FRIDAY, 7 OCTOBER, 1932.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the provisions contained in the 7th section of the Medical Act, 1886, to nominate Sir (William) Leslie Mackenzie, M.D., F.R.C.P., LL.D., to be, for a period of three years, from the 28th October, 1932, a Member of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom, for Scotland.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 8th day of September, 1932 (N. 3294/32), in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service authorise the grant of Hard-Lying Money to Officers and men serving in certain vessels:

“And whereas the admissibility to payment and the rates of payment in particular vessels have been judged hitherto by the following standards:—

- (i) if the living and sleeping conditions are not superior to those in a Torpedo Boat on normal service—full rates are payable;
- (ii) if the living and sleeping conditions are superior to those in a Torpedo Boat but are markedly inferior to those in a Destroyer on normal service—half rates are payable.

“And whereas Torpedo Boats are no longer in existence in the Royal Navy, and a satisfactory comparison with the conditions obtaining therein is now impracticable:

“And whereas we consider it necessary to establish a modern standard which would allow of direct comparison between the living and sleeping conditions in any vessel by the light of that standard:

"And whereas we find that a suitable standard for comparison would be obtained by taking a Trawler as the type for full rates instead of a Torpedo Boat:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the adoption of the following new standards:—

- (i) when the living and sleeping conditions are not superior to those experienced in a Trawler on normal service—full rates;
- (ii) when the living and sleeping conditions are superior to those experienced in a Trawler but are markedly inferior to those in a Destroyer on normal service—half rates.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 6th day of August, 1932, (C.W. 8551/32), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 7th day of October, 1931, to sanction certain Regulations concerning the discontinuance of the grant of steps in rank to Officers of Your Majesty's Naval Service on or after retirement, and the retirement in their existing ranks of Captains, Engineer Captains or Captains (E), and Surgeon Captains whom it has been decided not to employ in higher ranks:

"And whereas we are now of opinion that the revised Regulations should not be applicable to Officers who were on the list of executive Captains at the date of that Order:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to provide that the said Regulations shall be applicable to Captains promoted to that rank after the 7th October, 1931, instead of to Captains of seniority 1926 and below.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 7th February, 1927, to sanction certain changes in the titles, scales of pay and the system of promotion of Quartermasters, Royal Marines, including the promotion of Quartermasters (Lieutenant) to the rank of Captain on attaining eight years' seniority as such:

"And whereas, having regard to the age at which promotion to Quartermaster, Royal Marines, normally takes place and the relative rank of these Officers, and for certain administrative reasons, we consider it desirable that their advancement to the rank of Captain should take place after a shorter period than eight years, but that such earlier advancement in rank should not confer upon them or their widows, children or other dependent relatives, any pecuniary advantage, effective or non-effective, as compared with the existing system of promotion after eight years:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 13th day of October, 1922, to sanction the continuance of the grant of temporary commissions to such Ministers under the same conditions in time of peace, subject to their being designated 'Temporary Chaplains' and not 'Acting Chaplains':

WHEREAS by section three of the Colonial Development Act, 1929, it is amongst other things provided that His Majesty may,

if a representation is made to Him by the Treasury and the Secretary of State that it is desirable so to do, make an Order in Council directing that the Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, shall be extended, subject to such modifications and to such conditions as may appear expedient to His Majesty, so as to apply to stock issued after the passing of that Act and forming part of the public debt of any territory specified in the Order which is under His Majesty's protection:

And whereas a representation has been made to His Majesty by the Treasury and the Secretary of State that it is desirable that an Order should be made directing that the Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, shall, subject to the modifications for which provision is made by this Order, be extended so as to apply to stock issued after the passing of the said Act and forming part of the public debt of the Federated Malay States as if the Federated Malay States were a colony:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in Him by the said section three of the Colonial Development Act, 1929, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, shall, subject to the modifications set out in the next succeeding paragraph of this Order, be extended so as to apply to stock issued after the passing of the Colonial Development Act, 1929, and forming part of the public debt of the Federated Malay States as if the Federated Malay States were a colony.

2. For the purposes of section two of the Colonial Stock Act, 1900, the following conditions shall have effect in relation to stock to which the Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, apply by virtue of this Order as if they had been prescribed by the Treasury under that section:—

(a) Provision must be made by legislation of the Federated Malay States for the payment out of the revenues of the Federated Malay States of any sums which may become payable to stockholders under any judgment, decree, rule or order of a court in the United Kingdom;

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of July, 1932, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Sampford Arundel, in the County of Somerset, and in the Diocese of Bath and Wells:

"Whereas by the Will dated the 21st day of October, 1930, of the late Reverend Charles Francis Long Sweet, of Broadleigh, Landscore Road, Teignmouth, in the County of Devon, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sampford Arundel was devised to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Wells (hereinafter called 'the said Dean and Chapter'):

"And whereas Edith Maud Sweet, of Broadleigh, Teignmouth aforesaid, Widow, and Conrad Montague Walrond, of Hillcrest, Bridle Road, Eastcote, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, are the Trustees of the said Will in whom but for the hereinbefore recited devise the said Advowson would now be vested, and the said Edith Maud Sweet and Conrad Montague Walrond are desirous with a view to the confirmation of the said devise that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sampford Arundel should be transferred to and be vested in the said Dean and Chapter and their successors:

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer and in token of such their willingness have executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or by some or one of them is made necessary:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Sampford Arundel which is hereinbefore mentioned and herein-after recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Sampford Arundel:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Edith Maud Sweet and Conrad Montague Walrond (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), and by way of confirmation of the hereinbefore recited devise by the Will of the said Charles Francis Long Sweet, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sampford Arundel shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter and their successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter and by their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bath and Wells.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of July, 1932, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a part or share of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Churches and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said United Benefice') of Wolvey with Burton Hastings and Stretton Baskerville, in the County of Warwick and in the Diocese of Coventry:

"Whereas under the terms of an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the 7th day of February, 1927, and published in the London Gazette on the following day, for effecting the Union of the Benefice of Wolvey, the Benefice of Burton Hastings, and the Benefice of Stretton Baskerville, one one-fifth part or share of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said United Benefice of Wolvey with Burton Hastings and Stretton Baskerville (that is to say the fifth turn or right of nomination or presentation to the said United Benefice which shall occur or arise on a vacancy of the said United Benefice happening after the date of such union and every fifth succeeding turn or right of nomination or presentation thereafter), was vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in Phillis Helen Dunn, of Grove Lodge, London Road, Isleworth, in the County of Middlesex, the wife of George Victor Septimus Dunn, Phoebe Foster Smith, of Grove Lodge, London Road aforesaid, Spinster, and Reginald Laird Wells, of Number 149, High Street, Hounslow, in the said County of Middlesex, Chartered Accountant, as Trustees under the Will dated the sixth day of November, 1916, of the late James Walter Smith of the Inner Temple, Barrister at Law:

"And whereas the Union of the said Benefice of Wolvey, the said Benefice of Burton Hastings and the said Benefice of Stretton Baskerville took effect on the 8th day of February, 1927:

"And whereas by an Indenture made the 25th day of January, 1932, between the said Phillis Helen Dunn, Phoebe Foster Smith and Reginald Laird Wells of the one part, and the Right Reverend Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, of the other part it was witnessed that in consideration of the sum of £50 the said Phillis Helen Dunn, Phoebe Foster Smith, and Reginald Laird Wells did thereby convey unto the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, their interest as aforesaid in the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said United Benefice of Wolvey with Burton Hastings and Stretton Baskerville, to hold the same unto and to the use of the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry and his successors in fee simple:

"And whereas the said Conveyance was made with the intention of vesting the said one-fifth part or share of and in the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage in the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, in right of his See and the parties thereto are desirous that anything which by way of further assurance or otherwise may be required effectually to carry out that intention may be done, and have applied to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that a Scheme under the Acts hereinbefore mentioned may be prepared for the said purpose and submitted to Your Majesty in Council:

"And whereas the said Phillis Helen Dunn, Phoebe Foster Smith and Reginald Laird Wells, and the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, are consenting to this Scheme, the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, both as party to the said Indenture of the 25th day of January, 1932, and as Bishop of Coventry, the Diocese wherein the said United Benefice of Wolvey with Burton Hastings and Stretton Baskerville is situate, approving of and accepting the transfer of the said one-fifth part or share of and in the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage as required by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or by some or one of them:

"And whereas the transfer of Patronage which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parishes or Districts in or in respect of which such Patronage arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parishes of Wolvey and Burton Hastings and Stretton Baskerville:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Phillis Helen Dunn, Phoebe Foster Smith and Reginald Laird Wells (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said one-fifth part or share of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said United Benefice of Wolvey with Burton Hastings and Stretton Baskerville (that is to say, the fifth turn or right of nomination or presentation to the said United Benefice happening after the date hereof for ever and every fifth succeeding turn or right of nomination or presentation thereafter) shall be transferred to the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Mervyn, Bishop of Coventry, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Coventry.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of July, 1932, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of East Worldham and the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Hartley Mauditt with West Worldham, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Southampton and in the Diocese of Winchester:
