DORMANT FUNDS IN COURT.

SUPREME COURT PAY OFFICE,
ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE,
LONDON,

February 28, 1914.

Funds.—The Supreme Court Funds Rules, 1905, provide that:—

“On or before the 1st day of March in every third year the Paymaster shall prepare, in such form and with such particulars as the Treasury may from time to time direct, a list or statement of the accounts in the books of the Pay Office to the credit of which there stood on the 1st day of September then next preceding, any funds not less than £50, which have not been dealt with, otherwise than by the continuous investment or placing on deposit of dividends, during the 15 years immediately preceding the last-mentioned date.” (Rule 101.)

In pursuance of the above Rule, the following Alphabetical List of Accounts in the several Divisions of the High Court, which have not been dealt with since 1st September, 1898, is published in the London Gazette for general information, together with an Index of Names, and cross-references to the sub-titles of the several accounts.

This is the only authorized List of dormant or unclaimed Funds in Court.*

Amount.—The aggregate amount of these funds is about £1,250,000, distributed over more than 3,800 separate accounts. One-half do not exceed £150 in value, and only about one-twentieth exceed £1,000.

* Copies of the List can be inspected, without fee, in the Eastern corridor, ground floor, at the Royal Courts of Justice, or may be purchased from the publishers, Messrs. Wyman and Sons, Limited, Fetter Lane, London, E.C., at the price of One Shilling each. Applications to the publishers for copies to be sent by post must enclose a sufficient amount to cover postage, in addition to the cost of the Gazette. The Gazette is registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper. The postage rate to places within the United Kingdom is one halfpenny for each copy. For places abroad the rate is a halfpenny for every 2 ounces, except in the case of Canada, to which the rate, by Canadian Magazine Post, is a penny for every pound or fraction of a pound.

Information.—A person desiring information as to the origin of a fund in Court may in most cases obtain it by inspecting the Orders, &c., of the Court quoted in the List (see Note below). If he finds reason to believe that he may be interested in a particular fund he may apply, in writing only, to THE ASSISTANT PAYMASTER-GENERAL, ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE, LONDON, who, at his discretion, may supply information as to—

(a.) The amount of the Fund.

(b.) The date of any Order of Court known to relate to it, other than that stated in the List.

This is usually the only information which can be furnished, as the Supreme Court Pay Office is solely a financial Department, and has no record of the origin or details of the various suits, or of the circumstances under which the funds have been directed or allowed to remain in Court.

The Paymaster is unable to answer enquiries respecting Scotch or Irish estates. The Accountant General, Four Courts, Dublin, has charge of Funds under the control of the Supreme Court in Ireland. Funds are not lodged in Court in Scotland, but enquiries may be addressed to the Accountant of Court, New Register House, Edinburgh.

Application.—Each application for information must quote the correct title of the matter or suit, and must be signed by the applicant.

If the application be made by a person who is not a Solicitor, he must state the grounds upon which he claims to be beneficially interested in the fund. The mere fact that he bears the same surname as that of a person named in an account is not sufficient. Probates of Wills, or baptismal or other certificates, should not accompany an application.

If the application be made by a Solicitor, he must state the name and address of the client by whom he is instructed, and that he believes him to be beneficially interested in the fund.

Stamps.—Each application must be stamped with a 2s. 6d. adhesive Judicature Stamp. Such Stamps can be obtained at the Royal Courts of Justice (Room 5); at the District Registries of the High Court; and at all Head Post Offices in England.

Payment for Stamps on applications from abroad may be made by Money Order payable to "The Commissioners of Inland Revenue."

Coin, or postage stamps, must not be sent.

Orders of Court.—Funds in Court can only be paid out, or otherwise dealt with, under the direction of an Order of Court. If a Fund cannot be dealt with under any Order quoted in the List, or under any other existing Order, application to the Court for further directions will be necessary, in accordance with the ordinary forms of legal procedure. In many cases the Funds have remained in Court for more than a century, and proof of title would involve expense quite out of proportion to the amount recoverable. Successful applications for the payment out of Funds which have not been dealt with for upwards of fifty years are very rare. No legal advice can be given at the Supreme Court Pay Office as to the steps necessary to be taken in any particular case; nor can advice be given as to the selection of a Solicitor.

Caution.—The lists of "next-of-kin," "heirs to unclaimed money," &c., issued by various persons, are not official publications, and sometimes contain gross misstatements and exaggerations.

The public are also cautioned against relying upon the statements of persons styling themselves "unclaimed money agents," at home or abroad, and professing to be able to recover money in Chancery on payment of fees or percentage, or to act on behalf of the "Court of Chancery." The Supreme Court of Judicature has no such agents.

It is recommended that independent advice should be obtained before making a payment to any agency for information, searches, copies of advertisements, &c., with respect to money alleged to be in Court. Experience has shown that the information so supplied is often valueless to the persons concerned.

NOTE.—The Orders, Reports, Certificates, and Affidavits, referred to in the List are kept, if prior to 1893, at the Legal Room, Public Record Office, Chancery Lane, London, where they can be inspected on personal application, and on payment of the prescribed search fees. Copies may be obtained on application to the Secretary, if the date of the document and the title of the cause be given, but it must be understood that no search can be undertaken by the officials of the Public Record Office. The Orders, &c., from 1893 to the present time are kept at the Filing and Record Department of the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice (Room 81).

Enquiries respecting Wills, Probates, and Letters of Administration may be made personally at the Principal Probate Registry, Somerset House, London. Written applications may be addressed to "The Record Keeper," at that address.

Records of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, since 1st July, 1837, are kept at the General Register Office, Somerset House, London.

All the above-mentioned documents can be inspected during official hours, or copies can be obtained on payment of the prescribed Fees.

Application to inspect Orders in Lunacy should be made to the Masters in Lunacy, Room 213, Royal Courts of Justice.
