At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of August, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Measure, 1926, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Measure, 1926, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a new Archdeaconry within the Diocese of Guildford, for endowing such new Archdeaconry, and for re-arranging the Rural Deaneries within the same Diocese:

“Whereas the said Diocese of Guildford now comprises one Archdeaconry and no more, namely, the Archdeaconry of Surrey:

“And whereas the Right Reverend John Harold, Bishop of Guildford, has represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that a new Archdeaconry should be constituted within the said Diocese of Guildford and should comprise the Rural Deaneries which are hereinafter mentioned and which are at present within the said Archdeaconry of Surrey and within the said Diocese of Guildford, that such new Archdeaconry should be endowed in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed, and that certain new arrangements (being the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed) should be made with respect to the Rural Deaneries within the said Diocese of Guildford:

“And whereas it appears to us to be undesirable that procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees should be received by the Archdeacon of the said proposed new Archdeaconry:

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the discontinuance of the collection of the said fees there will be no annual income available for the said proposed Archdeaconry from fees, dues and emoluments and that the grant hereinafter recommended and proposed will not be such as to raise the annual income of the said proposed Archdeaconry to an amount exceeding £300:

“Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said John Harold, Bishop of Guildford (testified by his having signed and sealed this Scheme) humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order one new Archdeaconry shall be created within the said Diocese of Guildford; that such Archdeaconry shall be named ‘The Archdeaconry of Dorking,’ and that each of the said Archdeaconries of Surrey and Dorking shall comprise and consist of those Rural Deaneries, the names of which are set down in order under its name and are numbered consecutively in the Schedule to this Scheme annexed, and that the name which in such Schedule is given to any Rural Deanery shall be the name thereof and that every Parish or Cure or Church the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any Rural Deanery in the first Column of the said

Schedule, shall belong to and be a part of the Rural Deanery and of the Archdeaconry under the name of which it so appears as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean and Archdeacon thereof and shall not any longer belong to or be part of any other Rural Deanery or of any other Archdeaconry or be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Rural Dean or of any other Archdeacon.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Rural Deans and other the Clergy and the inhabitants generally of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dorking shall be under and subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction, authority and control of the Archdeacon of such proposed Archdeaconry for the time being and that such Archdeacon shall have and exercise all the rights powers and duties of an Archdeacon within the limits of his Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that we be authorised to pay by equal quarterly instalments on the 1st day of January, the 1st day of April, the 1st day of July and the 1st day of October in every year out of the Common Fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dorking and to his successors in the same Archdeaconry the yearly sum of £300, the instalment so first becoming due being an apportioned part only of the said sum of £300 in respect of the period between the date of the collation of the first Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dorking and the first quarterly day of payment next ensuing: provided always that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of £300 shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous 12 calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law.

“And we further recommend and propose that procurations, synodals, visitation fees, or induction fees shall not be receivable by the Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Dorking and that all such fees or payments shall accordingly cease to be payable to the said Archdeacon.

“And we further recommend and propose that whenever any Archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of £300 shall resign or otherwise avoid his Archdeaconry such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such Archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the Archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, and Measure, or of any of them, or of any other Act or Measure.

“THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference :—

For the purposes of the Electricity (Supply) Acts, 1882 to 1926, and the Orders made and issued thereunder; and all Special Acts relating to the supply of electricity, the Electricity Commissioners approve of the system of supply described hereunder subject to the Regulations made by the Electricity Commissioners for securing the safety of the public and for ensuring a proper and sufficient supply of energy.

System of Supply.

A three phase alternating current supply at an extra high pressure of 6,600 volts (or 11,000 volts, or 22,000 volts, or 33,000 volts, or 49,500 volts, or 66,000 volts or 132,000 volts, as the case may be).

(1) The supply will be given:—

(a) for general supply at high pressure to transformers, converters or motors on the consumers' premises, or at medium or low pressure;

(b) for traction purposes at medium pressure.

(2) The extra high pressure and high pressure supply will be given by alternating current, and the medium pressure and low pressure supply will be given by alternating current or by direct current.

Mains.

(4) The mains will consist of insulated conductors laid together and enclosed in a lead sheath, or separate conductors insulated and enclosed in a lead sheath, and either (a) braided, compounded and armoured, and laid direct in the ground, and covered with:—

(i) wooden planks 2 inches thick, and (except for making up pieces and at bends) 10 feet long, and treated with preservative compound to prevent decay; or

(ii) reinforced concrete slabs, 3 feet long by 2 inches thick, and 6 inches wide, and suitably interlocked so as to prevent lateral displacement; or

(iv) hard burned tiles interlocked or suitably arranged so as to prevent displacement;

or (b) drawn into pipes or ducts of approved design;

or (c) laid in troughs filled in with composition and covered with hard burned tiles or other approved protection held in position through contact with the filling in composition.

This approval shall apply in the case of extra high pressure systems adopted after the date hereof in lieu of the prior approval of the Electricity Commissioners dated the 1st May, 1925, and published in the London Gazette on the 8th May, 1925.

Any joint electricity authority or authorised undertakers within the meaning of the above-mentioned Acts adopting an extra high pressure system of supply in pursuance of this General Approval must notify the Electricity Commissioners in order that the Regulations as to Extra High Pressure for securing the safety of the public and for ensuring a proper and sufficient supply of electrical energy may be prescribed on such authority or undertakers where necessary.

Any extra high pressure system of supply other than that described above will require special approval by the Electricity Commissioners.

Signed by Order of the Electricity Commissioners this 10th day of August, 1928.
