Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria c. 48), in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose on the twenty-ninth day of May, 1912, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute V, clause 1, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted :— “The number of Scholarships within the College shall be not less than twenty-eight, of which six shall be Open and twenty-two appropriated as hereinafter mentioned to the several schools hereinafter named. One of the Open Scholarships shall always be called the Holmes Scholarship.” And in clause 2 of the same Statute :— “So soon as the amount of the Corporate Revenues will permit, the President and Fellows may, if they think fit, establish not more than six additional Open Scholarships.”

In clause 2 of the same Statute by substituting for the word “six” the word “eight,” and by adding at the end of the clause the following paragraph : “Whenever one of these scholarships shall fall vacant an election to such scholarship shall be held within a year of the day of its so falling vacant, unless it be suspended by the President and Fellows under the powers herein contained.”

And by inserting after Statute VI the following new Statute :—

“ 1. A separate fund shall be established to be called the Exhibition Fund.

“ 2. Into this fund shall be paid :—

“ (i.) Such a yearly sum not less than £600 nor more than £1,200 from the Corporate Revenues of the College as the President and Fellows may at any stated General Meeting from time to time determine, but whenever more than twelve Open Scholarships are filled up the sum annually payable into the Exhibition Fund out of the Corporate Revenues of the College shall be diminished by the amount of the annual value of such additional Scholarships, provided that the sum thus deducted shall never be more than half the total amount payable into the Exhibition Fund under this clause out of the Corporate Revenues of the College.
