

ever, by a like vote terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"The Master and Fellows may, by a vote in which not less than two-thirds of the whole body concur, elect distinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships, tenable for life. They may, however, by a like vote terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship."

3. By amending Statute 6 in the following manner, namely:—

(a) By omitting paragraph 4, namely, the words, "No one shall be allowed to compete for a Scholarship before commencing residence in the University, if his age exceeds nineteen years on the first day of the academical year in which the Examination for such Scholarship or Exhibition is held. The maximum emolument of such entrance Scholarship or Exhibition shall be eighty pounds (80*l.*) a year, inclusive of room rent and all allowances. The tenure shall be for not more than two years unless it be prolonged at some time during such two years by a resolution of the Master and resident Fellows," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"No one shall be allowed to compete for a Scholarship or Exhibition before commencing residence in the University if his age exceeds nineteen years on the first day of the academical year in which the Examination for such Scholarship or Exhibition is held, saving that in each year one Exhibition and no more may at the discretion of the Master and Resident Fellows be freed from this limitation. The maximum emolument of such entrance Scholarship or Exhibition shall be eighty pounds (80*l.*) a year, inclusive of room rent and all allowances. The tenure shall be for not more than two years unless it be prolonged at some time during such two years by a resolution of the Master and resident Fellows."

(b) By omitting paragraph 5, namely, the words, "The Master and resident Fellows shall elect the Scholars and Exhibitioners, regard being had to the moral character and learning of the Candidates; but they shall not be required to fill up any vacant Scholarship, if in their opinion there be no competent candidate."

(c) By adding after paragraph 4 the following paragraph, namely, the words:—

"The Master and resident Fellows may elect graduate members of the University under the standing of Master of Arts, or graduate members of other Universities, to Research Studentships. There shall not be more than two Research Students at any one time whose emoluments are governed by the provisions of paragraph 7 of Statute 25. Preference in election shall (caeteris paribus) be given to graduate members of the College. The tenure shall be determined in each case by the Master and Resident Fellows."

(d) By omitting the last sentence of paragraph 6, namely, the words, "They may also, subject to the above provision, prolong the tenure of any particular holder of a Scholarship, promote a deserving Scholar to a Scholarship of greater value, or give two Scholarships to the same Scholar," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"They may also, subject to the above provision, prolong the tenure of any particular holder of a Scholarship, Exhibition or Research Studentship, promote a deserving Scholar or Exhibitioner to a Scholarship or Exhibition of greater value, or give two Scholarships or Exhibitions to the same person."

(e) By adding after paragraph 6 the following paragraphs, namely, the words:—

"The Master and Resident Fellows shall elect the Scholars, Exhibitioners and Research Students, regard being had to the moral character and learning of the Candidates, but they shall not be required to fill up any vacant Scholarship, Exhibition or Research Studentship, if in their opinion there be no candidate of sufficient merit.

"Any Scholar, Exhibitioner or Research Student may notify his desire to forego his emoluments, in which case he shall be designated an Honorary Scholar, Exhibitioner or Research Student, and retain his status and privileges in all respects save as regards emoluments."

4. By amending Statute 10 in the following manner, namely, by omitting in paragraph 2 the following words, "or with the presentation to a College Benefice."

5. By amending Statute 12, Section (b) in the following manner, namely:—

(a) By omitting the first and second paragraphs, namely, the words, "The Tutor, if there be one only, and the two Senior of the Tutors, if there be more than one, and the Bursar shall, if Fellows, be ex officio members of the Council.

"If either of the two Senior of the Tutors or the Bursar be not a member of the Council, he shall attend the meetings of the Council as an Assessor, but shall not have a vote," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—

"The Tutor, or Tutors if not more than two, and the two senior of the Tutors, if more than two, and the Bursar, if Fellows and not at the time of their appointment members of the Council, shall as vacancies arise become members ex officio in the order of their Seniority as Fellows of the College, and until that time shall attend the meetings of the Council as Assessors, but shall not have a vote."

(b) By omitting paragraph 11, namely, the words, "This Statute shall come into operation on the day of the Annual Meeting of the Master and Fellows which shall be held next after its approval by the Queen in Council."

6. By amending Statute 17 in the following manner, namely:—

By omitting paragraphs 4 and 6, namely, the words, "One at least of the Tutors, and also the Dean or some other College Officer, shall reside in College during that portion of each term which is appointed by the Master for the residence of the Undergraduates; and during that part of the long vacation in which members of the College in statu pupillari are allowed to reside, at least one College Officer or Fellow shall reside in College."

"Every College Officer (other than the Master) or Fellow who is fulfilling the duty of residence in College under these Statutes shall sleep in College at least six nights in each week, provided always that when two persons are so residing in College, they shall not both be absent on any one night. Provided also always, that a house communicating with the College and approved by the Master and Fellows, shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be within the College," and by substituting for these words the following words, namely:—
