THE PUBLIC HEALTH (FOREIGN MEAT) AMENDING REGULATIONS, 1909.

WE, THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, in pursuance of the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Amending Regulations, 1909, HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that, for the purposes of those Regulations, the Official Certificates of which the details are set forth in the Representations or designs in the Schedule appended to and forming part of this Notice are, subject to the instructions given therein, hereby declared to be admissible, in the case of the three Russian slaughterhouses specified in the Schedule, from the date of the publication of this Notice, in the manner, to the extent, and subject to the rules and conditions prescribed in this Notice, as evidence that the pig from which any foreign meat has been derived has been certified by a competent authority in the place of origin to be free from disease at the time of slaughter, and that the meat has been certified by the like authority to have been dressed or prepared, and packed with the needful observance of all requirements for preventing danger to public health from using the meat as an article of food:

AND FURTHER, with respect to the manner, to the extent, and to the rules and conditions in, to, and subject to which every Official Certificate is admissible as evidence for any such purpose as is hereinbefore described, We hereby prescribe as follows, that is to say:—

(i.) An Official Certificate, used in relation to foreign meat, or in relation to a box, case, receptacle or package containing foreign meat shall be admissible as aforesaid only where the meat is derived from a pig.

(ii.) An Official Certificate in the form of a label shall be admissible as aforesaid only where the label is securely affixed or attached to any foreign meat, or to any box, case, receptacle or package containing foreign meat; and where the label so affixed or attached has not, in any other circumstances, or on any other occasion, been used as an Official Certificate.

(iii.) In this Notice, any word or expression to which a special meaning is assigned by the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Amending Regulations, 1909, has the same meaning as in those Regulations.
