UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACTS, 1920-1927.

DECISION OF THE HIGH COURT ON A REFERENCE BY THE MINISTER OF LABOUR PURSUANT TO SECTION 10 (1) (PROVISO II) OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920.

Contributions not Payable.

On the 30th July, 1928, Mr. Justice Roche gave judgment in the High Court on a question referred by the Minister for decision, whether the employment of a labourer by a City Corporation on the alternate week system under a scheme for employing Board of Guardians test men on public utility work, was such employment as to make him an employed person within the meaning of the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920-1927.

The Judge held that employment in the circumstances described was not employment "in full-time work" within the meaning of the proviso to the amendment of Section 47 (1) (b) of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, contained in the Fourth Schedule to the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1927, and that the employment was accordingly excepted under the amendment aforesaid.

Civil Service Commission, August 31, 1928.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE COMPETITIVE SELECTION OF ASSISTANTS IN THE BRITISH MUSEUM.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. Candidates must have attained the age of 22, and shall as a rule not exceed the age of 26 on the 1st April of the year in which the competition is held, but in special circumstances candidates above 26 may be admitted with the approval of the Treasury and the Civil Service Commissioners. Candidates who have served or are serving in His Majesty's Forces may deduct from their actual age any time so served between the 4th August, 1914, and the 31st December, 1919.

2. Candidates must be natural-born British subjects and the children of fathers also natural-born British subjects; provided that exception may be made—

(a) In the case of candidates serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.

(b) In the case of natural-born British subjects who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces in the Great War between 4th August, 1914, and 11th November, 1918.

(c) In the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and up-bringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible, provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject; and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalization or by any other voluntary and formal act.

3. Until further order preference will be given to candidates who have served in His Majesty's Forces in the War.

No person will be eligible who obtained from any tribunal established under the Military Service Acts, 1916 to 1918, exemption from service in His Majesty's Forces under those Acts on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of military service, or, although not so exempted, declined to comply with obligations imposed upon him by those Acts.

4. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

5. The Trustees of the British Museum will take such steps as they think most appropriate to make known the existence of any vacancy or vacancies which they desire to fill on any one occasion, and the Civil Service Commissioners will satisfy themselves that the steps taken have been such as to secure all desirable publicity.

6. Application shall be made in the first instance to the Director of the British Museum, who, after examining the candidates' credentials and a personal interview, will submit the names of such candidates as appear to have the requisite qualifications for any of the existing or prospective vacancies to the Principal Trustees for approval of their candidature. Candidates thus approved shall be submitted to the Civil Service Commissioners, who, if dissatisfied with the number or quality of candidates for any vacancy, may require further search to be made for qualified candidates.

7. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have received such systematic education, general or technical, or general and technical together, as in their opinion fits them for the post. Candidates thus recommended and approved shall be submitted to a qualifying examination in English and General Knowledge.

8. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character. Female candidates must be unmarried or widows, and will be required to resign their appointments on marriage.
