11th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such titling, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining titling, hamlet, chapelry, place or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: And the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by the Pluralities Act, 1887, it is amongst other things, enacted that a scheme under section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, in relation to any part of a parish or extra-parochial place, may provide for the transfer thereof to a different diocese, and further that where after the passing of the Act now in recital it is proposed by a scheme under section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, that a part of a parish or an extra-parochial place in any diocese should be transferred to another diocese, such scheme may be consented to in writing by the Bishop of the other diocese, and (if the two dioceses are not in the same province may be approved by the Archbishop of the province in which the said other diocese is situate; and upon such consent, or such consent and approval being given, the scheme may be dealt with and brought into effect by Order in Council in manner provided by the said section, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of both dioceses.

And whereas the Right Reverend Huyshe, Lord Bishop of Worcester, hath made a representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace, together with the consents in writing of the said patrons and Incumbents, and also with the consent in writing of the Lord Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester, as provided by the said Act of the fiftieth and fifty-first years of Her late Majesty's reign, cap. 68, and in case you shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied therewith, I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and such consents to His Majesty in Council.”

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of May, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Coroners Act, 1844, it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Session assembled to resolve that a petition shall be presented to His Majesty praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as thereafter provided; and that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to His Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every Coroner for such county, and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if he shall think fit, with the advice of His Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition and also any petition which may be presented to Him by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to His Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act as to His Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette:

And whereas by the Local Government Act, 1888, the powers and business of the Justices, in respect of the matters aforesaid in each county, were transferred to the Council of such county:

And whereas by an Order in Council made on the 25th day of August, 1892, under the provisions of the hereinbefore first recited Act, the county of Middlesex (excluding the district of the Liberty of the Duchy of Lancaster) was divided into three Coroners' districts, which were respectively called "The Central Coroner's District," "The Eastern Coroner's District," and "The Western Coroner's District":

And whereas a petition has been presented to His Majesty by the County Council of Middlesex, praying that on the occurrence of the next vacancy in the office of Coroner for the existing Western Coroner's District of the said county that district should be altered by the transfer from the said Western District to the existing Central Coroner's District of the said county of the following parishes:—Edgware, Great Stanmore, Harrow-on-the-Hill, Harrow Weald, Kingsbury, Little Stanmore, Pinner, Wealdstone, Wembley; and that on the occurrence of the next vacancy in the office of Coroner for the existing Eastern Coroner's District or the existing Central Coroner's District of the said county, whichever shall first happen, the existing Eastern Coroner's District and the existing Central Coroner's District, or the existing Central Coroner's District as extended by the addition of certain parishes transferred from the Western Coroner's District as hereinbefore mentioned, should be constituted as one district, and that such district might be named or known as the Eastern Coroner's District of the said county:

And whereas the said petition, with the reasons upon which it is founded, has been duly certified to His Majesty:

And whereas all the provisions in that behalf of the hereinbefore first recited Act have been duly complied with:

And whereas the Coroners for the said county have not presented any petition to His Majesty concerning the said proposed alteration:

And whereas His Majesty has, with the advice of His Privy Council, taken into consideration the said petition and is minded to make such alteration and division as is hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, direct, and declare, and it is hereby ordered, directed, and declared, that:—

(1) On the occurrence of the next vacancy in the office of Coroner for the existing Western Coroner's District of the county of Middlesex that district shall be altered by the transfer from the said Western District to the existing Central Coroner's District of the said county of the following parishes:—Edgware, Great Stanmore, Harrow-on-the-Hill, Harrow Weald, Kingsbury, Little Stanmore, Pinner, Wealdstone, Wembley;

(2) On the occurrence of the next vacancy in the office of Coroner for the existing Eastern Coroner's District or the existing Central Coroner's District of the county of Middlesex, whichever shall first happen, the existing Eastern Coroner's District, and the existing Central Coroner's District, or the existing Central Coroner's District as extended by the addition of certain parishes transferred from the Western Coroner's District as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be constituted as one district, and that such district shall be named or known as the Eastern Coroner's District of the county of Middlesex;

(3) After such alterations shall have taken effect the said county (excluding the Liberty of the Duchy of Lancaster) shall be divided into two districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said firstly recited Act;

(4) The said two districts shall be named respectively "The Eastern Coroner's District" and "The Western Coroner's District," and the said districts shall respectively comprise the several parishes and places and have the boundaries prescribed and mentioned in that behalf in the schedule hereto;

(5) This Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Whitehall, May 23, 1912.

The following Address was presented to the King on Tuesday, the 21st instant, when His Majesty, accompanied by the Queen, opened the new building of the Royal Society of Medicine in Wimpole Street:—

To the King's and the Queen's Most Excellent Majesties.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the President, Council, and Fellows of the Royal Society of Medicine, desire to convey to Your Majesties, with our loyal duty, our attachment and devotion to Your Persons and to the Throne.

We take this opportunity to express our grateful appreciation of the deep interest which Your Majesties invariably evince in all that concerns the well-being of Your Subjects, and in the progress of our profession, whose duty it is not only to preserve the individual by curing disease but to improve the health of the Nation by promoting Hygiene, and preventing illness.

Our Society was founded in 1805, but greater stability and effect were given to its designs by the Charter granted in 1834 by the special grace of His Majesty King William IV, who thereby declared himself, "and his successors if they shall think fit," the Patron of the Society.

It is our pride and privilege to record that each of the illustrious Successors of King William IV have so thought fit, and that our greatly beloved and never-to-be-forgotten late Sovereigns, Her Majesty Queen Victoria and His Majesty King Edward VII, have been, and now Your own most excellent Majesty is our Patron.

By a Supplementary Charter graciously granted in 1907 by Your Majesty's august Father, the Society was empowered to enrol as Fellows the Members of several younger Societies having allied objects; the powers of the Society were enlarged, its name was changed from "The Royal Medical and Chirurgical Society of London" to "The Royal Society of Medicine"; and it was specifically ordained that female as well as male persons might be elected Fellows and appointed to offices of the Society.

Thus the Royal Society of Medicine now forms a large Corporation, embracing within its fold the most important Medical Societies in the country, and having for its object the improvement of the Art and Science of Medicine in all its branches by means of debate, collaboration, and research.

Your Majesties, who at all times shew very active sympathy in the work of the great Hospitals and similar institutions, and in everything that tends to alleviate sickness and relieve suffering, take also, as we are well aware, a keen and enlightened interest in every advancement in Medical knowledge directed to the furtherance of those humane ends. Such progress is the single purpose of this Society.

To have been distinguished by the gracious favour of Your Majesties on this auspicious occasion has given inexpressible pleasure to all concerned, and is a recognition that reflects the brightest lustre upon the History of the Society.

It is with these feelings of appreciation and gratitude that we very earnestly thank Your Majesties for the great honour You have conferred upon us, and upon the profession at large, by Your Presence here to-day.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal and dutiful Address of the Royal Society of Medicine.

It gives Me great pleasure to open the fine building which will henceforth be the home of the Society, and which will provide adequately for the increase in your membership and for the extension of your duties since a new and enlarged Charter was granted to you by My Father, King Edward. The importance of the Society's work is now universally appreciated, and it is a matter of satisfaction that the needs of the Society have been generously provided for, and that its varied functions can now be carried on unhampered by lack of space.

The health and well-being of the community are safeguarded by the energies of the medical profession. We look to you to fight sickness and disease: and we claim from you an untiring vigilance in this contest and unceasing efforts to find, by the investigation of the laws of Nature, new means of combating these enemies. Medical science has revealed by experiment and trained observation new securities for life and health during recent years; and none can doubt that the improved public health is mainly due to the discoveries made by the medical profession in this and other countries; to the guidance given by that profession to civil authorities; and to the sanitary precautions against the spread of disease which they have enforced.

It gives Us the greatest satisfaction to assist in any way the interests of your noble calling, and the Queen and I will ever watch the progress of your Society with sympathy and hearty good-will.
