And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, hath duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Certificate in writing, bearing date the 7th day of July, 1916, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby in pursuance of the Pluralities Act, 1838, certify to Your Majesty in Council:—

“That it having appeared to us that the Benefice of Snargate with Snaue, and the Benefice of Brenzett, both in the County of Kent, and our Diocese of Canterbury, might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one Benefice for ecclesiastical purposes only, we inquired into the circumstances of the case, and on such Inquiry it appeared:

“That the Benefices are contiguous to each other, and, when united, will not be of inconvenient extent:

“That the aggregate population of the Parishes of Snargate Snaue and Brenzett (according to the last Census) does not exceed 500 persons, the population of the Parish of Snargate being 108, that of Snaue 57, and that of Brenzett 300:

“That there is a Church belonging to each of the three Parishes, and there is sufficient accommodation in Brenzett Church for the entire population of the three Parishes; Brenzett Church is not remote from either of the centres of population of the three Parishes:

“That there is a good House of Residence of reasonable size close to Brenzett Church which will become the Residence House of the United Benefice; There is also a House at Snargate which can be let or sold:

“That the net yearly value of the Benefice of Snargate with Snaue is £217 5s. 7d. or thereabouts, and that of Brenzett is £78 3s. 0d. or thereabouts:

“That the Patronage of both the said Benefices of Snargate with Snaue and of Brenzett belongs to us by virtue of our Archbishopric, and we consent as such Patron to the Union of the said two Benefices:

“That, when the said Benefices are united into one Benefice for ecclesiastical purposes, it is our purpose and intention that under the authority of a Faculty from Our Consistorial Court it shall be decreed that Brenzett Church shall be constituted the Parish Church of such United Benefice, and that due arrangements shall be made with regard to the other Churches and the use thereof:.

“That 6 weeks and upwards before certifying such Inquiry and Consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a Statement in writing of the facts to be affixed to the principal outer door of the Parish Church of each of the said Parishes, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such 6 weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us, the said Archbishop, against such Union, and no sufficient cause has been shown:

“The copies of the Statement of facts and notice referred to, and our Consent as Patron before-mentioned are hereunto annexed:

“And we do hereby certify the Inquiry, Consent, and matters aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said Benefices into one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, for ecclesiastical purposes.

“RANDALL, CANTUAR.”

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Rectories of Snargate and Snaue, situate in the County of Kent, and Diocese of Canterbury, and the Vicarage of Brenzett, situate in the same County and Diocese, shall be united into one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, hath duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Certificate in writing, bearing date the 8th day of August, 1916, in the words following:—

“We, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:—

“That the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Hereford, as Bishop of the Diocese within which are situate the Rectory of Little Birch, and the Perpetual Curacy of Much Birch, both in the County of Hereford, having represented unto us that the said Benefices, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed 1,500 persons, might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one Benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case:

“That on such Inquiry it appeared to us that such Union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that Henry Adkins being the Patron or person entitled to present to the Rectory of Little Birch, and Thomas Raymond Symons being the Patron or person entitled to present to the Perpetual Curacy of Much Birch, have consented to the proposed Union:

“That 6 weeks and upwards before certifying such Inquiry and Consents to Your Majesty in Council we caused a Copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the Parish Church of each of the said Benefices, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such 6 weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand, or hands, to us the said Archbishop against such Union, and no such cause has been shown:

“The Representation of the said Lord Bishop of Hereford, our Inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the Statement of Circumstances in reply thereto, the Consents in writing of the said Patrons, and the Copies of the Representation and Notices before-mentioned, are hereunto annexed:

“And we do hereby certify the Inquiry and Consents aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said Benefices into one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only.

“And we further recommend that the course and succession in which the respective Patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said Benefices, after the same shall become vacant, shall belong to and be vested in the said Henry Adkins, his Successors and Assigns, and the said Thomas Raymond Symons, his Successors and Assigns, alternately, and that the first right of presentation to the said

United Benefice shall belong to and be exercised by the said Henry Adkins, his Successors and Assigns.

“RANDALL, CANTUAR.”

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Rectory of Little Birch, situate in the County and Diocese of Hereford, and the Perpetual Curacy of Much Birch, situate in the same County and Diocese, shall be united into one Benefice, with Cure of Souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective Patrons for the time being shall present or nominate to the said Benefices, after the same shall be united into one Benefice, and come to be holden by the same Incumbent, from time to time as the same shall become vacant, shall belong to and be vested in the said Henry Adkins, his Successors and Assigns, and the said Thomas Raymond Symons, his Successors and Assigns, alternately, and that the first right of presentation to the said United Benefice shall belong to and be exercised by the said Henry Adkins, his Successors and Assigns.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of December, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 14th day of December, in the year 1916, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint John, West Byfleet, situate in the Parish of Byfleet, in the County of Surrey, and in the Diocese of Winchester:

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint John, West Byfleet, situate as aforesaid:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of Byfleet, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint John, West Byfleet, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, West Byfleet.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint John, West Byfleet, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same Church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John, West Byfleet, being:—

"All that part of the Parish of Byfleet, in the County of Surrey, and in the Diocese of Winchester, which is bounded upon the south and upon the west by the Parish of Pyrford, upon the north-west partly by the Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Woodham, and partly by the New Parish of Addlestone, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east, and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point north of the bridge which carries the line of the London and South-Western Railway across the River Wey Navigation Canal where such Canal is crossed by the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Addlestone from the said Parish of Byfleet, and extending thence first southward, then south-eastward, then again southward, and then south-westward, along the middle of the said River Wey Navigation Canal for a distance of 1 mile and 26 chains or thereabouts to the point south of Dodd's Bridge where it is crossed by the boundary which divides the said Parish of Byfleet from the said Parish of Pyrford."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Winchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

We, the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic), in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Acts and Regulations relating to the Defence of the Realm, hereby make the following General Order:—

1. The Article entitled "Dilution of Spirits" in each of the Orders of the Board now in force in the respective areas to which the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, and any Regulations amending the same, have been applied, shall be revoked, and in place thereof the following Article shall be inserted:—

DILUTION OF SPIRITS.

Provided always that—

(i) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not affect the sale or supply in bottles of whisky, brandy, rum or gin which is proved to have been bottled before the 6th day of June, 1916; and

B.—PERMISSIVE.

(b) The sale of whisky, brandy, rum and gin reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 30 and 50 is hereby permitted.

(c) In determining whether an offence has been committed under the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts by selling to the prejudice of the purchaser whisky, brandy, rum or gin not adulterated otherwise than by the admixture of water, it shall be a good defence to prove that such admixture has not reduced the spirit more than 50 degrees under proof.

And each of the said Orders of the Board shall be read as if the foregoing Article were inserted therein.

2. This Order shall come into force on the first day of February, 1917.

Given under the Seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this first day of January, 1917.

(b) The Meetings and proceedings of any such Committee consisting of two or more members shall be governed by the Regulations of the Society as to the Meetings and proceedings of the Court of Directors so far as the same may be applicable thereto and are not superseded by any Regulations made by the Court of Directors and except that (subject to any Regulations made by the Court of Directors) the quorum of any such Committee shall be two and any such Committee may meet anywhere and shall not be limited to London.

(c) All acts done by any such Committee shall (notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of the persons acting as such Committee or that they or any of them were disqualified) be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified.

Secondly.—That the Court of Directors of the Society shall be at liberty whenever they think fit so to do to meet in any place and shall not be limited to the House or Office of the Society or to London.

Thirdly.—That the provisions of the Deed of Settlement as modified by subsequent Resolutions as to or in connection with the appointment by the Court of Directors of a new Director upon any vacancy occasioned otherwise than by going out by rotation and the confirmation or the consequence of non-confirmation of such appointment shall henceforth be applicable to the half-yearly General Meetings held annually in the City of Dublin and to those only as if the same were the annual General Meetings of the Society and the only such Meetings and so that at the said half-yearly General Meeting to be held in the month of July 1917 and in every subsequent July any Directors appointed by the Court of Directors since the appointments which came up for confirmation at the last preceding similar annual Meeting or in the case of the Meeting to be held in July 1917 at the last preceding General Meeting held in London in January 1917 shall come up for confirmation but the provisions of the Deed of Settlement as to and in connection with the going out of office by rotation of Directors and election of Directors in their place shall continue to apply to the half-yearly General Meetings held annually in London.

Fourthly.—That whenever at the date of any half-yearly General Meeting held annually in the City of Dublin there shall be any vacancy or vacancies in the office of Director such vacancy or vacancies may be filled up at such General Meeting by the election of a new Director to supply each or any of such vacancies and that the half-yearly General Meetings held annually in London shall not and shall have no power to fill up any vacancies in the office of Director except those caused by retirement by rotation.

Fifthly.—That the half-yearly General Meeting held in the City of Dublin in the month of July 1917 shall be at liberty to increase the number of Directors to twelve and to appoint a new Director to make up that number and in that event the number of the Directors thereafter shall be twelve but this provision shall be deemed directory only.

Sixthly.—That future confirmations or elections of Directors of the Society at any half-yearly General Meeting in the City of Dublin shall be by ballot to be taken at and as part of such Meeting or some adjournment of such Meeting in Dublin and that no such ballot shall be held on an occasion separate from the Meeting.

Seventhly.—That every Proprietor qualified to vote shall be entitled to appoint any qualified Proprietor to vote and act for him or her by proxy and that the exception in Clause 18 of the Society's Deed of Settlement excluding male Proprietors resident or abiding within 30 miles of the General Post Office London from appointing a proxy shall be and is hereby repealed.

Eighthly.—That the appointment by a Proprietor of a proxy need not be limited to the appointment of one person only but may appoint one named person or failing him another named person or failing him another named person as proxy.

Ninthly.—That so far as these Resolutions are inconsistent with the Regulations contained in the Deed of Settlement such last mentioned Regulations are repealed or altered accordingly.
