The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 23rd instant, to appoint David Alexander Edward, Earl of Crawford; Llewelyn Nevill Vaughan, Baron Mostyn and Sir Frederic George Kenyon, K.C.B., Director and Principal Librarian of the British Museum, to be Members of the Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts.

Whitehall, July 23, 1913.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to John Cairns under the following circumstances:—

On the 13th of March an inrush of water from old workings occurred at the Townhead Iron Ore Mine, Egremont, Cumberland, shortly after a number of men had descended the pit shaft to their work. As soon as the alarm was raised all men made for the shaft bottom, with the exception of James Ward, who had gone alone to his usual working place some distance from the others. Cairns was rushing to the shaft to escape, when he recollected that Ward, who was working alone, would be unaware of the danger till too late. He promptly turned back to find Ward and hurry him out of the working. By the time he had reached him the water had risen and the two men found it impossible to get back to the shaft. Luckily, they reached a stone drift above the water level, which happened to be connected with the surface by a six-inch bore-hole. Through this bore-hole communications were made to them from above and food was sent down. They remained imprisoned for 5½ days until they were rescued after the mine had been cleared of water.

There is no doubt that Cairns imperilled his own life by his plucky action in going back into the mine to give warning to Ward.

Also to Thomas Wagstaff and Allan Holliday under the following circumstances:—

On 20th February, 1913, at the Burton Brewery Company's Work, Burton-on-Trent, a number of men were lime-washing the ceiling of a hop-press room. On the wall, about two or three feet above the scaffolding on which the men were standing, a shaft was running, driving two cog-wheels. One of the men, named Arbon, was leaning over the shaft when he was suddenly caught and dragged into the machinery. Holliday, who was standing near, at once seized hold of him and became entangled in the gear-wheels himself. The clothes of both men were torn from them, and they were in imminent peril. With great presence of mind Wagstaff seized hold of Holliday and succeeded in keeping clear of the cog-wheels. Holliday escaped with very serious injuries, but Arbon unfortunately lost his life. There can be no doubt that by their plucky action both Holliday and Wagstaff incurred the gravest risk to their own lives.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) (Wales) Order, 1913 (No. 2), dated July 24th, 1913, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas by section 78 read with section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called "the Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises in bringing Part I of the Act into operation in Wales, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury, may by Order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing Part I. of the Act into operation in Wales, and any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by section 42 of the Act, and by the Regulations made thereunder, it is amongst other things provided that insured persons who have not joined an approved society within the time prescribed, shall become deposit contributors within the meaning of that section, and by section 43 of the Act, provision is made for the transfer of deposit contributors to approved societies and for the necessary consequential adjustments between the Post Office Fund and the funds of the approved societies:

And whereas in many cases persons have under the provisions of the Act and the said Regulations become deposit contributors, but have, by reason of the fact that contributions payable by or in respect of them have not been paid, or for other reasons, failed to take such steps as were necessary for the purpose of enabling accounts to be opened in their name in the Post Office Fund:

And whereas many of such persons have since become members of approved societies for the purposes of Part I. of the Act, and delay has arisen and will arise in ascertaining the position in insurance of such persons and in the administration of their benefits by their approved societies by reason of the fact that it is necessary that contributions, or arrears of contributions, payable by or in respect of them before the time of their joining an approved society, should be paid into the Post Office Fund, and the necessary transfers and adjustments should be subsequently made between the Post Office Fund and the approved society, and doubts have arisen, in the case of approved societies, whether they are in order in administering the benefits of such persons until the proper amount, if any, has been transferred to the societies from the Post Office Fund and the adjustments aforesaid have been made, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of the said section 78:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the said section read with section 82 of the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where no account has been opened in the Post Office Fund in the name of any person who, by reason of any provisions of the Act or of any Regulations made thereunder, has become or is deemed to have become a deposit contributor, that person may, if he shall have joined an approved society for the purposes of Part I of the Act before the 15th day of July, 1913, notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or the Regulations made thereunder, be treated in all respects and for all purposes as a member of the society as from the date on which, under any provisions of the Act or of the said Regulations, he would, but for this Order, have become or be deemed to have become a deposit contributor.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) (Wales) Order, 1913 (No. 2).

Given under the Seal of Office of the aforesaid Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 24th day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Percy E. Watkins,

A person authorized by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners to act on behalf of their Secretary.

We consent to this Order:

William Jones, Wedgwood Benn,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.

Notice is hereby given, under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that it is proposed, by the National Health Insurance Joint Committee and the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, acting jointly after the expiration of at least 40 days from this date, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the National Insurance Act, 1911, and by the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912, to make Regulations amending the National Health Insurance (Outworkers) Regulations (Wales), 1913.

Draft copies of the proposed Regulations will shortly be placed on sale, and will be obtainable either directly or through any bookseller, from Messrs. Wyman and Sons, Ltd., Fetter Lane, E.C., and 54, St. Mary Street, Cardiff.
