

having regard to the nature of that ingredient or part and to the smallness of its value in comparison with the total value of the article, that duty should be charged under that Act the Treasury may by order exempt that article from duty under the said Act.

And whereas the articles specified in the Schedule to this Order are liable to duty under Part I of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, as amended by the Finance Act, 1926, by reason only that some ingredient or part of each such article is liable to duty under Part I of that Act as amended.

And whereas the Treasury, after consultation with the Board of Trade, are satisfied as respects the articles specified in the said Schedule that it is inexpedient, having regard to the nature of the dutiable ingredients or parts and to the smallness of their value in comparison with the total value of the said articles, that duty should be charged under Part I of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, as amended.

Now therefore we, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the power conferred on us by the said Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1922, hereby order as follows:—

Such of the articles mentioned in the Schedule to this Order as are not entered under the Customs Acts before the tenth day of March, 1931, shall be exempt from the duty imposed on the said articles by Part I of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, as amended.

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

THE SCHEDULE.

1. Toys (other than illuminating glass ware or electric lamps) which are dutiable only by reason of containing lamp blown ware as a part.
2. Toys and fancy articles which are dutiable only by reason of containing glass wool as a part.
3. Toys and fancy articles which are dutiable only by reason of containing a magnifier as a part.
