NOTICE.

Whereas by an Order dated the 8th June, 1916, the Army Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Regulation 30A of the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, applied such Regulation to certain War Material, to wit, raw wool grown or to be grown on sheep in Great Britain or Ireland during the Season of 1916:

And whereas the Army Council deem it desirable that the purchase, sale, or other dealing in wool pulled before the 1st September, 1916, from the skins of sheep which have been clipped during the Season of 1916, should be permitted:

Now, therefore, the Army Council give notice that they hereby authorise and permit the purchase, sale, or other dealing in wool pulled before the 1st September, 1916, from the skins of sheep which have been clipped during the Season of 1916.

R. H. Brade.

The above notice exempts Rubbings, pulled before the 1st September, 1916, from the prohibition of purchase and sale of British and Irish wool. It does not exempt from the prohibition Combingings or long wool pulled from the skins of sheep or lambs which have not been clipped during 1916.

Diseases.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (VENEREAL DISEASES)
REGULATIONS, 1916.

To the Council of every County and of every County Borough in England and Wales;—

To the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas We, the Local Government Board, are empowered by the Public Health Act, 1875, as amended by the Public Health Act, 1896, from time to time to make, alter and revoke such Regulations as to Us may seem fit, with a view to the treatment of persons affected with any epidemic, endemic or infectious disease, and for preventing the spread of such diseases, and may declare by what authority or authorities such Regulations shall be enforced and executed;

And whereas by the Public Health (Prevention and Treatment of Disease) Act, 1913, We are empowered to declare that the Council of a County shall be an Authority to execute and enforce such Regulations, but it is provided that, except in case of emergency, We shall not require the Council of a County to execute and enforce any such Regulations without the consent of such Council;

And whereas Venereal Diseases are endemic and infectious diseases, and in view of the present War a case of emergency has arisen which requires the immediate execution and enforcement of Regulations with a view to the treatment of persons affected with these diseases and for preventing the spread of these diseases:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, do by this Our Order, and in the exercise of the powers conferred on Us by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, and the Public Health (Prevention and Treatment of Disease) Act, 1913, and every other power enabling Us in that behalf, make the following Regulations, and also Declare and Direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—Every Council shall, subject to the approval of the Local Government Board, make arrangements for enabling any medical practitioner, practising in the area of the Council, to obtain, at the cost of the Council, a scientific report on any material which the medical practitioner may submit from a patient suspected to be suffering from venereal disease.

ARTICLE II.—(1) Every Council shall prepare and submit to the Local Government Board a scheme—(a) for the treatment at and in hospitals or other institutions of persons suffering from venereal disease; and (b) for supplying medical practitioners with salvarsan or its substitutes for the treatment and prevention of venereal disease; and when the Board have approved the scheme the Council shall make arrangements for carrying it into effect at the cost of the Council.

(2) All information obtained in regard to any person treated under a scheme approved in pursuance of this Article shall be regarded as confidential.

ARTICLE III.—(1) Any Council may, subject to the approval of the Local Government Board, make arrangements for any of the purposes of this Order with the managers of any hospital, institution or society; but until the Board have approved of those arrangements and of the hospital, institution or society, no expenditure under the arrangements shall be incurred.

(2) Any approval given by the Local Government Board under this Article may be given for such term and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and any such approval may be withdrawn by the Board.

ARTICLE IV.—Any Council may make such provision for the giving of instructional lectures and for the publication of information on questions relating to venereal disease as the Council may think necessary or desirable.

ARTICLE V.—For the purposes of this Order—

(1) The expression "Council" means County Council, County Borough Council, and the Common Council of the City of London.

(2) The expression "area of the Council" means the Administrative County, the County Borough, or the City of London, as the circumstances may require; and in the case of the Administrative County of London, it means the Administrative County exclusive of the City of London.

(3) "Venereal disease" means syphilis, gonorrhœa and soft chancre.

*ARTICLE VI.—The expenses incurred under these Regulations shall in the case of a County Council be defrayed as expenses for general county purposes, in the case of a County Borough Council as part of the expenses incurred by the Council in the execution of the Public Health Acts, and in the case of the Common Council of the City of London as part of the expenses incurred by the Council in the execution of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891.

ARTICLE VII.—These Regulations shall come into operation on the date of this Order, and shall then and thereafter apply and have effect throughout England and Wales, and shall be executed by every Council.

ARTICLE VIII.—These Regulations may be cited as "The Public Health (Venereal Diseases) Regulations, 1916."

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this Twelfth day of July, in the year One

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE COMMISSIONERS OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE FINANCE ACT, 1907, WITH RESPECT TO THE ASCERTAINMENT OF THE STRENGTH OF SPIRITS.

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise in pursuance of section 4 of the Finance Act, 1907, and paragraph 11 of the Excise Transfer Order, 1909, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1.—(1) The following means may be used for the purpose of ascertaining the strength of spirits:—

The specific gravity of the spirits shall be determined, and the strength of the spirits shall be taken to be the percentage of proof spirit corresponding in Table 1 of the deposited Tables to the specific gravity of the spirits as so determined.

For the purpose of the foregoing provision—

The expression "specific gravity" means the ratio between the weight of a given volume of the spirits at a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit and the weight of an equal volume of water at the same temperature; and

The expression "the deposited Tables" means certain Tables entitled "Tables showing the relation between the specific gravity of spirits at 60° Fahrenheit and the percentage of alcohol by weight and by volume with the corresponding percentage of proof spirit," copies of which have been signed by the Chairman of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise and deposited in the Office of the King's Remembrancer.

(2) If for the purpose of determining the specific gravity of any spirits the spirits are subjected to dilution, Table 2, Table 3, or Table 4 of the deposited Tables shall be substituted for Table 1, according as the dilution is to two, three, or four times the original volume of the spirits.

(3) Where the specific gravity of any spirits determined as aforesaid falls between any two consecutive numbers appearing in column I of any of the Tables, an amount bearing the same proportion to the difference between the two numbers in column II corresponding to the two said numbers in column I, as the difference between the said specific gravity so determined and the lesser of the said two numbers in column I bears to the difference between the said two numbers in column I shall be deducted from the greater of the said two numbers in column II, and the amount so determined shall be deemed to be the strength of the spirits.

2. These Regulations shall come into force on the first day of June, 1916, and may be cited as the Strength of Spirits Ascertainment Regulations, 1916.

Dated this 11th day of May, 1916.

Signed by Order of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise.

J. P. Byrne,

Secretary.
