

spite of heavy shelling every night, he managed to get 30 pairs of armoured cables laid.

Rev. Nathaniel Walter Allen Edwards, Chapn. to the Forces, A. Chapln. Dept., attd. Divl. Arty.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He, with great gallantry and regardless of his personal safety, accompanied by three men, went forward under heavy fire and succeeded in rescuing three severely wounded men. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.

2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Henry Coppock Ellis, Manch. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a portion of his company against an enemy machine gun, killing the team, and capturing the gun. He was severely wounded.

Capt. Francis Robert Farquhar, Ind. Army.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his squadron with great dash, and obtained valuable information. He was subsequently wounded, but continued to direct the operations in hand.

2nd Lt. Lionel John Gárdner, R. West Surr. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He successfully attacked a party of the enemy on our flank and drove them out of their position. His courage and initiative undoubtedly saved a critical situation.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Roy Gibbons, Devon. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his men with great dash and showed great bravery in capturing an enemy post of two officers and twenty-two men and a machine-gun.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Leslie Herbert Gibson, Notts. and Derby. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his platoon in the most gallant manner, and was largely responsible for repelling a strong enemy counter-attack. He himself killed two of the enemy.

2nd Lt. William George Gibson, R.W. Surr. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his platoon forward to a position from where they were able to keep down the enemy's fire, thus enabling the rest of the line to advance on their objective.

2nd Lt. (temp. Lt.) John Gilmour, Argyll and Suth'd Highrs. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in carrying out long-distance bomb raids. On one occasion, although his engine began to fail, he continued to lead his formation, and succeeded in bringing back most valuable information.

2nd Lt. Walter William Glenn, R.F.A. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He saved one of our machines from being destroyed, and drove down a hostile machine out of control. Later, although severely wounded, he succeeded in bringing down a second hostile machine.

Capt. Gerald Mahon Glover, Manch. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although wounded, he gallantly led his company against an enemy battery, which he captured at the point of the bayonet. He set a splendid example to his men.

*Temp. Lt. Cecil Radcliffe Goldie-Taubman, S. Lan. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and resource. He organised and led an attack along a shallow nullah under heavy fire, which culminated in the capture and consolidation of a line of trenches of great value to future operations.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Malcolm Graham, Gord. Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of his company. By his skilful leading and coolness under fire he largely contributed to the success of the attack.

Capt. Thomas Graham, M.B., R.A.M.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rendered invaluable assistance in evacuating the wounded under very heavy fire. He has at all times set a splendid example of courage and determination.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Frederick Collins Granger, Glouc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of three patrols. He personally reconnoitred the position, and, in spite of very heavy hostile fire, succeeded in leading one patrol through a gap in the enemy's wire. He was severely wounded. He has previously done fine work.

Temp. Lt. Thomas Reginald Graty, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He worked continuously for twenty-four hours under very heavy fire, establishing and maintaining communication.

Temp. Lt. Ernest George Green, R.E. & R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty as an observer. He has on several occasions brought down hostile machines, and has carried out many successful photographic reconnaissances. He has at all times set a fine example of courage and initiative.

2nd Lt. Frederick Henry Griffiths, E. Kent R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of a raiding party. He did most excellent work in evacuating the wounded and reinforcing at critical points. He was wounded. He had previously done fine work.

2nd Lt. Frank Barnes Gunning, Yeo.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He carried out a dangerous reconnaissance under very heavy fire, and obtained most valuable information. He has at all times set a fine example.