TUESDAY, 11 JUNE, 1912.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of June, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to deliver the Great Seal to the Right Honourable Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, whereupon the Oath of Office as Lord Chancellor of Great Britain was, by His Majesty's Command, administered to him, and His Lordship took his place at the Board accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of June, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a new archdeaconry within the Diocese of Southwell, and for endowing such new archdeaconry.

“ Whereas the said Diocese of Southwell now comprises three archdeaconries and no more, namely the Archdeaconry of Chesterfield, the Archdeaconry of Derby, and the Archdeaconry of Nottingham.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, has represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that a new archdeaconry should be constituted within the said Diocese of Southwell and should comprise the Rural Deaneries of Bawtry, Mansfield, Newark, Norwell, Retford, Tuxford, and Worksop, which are at present within the said Archdeaconry of Nottingham and within the said Diocese of Southwell, and that such new archdeaconry should be endowed in the same manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“ And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees should be received by the Archdeacon of the said proposed new archdeaconry.

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the discontinuance of the collection of the said fees there will be no annual income available for the said proposed archdeaconry from fees dues and emoluments, and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds.

“ Now therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order one new archdeaconry shall be created within the said Diocese of Southwell and that such archdeaconry shall be named ‘ the Archdeaconry of Newark ’ and shall comprise and consist of the said Rural Deaneries of Bawtry, Mansfield, Newark, Norwell, Retford, Tuxford, and Worksop.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the rural deans and other the clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Newark shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction authority and control of the archdeacon of such proposed archdeaconry for the time being and that such archdeacon shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and duties of an archdeacon within the limits of his archdeaconry.

“ And we further recommend and propose that we be authorized to pay by half-yearly instalments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year out of the common fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Newark and to his successors in the same archdeaconry the yearly sum of two hundred pounds, the instalment so first becoming due being an apportioned part only of the said sum of two hundred pounds in respect of the period between the date of the collation of the first archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Newark and the first half-yearly day of payment next ensuing; provided always, that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees, or induction fees during the same period.

“ And we further recommend and propose that whenever any archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of two hundred pounds shall resign or otherwise avoid his archdeaconry such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same archdeaconry.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the archdeacon affected by the scheme, that is to say, the Archdeacon of Nottingham, and the said archdeacon has signified his consent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwell.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of June, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas, in virtue of their existing statutable powers, the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, have elected the present Professor of Geology in the University to a Fellowship in the College, and desire to attach the said Fellowship permanently to the Chair of Geology in the University, so as to secure to the University the augmentation of the stipend of the Professorship by the emoluments of a Fellowship in the College, and to secure to the College the permanent incorporation of a University Professor.

Now, therefore, we, the Master and Fellows of the said College, do hereby, in virtue of the powers conferred on us by section 54 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877. (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), and by Statute XI of the Statutes of the College, alter and amend Statute III, clause 11, of the said Statutes by the addition of the following fresh sub-clause immediately after sub-clause (c):—

“(d) The Professor of Geology for the time being in the University who shall be and become a Fellow of the College in virtue of his election to the Professorship, and shall be admitted an actual Fellow so soon as conveniently may be after his election to the Professorship.”

And clause 12 (E) of the said Statute by striking out the words “Every Professor within the University who shall be elected under Statute III, 11 (b)” and substituting the words “The Professor of Geology.”

And in clause 16 by adding after the words “Every Fellow elected under clause 11 (b)” the further reference “or (d).”

Given under the Common Seal of the Master and Fellows of the said College, this seventeenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Privy Council Office, 10th June, 1912.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of University College, Oxford, on the 27th day of April, 1912 (and sealed on the 17th day of May, 1912), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in “The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877”:—

Ex parte the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE to amend Statute V (The Scholars and Exhibitioners) framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, duly enacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows, being the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, and holden on the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present and voting, and submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

Whereas, in the year 1891, the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, did, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, amend the Statutes of the said College so as to convert the emoluments of one Scholarship out of the Linton Fund to the establishment of two Exhibitions of £40 per annum, to be awarded for special proficiency in Modern History.

And whereas the experience of the working of the said Exhibitions has been disappointing, and in particular the standard attained by the Exhibitioners has not, in general, been satisfactory, and the Master and Fellows are of opinion that a Scholarship of the ordinary type and value would better promote the study of Modern History in the College at the present time, and have resolved accordingly to reconvert the said two Linton Exhibitions of £40 per annum into one Linton Scholarship of £80 per annum, for the special encouragement of the study of Modern History, to be held on the same conditions as the other existing Scholarships of the College.

And whereas the Master and Fellows purpose to establish and maintain out of a recent benefaction under the will of the late Right Honourable Charles Stuart Parker two further Scholarships for the special encouragement of the study of Modern History in the College, so as to secure as far as may be a due succession of Scholars in that subject or Faculty.

Now, therefore, we, the Master and Fellows of the said College, do hereby, in virtue of the powers conferred on us by section 54 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48), and by Statute XI of the Statutes of the College, alter and amend Statute V of the said Statutes by the following omissions and additions:—

In Statute V, clause 1, line 2, the word “sixteen” shall be struck out and the word “seventeen” shall be substituted, and at the end of the clause the words “Two Scholarships founded by the College out of the Linton Fund, and called Linton Scholarships,” shall be struck out, and the following words shall be substituted: “Three Scholarships founded by the College out of the Linton Fund, and called Linton Scholarships, of which one at least shall be awarded for the special encouragement of the study of Modern History.”

In clause 6 the following words shall be struck out: “Two Exhibitions founded by the College out of the Linton Fund, and called Linton Exhibitions.”

In clause 7 the following words shall be struck out: “and also the Linton Exhibitions.”

Clause 14 shall be struck out, and the remaining clauses renumbered accordingly.

Given under the Common Seal of the Master and Fellows of the said College, this seventeenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.
