TUESDAY, 2 MAY, 1922.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of April, 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixty-nine of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to make such regulations as seem necessary or proper for setting in motion the Parliaments and Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland, and also for any other matter for which it seems to His Majesty necessary or proper to make provision for the purpose of bringing the said Act into full operation or for giving full effect to any of the provisions of the said Act, and in particular His Majesty is empowered, amongst other things, by any such Order in Council—

(1) To make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to Ireland as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the said Act; and also to make any adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to England or Scotland as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the said Act;

(2) To make such adaptation of any enactments as appear to Him necessary or proper with respect to the execution of services with respect to which the Parliaments of Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland have not power to make laws, and in particular to provide for the exercise or performance of any powers or duties in connection with those services by any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or officer of that Government where any such powers or duties are, under any existing Act or by the common law, to be exercised or performed by any department or officer in Ireland who will cease to exist as a department or officer of the Government of the United Kingdom;

(3) to make provision with respect to the transfer and apportionment of any property, assets, rights and liabilities in connection with Irish services;

(4) to provide for the inclusion in the National Health Insurance Joint Committee of representatives of the Governments of Southern and Northern Ireland; and for conferring on that committee such powers in relation to England, Scotland, Wales, Southern Ireland and Northern Ireland as are, before the appointed day, exercisable by the committee in relation to England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales;

And whereas for the purposes of the provisions of the said Act relating to the transfer of services, the first day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, has been fixed as the appointed day as respects Northern Ireland in relation to Irish services in connection with the matters dealt with by this Order, but no day has yet been fixed for the purposes aforesaid as respects Southern Ireland:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of Health Insurance Acts) Order, 1922.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) As from the appointed day the Acts shall have effect subject to the modifications and adaptations set out in this Order, save where inconsistent with the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or the provisions of any subsequent Order in Council under that Act, and subject as respect matters within the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to repeal or alteration by Acts of that Parliament.

(3) The modifications and adaptations made by this Order shall apply to any order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument made or issued under any of the enactments so modified or adapted and in force immediately before the appointed day in like manner as they apply to the enactment under which it was made or issued, and any such order, scheme, rule, regulation or instrument shall continue in force in like manner and subject to the like powers of revocation and alteration as if it had been made or issued under the said enactment as so modified and adapted.

3.—(1) There shall be established a separate National Health Insurance Fund for Northern Ireland to be called The Northern Ireland National Health Insurance Fund, and references in the Acts to the National Health Insurance Fund or to the Irish National Health Insurance Fund shall, in the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland, be construed as references to the Northern Ireland National Health Insurance Fund.

(2) The assets and liabilities of the Irish National Health Insurance Fund as existing at the appointed day, including the several accounts and funds forming part of that Fund, shall as and when the data necessary for making an apportionment become available be apportioned, on such basis as the Joint Exchequer Board think just, between Northern Ireland and the rest of Ireland, and the assets and liabilities so apportioned to Northern Ireland shall be transferred to and become assets and liabilities of the Northern Ireland National Health Insurance Fund and the assets and liabilities so apportioned to the rest of Ireland shall be transferred to and become assets and liabilities of the Irish National Health Insurance Fund.

(3) For the purpose of effecting such apportionment as aforesaid, all the said assets of the Irish National Health Insurance Fund shall forthwith be transferred to the body of Trustees to be constituted for the purposes of this Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Trustees").

(4) Pending the making of the said apportionment the Joint Exchequer Board may, by way of provisional distribution, apportion as between Northern Ireland and the rest of Ireland such part as they consider proper of the said assets, and any assets so apportioned to Northern Ireland shall be transferred to the Northern Ireland National Health Insurance Fund, and any assets so apportioned to the rest of Ireland shall be transferred to the Irish National Health Insurance Fund, to be held in each case upon trust for meeting the liabilities which may ultimately be apportioned to those Funds respectively.

(5) The foregoing provisions of this Article (other than the provisions thereof relating to a provisional distribution of assets) shall apply to the Irish Reserve Suspense Fund and the Irish Reserve Values Account in like manner as they apply to the Irish National Health Insurance Fund.

(2) For the purpose of effecting such apportionment as aforesaid, all the investments which are at the appointed day held by the Irish Insurance Commissioners under the said sub-section on behalf of societies shall be transferred to the Trustees.

(3) Pending the making of the said apportionment the Joint Exchequer Board shall from time to time apportion provisionally between the Labour Ministry and the Irish Insurance Commissioners all sums received by the Trustees by way of interest or dividend on the investments transferred to the Trustees under this Article, and the Trustees shall pay to the Ministry and the Commissioners respectively any sums so apportioned, and the Ministry and the Commissioners respectively shall credit to the societies concerned any sums so paid.

5. As from the appointed day any powers of the Irish Insurance Commissioners in relation to investments held by the National Debt Commissioners shall, so far as relates to investments so held immediately before that day, become powers of and be exercisable by the Trustees, and the National Debt Commissioners shall from time to time, in accordance with directions to be given by the Trustees, transfer to the Finance Ministry, or to such persons as may be nominated by the Ministry in that behalf, so much of the said investments as may be apportioned to the Northern Ireland National Health Insurance Fund.

10. The maximum amount of thirty thousand pounds mentioned in section thirty-one of the Act of 1913 shall be apportioned between Northern Ireland and the rest of the United Kingdom in such manner as the Joint Exchequer Board think just, and the Acts in their application to Northern Ireland and to the rest of the United Kingdom respectively shall have effect as if for the sum of thirty thousand pounds there were substituted the sum apportioned under this Article to Northern Ireland and the sum apportioned under this Article to the rest of the United Kingdom respectively.

11. The Minister of Labour shall be the representative of the Government of Northern Ireland on the Joint Committee, and accordingly subsection (2) of section nine of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, shall have effect as though the Minister were included among the persons named in the said subsection as the members of the Committee, and Article 2 of the National Health Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1919, shall have effect as though for the words "and the Chief Secretary for Ireland" there were substituted the words "the Chief Secretary for Ireland and the Minister of Labour for Northern Ireland."

12. The Joint Committee shall have and exercise for the purposes of the Acts in relation to England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland and Southern Ireland, all such powers as were immediately before the appointed day exercisable by the Committee in relation to England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales.

13. Where under any provisions of the Acts the approval or consent of the Treasury is required to any regulations, orders or schemes made or to be made by the Joint Committee, the approval or consent of the Finance Ministry to the regulations, orders or schemes shall also be required in so far as the regulations, orders or schemes apply to Northern Ireland, and any provisions of the Acts requiring any regulations or orders made by the Joint Committee to be laid before Parliament shall be construed as requiring any such regulations or orders which apply to Northern Ireland to be laid also before the Parliament of Northern Ireland and shall have effect accordingly:

Provided that no action taken under the said provisions of the Acts in Northern Ireland with respect to any such orders or regulations shall affect the operation thereof in the rest of the United Kingdom, and no action taken under the said provisions in the United Kingdom exclusive of Northern Ireland with respect to any such orders or regulations shall affect the operation thereof in Northern Ireland.

14.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, any society which was immediately before the appointed day a society approved for Ireland shall be deemed to have been approved by the Joint Committee for Northern Ireland and for Southern Ireland, and where the registered office of a branch of a society is situate in either part of Ireland the branch shall, without any authorization from the Joint Committee, be entitled to admit as members of the branch persons resident at the time of admission in the other part of Ireland.

(2) Where the registered office of a branch of a society is situate in either part of Ireland, subsection (4) of section sixteen of the Act of 1913 shall not apply as regards members of the branch resident in the other part of Ireland, if and so long as the branch is entitled to admit as members persons resident in the other part of Ireland.

15. Where the registered office of a society, being a society which is by virtue of the last preceding Article deemed to have been approved for Northern Ireland and for Southern Ireland, is situate in one part of Ireland, the society may, with the approval of the Joint Committee, relinquish approval for the other part of Ireland notwithstanding that some of its members are resident in that other part, and where the registered office of a branch of a society is situate in either part of Ireland the branch may, with the consent of the central authority of the society, relinquish its right to admit as members persons resident in the other part of Ireland.

16. Where a society or branch of a society has members resident in Ireland and the society has duly relinquished or proposes to relinquish approval for, or the branch has duly relinquished its right to admit as members persons resident in, Ireland or either part of Ireland, as the case may be, Article 83 (1) of the National Health Insurance (Approved Societies) Consolidated Regulations, 1918, shall, during the period of twelve months next following the appointed day, have effect, so far as relates to the transfer of engagements relating to insured members of the society or branch resident in Ireland or in that part of Ireland, as if paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) thereof were not contained therein, and accordingly a resolution to transfer any such engagements proposed and carried in manner mentioned in paragraph (a) thereof, shall on being so carried immediately be of full force and effect, subject always to the other provisions of the said Regulations.

17. There shall be included among the representatives of the Board of Trade on the Committee constituted under subsection (5) of section forty-eight of the Act of 1911 to manage the affairs of the Seamen's National Insurance Society a person nominated by the Labour Ministry, and the scheme prepared by the Board of Trade under the said subsection shall be deemed to be amended and have effect accordingly.

18. Article 9 of the National Health Insurance (Navy, Army, and Air Force) Consolidated Regulations, 1920, (which provides for the constitution of an advisory committee to advise the Minister of Health with respect to administration of the Navy and Army Insurance Fund), shall have effect as though for the words "consisting of five members, of whom one shall be appointed by the Minister, one by the Admiralty, one by the Army Council, one by the Air Council, and one by the Secretary of State for India" there was substituted the words "consisting of six members, of whom one shall be appointed by the Minister, one by the Admiralty, one by the Army Council, one by the Air Council, one by the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland, and one by the Secretary of State for India."

The powers and duties of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue with reference to the granting of allowances for or the repurchase of stamps issued for the purposes of the Acts shall, so far as relates to stamps issued for the purposes of the Acts as applying to Northern Ireland, be exercised and performed on and after the appointed day by the Labour Ministry.

20. In the application of the Acts to Northern Ireland—

(a) So much of section one hundred and eight of the Act of 1911 as relates to the preparation and issue of stamps for the purposes of the Acts and references to the Postmaster-General and the Post Office shall not apply, without prejudice to the making of arrangements under section sixty-three of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, for the exercise and performance by the Postmaster-General and his officers on behalf of the Labour Ministry of the powers and duties which under the Acts were before the appointed day exercised and performed by the Postmaster-General and his officers:

(b) The reference to the Local Government Board in section one hundred and fourteen of the Act of 1911 shall be construed as a reference to the Finance Ministry:

(c) References to the National Debt Commissioners shall be construed as references to the Finance Ministry, but nothing in this provision shall prejudice the power of the Finance Ministry to make arrangements under section sixty-three of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, with the National Debt Commissioners for the exercise by them on behalf of the Ministry of such powers of the Ministry under the Acts as are outside Northern Ireland exercisable by the Commissioners.
