NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Medical and Sanatorium Benefit) (Wales) Order, 1913, dated 28th April, 1913, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under Sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55).

Whereas by Section 78 read with Section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation in Wales Part I of the Act the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that Part of the Act into operation in Wales, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by virtue of Section 42 (e) of the Act if the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor at the beginning of the year is insufficient to provide the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes of medical benefit and sanatorium benefit and towards the expenses of administration, that contributor is not, unless the Insurance Committee consents, and except subject to such conditions as that Committee may impose, entitled to any benefits during that year:

And whereas it has been by Order provided that as respects the year 1913, the commencement of the year is for the purposes of paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act to be taken to be the 13th day of January:

And whereas it was not possible at the beginning of the present year to ascertain whether the amount standing to the credit of a deposit contributor in the Post Office Fund was sufficient to provide the sums aforesaid:

And whereas contributions payable in respect of employed persons were in many cases unpaid at the beginning of the year, but such contributions have been paid subsequently or will hereafter be paid:

And whereas by reason of the premises deposit contributors will, unless this Order is made, as respects the year 1913, be deprived of benefits to which they might otherwise be entitled, and accordingly a difficulty has arisen within the meaning of the said Section 78:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in Section 42 (e) of the Act—

(a) a deposit contributor in respect of whom contributions were paid not later than the 13th day of October, 1912, shall be and shall be deemed always to have been entitled to receive medical benefit during the period from the 15th day of January to the 30th day of April, 1913, both inclusive, and to receive sanatorium benefit during the period from the 13th day of January to the 30th day of April, 1913, both inclusive; and

(b) a deposit contributor in respect of whom contributions were not paid on or before the 13th day of October, 1912, but were paid on any date after the 13th day of October, 1912, and not later than the 12th day of January, 1913, shall be entitled to receive medical benefit and sanatorium benefit during the period from the 1st day of May to the 14th day of July, 1913, both inclusive;

and there shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of the deposit contributor in the Post Office Fund a sum equal to the proper proportion for the period or periods during which he is by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Order entitled to benefit of the sums properly payable under the Act in respect of him for the purposes of medical benefit and sanatorium benefit and towards the expenses of administration for the year 1913, after deducting from those sums such part thereof as is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament:

Provided that if it appears at any time that the amount so standing to the credit of a deposit contributor, in the case of such a contributor as is mentioned in paragraph (a), on the 13th day of January, 1913, and in the case of such a contributor as is mentioned in paragraph (b) on the 1st day of May, 1913, was not sufficient to provide the sum hereinbefore directed to be deducted from that amount, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners may, if they think fit, deduct from any contributions paid by or in respect of him in respect of the period from the 13th day of January to the 30th day of April, 1913, both inclusive, or in respect of the period from the 1st day of May to the 14th day of July, both inclusive, such sum as together with any sum so standing to his credit as aforesaid, will be equal to the proper proportion of the sums so payable in respect of him as aforesaid.

(2) For the purposes of this Order the expression "deposit contributor" means a deposit-contributor who, if the amount standing to his credit in the Post Office Fund were not insufficient for the purposes specified in paragraph (e) of Section 42 of the Act, would be entitled to medical and sanatorium benefit.

2. The Welsh Insurance Commissioners may continue the right to benefit of any such deposit contributor as is mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Order for such further or other period or periods up to and including the 14th day of January, 1914, as they may determine, if there is standing to the credit of the deposit contributor in the Post Office Fund before the beginning of the further or other period or periods an amount equal to the proper proportion for such further period or periods of the sums payable in respect of him for the purposes of medical benefit and sanatorium benefit and towards the expenses of administration for the year 1913, excluding so much of those sums as is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament, and there shall be deducted from the amount so standing to his credit a sum equal to the proper proportion for such period or periods of the sums so payable as aforesaid.

3. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to authorise the doing of any act or thing after the 31st day of December, 1913, which could not have been lawfully done if this Order had not been made.

4. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Deposit Contributors Medical and Sanatorium Benefit) (Wales) Order, 1913.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 28th day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

ALTERING GENERAL CONSOLIDATED ORDER: Daily Visitation of Sick and Lying-in Wards of Workhouse: Transferring certain Duties from Master and Matron to Superintendent Nurse.

And whereas by Articles 208 and 210 of the said Order the Master and Matron of the Workhouse are respectively required to visit the wards of the male and female paupers every morning and night, and to see that the regulations prescribed in the said Articles are duly and properly carried out;

And whereas it is expedient that other provision should be made as regards the visitation of the sick and lying-in wards of the Workhouse of the said Union:

NOW THEREFORE, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order that the following Regulations shall be in force in the Hinckley Union as regards the visitation of the sick and lying-in wards of the Workhouse of the Union:—

ARTICLE I.—It shall be the duty of the Superintendent Nurse to visit each of the sick and lying-in wards of the Workhouse daily, and to see that the said wards have been duly cleansed and are properly warmed and ventilated, and also that all such arrangements are made as may be necessary for the proper care of and attendance upon the inmates both by day and during the night.

ARTICLE II.—The duty of making morning and nightly visits to the sick and lying-in wards of the Workhouse shall cease to be part of the duties of the Master or Matron of the Workhouse, as the case may be; but, except to this extent, nothing in this Order shall affect the duties of the Master or Matron so far as those duties relate to the general control of the Workhouse.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.
