31st of March, 1911.

3. That Clause 7. (late Clause 6) of Statute III should be repealed, and in place thereof there should be substituted a new clause in the following words, namely:—

7. If a Fellow elected under the foregoing clauses of this Statute shall receive in any year, apart from the emoluments of his Fellowship, any income not derived from an academical office in the University or in any College, University, or University College in the United Kingdom, he shall not receive in that year any greater sum as the emoluments of his Fellowship than will amount, together with such income, to the aggregate sum following, that is to say:—

(a) if such income or any part thereof is not earned income for the purpose of income tax, and amounts to £200 or more, then the sum of £400;

(b) in any other case the sum of £500.

For the purposes of this clause the amount of income which, apart from the emoluments of his Fellowship, is returnable by a Fellow in any year for the purposes of income tax, or is otherwise subject to income tax, or which, being received by him outside the United Kingdom, would be so returnable or subject if it were received by him in the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be the amount of income received by him.

This clause shall operate without prejudice to the interest enjoyed by any Fellow elected before the 31st of March, 1911.

4. That Clause 9 (late Clause 8) of Statute III should be amended by the insertion of the words "subject to the provisions of Clause 7" between the words "and" and "there" in such clause.

5. That Clause 10 (late Clause 9) of Statute III should be repealed, and in place thereof a new clause should be substituted in the following words, namely:—

10. The Warden and Fellows may elect without examination to a Fellowship with the aforesaid emolument:—

(1.) Any one person whose services they may require as Estates Bursar.

(2.) Any one person whose services they may require as Domestic Bursar.

(3.) Any one person whose services they may require as Chaplain.

(4.) Any one person whose services they may require as Librarian.

(5.) Any person holding the office of a Professor or Public Reader in the University or of Assistant Librarian in Bodley's Library.

The number of Fellows elected under this sub-clause shall at no time exceed two.

Every person elected under this clause must be at least a Master of Arts or Bachelor of Civil Law of the University. He shall hold his Fellowship during his tenure of the office or employment in respect of which he is elected and no longer, but he may, on ceasing to hold such office or employment, be re-elected under this clause in respect of any other of the said offices or employments.

A Professor elected under this clause whose emoluments (exclusive of fees) exceed £700 per annum shall not receive a greater sum as the emolument of his Fellowship than will amount, with the emoluments of his Professorship, to £900 per annum.

Now, we, the said Warden and College, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do hereby submit the aforesaid alterations so made by us in the Statutes governing our said College to the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, and humbly pray that the same may be approved and confirmed.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

The common seal of the above named Warden and College was hereunto affixed in the presence of

WILLIAM REYNELL ANSON,
Warden of All Souls College.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Prestwich Union;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by a General Order dated the 14th day of December, 1852, addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of certain Unions and Parishes, including the Prestwich Union, the Poor Law Board prescribed Regulations with regard to the administration of out-door relief to poor persons in the said Union;

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made temporarily with regard to the administration of relief to certain classes of poor persons in the said Union:

NOW THEREFORE, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—The Guardians of the Poor of the Prestwich Union may, after not less than seven days' notice of the proposal has been sent by their Clerk to each Guardian, pass a Resolution (hereinafter referred to as "the Resolution") to the effect that the powers conferred by this Order shall be exercised by them, and a copy of the Resolution shall be forwarded to Us by the Clerk within one week after the passing of the Resolution.

ARTICLE II.—(1.) The Guardians may, from and after the passing of the Resolution, and during the operation of this Order, relieve out of the Workhouse the wife and family of any able-bodied male person who is relieved in the Workhouse.

(2.) An able-bodied male person who is relieved in the Workhouse, while his wife and family are relieved by the Guardians out of the Workhouse, shall not be absent from the Workhouse more than once in any one week, nor for a period exceeding twelve hours, nor without the consent of the Guardians.

(3.) Any such able-bodied male person who is absent from the Workhouse without any contravention of subdivision (2) of this Article may be relieved by the Guardians during his absence from the Workhouse, without being set to work during the time or any part of the time of his absence.

ARTICLE III.—This Order shall operate and have effect until the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

John Burns,

President.

MIDDLESBROUGH RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order dated the seventeenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, the Local Government Board have declared, specified and directed as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—(1) On and after the twenty-eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and eleven—

(a) Sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 22, 23, 24, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33, comprised in Part II; Sections 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49 and 50, comprised in Part III; and Part IV of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, shall be in force in the contributory place of Linthorpe, within the District.

(b) Sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 22, 23, 24, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33, comprised in Part II; sections 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49 and 50, comprised in Part III; and Part IV of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, shall be in force in the contributory place of Marton, within the District.

(2) Where a section to which reference is made in the first column of the Schedule to this Order is a section comprised in Part IV, or is one of the sections by sub-division (1) of this Article, described as comprised in Part II or Part III, and declared to be in force, the section, in any contributory place in which it is by sub-division (1) of this Article declared to be in force, shall be in force subject to the following conditions and adaptations; that is to say:

Unless and until We, by a further Order made on such application and after compliance with such requirements as are described and set forth in section 3 of the Act of 1907, otherwise declare, specify and direct the said section, in its application to the contributory place and in relation to the exercise of the powers and to the discharge of the duties of the Local Authority under that section, shall have effect as if the words and figures set forth in the second column of the said Schedule opposite to the reference to that section in the first column of that Schedule were added to and formed part of the section.
