

and presentation to the said Benefice of Cornworthy, now vested in him the said Arthur Johnston Mackey as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of February, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 17th day of December, in the year 1914, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a new Archdeaconry within the Diocese of Ely, and for endowing such new Archdeaconry.

“Whereas the said Diocese of Ely comprises two Archdeaconries namely, the Archdeaconry of Ely and the Archdeaconry of Huntingdon, and also the Rural Deaneries of Ely, March, Wisbech, Fincham, and Lynn Marshland, which are not comprised in either of the said two Archdeaconries.

“And whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council, dated the 26th day of June, in the year 1884, and published in the London Gazette on the 1st day of the following month, a Scheme of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, was ratified wherein after recitals that there were within the Diocese of Ely the two Rural Deaneries of Ely and Wisbech not within any of the Archdeaconries of the said Diocese, but subject only to the archidiaconal jurisdiction of the Bishop of Ely, and that the area comprised within the said two Rural Deaneries of Ely and Wisbech was commonly known as the Archdeaconry of the Isle of Ely, it was provided that the said two Rural Deaneries of Ely and Wisbech should be divided into the three Rural Deaneries of Ely, March, and Wisbech as in the said Scheme set forth.

“And whereas by another Order of Her said late Majesty, dated the 8th day of August, in the year 1899, and published in the London Gazette on the 11th day of the same month, the aforesaid arrangement as to the said three Rural Deaneries of Ely, March, and Wisbech was confirmed.

“And whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, dated the 10th day of August, in the present year, and published in the London Gazette on the 21st day of the same month, relating to the constitution of the Bishopric of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the said Rural Deaneries of Fincham, and Lynn Marshland were transferred from the Diocese of Norwich and the Archdeaconry of Lynn to the Diocese of Ely and the so-called Archdeaconry of the Isle of Ely.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, has represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the said Rural Deaneries of Ely, March, Wisbech, Fincham, and Lynn Marshland should be constituted a new Archdeaconry by the name of the Archdeaconry of Wisbech, and that such new Archdeaconry should be endowed in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees, and induction fees should be received by the Archdeacon of the said proposed new Archdeaconry.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that there will be no annual income available for the said proposed Archdeaconry from fees, dues, and emoluments, and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed Archdeaconry to an amount exceeding £200.

“Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Scheme), humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, one new Archdeaconry shall be created within the said Diocese of Ely, and that such Archdeaconry shall be named ‘The Archdeaconry of Wisbech’ and shall comprise and consist of the said Rural Deaneries of Ely, Fincham, Lynn Marshland, March, and Wisbech.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Rural Deans and other the Clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Wisbech shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction authority and control of the Archdeacon of
