FAIRS ACT, 1873.

(36 & 37 Vict., cap. 37.)

ABERGAVENNY FAIRS.

ALTERATION OF DATES.

Whereas a representation has been duly made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department by the Abergavenny Town Council that Fairs have been annually held in Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth, on the second Tuesday in May and on the third Tuesday in September, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the Public that such Fairs should in future be held on the 14th day of May, and on the 25th day of September respectively:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1873:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the Public that the said Fairs should in future be held on the 14th day of May and on the 25th day of September:

Now therefore I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1873, do hereby order that the aforesaid Fairs annually held in Abergavenny shall in future be held on the 14th day of May and on the 25th day of September respectively.

Given under my hand at Whitehall this 27th day of June, 1930.

POST OFFICE TELEPHONES.

In pursuance of the Telephone Regulations, 1924, His Majesty's Postmaster General hereby gives notice that the charges for telephonic communication between Great Britain and Northern Ireland on the one hand and the province of South Australia in the Commonwealth of Australia on the other are as specified in the Schedule hereto.

THE SCHEDULE.

For telephonic communication with any place in the province of South Australia from:—

	Minimum charge covering the first 3 minutes.	Per additional minute or fraction thereof.
i. Any place in Great Britain (except the Isle of Man)	6 0 0	2 0 0
ii. Any place in the Isle of Man or Northern Ireland	6 6 0	2 2 0

NOTE.—Calls may be booked either:—

(a) as an ordinary call, i.e. for a specified telephone station, in which case only the telephone number of the station required should be given, or

(b) as a "person-to-person" call, i.e. from a particular person to a particular person, in which case the name of the person calling should be given as well as the name of the person required. In addition, the usual telephone number of the person required, and if possible the name associated with that number in the Telephone Directory, should be given. Where the Australian telephone number is not known by the caller an effort will be made to trace it, if the name and address of the person required is given.

Calling subscribers should, if possible, intimate at the time of booking a "person-to-person" call, the name of an acceptable substitute at the receiving station.

In the case of a "person-to-person" call, when communication with the number required is established but further efforts to complete the call are abandoned, neither the particular person required nor an accepted substitute being obtainable, a "report charge" of 12s. (14s. in the case of a call from the Isle of Man or Northern Ireland) will be made in place of the normal charge. The caller will be notified of the impracticability of completing the call. When a "person-to-person" call matures, no "report charge" will be made.

Electricity Commission.—1930.

SOUTH YORKSHIRE ELECTRICITY (EXTENSION).

NOTICE is hereby given that Electrical Distribution of Yorkshire Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") whose registered office is at 36, Park Place, Leeds, are applying to the Electricity Commissioners for a Special Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the Electricity (Supply) Acts 1882 to 1928 for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To extend the area for the supply of electricity under the South Yorkshire Electricity Special Order 1924 (hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Order") so as to enable the Company to supply and distribute electricity for all public and private purposes as defined by the Electricity (Supply) Acts 1882 to 1928 within so much of the County Borough of Rotherham as lies within an imaginary line commencing at a point on the north west corner of the enclosure numbered 434 on the 2500 Ordnance Map of Yorkshire (West Riding) Edition (1923) Sheet CCLXXXVIII-4 at the junction of the road leading to Barley Hall with Barnsley Road in the parish or township of Wentworth in the rural district of Rotherham thence following the boundary between the said borough and the parish or township of Wentworth generally in an easterly and southerly direction to a point in the centre of the road at Thorn Well Hill known as Chapelfield Lane opposite the south west corner of the enclosure numbered 61 on the said map (Edition) 1905 Sheet CCLXXXIII-13 thence in a southerly and south westerly direction along the centre of Chapelfield Lane to a point four yards measured in a southerly direction from the north east corner of the enclosure numbered 23 on the said map thence following generally in a westerly and northerly direction along the boundary between the said borough and the said parish or township of Wentworth to a point sixteen yards measured in a southerly direction from the north east corner of the enclosure numbered 433 on the said map thence crossing Barnsley road to the point of commencement of the said imaginary line.

The area so proposed to be added to the area of supply as defined in the Principal Order is hereinafter referred to as "the added area."

To authorise the Company to exercise within the added area all powers usually conferred upon distributors of electricity and to extend and make applicable to the added area all or some of the provisions of the Principal Order.

To repeal so much of the Rotherham Corporation Electric Lighting Order 1898 as relates to the added area and to alter vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with the objects of the intended Order and to confer other powers and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

And notice is hereby also given that any authority company body or person desirous of bringing before the Electricity Commissioners any objections respecting the application must do so by registered letter addressed to the Secretary, Electricity Commission, Savoy Court, Strand, W.C. 2, and despatched on or before the 31st day of July 1930 and a copy of such objections must also be forwarded to the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents.

Printed copies of the draft Order as applied for can be obtained at the price of two shillings for each copy of the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents and from Mr. E. Cleathero, Westfield Farm, Thorpe Hesley, Rotherham.

A copy of the draft Order and of the map relating to the application has been deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the County of York at Wakefield and at the office of the Town Clerk of the Borough of Rotherham at Rotherham.

NEWPORT CORPORATION ACT, 1925.

WHEREAS by Section 38 of the Newport Corporation Act, 1925, it is provided that the Corporation of Newport may, with the consent of the Minister of Transport and the Local Authority of the district, run omnibuses along any route outside the Borough. Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of the said Section the Corporation of Newport have made application to the Minister of Transport for his consent to the running by them of omnibuses on the following routes, that is to say:—

From Pye Corner Bassaleg in the County of Monmouth to Risca Vicarage in the parish of Rogerstone via the road leading from Pye Corner through Rogerstone.

From the boundary of the County Borough of Newport on the main road leading from Newport to Chepstow to the Royal Oak Inn, Chepstow Road, in the parish of Christchurch.

And notice is hereby further given that objection to the giving of such consent may be sent in writing to the Assistant Secretary, Roads Department, Ministry of Transport, Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W. 1, on or before the 11th day of July, 1930. A copy of any objection should, at the same time, be sent by the objector to me, at the Town Hall, Newport, Mon.

Dated this 26th day of June, 1930.

O. T. MORGAN,
Town Clerk.
