TUESDAY, 14 MAY, 1912.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Marldon, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marldon is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Right Honourable Walter Stafford, Earl of Iddesleigh (hereinafter called 'the said Lord Iddesleigh') and John George Edmund Templer, of Lindridge, Bishop's Teignton, in the said county of Devon, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Lord Iddesleigh and the said John George Edmund Templer are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marldon, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Archibald, now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Marldon which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Marldon.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Lord Iddesleigh and of the said John George Edmund Templer (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Marldon, now vested in them the said Lord Iddesleigh and the said John George Edmund Templer as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Eccles, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Augustine, Grimsby, situate within the parish of Great Grimsby in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Great Grimsby and of the said parish of Clee, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Augustine, Grimsby, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See, both of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Grimsby and of the vicarage of the said parish of Clee (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Grimsby and of the said parish of Clee, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Augustine, Grimsby, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Augustine, Grimsby.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine, Grimsby, comprising:—All those contiguous portions of the parish of Great Grimsby, and of the parish of Clee, both in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, in the said county and diocese, from the said parish of Great Grimsby at the centre of the bridge which carries the East Lincolnshire line of the Great Northern Railway across Wintringham Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Wintringham Road for a distance of sixteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Ainslie Street, and extending thence southward along the middle of Ainslie Street for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Welholme Road and with the road called Park Drive, and extending thence first southward, then south-westward and then again southward along the middle of Park Drive for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Weelsby Road and with the road called Park Avenue, and extending thence southward along the middle of Park Avenue and along a line in continuation thereof for a distance in all of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Grimsby from the said parish of Clee, and extending thence first southward, then westward, then again southward, then again westward and then again southward along such boundary for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the boundary which divides the parish of Scartho, in the said county and diocese, from the said parish of Clee, and extending thence first eastward and then in various directions (generally south-eastward) along the last mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and twenty-four chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of the said East Lincolnshire line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway (thereby crossing the boundary of the said parish of Clee and following in part the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, from the said parish of Great Grimsby) for a distance of one mile and seventy-three chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Wintringham Road, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: And the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Edward, Lord Bishop of Southwark, hath made a representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, Edward, by Divine permission Bishop of Southwark, do in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, cap. 106, hereby represent to your Grace

"1. There is in the county of Surrey and my diocese of Southwark the vicarage of Mortlake, the parish whereof lies adjoining to the ecclesiastical parish of Kew and the consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond, and contains, according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one, a population of eight thousand one hundred and seventy-seven, but now contains a population of seventeen thousand.

"2. The net annual value of the benefice of Mortlake arising from tithe rentcharge, dividends from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and Queen Anne's Bounty, surplice fees, pew rents, and Easter offerings is four hundred and twenty-five pounds.

"3. In the same county and diocese is the vicarage of Kew, the ecclesiastical parish whereof contains, according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one, a population of two thousand six hundred and ninety-nine.

"4. The net annual value of the benefice of Kew arising from tithe rentcharge and other sources is four hundred and eighty pounds.

"5. In the same county and diocese is the consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond, which contains, according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one, a population of three thousand six hundred and eighty-five.

"6. The net annual value of the benefice of St. Luke, Richmond, arising from pew rents, dividends from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and Queen Anne's Bounty, Easter offerings, surplice fees, and other sources is three hundred pounds.

"7. It appears to me (1) that a certain district of the ecclesiastical parish of Mortlake, being contiguous to the ecclesiastical parish of Kew, may under the provisions of the said Act of the first and second Victoria, cap. 106, and of the Act of the second and third years of the same reign, cap. 49, be advantageously separated from the said ecclesiastical parish of Mortlake and united to the said ecclesiastical parish of Kew, and also (2) that a certain other district of the said parish of Mortlake, being contiguous to the said consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond, may, under the provisions of the said Acts, also be advantageously separated from the said ecclesiastical parish of Mortlake and united to the said consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond.

"8. The Very Reverend William Moore Ede, D.D., Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ and of the Blessed Mary the Virgin of Worcester, and the Chapter of the same church are the patrons of the said benefice of Mortlake, His Most Gracious Majesty The King is the patron of the said benefice of Kew, and I, the Bishop aforesaid, am the patron of the said benefice of St. Luke, Richmond.

"10. Pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament, I, the said Bishop, have drawn up a scheme in writing, appended to this representation, describing the two areas or districts of the ecclesiastical parish of Mortlake so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the said ecclesiastical parish of Kew and the said consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond respectively, and the mode in which it appears to me the alterations may be best effected and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace, together with the consents in writing of the said patrons and of the said Reverend Horace Granville Monroe and the said Reverend William Henry Bliss, and in case you shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied therewith, I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents of the patrons thereto to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop is as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"1. It is proposed to separate a district from the ecclesiastical parish of Mortlake, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Southwark, and unite such district for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining ecclesiastical parish of Kew, in the same county and diocese.

"It is further proposed that such district shall consist of all that northern portion of the said parish of Mortlake which is bounded on the north-west in part by the said parish of Kew and in part by the parish of St. Luke, Richmond, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north-east in part by the said parish of Kew and in part by the River Thames, on the south or south-west by High Park Road, and on the south-east by West Hall Road, by the lane continuing therefrom to the dock belonging to the main drainage works and by the said dock, and such district is coloured pink, and indicated by the letter A on the annexed plan.

"2. It is also proposed to separate a certain other district from the said ecclesiastical parish of Mortlake and unite such district to the consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond aforesaid.

"It is further proposed that such district shall consist of all that portion of the said parish of Mortlake which is bounded on the west in part by the said parish of St. Luke, Richmond, and in part by the parish of Christ Church, Richmond, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north or north-east by High Park Road and Mortlake Road, on the east by Mortlake Road and Clifford Avenue, and on the south or south-east by an imaginary line running along the centre of the London and South-Western Railway from the southern end of Clifford Avenue to the eastern boundary of the said parish of Christ Church, Richmond, and such district is coloured green, and indicated by the letter B on the annexed plan.

"The inhabitants of the said districts shall not in future be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Mortlake (except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting within the said church, and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same), and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the said church, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the parish churches of the parishes to which such districts shall be respectively annexed, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repairs of such churches.

"The Incumbent of the parish of Kew shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within the above-mentioned district coloured pink and marked A on the said plan, and all the fees for churchings, marriages, and burials, and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed at the church and churchyard of such parish in respect of the inhabitants of such district shall belong to and be received by such Incumbent.

"The Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry of St. Luke, Richmond, shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within the above-mentioned district, coloured green and marked B on the said plan, and all the fees for churchings, marriages, and burials, and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed at the church and churchyard of such parish in respect of the inhabitants of such district shall belong to and be received by such Incumbent.

"No alteration shall be made in the patronage or endowments of any of the above-mentioned benefices."

And whereas the Very Reverend William Moore Ede, Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ and of the Blessed Mary the Virgin, of Worcester, and the Chapter of the same church, as patrons, and the Reverend Horace Granville Monroe, as Incumbent of the said vicarage of Mortlake, the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, First Lord of the Treasury, on behalf of His Majesty the King as patron, and the Reverend William Henry Bliss as Incumbent of the said vicarage of Kew, and the said Lord Bishop of Southwark as patron, and the Reverend George E. ISLE OF MAN HARBOURS ACTS, 1872 to 1911.

The following Resolution of the Court of Tynwald of the Isle of Man was, on the 7th day of May, 1912, approved by the Board of Trade in pursuance of powers vested in them by the above-mentioned Acts:—

At a TYNWALD COURT holden at DOUGLAS, the 12th day of March, 1912.

This Court having, on the requisition of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, considered the advisability of appointing, under the provisions contained in the Isle of Man Harbours Acts, 1872 to 1911 (Acts of the Imperial Parliament), the payment of dues by vessels entering the harbours of this Isle, or on goods landed from vessels in any harbour or on any quay or pier, or shipped by vessels in any harbour or from any quay or pier:

Resolved,—

(1) That this resolution shall relate to such parts only of the several harbours of Castletown, Douglas, Peel, Ramsey, Port St. Mary, Laxey, Port Erin, and Derbyhaven as are hereinafter described (that is to say):—

Laxey Harbour.—The whole of the Pier and the Breakwater or Jetty, and that part of the harbour lying within the line of the south side of such pier produced until it meets at right angles a line drawn through the south-east side of such Breakwater:

Port Erin Harbour.—The whole of the Breakwater and that part of the harbour lying within such Breakwater and a straight line drawn due north from the outer end of the said Breakwater to the land:

Derbyhaven Harbour.—The whole of the Breakwater and that part of the bay lying within the said Breakwater and a line drawn from the south end of the said Breakwater in a due westerly direction to the shore:

all such parts of the said respective harbours hereinbefore described being hereinafter called or referred to as "the said harbours."

(2) That, subject to the approval of the Lords of the Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council for Trade, from and after the expiration of one calendar month after the publication of this resolution in the London Gazette, the following dues shall be payable by vessels entering any of the said harbours or using any of the said piers, quays, or breakwaters, or on goods landed from any vessel in any of the said harbours or on any of the said piers, quays, or breakwaters, or in any way brought into any of the said harbours, or shipped by vessels in any of the said harbours or from any of the said piers, quays, or breakwaters:—

On all goods landed or brought into a harbour from any vessel (other than fresh fish from a fishing vessel), per ton Threepence.

On all goods shipped by or on any vessel in a harbour, per ton Three half-pence.

For every fishing vessel of not more than twelve tons, and for every vessel licensed by the Isle of Man Harbour Commissioners to ply for hire as a pleasure-boat engaged as a fishing vessel during a portion of the year only, for the year, or any portion of the year commencing on any 1st day of April Ten shillings.

For every other fishing vessel for the year commencing on any first day of April, at the option of the vessel

One pound.

For every lighter or barge, owned by any local authority, leaving a harbour and re-entering such harbour without having entered any other harbour, per ton

One half-penny.

For every vessel used for purposes of exhibition, or any similar purpose, per ton

Sixpence.

For every vessel windbound, or calling for sailing orders, stores for crew, or bunker coal; and fishing vessels for which annual dues have not been paid, per ton One penny.

For every vessel not landing or embarking passengers, or being a vessel not made liable to dues under any of the foregoing clauses, per ton ... Twopence.

In addition to the aforesaid dues there shall be paid:—

For every vessel, other than a fishing vessel during the period for which an annual due has been paid, laid up or lying in a harbour to which this resolution applies longer than twelve months, per ton ... Sixpence.

And upon the expiration of each subsequent period of six months, per ton Sixpence.

For every fishing vessel which has paid such annual sum laid up or lying in a harbour after the expiration of the year in respect of which the said due has been paid, per ton ... Threepence.

And upon the expiration of each subsequent period of six months, per ton Threepence.

For the purpose of this resolution, the expression "local authority" means within the borough of Douglas, the Municipal Corporation of such borough, and elsewhere within this Island, the Commissioners of the Local Government District; and the expression "fishing vessel" shall mean a vessel exclusively or chiefly engaged in fishing.

Provided always that, with respect to the said dues, the word "goods" shall not be considered to include the stores or ballast of any vessel.

Provided also, that with respect to goods consigned to one of the said harbours, and brought into another of such harbours, and transhipped therein for conveyance to the harbour to which such goods are consigned, no dues shall be payable at the harbour where such transshipment takes place; and, for the purpose of this proviso, goods shall be deemed to be transhipped whether directly transferred from one vessel to another, or indirectly by being landed in a harbour and shipped on the same or another vessel for the purpose before mentioned within seven days after having been landed therein.

Provided also, that the tonnage of vessels in respect of which dues shall be payable shall be the registered tonnage, or the tonnage ascertained in the like manner as the registered tonnage, and that this resolution shall not apply to any vessel used in navigation which is propelled solely by oars, or which is of a burden of less than five tons, or to any vessel exempt by law from the payment of dues.

Provided also, that in the case of fishing vessels the yearly dues payable shall, as provided by law, be considered as payable for all the said harbours, and not for each harbour.

And provided also, that this resolution shall not apply to any vessel for which a composition in lieu of dues hereinbefore referred to shall have been paid during the time for which such composition shall extend:

Resolved also, that, on the foregoing resolution commencing and taking effect, the resolution of this Court, dated the 11th day of March, 1890, appointing the payment of dues by vessels and on goods at the harbours of Castletown, Douglas, Peel, Ramsey, Port St. Mary, and Laxey shall be and stand revoked.
