FRIDAY, 9 JULY, 1915.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 3) Act, 1915, His Majesty has power by Order in Council to define any area wherein it appears to His Majesty on the grounds specified in the said Act to be expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present war that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor should be controlled by the State, and to apply to such area so defined the Regulations issued by His Majesty in pursuance of the said Act under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914:

And whereas His Majesty in Council in pursuance of the said first mentioned Act has issued the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, under the said last mentioned Act:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that it is expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present war that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor in the respective areas defined and specified in the Schedule hereto should be controlled by the State on the ground that war material is being made, loaded, unloaded and dealt with therein:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, and any Regulations amending the same shall be, and are, hereby applied to the respective areas defined and specified in the Schedule hereto.

Almeric FitzRoy.

The area comprised in the City of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the County Boroughs of Tynemouth, Gateshead, South Shields, Sunderland, West Hartlepool, Middlesbrough and Darlington, the Boroughs of Stockton-on-Tees, Hartlepool, and Jarrow, and the Petty Sessional Divisions of Gateshead, Chester-le-Street, South Shields, Sunderland, Houghton-le-Spring, Seaham Harbour, Castle Eden, West Hartlepool, Stockton, and Darlington, in the County of Durham; the Borough of Wallsend, and the Petty Sessional Divisions of Bedlingtonshire, East Castle Ward, and West Castle Ward, in the County of Northumberland; and the Petty Sessional Divisions of Thornaby and Yarm, North Langbaugh, East Langbaugh, and West Langbaugh, in the County of the North Riding of York.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914) under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the Realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, and the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) No. 2 Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915:

And whereas the said Regulations have been amended by Orders in Council, dated the twenty-third day of March, the thirteenth day of April, and the twenty-ninth day of April, the second day of June, and the tenth day of June nineteen hundred and fifteen:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said Regulations in manner herein-after appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said Regulations:—

1. For paragraph (b) of Regulation 8A the following paragraph shall be substituted:—

“(b) to regulate or restrict the carrying on of any work in any factory workshop or other premises, or the engagement or employment of any workman, or all or any classes of workmen, therein, or to remove the plant therefrom, with a view to maintaining or increasing the production of munitions in other factories workshops or premises, or to regulate and control the supply of metals and material that may be required for any articles for use in war.”

2. After Regulation 10, the following Regulation shall be inserted:—

“10A. Where the competent naval or military authority has control of any dock premises, he may by order prohibit any person from bringing into or having in his possession within those premises, or on board any vessel therein, any intoxicating liquor, except for such purposes and subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be specified in the order, and if any person contravenes any provision of the order, he shall be guilty of an offence under these regulations, and any person authorised by the competent naval or military authority, or any police constable, may search any person entering or within the dock premises, and may seize any intoxicating liquor found on him in contravention of the order.”

3. In Regulation 28 after the words “shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations” there shall be inserted the words “and if the vessel is at any time subsequently found at a port in or within the territorial waters adjacent to the United Kingdom, the competent naval or military authority may cause the vessel to be seized and detained.”

4. In Regulation 54 after the words “any person landing or embarking at any place in the United Kingdom” there shall be inserted the words “and any person who by reason of his occupation or habits has special opportunities of communicating with the crews and passengers of vessels.”

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of July, 1915.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section one of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 3rd day of February, 1915, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section one of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section one of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain Warlike Stores was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 3rd day of February, 1915, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following amendments in and additions to the same:—

(1) That the headings "Jute yarns" and "Jute piece goods" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all foreign ports in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than those of France, Russia (except Baltic ports), Belgium, Spain, and Portugal, should be deleted, and that the exportation of "Jute yarns" and "Jute piece goods and bags and sacks made of jute" should be prohibited to all destinations.

(2) That the heading "Bags and sacks of all kinds (not including paper bags)" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all foreign ports in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than those of France, Russia (except Baltic ports), Belgium, Spain, and Portugal, should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor the heading "Bags and sacks of all kinds (not including bags and sacks made of jute, the exportation of which is prohibited to all destinations, and not including paper bags)."

(3) That the exportation of "tin plates; including tin boxes and tin canisters for food packing," which is at present prohibited to ports in Denmark, the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden, should be prohibited to all foreign ports in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than those of France, Russia (except Baltic ports), Spain and Portugal.

(4) That the exportation of the following goods should be prohibited to all foreign ports in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than those of France, Russia (except Baltic ports), Spain and Portugal:—

Cassava powder and tapioca.

Mandioca or tapioca flour.

Rattans.

Sago and Sago meal and flour.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Duke of Devonshire.

Marquess of Lansdowne.

Lord Chamberlain.

Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, has been pleased, under the provisions of the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, to order that the Aliens Restriction Act, 1914, shall extend to the Isle of Man:

And whereas, by the said Aliens Restriction Act, 1914, power is conferred upon His Majesty, in time of War, or Imminent National Danger, or Great Emergency, by Order in Council, to impose Restrictions on Aliens, and to make such provisions as may be necessary or expedient for carrying such Restrictions into effect:

And whereas by the Aliens Restriction (Isle of Man) Order, 1914, (hereinafter referred to as "The Principal Order") His Majesty has been pleased to impose Restrictions on Aliens and to make various Regulations for carrying those Restrictions into effect:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the Principal Order in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) After the 15th day of July, 1915, it shall be the duty of the Keeper of every Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house and Lodging-house, to ascertain and enter in a Register kept for the purpose the names and nationality of all persons over the age of 14 years staying at the Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house, or Lodging-house, who are Aliens, together with the dates of their arrival and departure, their destinations on departure, and such other particulars as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor, and if the Keeper of an Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house, or Lodging-house, fails to do so, or if he makes any entry in any such Register which he knows, or could by the exercise of reasonable diligence have ascertained, to be false, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of the Principal Order.

(2) The Keeper of every Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house, or Lodging-house, shall also, if directions for the purpose are issued by the Lieutenant-Governor, make to the Registration Officer of the Registration District in which the Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house, or Lodging-house is situate, such returns as to the particulars aforesaid at such times or intervals, and in such form, as may be specified in such directions, and if he fails to do so, or makes any false return, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of the Principal Order.

(3) It shall be the duty of every person who stays at an Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house, or Lodging-house, to furnish to the Keeper thereof and sign a statement containing such information as such Keeper may require for the purpose of compiling such Register as aforesaid, and if any person fails to do so, or gives any false information, he shall be deemed to be guilty of a contravention of the Principal Order.

(4) Every Register kept under this Article shall, at all reasonable hours, be open to inspection by any Officer of Police or by any other person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor.

(5) For the purposes of this Article the expression "Keeper of a Lodging-house" shall include any person who for reward receives any other person to lodge with him or in his house, and where any Hotel, Inn, Boarding-house, or Lodging-house, is under the management of a Manager the expression "Keeper" shall in relation thereto include such Manager.

(6) This Article shall have effect as if it were included in the Principal Order, and that Order shall have effect accordingly.

2. This Order may be cited as "The Aliens Restriction (Isle of Man) Amendment Order, 1915."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of July, 1915, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have found it necessary to employ temporarily in the Medical Branch of Your Majesty's Fleet certain Civilian Medical Practitioners:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the grant to the said Medical Practitioners, in such numbers as may be agreed upon in consultation with the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury, as from the 19th June, 1915, of such temporary rank in the Naval Medical Service as may be considered appropriate to their attainments, together with the maximum full pay and allowances applicable to the corresponding Rank on the Permanent List.

"We further beg leave to recommend that Officers thus entered should be eligible for the award of compensation for injuries and wounds on the scales applicable to their corresponding Rank on the Permanent List, and that, in the event of their death from causes attributable to the Service, their dependants should be eligible for such awards as would, in similar circumstances, be granted to the dependants of Officers of corresponding rank in the Royal Navy.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 17th day of June, in the year 1915, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint Mark, Siddal, situate in the New Parish (sometime District) of Salterhebble, in the County of York, and in the Diocese of Wakefield:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Mark, Siddal, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said New Parish of Salterhebble, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Mark, Siddal, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, Siddal.'

"And with the like consent of the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Mark, Siddal, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same Church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, Siddal, being:—All that part of the New Parish (sometime District) of Salterhebble, in the County of York, and in the Diocese of Wakefield, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say:—upon part of the west by the New Parish of Saint Stephen, Copley, upon the south by the Chapelry of Elland in the Parish of Halifax, upon the east partly by the said Chapelry of Elland and partly by the New Parish of Saint Anne in the Grove, Halifax, upon the north-east partly by the last-named New Parish and partly by the said Parish of Halifax, upon the north by the said Parish of Halifax, upon the north-west by the New Parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining part of the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Jude, Salterhebble, from the said New Parish of Salterhebble, at the junction of Skircoat Green Road with Huddersfield Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Huddersfield Road for a distance of $9\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Spring Hall Lane, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Spring Hall Lane for a distance of $3\frac{3}{4}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Abbey Walk, and extending thence southward along the middle of Abbey Walk for a distance of $7\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Coronation Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Coronation Road for a distance of 4 chains or thereabouts to the wall or fence at its eastern end, and continuing thence eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of $2\frac{3}{4}$ chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Sowerby Bridge, Halifax and Bradford Line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said Line of Railway for a distance of 22 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the road called Crossley Hill across such Line of Railway, and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of Crossley Hill for a distance of $11\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Rookery Lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Rookery Lane for a distance of $10\frac{1}{4}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Salterhebble Hill, and extending thence southward along the middle of Salterhebble Hill for a distance of $11\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Salterhebble Road, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of Salterhebble Road for a distance of $25\frac{3}{4}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Halifax Road upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Salterhebble from the said New Parish of Saint Stephen, Copley."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Wakefield.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 6th July, 1915).

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient, in order that the Civil Parishes of Blackwell and Archdeacon Newton may each be wholly included within one Sub-district of Darlington Registration District, that the parts of those parishes, which, prior to the 1st April last, the date when the Borough of Darlington Order, 1914, P. 2509, took effect, formed parts of Darlington and Cockerton Civil Parishes respectively, should be transferred from Darlington Sub-district to Hurworth and Aycliffe Sub-districts respectively;

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of August, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

Witness my hand this sixth day of July, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

Whereas the benefice of Saint Crispin, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Southwark (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the twenty-fourth day of June last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Thomas Palmer Stevens (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of one hundred pounds (hereinafter called the said pension). Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund, first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty-five pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-fourth day of June last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

Whereas the benefice of Crocken Hill, in the county of Kent and diocese of Rochester (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the seventh day of June last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend John Gilbert Dixon (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of one hundred pounds (hereinafter called the said pension). Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund, first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty-five pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said seventh day of June last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension, or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Lyneham, in the county of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury, was avoided on the twelfth day of June last past by the resignation of the Reverend Maitland Edward Snapp (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent). Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of seventy-five pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said twelfth day of June last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Peter, Acton Green, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to his successors Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Acton Green, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Holy Trinity, Ash, in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of improving the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Aspatria, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle, one yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Aspatria shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Aspatria aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after the rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Aspatria.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Balby with Hexthorpe, in the county of York and in the diocese of Sheffield, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Balby with Hexthorpe shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Sheffield that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Balby with Hexthorpe aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Balby with Hexthorpe.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Belmont, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, one temporary yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such temporary yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year, so long as the same shall continue payable: Provided always, that the temporary yearly sum or stipend hereby granted shall cease upon a transfer (as defined in the Benefices Act, 1898) of the right of patronage of the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Belmont.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

L. S.

Mr. Justice Neville.

No. 00232 of 1915.

In the Matter of ODAMS NITRO-PHOSPHATE AND CHEMICAL COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 22nd June, 1915, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm the alteration in the form of the constitution of the said Company proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Company, held on the 26th May, 1915, and subsequently duly confirmed at a General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 10th June, 1915, and which Resolution, together with the memorandum therein referred to, is set out in the schedule hereto. And notice is hereby further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice Neville, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Tuesday, the 20th day of July, 1915; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as Debenture holder, creditor or Shareholder, desirous of opposing the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration in the constitution of the Company under the above Act may appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose, and he is required to give two clear days' notice in writing of his intention so to appear, with the grounds of his objection, to the undersigned, the Solicitors of the said Company. A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

The Schedule.

The Resolution above referred to.

"1. That the memorandum and articles of association submitted to this Meeting and for the purposes of identification subscribed by the Chairman thereof be and the same are hereby approved, and that such regulations be and they are hereby adopted as the memorandum and articles of association of the Company to the exclusion of and in substitution for the deeds of settlement dated 1st March, 1855, 1st January, 1856, and 31st March, 1863, whereunder the Company was constituted, and all the existing articles thereof."

Company Limited by Shares.

Memorandum of Association of Odams Nitro-Phosphate and Chemical Company Limited.

1. The name of the Company is "Odams' Nitro-Phosphate and Chemical Company Limited."

2. The registered office of the Company will be situate in England.

3. The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To carry on the business of manufacturing, buying, selling or otherwise dealing in any substance used as fertilisers or in the manufacture of fertilisers, or feeding stuffs or other preparations or articles required in agriculture or horticulture, and the manufacturing, buying, selling or otherwise dealing in any chemical or other compound or substance, or waste, or by-product, and the manufacturing, buying, selling or otherwise dealing in any machinery or appliances necessary or proper for turning such fertilisers, compounds or substances to account, and for the more effectual user thereof, and the buying, selling or otherwise dealing in any machinery, articles or appliances which are used or capable of being used for the purpose of, or in connection with, agriculture or horticulture, and to carry on the business of wharfingers.

(b) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter and exchange, let on hire, export and deal in all kinds of articles and things which the Company is empowered to sell or deal in, or may be required for the purposes of any of the said businesses, or are commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in any such businesses, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses.

(c) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company or to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights.

(d) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person, firm, association or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company.

(e) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired.

(f) To promote or concur in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or of carrying on all or any of the businesses aforesaid in any part of the world, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, and to subscribe or agree to subscribe for, acquire and hold or guarantee the subscription of shares, stock or securities of any such company, and to pay all the expenses of or incident to such promotion.

(g) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, works or machinery which in the opinion of the Directors may seem, as to the whole or part thereof, to be capable of being conveniently used in connection with the business of the Company, or any extension or development thereof, or any improvement in the means of carrying on the same, and to lay out, develop, rebuild, reconstruct or otherwise turn to account any such land or buildings, and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the same.

(h) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised abroad in any foreign country or place.

(i) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, reissue or otherwise deal with shares or stock in, or securities or obligations of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to guarantee the principal or interest of any such securities or obligations or any dividends upon any such shares or stock.

(j) To make arrangements with any persons for the concession of any special rights, privileges and advantages, and in particular with regard to the supply of goods.

(k) To sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of, absolutely, conditionally or for any limited interest, the whole or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the Company, wholly or partly for cash, or the shares in, or obligations of, other companies for distribution among the Members of the Company or otherwise, and generally upon such terms as may seem expedient.

(l) To purchase, subscribe for or otherwise acquire and hold, or to sell and deal with, the stocks, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of any other company now existing or hereafter to be formed, and having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of, directly or indirectly, benefiting this Company.

(m) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the Press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibiting works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards and donations.

(n) To support or subscribe to any charitable or public object and any institution, society or club which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on business; to give pensions, gratuities or charitable aid to any person who may have served the Company, or to the wives, children or other relatives of such persons; to make payments towards insurance and to form and contribute to provident and benefit funds for the benefit of any persons employed by the Company.

(o) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, concessions and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them.

(p) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to give any security for money which may be deemed necessary or desirable, and for the purpose of securing money borrowed, or otherwise to create, execute and issue mortgages, bonds or debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or redeemable, obligations, bills, notes, scrip certificates and other instruments, with or without a charge, on all or any property of the Company present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital for the time being.

(q) To do all or any of the above things, either alone or in conjunction with others, in any part of the world, and to make and to carry into effect any arrangement as to sharing profits or otherwise.

(r) To establish, grant and take up agencies in any part of the world, and to act as agents for companies, and to do all such other things as the Company may deem conducive to the carrying on of the Company's business, either as principals or agents, and to remunerate any persons in connection with the establishment or granting of such agencies upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit.

(s) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

4. The liability of the Members is limited.

5. The capital of the Company is £45,000, divided into 45,000 shares of £1 each.—Dated the 7th day of July, 1915.

BY an Order dated the 26th day of May, 1915, made in the above Matter, the Court appointed Augustus Cufaude Palmer, of 27½, Friar-lane, in the county borough of Leicester, Chartered Accountant, an additional Liquidator of the above named Company, to act jointly with Humphrey Douglas McAusland in the voluntary winding-up of the said Company. And the following persons were, by the same Order, appointed a Committee of Inspection to act with the said Liquidators, namely:—James Todd, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, representing the North British Rubber Company Limited; W. D. Walters, a director of Stead and Simpson Limited, of the county borough of Leicester, boot and shoe manufacturers; W. E. Capon, the secretary of John Cave and Sons Limited, of Rushden, in the county of Northampton, boot manufacturers; Harry Roberts, a partner in the firm of T. Roberts and Son, of Portland Shoe Works, in the county borough of Leicester, boot and shoe manufacturers; and — Dawson, representing Brown and Sons (Wellingborough) Limited, of Wellingborough, in the county of Northampton, boot upper manufacturers.

JAMES, MELLOR and COLEMAN, Basma House, 13a, Fore-street, E.C., Solicitors for the Liquidators.

The FAIRBAIRN PASTORAL COMPANY OF AUSTRALIA Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Meeting of the holders of the First Mortgage Four per cent. Debentures of the Fairbairn Pastoral Company of Australia Limited will be held, pursuant to the provisions contained in the trust deed of the 14th July, 1896, securing the same, at the registered offices of the Company, 45, Bishopsgate, in the city of London, on Tuesday, the 20th day of July, 1915, at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of considering, and, if thought fit, passing, the subjoined Resolution, with or without amendment, as an Extraordinary Resolution as defined by the said deed, namely:—

"That this Meeting of holders of First Mortgage Four per cent. Debentures of the Fairbairn Pastoral Company of Australia Limited hereby assents to the provisions contained in the said Debentures and the trust deed securing the same being modified, so that the principal moneys secured by all the Debentures now outstanding shall mature for payment, and be repaid on the 31st day of December, 1915, together with a premium of two per cent. thereon, and that the Trustees of the said deed be and they are hereby authorized and directed to give effect to the foregoing modification of the said deed."

This notice is given pursuant to the provisions contained in the third schedule to the said deed, which provides (inter alia) that at Meetings of the Debenture holders the respective registered holders of the Debentures when registered, and the bearers of such as are unregistered, and no other person or persons shall be recognized and treated as the legal holders thereof, and accordingly shall be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

Registered holders therefore who desire to vote at the Meeting must attend in person, and holders of Debentures to bearer must produce their Debentures at the Meeting.—Dated this 8th day of July, 1915.

By order of the Board,

T. DUNCAN, Secretary.
