14. Every Scholar shall proceed to his degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Laws, or to some equal degree at his regular time, except with the approval of the Council, given for illness or other grave cause, and any Scholar failing so to proceed may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

15. The Scholarships awarded before entrance shall be open only to candidates who have not commenced residence in the University, and who before the commencement of the month in which the examination begins have not attained the age of nineteen years, or such less age as may be determined by Ordinance. Paragraph 18—

19. The unconditional emoluments of a Scholar shall consist of rooms in College free during term and the Long Vacation or in lieu of free rooms, a sum not exceeding £10 a term during residence, plus the amount due to the College for rent during any period of the Long Vacation during which he may be in residence. These unconditional allowances shall be made in respect of a maximum period of four years' residence.

20. The conditional emoluments of Scholars who have not been admitted, or are not qualified to be admitted to the title of a degree in the University and the whole of the emoluments of Exhibitioners shall be payable only if the pecuniary circumstances of the Scholar or Exhibitioner and his family are such as are held by the College to justify such payment. The award of such conditional emoluments and of the conditional emoluments of Scholars who have been admitted, or are qualified to be admitted, to the title of a degree in the University shall be in the hands of the Council, who may review the emoluments of all Scholarships and Exhibitions at any time taking into consideration any changes in the financial position of the holders. The Council however shall not take account, in fixing the emoluments of a scholar, of a University Scholarship specified by the University Intercollegiate Advisory Committee on Scholarships to be of particular distinction, or of University or College prizes.

21. When a Scholar or Exhibitioner (other than a holder of one of the Scholarships or Exhibitions provided under section 26 below) has waived under section 22 or is held not to be entitled to receive the full amount of the emoluments, the sum constituting the difference between the full amount and the amount paid to him shall be paid into a special fund to be called the Supplementary Scholarship Fund and shall be used towards covering the cost of the remissions and grants referred to in section 23 below, or in making grants to persons engaged in research, or otherwise for the furtherance of research. Provided that this payment shall not be made in the case of a Scholar or Exhibitioner who has completed four years from the 29th day of September next preceding the date of his beginning residence in the University, or has satisfied the conditions of paragraph 24 (ii) (b) below.

22. When a candidate for Scholarships or Exhibitions shall signify to the Provost that he does not wish to receive the emoluments of the same if elected thereto he may, if properly qualified, be elected to a Scholarship or Exhibition without emolument, which shall not be counted in the number of the Scholarships or Exhibitions provided for in the foregoing sections of this chapter. When an election of such a candidate has been made the amount of the emolument to which he would have been entitled if he had been elected otherwise than under the provisions of this section shall be paid into the Supplementary Scholarship Fund except as provided in section 26 below. The holder of a Scholarship or Exhibition may resign the emolument of his Scholarship or Exhibition and hold a Scholarship or Exhibition without emolument, which shall not be counted in the number of Scholarships or Exhibitions provided for in this Statute.

23. It shall be open to the College by remissions of fees, to be charged against the Supplementary Scholarship Fund, and by grants from the same Fund, to give assistance in case of need to Scholars or Exhibitioners, beyond the maximum emoluments of their awards; but such assistance shall in no case be given unless the Council is satisfied that every effort has been made to secure adequate assistance for the student from sources outside the University; and the pecuniary value of such assistance shall not be specified in any notice of competition for Scholarships or Exhibitions.

24.—(i) Save as hereinafter provided no payment of any emolument shall be made to any person in statu pupillari, not being a Fellow of the College, from the general revenues of the College or from any fund under the control of the College, unless it is held to be justified by his financial circumstances. In fixing any such payment heed shall be paid to any general principles that may be laid down by the University Intercollegiate Advisory Committee on Scholarships.

(ii) The following emoluments may be paid to persons in statu pupillari without regard to their financial circumstances:

(a) the Rooms Allowance of Scholars hereinbefore mentioned;

(b) the emoluments of any Scholarship or Studentship held by a person who has been admitted or is qualified to be admitted to the title of a degree and who satisfies the Council that he intends to pursue a course of advanced study or research;

(c) the emolument of any Studentship held by any person who has been admitted as a Research Student in the University;

(d) prizes awarded for success in any examination or competition of the College or University, provided that in the case of prizes not charged upon any trust or special fund in consequence of a gift for the purpose not more than £10 may be awarded in money to any person in respect of any one examination or competition;

(e) emoluments payable out of any trust fund which by the direction of the donor, so long as his direction is legally binding on the College, or by regulations made for the time being by any legally competent authority other than the College, are required either expressly or by necessary implication to be paid without regard to financial circumstances, or if the application to them of the rule contained in the foregoing section is clearly incompatible with the objects of the trust.

(f) Payments for services rendered, or payments made under Statute H.

25. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Statute, the Governing Body may from time to time make regulations reducing the periods of eligibility to Scholarships and of the tenure of Scholarships in the case of Research Students and Affiliated Students, and any other students who are under special regulations with regard to the period of residence required for a degree.

26. There shall be established the following Scholarships and Exhibitions endowed from Trust Funds:

(i) A Vintner Foundation Scholarship to be awarded for proficiency in Natural Science, of which the emoluments shall be paid from the net income of Dr. Vintner's legacy.

(ii) A Laurence Saunders Foundation Scholarship of which the emoluments shall be paid from the net income of the Laurence Saunders Scholarship Fund.

(iii) Two Price Minor Scholarships of which the emoluments shall be paid from the net income of the Purefoy Price Day and Betham's Funds.

(iv) Three Fielder Exhibitions to be awarded for proficiency in Greek, of which the emoluments shall be paid from the net income of the Fielder Exhibition Fund.

These Scholarships and Exhibitions shall be awarded either at Entrance or as Senior awards on the same terms and conditions in all respects, including emoluments, as other Scholarships and Exhibitions. Except that emoluments withheld from the Scholar or Exhibitioner, under section 21 or 22, shall be added to the capital of the Trust Fund.

If the income of any of the above Funds is deficient, the number of the above awards may be reduced to correspond to the reduction in the available income, or Minor Scholarships may be awarded in lieu of Foundation Scholarships, or Exhibitions in lieu of Minor Scholarships.

If the net income in any of the above funds exceeds the amounts paid in respect of the Scholars or Exhibitioners out of the fund, the excess may be added to the capital of the fund or may be used for the award of additional Scholarships or Exhibitions on the same terms and conditions as other similar awards.

The above provisions shall apply in lieu of the scheme sanctioned by the Court of Chancery on May 1, 1871, for the future application of the income arising from the Benefactions of Dr. Vintner, Mr. Purefoy, Dr. Price, Mr. Day and Mr. Betham, and notwithstanding the provisions of the Wills of the late Mrs. Catharine Norris and the late Mrs. Laura Mary Fielder.

27. Every person elected to a Scholarship or Exhibition before the day on which this Statute shall come into operation shall hold such Scholarship or Exhibition, and any other Scholarship or Exhibition to which he may be subsequently elected, for the same period and on the same conditions, and the emoluments of such Scholarships or Exhibitions shall be the same as if the Statute under which he was elected had continued in operation.
