At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Skirbeck, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, between that benefice and a certain other benefice, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, which said last named benefice is also situate in the said county of Lincoln and in the said diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas George Samuel William Jebb, of Leintwardine House, in the county of Hereford, Esquire, is the patron of the said benefice of Skirbeck and also of the said benefice of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the said benefice of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, is at present unendowed; and that the said benefice of Skirbeck has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment of the revenues of the said benefice of Skirbeck which is hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been effected the said benefice of Skirbeck will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Skirbeck is now full of a clerk, the rector or incumbent thereof being the Reverend William Thomas Jennings, Clerk in Holy Orders, who is willing that the said apportionment shall be made and has-executed this scheme in token of such his willingness.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Lee, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said George Samuel William Jebb, as the patron of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Thomas Jennings, as rector or incumbent of the said benefice of Skirbeck, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all those pieces or parcels of land tenements and hereditaments known as Skirbeck Quarter Fen Farm and described in the schedule attached to this scheme shall be transferred from the said benefice of Skirbeck and the incumbent thereof and shall be annexed to and shall belong to the said benefice of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, and the incumbent thereof and his successors incumbents of the same benefice for ever, and that as from the date aforesaid the perpetual rentcharge of forty pounds per annum charged in favour of the said benefice of Skirbeck upon the revenues of the benefice of Wyberton, in the said county of Lincoln and in the said diocese of Lincoln, and created by an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and published in the London Gazette on the same day, shall be apportioned between the said benefice of Skirbeck and the incumbent thereof and the said benefice of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, and the incumbent thereof so that a perpetual rentcharge of twenty pounds per annum (being one moiety of the said rentcharge of forty pounds per annum) shall be payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Skirbeck and his successors and a perpetual rentcharge of twenty pounds per annum (being the other moiety of the said rentcharge of forty pounds per annum) shall be payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, and his successors, such perpetual rentcharges to be receivable by the incumbents of the said respective benefices of Skirbeck and Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, and their successors by equal half-yearly payments on the sixth day of April and the eleventh day of October in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the respective incumbents of the said benefices of Skirbeck and Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter, shall have the same powers of recovering the said rentcharges of twenty pounds per annum as were given to the incumbent of the said benefice of Skirbeck by the said Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in respect of the aforesaid rentcharge of forty pounds per annum in favour of the said benefice of Skirbeck.

"Provided always that the whole of the first fruits and tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the said benefice of Skirbeck shall continue to be payable by the rector or incumbent of the said benefice without apportionment.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"Particulars of Skirbeck Quarter Fen Farm to be transferred to the Benefice of Saint Thomas, Skirbeck Quarter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the thirty-first day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Handsworth, in the county of Stafford, now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the fourteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and made or expressed to be made, between the Reverend William Boden Bladon of the first part, William Mayner of the second part and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, certain pieces or parcels of land situate in the said parish, coloured blue and edged pink on the plan drawn on the said indenture, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture, bearing date the sixteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four, and made or expressed to be made, between Evan Thomas of the first part, William Arthur Mason and the Reverend Edmund Joseph Francis Johnson of the second part and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, two pieces of parcels of land, situate in the said parish, and coloured pink on the plan drawn thereon, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:—

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Birmingham.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the perpetual curacy and titular vicarage (hereinafter called ‘ the said Benefice ’) of Hartwell, in the County of Northampton and in the Diocese of Peterborough.

“ Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hartwell is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend William Henry Castleman, of Desborough House, High Wycombe, in the County of Buckingham, Clerk in Holy Orders.

“ And whereas the said William Henry Castleman is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hartwell now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Honourable and Right Reverend Edward Carr, now Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors Bishops of Peterborough.

“ And whereas the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said Benefice of Hartwell which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Hartwell.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William Henry Castleman (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hartwell now vested in him, the said William Henry Castleman, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Peterborough.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwark.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council:

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish (sometime district) of Tonge, partly out of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Augustine, Tonge Moor; partly out of the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, partly out of the new parish (sometime district) of Lever Bridge, and partly out of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint John, Little Bolton, all within the original limits of the ancient parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Tonge, of the said new parish of Saint Augustine, Tonge Moor, of the said new parish of Bolton-le-Moors, of the said new parish of Lever Bridge, and of the said new parish of Saint John, Little Bolton, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship:

"And whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Tonge, the said new parish of

Saint Augustine, Tonge Moor, the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, the said new parish of Lever Bridge, and the said new parish of Saint John, Little Bolton, are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof.

“And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority given by an Order and Decree of Your Majesty’s High Court of Chancery bearing date the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, approving a scheme for the regulation and management of the ‘Bolton Lectureship Charity Estate’ and of certain Orders of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales bearing date respectively the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one and the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three amending the said Order and Decree of the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, a clear annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been provided out of the revenues of the said estate and is available for and towards the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and for and towards the maintenance of the minister thereof, so soon as such minister shall have been appointed and licensed thereto and of his successors ministers of the same district and when the same district shall have become a new parish then of the minister or incumbent of such new parish.

“And whereas the said annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds is available as aforesaid and has been so provided upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the right of patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the trustees of the said Bolton Lectureship Charity Estate have nominated to us as the persons to whom they the said trustees desire that the right of patronage of the said proposed district should be assigned, the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnott, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever, for the first and each and every alternate turn of appointment, and themselves the said trustees and their successors for the second and each and every other alternate turn of appointment.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Edmund Arbutnott, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Tonge, of the said new parish of Saint Augustine, Tonge Moor, of the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, of the said new parish of Lever Bridge, and of the said new parish of Saint John, Little Bolton, which are described in the schedule hereunder written and which are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Chad, Tonge Fold.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and the right of nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof for the first and thereafter every alternate turn of presentation or nomination shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edmund Arbutnott, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever, and that such patronage and right of nomination aforesaid shall for the second and every subsequent alternate turn of presentation or nomination be in like manner assigned to and be absolutely vested in and be from time to time exercised by the said trustees of the Bolton Lectureship Charity Estate aforesaid and their successors for the time being.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council:

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts of the Metropolis," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the Police Courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the Metropolitan Police District as should be found expedient, and that every such Court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed:

And whereas also, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of Justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to constitute within the Metropolitan Police District so many Police Court Divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and from time to time to alter the number and extent of such Police Court Divisions, and to assign a Division to each of the Police Courts already established, and to establish a Police Court for each of the other Divisions:

And whereas, by divers Orders in Council made under the said Acts a Police Court Division has been constituted and assigned to the Police Court called Marlborough Street Police Court, and the extent of such Division altered and defined from time to time:

And whereas it is desirable to make provision for the rebuilding of the said Police Court, and to provide suitable accommodation for the transaction of the business of the said Police Court during such rebuilding, and His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, has deemed it expedient that, during such rebuilding, the said Police Court should be removed to a certain building now in course of erection in Francis Street, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of London and within the Metropolitan Police District, and that such Police Court should, from and after the date hereinafter mentioned, be holden in the said building in Francis Street aforesaid and should be known and called by the name of Marlborough Street Police Court:

His Majesty is pleased, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the Police Court now established in Great Marlborough Street, and known by the name of Marlborough Street Police Court, shall, from and after the seventeenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, be removed therefrom to a certain building now in course of erection in Francis Street, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of London and within the Metropolitan Police District, and shall until His Majesty shall be pleased to order otherwise be there holden by the name of Marlborough Street Police Court, and for the same Division as was assigned to the said Marlborough Street Police Court by His Majesty's Order in Council dated the sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the Islands of the Pacific Ocean known as the British Solomon Islands Protectorate, and within all the ports thereof in accordance with the said Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890.

And whereas, under and by virtue of the Pacific Order in Council, 1893, provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's Jurisdiction within the said Islands.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that it is expedient to declare the port of Tulagi in the said Islands a port of registry, and to declare the description of persons who shall be registrars of British ships thereat, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat.

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him in this behalf by the herein-before recited Acts, or some or one of them, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare and order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the British Solomon Islands Maritime Order in Council, 1912.

2. The port of Tulagi, in the British Solomon Islands Protectorate (hereinafter called "the Protectorate"), shall be a port of registry for British ships.

3. The Registrar of British ships at the said port shall be such officer in the public service of the Protectorate as the High Commissioner for the Western Pacific from time to time appoints by writing signed by him, and in default of such appointment shall be the Collector of Customs at the said port.

4. The person so appointed shall, during the continuance of his appointment, have all the power and authority of the Registrar.

5. The Registrar shall have and use a seal bearing such style and device as the High Commissioner for the Western Pacific shall from time to time direct.

6. Every signature or seal affixed to any instrument purporting to be the signature or seal, as the case may be, of the Registrar, shall for all purposes under this Order, without any proof thereof, be presumed to be genuine, and shall be taken as genuine until the contrary is proved.

7. The Registrar of Shipping at Tulagi shall have the same powers as any Registrar of Shipping appointed under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the said Act and of this Order the said Registrar shall have the same powers as by the said Act are conferred for the purposes of registration and measurement on any officer of Customs or any officer of the Board of Trade.

8. The High Commissioner for the Western Pacific shall, with regard to the performance of any act or thing relating to the registry of a ship registered at Tulagi, or of any interest therein, be considered as in all respects occupying the place of the Commissioners of Customs.

9. Where it appears to the Resident Commissioner in the Protectorate that, by reason of special circumstances, it would be desirable that permission should be granted to any British ship to pass, without being previously registered, from the port of Tulagi to any port within His Majesty's Dominions, the said Resident Commissioner may grant a pass accordingly, and such pass shall for the time being and within the limits therein mentioned have the same effect as a certificate of registry.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Strachie.

Sir Francis Hopwood.

Sir William Conyngham Greene.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for Appeals to His Majesty in Council from the Special Court of the Bechuanaland Protectorate and from any Court of Resident Commissioner of the Bechuanaland Protectorate:

Now therefore His Majesty by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested and with the advice of His Privy Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. In this Order unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Appeal" means Appeal to His Majesty in Council;

"His Majesty" includes His Majesty's heirs and successors;

"Judgment" includes decree, order, sentence or decision;

"Court" means the Court which gave the judgment appealed or to be appealed from, that is to say either the Special Court of the Bechuanaland Protectorate or a Court of Resident Commissioner of the Bechuanaland Protectorate as the case may be;

"Record" means the aggregate of papers relating to an Appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the Appeal;

"Registrar" means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the Records in the Court appealed from;

"Month" means calendar month;

Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order an Appeal shall lie—

(a) As of right from any final judgment of the Special Court of the Bechuanaland Protectorate where the matter in dispute on the Appeal amounts to or is of the value of £500 sterling or upwards, or where the Appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of £500 sterling or upwards; and from any final judgment of the Special Court given in an action for the divorce of persons joined in matrimony or for a declaration of nullity of marriage;

(b) As of right from any final judgment of a Court of Resident Commissioner of the Bechuanaland Protectorate where the matter in dispute on the Appeal amounts to or is of the value of £500 sterling or upwards, or where the Appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of £500 sterling or upwards;

(c) At the discretion of the Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the Appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

3. Where in any action or other proceeding in the Special Court of the Bechuanaland Protectorate no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the members of the Court, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding according to the opinion of the President of the Court, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an Appeal therefrom and not for any other purpose.

4. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within forty-two days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the Applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

5. Leave to appeal under section two of this Order shall only be granted by the Court in the first instance—

(a) upon condition of the Appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court but not exceeding three months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, in a sum not exceeding £500, for the due prosecution of the Appeal and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the Respondent in the event of the Appellant's not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the Appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the Appellant to pay the Respondent's costs of the Appeal (as the case may be); and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the Appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the record and the despatch thereof to England as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

6. Where the judgment appealed from requires the Appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the Court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the Appeal as to the Court shall seem just, and in case the Court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such Order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

7. The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

8. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Record.

9. Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether in Africa or in England), shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

10. The Record shall be printed in accordance with the rules set forth in the Schedule hereto. It may be so printed either in Africa or in England.

11. Where the Record is printed in Africa, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council 40 copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal, if any, of the Court.

12. Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

13. Where part of the Record is printed in Africa and part is to be printed in England, sections eleven and twelve of this Order shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in Africa and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

14. The reasons given by a Resident Commissioner or any of the members of the said Special Court for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such Resident Commissioner or by such member of the said Special Court be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time when the Record is transmitted.

15. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

16. An Appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

17. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

18. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and if not satisfied as to the notice given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

19. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

20. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the despatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

21. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the despatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the despatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the Record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death or change of status of a party to the Appeal, the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in Africa or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in Africa, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with, and execute, any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. Whenever the Special Court of the Bechuanaland Protectorate is not sitting a Court of Resident Commissioner of the Bechuanaland Protectorate shall have jurisdiction in place of the said Special Court to hear and determine any application for leave to appeal from any judgment of the said Special Court or any other matter in connection with any Appeal from any judgment of the said Special Court which if such Court were sitting might under this Order be determined by such Court.

29. Nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

30. This Order may be cited as the Bechuanaland Protectorate (Privy Council Appeals) Order in Council, 1912.

WHEREAS by four several enactments, each shortly entitled "The Courts Enactment, 1905," enacted by Their Highnesses the Sultans and Chiefs of the Federated Malay States of Perak, Selangor, Negri Sembilan, and Pahang respectively in Council, it was, amongst other things, provided that an Appeal might be made to His Majesty in Council, subject to such rules and regulations as might from time to time be prescribed by Order of His Majesty in Council from any judgment or order in any civil matter of the Court of Appeal of the said Federated Malay States constituted by the said enactments as amended by four other enactments enacted as aforesaid, and each shortly entitled "The Courts Enactment, 1905, Amendment Enactment, 1909."

And whereas by the Federated Malay States Appeals Order in Council, 1906, rules and regulations were made for Appeals from the said Court of Appeal to His Majesty in Council.

And whereas it is expedient, with a view to equalizing as far as may be the conditions under which Appeals shall be made to His Majesty in Council, and to promoting uniformity in the practice and procedure in all such Appeals that the Federated Malay States Appeals Order in Council, 1906, should be revoked, and further and other rules and regulations made for Appeals from the said Court of Appeal to His Majesty in Council.

No. 28673.

Now therefore, it is hereby ordered by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Federated Malay States Appeals Order in Council, 1912.

2. The Federated Malay States Appeals Order in Council, 1906, is hereby revoked, and the rules set out in the Schedule hereto are hereby substituted in lieu thereof.

3. This Order shall come into effect on and from a day to be appointed in that behalf by the High Commissioner of the Federated Malay States, which shall be notified by proclamation to be published in the Federated Malay States Gazette.

4. His Majesty in Council may at any time alter, add to or revoke this Order.

And the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council, to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act, and to make regulations in relation to any Dockyard Port for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary, with a view to the proper protection of His Majesty's vessels, dockyards, or property, or to the requirements of His Majesty's Naval Service:

And whereas by the same Act it is also enacted that in relation to any Dockyard Port it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, to make rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried or used, and the steps for avoiding collisions to be taken by His Majesty's vessels and other vessels navigating the waters of the Port and of the approaches thereto:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, certain regulations and rules were made by Orders in Council, dated the 26th day of February, 1897, the 17th day of September, 1900, and the 13th day of December, 1900, with reference to the Dockyard Port of Portsmouth:

And whereas it appears expedient to repeal the said Orders in Council and regulations and rules and to substitute therefor this Order and the regulations and rules contained in the First and Second Schedules hereto respectively:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Vessels to keep clear of any Fleet or Squadron assembled at Spithead.

6. When any Fleet or Squadron is assembled at Spithead, no vessel shall pass through the line of such Fleet or Squadron, except in such directions and in such manner as shall be announced at the time by notice issued by the Admiralty and published in the London Gazette. Marking of Wrecks.

11. Should a vessel sink or become a wreck in any part of the Dockyard Port, so that an obstruction in a navigable fairway is caused which, in the opinion of the King's Harbour Master, it is necessary to mark, such vessel or wreck will be indicated by the following marks or lights exhibited from the wreck itself, or from a wreck-marking craft.

By day: Three balls on a yard twenty feet above the sea, two placed vertically at one end and one at the other, the single ball being on the side nearer the wreck.

By night: Three white fixed lights similarly arranged but not the ordinary riding light.

If the obstruction is not considered by the King's Harbour Master of sufficient importance to be marked both by day and night, a green buoy only will be used with the word "wreck" on it in white letters.

PORTSMOUTH HARBOUR.

The times stated shall be as precise as is reasonably practicable and any excessive or unexpected departure therefrom, due to stress of weather, strikes or other unforeseen causes, shall be communicated by telephone to the King's Harbour Master during office hours, viz., on every weekday except Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

16. Every such ferry vessel, propelled by means of chains or in any other way confined to a fixed track, shall, instead of the lights directed to be carried by the "Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea," carry four lights, one at each corner, showing white ahead and astern in the direction of the ferry track, and red on the beam or athwart the ferry track, each light to be visible for at least 2 miles.

Sailing and small Craft to keep clear of Steamers.

19. When any sea-going steamship, steam vessel towing, steam dredger or steam hopper, within the limits of the Harbour, shall, by reason of the crowded nature of the channel or anchorage or from other cause, find it unsafe or impracticable to keep out of the way of a sailing vessel, or of a boat under oars or sail or steam or other mechanical power, she shall signify the same to the sailing vessel or boat by four short blasts of the steam whistle, blown in rapid succession, when the sailing vessel or boat shall keep out of the way of the other vessel; provided always that the latter shall be navigated with due care and at a moderate speed.

Harbour Channel—when to be kept clear.

20. When it is specially necessary to keep the harbour channel clear owing to a very large vessel or royal yacht entering or leaving harbour, a red oblong flag with a white diagonal bar from the outer upper corner will be hoisted at the Semaphore Tower, Fort Blockhouse and Horse Fort, and while this flag is flying no vessel is to enter the harbour channel from either end.

PENALTIES.

Note.—The master of every merchant or other private vessel to which the rules in this schedule relate must observe and cause to be observed the provisions of these rules as far as they relate to his vessel, and any such master by his wilful default infringing or causing any infringement of any of the provisions of these rules is guilty of a misdemeanour.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 11th day of December, 1912, in the words following, viz.:—

“ Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“ And whereas allowances are payable to the Engineer Officers in charge of the machinery in vessels of Your Majesty's Fleet:

“ And whereas the regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service do not provide for the grant of any such allowance to the Engineer Officer borne for charge of the machinery at the Submarine Depot at Fort Blockhouse, although his duties involve responsibilities equivalent to those pertaining to the Engine room charge of a large ship:

“ We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the grant of an allowance of 5s. a day to the above mentioned Engineer Officer as from the 12th day of October, 1912.

“ Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“ And whereas by Orders in Council bearing dates the 11th day of August, 1884, and the 11th day of February, 1904, it is provided that in calculating, for purposes of pension, the services of Commissioned Warrant and Warrant Officers, and of Officers promoted from those ranks under His late Majesty's Order in Coun-

of the 28th March, 1903, fractions of a year's service in each of the several grades through which the Officers have passed shall be valued for pension if together they total a complete year or complete years, the pensionable value of the year or years so made up being calculated beginning with the fraction in the lowest grade:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it would be more equitable if the pensionable value of any year or years composed of such fractional parts were assessed beginning with the fraction in the highest grade:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to approve of fractions of a year's service in the different grades being assessed for pension under the following rules, viz.:—

"(a) When the fractions of a year's service in each grade for which a separate rate of Pension or Retired Pay is assigned do not, in the aggregate, equal 365 days, no Pension or Retired Pay to be allowed in respect thereof.

"(b) When such fractions equal or exceed one, two, or three full years in the aggregate, Pension or Retired Pay to be awarded for one, two, or three years respectively as follows:—

"For each day of the fraction of service in the highest grade  $\frac{1}{365}$ th of the annual rate assigned to such service.

"For each day of the balance required to make up the one, two, or three full years,  $\frac{1}{365}$ th of the annual rate or rates assigned to service in the lower grade or grades from which such balance is taken.

"(c) The minimum and maximum rates of Retired Pay to be inclusive of this addition.

"(d) The above provisions to apply to all Commissioned Warrant and Warrant Officers, and to Officers promoted from those ranks under Order in Council of the 28th March, 1903, placed on the Pension or Retired List on or after the 29th June, 1912.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit.

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 14th day of November, 1854, under the Burial Act, 1852 (being one of the Acts recited in the Burial Act, 1855), directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the church and churchyard of St. Mary, Stoke Newington, as in the said Order in Council mentioned:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 7th day of October, 1899, varying so much of the said Order in Council of the 14th day of November, 1854, as affected burials in the said church and churchyard of St. Mary, Stoke Newington, by directing burials to be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the said church and churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Orders in Council of the 14th day of November, 1854, and the 7th day of October, 1899, should, so far as they relate to burials in the church and churchyard of St. Mary, Stoke Newington, be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Orders in Council of the 14th day of November, 1854, and the 7th day of October, 1899, so far as they relate to burials in the church and churchyard of St. Mary, Stoke Newington, be varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein contained, the burial of the bodies of the late Florence Annie Salmon and of her husband, the Reverend William Bryant Salmon, at his decease, may be allowed in the said churchyard, subject to the condition that no part of the coffins containing the bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit.

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 16th day of May, 1893, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church of St. Paul's, Marton (Poulton-le-Fylde), in the County of Lancaster; and also in the Churchyard, except as in the said Order in Council specified.

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 16th day of May, 1893, so far as it relates to burials in Marton (Poulton-le-Fylde) should be varied;

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 16th day of May, 1893, as relates to the Parish Church and Churchyard of St. Paul's, Marton (Poulton-le-Fylde), in the County of Lancaster, be varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful, subject to the condition hereinafter set forth, to bury in a vault to be constructed in the ground formerly occupied by the said Church the bodies of John Picken Dixon, his wife, Alice Mary Dixon, and not more than ten other members of his family, at their decease.

Provided that the burials hereby authorized shall be subject to compliance with the requirement that each coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the ninth day of September, 1884, directing the discontinuance of burials in, among other places, the Wesleyan Chapel, Victoria Road, in the parish of Bedminster (then in the county of Somerset, now in the City of Bristol), and within the chapelyard, as in the said Order in Council mentioned:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council, so far as it relates to burials in the said chapelyard of the Wesleyan Chapel, Victoria Road, aforesaid, be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the 9th day of September, 1884, as relates to burials in the chapelyard of the Wesleyan Chapel, Victoria Road, in the parish of Bedminster (then in the county of Somerset, now in the City of Bristol), be varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful to re-inter in the said chapelyard certain human remains which the Town Council propose to remove from a part of the said chapelyard required for the widening of Victoria Road aforesaid.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in such city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Babington, in the County of Somerset; the Parish of Chevington, in the County of Northumberland; the Parish of Lanlivery, in the County of Cornwall; and the Parish of Ousden, in the Administrative County of West Suffolk, respectively, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made representations to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parishes of Babington, in the County of Somerset; Chevington, in the County of Northumberland; Lanlivery Rural, in the County of Cornwall; and Ousden, in the Administrative County of West Suffolk, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said Parishes as herein-after directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by

His Order in Council of the 11th day of October, 1912, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 19th day of November, 1912, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed; as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial grounds shall be opened in the said Civil Parishes save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said Parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

(b) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

PRELIMINARY.

These Statutes are supplementary to the existing Statutes of the College, that is to say, the Statutes dated the 16th day of June, 1881, and the 1st day of July, 1881, made for the College by the University of Oxford Commissioners (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1881), as altered by the Statutes dated the 10th day of August, 1888 (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1888), the Statutes dated the 7th day of March, 1899 (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1899), the Statutes dated the 15th day of September, 1902, the Statutes dated the 10th day of May, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1905), the Statutes dated the 31st day of May, 1910, and the Statutes dated the 4th day of May, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as the Statutes of 1911), made by the College under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

I. PRESIDENT.

1. The provisions of clause 2 of the Statute 2, 1899, under the title "President" are hereby repealed and the following provisions substituted therefor.

2. If the President, after having held his office for ten years and having attained the age of seventy years, or after having held his office for thirty years, shall desire to retire, he shall be entitled on retiring to a pension of £800 per annum. If the President at any time before he has fulfilled the conditions under which he would be entitled to a pension as aforesaid shall desire to retire, the Visitor may on the petition of the President direct that the President shall be permitted to retire from his office with such a pension not exceeding £800 per annum as the Visitor shall deem suitable to the circumstances of the case. Before retiring or making application to the Visitor as the case may be, the President shall summon an Extraordinary General Meeting at which formal notice of his intention shall be given. Any pension payable to a retiring President under this clause shall be provided in like manner as if the same had been awarded under the clause No. 10 of the Statute of 1881 under the title "President."

II. FELLOWS AND FELLOWSHIPS.

Repeal of existing provisions.

1. The provisions of the Statutes of 1881, 1888, 1899, and 1905 under the title "Fellows" are hereby repealed and the following provisions substituted therefor.

General.

2. The number of Fellowships in the College (exclusive of Honorary Fellowships and Fellowships without emolument) shall not be less than thirty nor greater than forty.

3. Of the Fellowships included in this number, not less than six (hereinafter called Professorial Fellowships) shall be permanently attached to Professorships in the University; not more than thirteen (hereinafter called Official Fellowships) shall be tenable by Tutors, Lecturers, or Officers of the College; not more than thirteen (hereinafter called Fellowships by Special Election) shall be tenable by persons elected or re-elected under special conditions; and not more than seven (hereinafter called Fellowships by Examination) shall be tenable by persons elected after examination.

4. Upon a petition from the President and Fellows, the Visitor, if he is satisfied that grave inconvenience cannot otherwise be avoided, may, as a special and temporary measure, permit them to fill up any vacant Fellowship (other than a Professorial Fellowship) either as an Official Fellowship, notwithstanding that the maximum number of Official Fellowships is already reached, or as a Fellowship by Special Election, notwithstanding that the maximum number of Fellowships by Special Election is already reached. But the number of Fellowships in either class shall in no case exceed fourteen; and without fresh permission from the Visitor no new election of a Fellow shall be made in that class until the number is reduced to twelve.

5. Subject to any special provisions of this Statute, the President and Fellows shall not be bound either to fill up any vacant Fellowship (other than a Professorial Fellowship) by an election to the same class of Fellowship, or to fill it up at all so long as the number of Fellowships in the College is not reduced below thirty.

6. Upon a petition from the President and Fellows, the Visitor, if he is satisfied that the financial obligations of the College cannot otherwise be met, may direct the postponement of the election to any vacant Fellowship (other than a Professorial Fellowship), notwithstanding that the number of Fellowships thereby remains below thirty.

7. If any person holding a Fellowship under the conditions applicable to one class of Fellowship shall be elected to a Fellowship under the conditions applicable to another class, he shall vacate the Fellowship previously held by him.

8. Subject to any express provision in these Statutes, the value of a Fellowship shall be £200 per annum.

9. Subject to any express provision to the contrary in this Statute, no person shall be ineligible for a Fellowship by reason of his being or not being in Holy Orders or married and no Fellow shall except as hereinafter provided vacate his Fellowship by reason of his marriage.

10. No Fellowship shall be tenable with a Headship or Fellowship (other than an Honorary Fellowship) in any other College or Public Hall within the University.

11. Every person holding a Fellowship as Professor, and every person elected to a Fellowship without emolument or to an Official Fellowship as Dean of Divinity or Senior Dean of Arts or Bursar, and every person elected to a Fellowship who shall already have been a Fellow, other than a Probationer Fellow, of any College in the University shall be admitted forthwith as Actual Fellow. Every other person elected to a Fellowship shall remain a Probationer Fellow for one year from the day of his election and thereafter until the question of his admission to an Actual Fellowship shall be determined; but in the case of any Official Fellow (other than those already specified in this clause) or of any Fellow by special election, the President and Fellows may, by resolution passed at the time of the election by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting, dispense with the period of probation.

12. Every Probationer Fellow shall on his election make a declaration in the presence of the President and Fellows to the effect that he will observe the Statutes and Bylaws of the College in force for the time being, and shall thereupon be admitted to a year of probation.

13. A Probationer Fellow shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as a Fellow or to take any part in the government of the College, but shall receive during the period of probation the same emoluments as if he had been admitted Actual Fellow.

14. So soon as one year is complete from the date of a Probationer Fellow's election, the President and Fellows shall at their earliest Stated General Meeting (or if such Fellow is unable for sufficient cause to be present on that occasion, then at the Stated General Meeting next ensuing) take into consideration the question of his admission as an Actual Fellow.

15. Every Actual Fellow shall on his admission as such make a declaration in the presence of the President and Fellows to the effect that he will be true and faithful to the College, that he will observe its Statutes and Bylaws in force for the time being, and that he will endeavour to promote its interest as a place of religion, learning, and education.

16. The seniority which a Fellow shall hold in the College shall be determined (subject to any resolution which the President and Fellows may pass at the time of the election or admission of any particular Fellow) by the date of his admission to an Actual Fellowship, but any Fellow who shall before, or within one calendar month after, the determination of his Fellowship be again elected to a Fellowship, shall retain in respect thereof the same seniority in the College that he held in respect of the first-mentioned Fellowship.

17. Every Fellow shall be required to take the degree of Master of Arts, or the degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Civil Law, or those of Bachelor and Doctor of Medicine, within one year after the time at which he shall be of sufficient standing to take such degree or degrees respectively by the Statutes of the University, and in case of non-compliance shall vacate his Fellowship: provided that it shall be lawful for the President and Fellows, in case of sickness or for any other reasonable cause, to grant a delay for a period not exceeding one year.

18. It shall be incumbent upon all Fellows, whenever they shall be summoned by the President, to take part in examinations held for election to places of emolument in the College.

19. Every unmarried Fellow, declaring that he intends to reside, shall be entitled to rooms in the College rent free, and may retain them so long as he remains unmarried and continues to pernoctate during an aggregate period of not less than thirteen weeks in the academical year. No other Fellow shall be entitled to rooms; but the President and Fellows may allow the use of rooms rent free to any Fellow engaged in the educational or other work of the College or of the University.

20. No Fellow shall be entitled to any allowance, other than the customary exhibitions, in respect of his Fellowship; but the President and Fellows may set apart a sum not exceeding three shillings a day in respect of the President and each Fellow, and also, if they think fit, in respect of any Tutor or Lecturer or Bursar not being a Fellow, for the expenses of his dinner on each day when he shall dine at the common College Dinner whether in the Hall or elsewhere in the College.

21. If any Fellow shall be guilty of grave immorality or misconduct, or shall contumaciously persist in disobeying any of the Statutes or Bylaws of the College in force for the time being, he may be deprived of his Fellowship by the Visitor, after due inquiry held upon a petition approved by a majority of the votes of the President and Fellows present at an Extraordinary General Meeting.

Professorial Fellowships.

22. Of the Professorial Fellowships one shall be attached to the Waynflete Professorship of Moral and Metaphysical Philosophy, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Chemistry, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Physiology, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Pure Mathematics, one to the Waynflete Professorship of Mineralogy, and one to the Sherardian Professorship of Botany.

23. Any person duly elected to one of the Professorships named in the last preceding clause shall be deemed to be thereby elected to the Fellowship attached to such Professorship. He shall, save in the cases mentioned in the next following clause, be admitted to such Fellowship at the earliest convenient opportunity, and shall, upon such admission, be entitled to the emoluments of the Fellowship as from the date of his election to the Professorship.

24. If the person elected to such Professorship be at the time of his election the holder of a Headship or of a Fellowship other than an Honorary Fellowship in any College or Public Hall of the University he shall, unless and until he shall have vacated such Headship or Fellowship, be incapable of admission to the Fellowship attached to his Professorship, but shall be admitted thereto as soon as may be upon the termination of such incapacity, and shall thereupon be entitled to the emoluments of the Fellowship as from the date at which he became capable of admission. The emoluments of the Fellowship during the period of such incapacity shall be applied to such University purpose as the President and Fellows may, with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council, determine in each case.

25. If the holder of a Professorial Fellowship shall vacate the Professorship to which it is attached, or shall be elected President of the College, or shall be elected to a Headship or to a Fellowship (other than an Honorary Fellowship) in any other College or Public Hall of the University, or shall be deprived of his Fellowship by the Visitor of the College, the Professorial Fellowship held by him shall be suspended, and shall so remain until a new election shall be made to the Professorship to which it is attached. The emoluments of the Fellowship during such suspension shall be applied to such University purpose as the President and Fellows may, with the consent of the Hebdomadal Council, determine in each case. Provided that if the cause of the suspension of any Professorial Fellowship shall cease to exist while the Professor whose Fellowship has been suspended continues to hold his Professorship, the Visitor of the College may by a written order addressed to the President and Fellows declare such suspension at an end, and restore the Professor, as from the date of such order, to the full possession of the Fellowship which has been suspended.

26. The provisions of the four clauses last preceding shall be subject to the condition prescribed in clause 3 of the Statute hereinafter contained relating to Waynflete and other Professorships.

Official Fellowships.

27. The President and Fellows may, subject to the provisions of clause 3 of this Statute, elect any person, otherwise qualified for election to a Fellowship, to an Official Fellowship as Dean of Divinity, Senior Dean of Arts, Bursar, Tutor, or Lecturer in the College; provided that no person shall be elected to an Official Fellowship as Senior Dean of Arts, Tutor, or Lecturer unless he shall have been recommended for election to such Fellowship by the major part of the Tutorial Board constituted under the Statute hereinafter contained relating to Tutorial Board, Tutors, and Tuition Fund.

28. Every person elected to an Official Fellowship shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship (subject to the provisions of this Statute) for such period, being not more than ten years, as may be determined at the time of his election by the President and Fellows; and he may at any time within two years before the expiration of the period for which he shall have been originally elected, or last re-elected, be re-elected for any period not exceeding ten years from the expiration of the period for which he was originally elected, or last re-elected, as the case may be; provided that before proceeding to the re-election of any person holding an Official Fellowship as Senior Dean of Arts, Tutor, or Lecturer, the President and Fellows shall require a report from the Tutorial Board.

29. Any Official Fellow who shall vacate the office in virtue of which he was elected to his Official Fellowship shall thereupon vacate such Fellowship: but he may, subject to the provisions of clause 30, be immediately re-elected to an Official Fellowship in virtue of any other office qualifying him for election under clause 27.

30. Among the Official Fellows there shall always be at least one person in Holy Orders, qualified and willing to give religious and theological instruction to the undergraduate members of the College belonging to the Church of England, and to hold, if required, the office of Dean of Divinity or that of Senior Dean of Arts. The President and Fellows shall, upon the avoidance of an Official Fellowship by a person thus qualified, unless such person shall immediately be re-elected to an Official Fellowship, or unless there shall be among the remaining Official Fellows another person similarly qualified, elect to the Fellowship thus vacated a person in Holy Orders, qualified for and willing to perform the duties aforesaid. If at any time there be not among the Official Fellows two persons thus qualified, the President and Fellows may, at the time of an election to an Official Fellowship, require that the person to be elected shall be in Holy Orders, and shall be qualified for and willing to perform the duties aforesaid. Any person elected or re-elected under this clause shall hold his Fellowship on condition of taking such part in the religious and theological teaching, and performing such duties with respect to the Chapel Services and the discipline of the College, as may be assigned to him by the President and Fellows, and of holding, if required, the office of Dean of Divinity or that of Senior Dean of Arts. If being in Deacon's Orders at the time of his election, he shall not proceed to take Priest's Orders within one year from his election, he shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship: but in case of sickness, or for any other urgent cause, the President and Fellows may grant a delay in taking Priest's Orders for a period not exceeding one year.

31. If at the time of any election to an Official Fellowship the total number of unmarried Fellows holding the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Dean of the College be less than six, no married person shall be eligible to such Official Fellowship. Provided that nothing in this clause shall be a disqualification for the re-election of an Official Fellow under clauses 28, 29, and 30 of this Statute, unless he shall have vacated his Fellowship by marriage as hereinafter provided.

32. Any Official Fellowship held by a Tutor, Lecturer, or Dean of the College shall be vacated by the marriage of the holder, unless he shall have previously applied for and received the permission of the President and Fellows to retain his Official Fellowship after marriage. Such permission shall not be granted to any Fellow who has not resided as Fellow for three years within the College while holding one or other of the offices qualifying for election to an Official Fellowship; but it shall be granted to any Fellow who shall have resided as aforesaid, unless the applicant shall at the time be holding the office of Dean, in which case it may be withheld at the discretion of the President and Fellows, or unless the total number of unmarried Official Fellows holding the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Dean, and residing within the College will by the marriage of the applicant be reduced below six. No such permission shall be given if such total number will be so reduced, unless the applicant shall have resided as Fellow for seven years in all within the College while holding one or other of the offices qualifying for election to an Official Fellowship, in which case it may be granted upon a report from the Tutorial Board to the effect that in their opinion such permission can be granted with due regard to the conduct of discipline and tuition within the College; provided always that the total number of unmarried Official Fellows holding the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Dean be not by the marriage of the applicant reduced below five. If at any time there be more than one applicant under this clause, the order in which they may obtain such permission shall be determined by seniority in the date of their appointment to office. The manner of making application under this clause, and the mode in which such seniority shall be reckoned, and other points relating to such applications may be regulated by Bylaws of the College made in this regard. Any question which may arise with regard to any such application for the settlement of which sufficient provision is not made by Statute or Bylaw in force at the time when the application is made shall be submitted to the Visitor of the College, whose decision upon the matter shall be final.

33. Subject to the proviso hereinafter contained, the President and Fellows may require any unmarried Official Fellow to reside within the walls of the College; and they shall exercise this power if the total number of unmarried Official Fellows holding the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Dean of the College, resident in rooms within the College during the usual College Terms, shall be less than four. Provided that the power given by this clause shall not be exercised if there be already six Fellows, holding the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Dean of the College residing within the walls of the College.

Fellowships by Special Election.

34. The President and Fellows may, subject to the provisions of clause 3 of this Statute, by Resolution passed at a Stated General Meeting by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting, elect to a Fellowship any person otherwise qualified for election who is included in either of the following classes:—

(a) Professors and Public Readers of the University of Oxford, and persons appointed or approved by the Convocation or Congregation of the University to hold an administrative or educational office within the University or to perform some definite work on behalf of the University in Oxford or elsewhere.

(b) Persons whose attainments and distinction in Literature, Science, or Art, are in the judgment of the President and Fellows such as to warrant their election to a Fellowship and who shall undertake, as a condition of the tenure of a Fellowship, to carry on work of study or research for the advancement of learning in a specified subject, or to perform some special educational work within the College.

Elections shall from time to time be made of persons in each of these two classes.

The Resolution by which any person is elected to a Fellowship under this clause shall specify the nature of his qualification for election, and shall, if such person be elected in virtue of his inclusion in class (b), also specify the particular work which he undertakes to perform.

35. Any Fellow elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (a) of this Statute shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship so long as he shall hold the Professorship, Readership, office, or appointment in virtue of which he was so elected, and shall vacate his Fellowship upon ceasing to hold that Professorship, Readership, office, or appointment. During his tenure of such Fellowship, the emoluments of his Fellowship shall form part of the stipend of his Professorship, Readership, office, or appointment, and shall be considered to be a contribution towards the amount of such stipend fixed by statute or decree, or to be an augmentation thereof, as the University may determine; provided that the total stipend of any person so elected shall not thereby be increased to a sum exceeding £900 a year, exclusive of fees, and that such part of the emoluments of the Fellowship as may raise his total stipend above £900 a year, exclusive of fees, shall not be payable to such person but shall return into the general fund of the College. No sums paid by the College to any Fellow so elected as the emoluments of his Fellowship shall be reckoned against the amount of the contribution due from the College to the University under the Statute concerning College Contributions for University purposes made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

36. Every Fellow elected to a Fellowship under the provisions of clause 34 (b) of this Statute shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for a period of seven years from the date of his election, and may at any time within one year before the expiration of the period for which he shall have been elected or last re-elected, be re-elected in the manner and under the conditions prescribed in clause 34 of this Statute, for a further period of seven years, to be reckoned from the expiration of the period for which he was originally elected or last re-elected as the case may be.

37. If the qualification or conditions of tenure specified in the Resolution for the re-election of a Fellow under the last preceding clause shall differ from those specified in the Resolution under which he was originally elected or last re-elected, he shall, during any interval between the date of the Resolution for his re-election and that of the expiration of the period for which he was originally elected or last re-elected, continue to hold his Fellowship in virtue of the qualification and under the conditions specified in the earlier of the two Resolutions, unless the later of the two Resolutions shall contain an express declaration to the contrary effect.

38. The President and Fellows may by Resolution assign to any Fellow elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (b) of this Statute an annual payment from the corporate revenue of the College, in addition to the emoluments of his Fellowship. The Resolution by which such payment is assigned may be passed either at the same meeting at which such Fellow shall be elected or re-elected, or at any Stated General Meeting during the period of his tenure of the Fellowship, and shall specify the amount of such payment, which shall not be less than £100 nor greater than £200. In determining the amount of any such payment the President and Fellows shall take into consideration the character of the work undertaken by the Fellow and the amount of his income from other sources. Any Resolution passed under this clause shall, unless the conditions of tenure set forth in the Resolution by which the Fellow concerned was elected or re-elected shall be modified or altered as hereinafter provided, remain in force during the term for which he was elected or last re-elected, or during the remainder of that term, as the case may be. Provided that if any Fellow to whom such annual payment is assigned shall hold any office of which the stipend is £150 a year or more he shall not while holding such office receive in respect of such annual payment more than £100 a year.

39. For the purposes of clauses 3-9 of the Statute of 1881 under the title "Disposal of Revenue" any payments made under the last preceding clause shall be treated as expenditure of the College as defined in clause 4 of that Statute.

40. The President and Fellows may at a Stated General Meeting, by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting, at the request or with the consent of a Fellow elected or re-elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (b), modify or alter the conditions of tenure set forth in the Resolution by which such Fellow was elected or last re-elected, and the Resolution declaring such modification or alteration shall, during the remainder of the term for which such Fellow was elected or last re-elected, take the place of the Resolution by which he was elected or re-elected. Upon the exercise of this power any resolution by which an annual payment has been assigned to such Fellow under clause 38 of this Statute shall cease to be in force: but the President and Fellows may by a new Resolution assign to him, subject to the provisions of that clause, such annual payment during the remainder of the term for which he was elected or last re-elected as they may deem appropriate in view of the new conditions provided for his tenure of his Fellowship.

41. Any Fellow elected or re-elected in virtue of a qualification under clause 34 (b) of this Statute shall vacate his Fellowship if he shall cease to carry on the work undertaken by him as a condition of the tenure of such Fellowship, or if, being required by the President and Fellows to furnish evidence that he is engaged in such work, he shall fail to furnish within four months from the date of such requirement such evidence as shall be satisfactory to them. Provided that the President and Fellows may, on the ground of sickness or for any urgent cause approved by them, grant to such Fellow a dispensation from the performance of the obligation undertaken by him for a period not exceeding one year.

Fellowships by Examination.

42. Subject to the provisions of this Statute, one Fellowship and no more shall be filled up every year after examination in some subject or subjects connected with the studies of the University.

43. The examination shall, as regards not less than one in six of such Fellowships, have special reference to excellence in Theology, and as regards not less than one in six of such Fellowships to excellence in Mathematics, Natural Science, or Medicine.

44. Save as provided under the clause last preceding, the President and Fellows shall on each occasion determine the subject or subjects of the examination. In so determining, they shall have regard to any statement or representation which may have been laid before them by the Hebdomadal Council, to the existing distribution of the whole number of Fellowships in relation to the several branches of knowledge recognised for the time being in the Schools of the University, and to the probable number and quality of candidates.

45. Thirty days at least before the commencement of any examination for a Fellowship, notice of the time and method of the examination and of the conditions of election shall be given by the President in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity.

46. No person shall be eligible for any such Fellowship who shall not have passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or who shall be or have been married, or whose income from all sources whatsoever (exclusive of earned income) shall exceed £200 per annum.

47. The election to any such Fellowship shall be made within thirty days from the conclusion of the examination: and the President and Fellows shall elect that candidate (being otherwise duly qualified according to the Statutes in force for the time being) who after examination shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of religion, learning, and education.

48. Nothing in the preceding clauses shall interfere with the right of the President and Fellows to make no election, if on any occasion it shall appear to them after the examination that there is no candidate of sufficient merit. If on such occasion the examination shall have been held in one of the subjects prescribed under clause 43; then that subject shall be deemed to have had its turn, notwithstanding that no election was made.

49. Every Fellow elected after examination shall reside in College for not less than five months during his probationary year, unless he be dispensed from the whole or part of such residence by resolution of the President and Fellows.

50. Every Fellow so elected shall vacate his Fellowship on marriage if he marry before his admission to an Actual Fellowship.

51. Every Fellow so elected shall be required, before admission to an Actual Fellowship, to undertake either (1) to devote some portion of his time to a course of higher study, or (2) to pursue a thorough and systematic preparation for professional life, such course or preparation to be approved in each case by the President and Fellows: and he shall vacate his Fellowship if he fails to fulfil his undertaking to their satisfaction.

52. Every Fellow so elected shall hold his Fellowship for seven years and no longer from the date of his election, unless at any time his income from all sources whatsoever (other than his Fellowship and the value of any rooms or allowances pertaining thereto) shall, for a period of two consecutive years during the tenure of his Fellowship, exceed £500 per annum, in which case he shall vacate his Fellowship at the end of such period, notwithstanding that seven years may not have elapsed from the date of his election. For the purposes of this clause each year shall be computed from the date of his election or the anniversary thereof.

Fellowships without Emolument.

53. It shall be lawful for the President and Fellows at any Stated General Meeting upon twenty-eight days' statutable notice and by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes of those present and voting, to elect and admit or re-elect to a Fellowship without emolument any person who shall have been President or who is or shall have been an Actual Fellow of the College, and whose services as a Fellow would in their opinion be of advantage to the College as a place of religion, learning, and education. The number of Fellows (other than any retired President) elected under this clause shall not at any one time exceed one-eighth of the total number of Fellows otherwise elected existing at the time of any such election. The time of filling up any vacancies in this class of Fellowships shall be wholly at the discretion of the President and Fellows, save that no election in this class shall be made during a vacancy in the office of President.

54. Any Fellowship under the clause last preceding shall be held for the term of seven years and no person elected to a Fellowship without emolument shall be entitled to rooms in College. Save as aforesaid a Fellowship without emolument shall be held upon the terms applicable to Fellowships generally.

Honorary Fellowships.

55. It shall be lawful for the President and Fellows at Stated General Meetings, by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes of those present and voting, to elect distinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships in the College. Persons so elected shall be termed Honorary Fellows, and shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as Fellows, or to receive any emolument whatever, but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the President and Fellows shall by resolution from time to time determine. The conditions of eligibility to and tenure of Honorary Fellowships, and the mode of election thereto, may also be determined by the President and Fellows from time to time. Honorary Fellows shall not be counted among the Fellows of the College in the construction of these Statutes, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College. The number of Honorary Fellowships in the College shall not at any one time exceed ten.

III. WAYNFLETE AND OTHER PROFESSORSHIPS..

1. The provisions of the Statutes of 1881, 1899, and 1911 under the title "Waynflete and other Professorships" are hereby repealed and the following provisions substituted therefor.
