ORDER DEFINING THE EMPLOYMENT TO BE TREATED AS OVERTIME EMPLOYMENT.

The Bedford and Huntingdon Agricultural Wages Committee in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the Agricultural Wages (Regulation) Act, 1924 and the Agricultural Wages Committees Regulations 1924, do by this Order define the undermentioned employment as the employment which is to be treated as overtime employment, for the purpose of the application of any differential rate of wages for overtime fixed by the said Committee.

(a) All employment in excess of five and a half hours on a Saturday or on such other day (not being Sunday), in every week as may be agreed between the employer and the worker:

(b) All employment on a Sunday.

(c) All employment in excess of 50 hours in any week (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in summer.

(d) All employment in excess of 48 hours in any week (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in winter.

(e) For the purpose of this Order, employment in summer shall be deemed to be employment during the period commencing on the first Monday in March and ending on the last Saturday in October, and employment in winter shall be deemed to be employment during the rest of the year.

Provided that the foregoing definitions of employment in summer and employment in winter shall not apply to any period prior to the 29th day of March 1925.

By order of the Bedford and Huntingdon Agricultural Wages Committee.

E. C. Ixer,
Secretary.

ORDER DEFINING THE BENEFITS AND ADVANTAGES WHICH MAY BE RECKONED AS PAYMENT OF WAGES IN LIEU OF PAYMENT IN CASH.

The Bedford and Huntingdon Agricultural Wages Committee in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the Agricultural Wages (Regulation) Act, 1924 and the Agricultural Wages Committees Regulations 1924, do by this Order define the following benefits and advantages (not being benefits and advantages prohibited by law) as the benefits and advantages which may be reckoned as payment of wages in lieu of payment in cash for the purpose of the application of any minimum rate of wages fixed by the said Committee.

1. The benefits or advantages which may be reckoned as payment of wages in lieu of payment in cash for the purpose of any minimum rate of wages fixed under the Agricultural Wages (Regulation) Act, 1924, in respect of the above area where provided by an employer for a worker employed by him are as follows:—

(a) New Milk.

(b) Skimmed or separated Milk.

(c) In the case of male workers only:—Board (including any meals but not including intoxicating drink) and lodging, except in any case in which the Wages Committee shall have determined that the lodging accommodation provided is so defective as to be injurious to health.

(d) Cottage including any garden provided with the cottage, except where the cottage is one in regard to which the Medical Officer
