FRIDAY, 23 JUNE, 1939

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of June, 1939.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Honourable James Gray Stuart, M.V.O., M.C., and Herwald Ramsbotham, Esquire, O.B.E., M.C., were, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

DIRECTING THAT SILVER CROWNS, HALF-CROWNS, SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCES OF THE UNITED KINGDOM SHALL CEASE TO BE LEGAL TENDER IN JAMAICA FOR A PAYMENT OF AN AMOUNT EXCEEDING FORTY SHILLINGS.

GEORGE, R.I.

WHEREAS by virtue of a Proclamation of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, dated the third day of February, 1898 (hereinafter called "the Proclamation"), certain provisions of the Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by section two of the Coinage Act, 1891, were applied with the modifications specified in the Proclamation to the colonies or possessions therein mentioned and their dependencies including the Colony of Jamaica and the Cayman Islands and the Turks and Caicos Islands (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the colony of Jamaica"):

And whereas it was provided by the Proclamation that silver coins which, under section four of the Coinage Act, 1870, as set out in the

Proclamation, were legal tender should, in any of the said colonies or possessions in which the like coins were at the date of the promulgation of the Proclamation therein legal tender for a payment of an unlimited amount, continue to be legal tender for a payment of any amount:

And whereas the Proclamation was promulgated in the colony of Jamaica on the eighth day of June, 1898, and at that date the British silver crown, half-crown, shilling and sixpence (hereinafter referred to as "the said silver coins") were in the colony of Jamaica legal tender for a payment of an unlimited amount:

And whereas by the Coinage Act, 1920, provision was made for the amendment of the Coinage Act, 1870, in respect of the standard of fineness of silver coins, and it was enacted that where by virtue of a proclamation made under section eleven of the Coinage Act, 1870, the whole or any part of that Act was in force in any British possession at the date of the commencement of the Coinage Act, 1920, the Coinage Act, 1870, should, as from that date, apply in that possession as amended by the Coinage Act, 1920, and, that any Order in Council or proclamation directing that any coins which under the Coinage Acts, 1870 and 1891, were legal tender in the United Kingdom should be current and legal tender in any British possession should extend to coins which were legal tender in the United Kingdom under the Coinage Acts, 1870 and 1891, as amended by the Coinage Act, 1920:

And whereas by virtue of the Coinage Act, 1870, it is lawful for His Majesty with the advice of His Privy Council by proclamation to revoke or alter any proclamation previously made under that Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the said silver coins which under section four of the Coinage Act, 1870, as set out in the Proclamation and amended by the Coinage Act, 1920, are legal tender should no longer be legal tender in the Colony of Jamaica for a payment of an amount exceeding forty shillings:

Now, therefore, We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of the said recited provisions and of all other powers enabling Us in this behalf, do hereby proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:—

1. As from this date the said silver coins which under section four of the Coinage Act, 1870, as set out in the Proclamation and amended by the Coinage Act, 1920, are legal tender shall in the colony of Jamaica be legal tender for a payment of an amount not exceeding forty shillings, but for no greater amount, and accordingly so much of the Proclamation as provides that the said silver coins shall be legal tender for a payment of an unlimited amount shall, as from this date, cease to have effect as respects the colony of Jamaica.

2. This Proclamation may be cited as the Jamaica (Silver Coinage) Proclamation, 1939.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this Twenty-third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and in the third year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of June, 1939.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Charter of Incorporation of the Imperial College of Science and Technology it is provided that six members of the Governing Body of the said College shall be appointed by His Majesty:

And whereas under the provisions of the said Charter the term of Office of three of the members appointed by His Majesty, viz., the Viscount Bledisloe, G.C.M.G., K.B.E., the Lord Rayleigh, Sc.D., F.R.S., and Sir Harold Wernher, K.C.V.O., expired on the 31st day of May, 1939, and it is expedient that the last two named should be re-appointed for a further term of Office:

And whereas the Viscount Bledisloe does not desire to be re-appointed, and it is necessary that a new member should be appointed in his place:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Lord Rayleigh, Sc.D., F.R.S., and Sir Harold Wernher, K.C.V.O., be re-appointed as members of the Governing Body of the Imperial College of Science and Technology for a further term of four years from the 1st day of June, 1939, and that Sir Edward Crowe, K.C.M.G., be appointed to be a member of the said Governing Body for a term of four years from the 1st day of June, 1939

Rupert B. Howorth.

*Privy Council Office,
23rd June, 1939.*

UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE ACT, 1923.

A STATUTE made by the Governing Body of Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, on the 17th June, 1939, amending the Statutes of the College, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923."

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Bill Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 30th June, 1939, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914 to 1919, to the amount of £50,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 3rd July, 1939, to Saturday, the 8th July, 1939, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

PATENTS AND DESIGNS ACTS,
1907 TO 1938.

Proceedings under Section 20.

Notice is hereby given that José Mariá Samaniegó has made Application for the restoration of the Patent granted to him for an invention entitled "Safes equipped with automatic prepayment devices," numbered 396,967, and bearing the date the 7th day of November, 1931, which expired on the 7th day of November, 1937, owing to the non-payment of the prescribed renewal fee.

Any person may give notice of opposition to the restoration by lodging Patents Form No. 17 at the Patent Office, 25, Southampton Buildings, London, W.C.2, on or before the 21st day of August, 1939.

M. F. Lindley,
Comptroller-General.

The Patent Office.

WHEREAS the endowments of each of the benefices of Christ Church, Southchurch, and of Saint Augustine, Thorpe Bay, both in the County of Essex and in the Diocese of Chelmsford, comprise an annual amount of One hundred pounds permanently charged on the endowments or some part or parts of the endowments of the benefice of Southchurch, in the said County and Diocese:

And whereas we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have been requested by the several incumbents concerned to substitute for each of the said charges an annual sum of the like amount charged on our Common Fund:

Now therefore, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, Section four, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant out of our Common Fund to the Incumbent of each of the said Benefices of Christ Church, Southchurch, and of Saint Augustine, Thorpe Bay, and to his successors Incumbents of the same Benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of One hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be calculated as from the 25th day of March, 1939, and to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the said annual sum charged upon the revenues of the said Benefice of Southchurch:

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, do hereby appropriate for the benefit of our Common Fund as from the said 25th day of March, 1939, the sums of stock particularly described in the Schedule hereto and now held by us as part of the endowment of the said Benefice of Southchurch to the intent that from and after the same date the endowments of the said Benefice of Southchurch shall be discharged from the payment of each of the said annual charges of One hundred pounds.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal this 15th day of June, 1939.

Board of Trade.—June, 1939.

PRESCOT AND DISTRICT GAS.

(Application for Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 to 1934.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade forthwith by the Prescott and District Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") whose address is Gas Offices, Prescott, for a Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 to 1934, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To confer further powers upon the Company with respect to the disposal and letting of any lands vested in or acquired by them.

2. To empower the Company to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of further consolidated ordinary shares or of ordinary stock or of new preference shares or stock or wholly or partly by one or more of those modes respectively.

3. To empower the directors of the Company to reserve a proportion of any issue of capital for exclusive offer to employees of the Company and to consumers of gas supplied by the Company and to make provisions as to the conditions of issue.

4. To empower the Company with the consent of the Board of Trade to offer capital for subscription by such employees and consumers as aforesaid before or in lieu of offering the same for sale by auction or tender.

5. To increase the amount of money which the Company may borrow on mortgage or raise by the creation and issue of debenture stock in respect of their existing capital.

6. To empower the Company to raise additional money by borrowing on mortgage and by the creation and issue of debenture stock or by either of such means.

7. To make provisions as to the rights, privileges and liabilities of the holders of shares or stock in the capital of the Company and of mortgages and debenture stock of the Company.

8. To empower the Company to borrow money on temporary loan by means of overdrafts from bankers or otherwise or by the issue of notes or bonds.

9. To empower the Company to purchase by agreement any debentures or debenture stock of the Company and to apply their funds for the purpose; to provide that any debentures or debenture stock so purchased shall be cancelled.

10. To provide that certain sums received by the Company as premiums on the issue of preference capital under the Prescott Gas Act, 1915, and the Prescott Gas Order, 1929, in excess of the sums thereby authorised to be raised shall be deemed to be money raised under the said Act and Order.

11. To make provisions as to the minimum holdings of ordinary and preference stock and debenture stock of the Company.

12. To make new or further provisions with reference to the Company's affairs including provisions as to:—the holding of annual meetings, the prescription of a new scale of voting rights in respect of consolidated ordinary shares and ordinary stock and preference shares and stock of the Company, the receipt to be obtained in the case of minors, the indemnity which may be required before the issue of substituted certificates etc., the number and qualification of directors and directors contracting with the Company, the circumstances in which the office of director shall be vacated.

13. To make provisions as to the substitution of a card or other index for the shareholders' address book or for the portion of any register kept in lieu thereof.

14. To make provisions as to the qualification and election of the auditors of the Company and the notice of candidature of auditors and to empower the directors to fill occasional vacancies in the office of auditor.

15. To provide that the Company shall no longer be subject to a maximum price or prices for gas supplied by them or to a maximum rate or rates of dividend on their ordinary capital.

16. To fix a basic price for the gas to be supplied by the Company within their limits of supply and to make provision as to the revision of such basic price.

17. To prescribe a basic rate of dividend on the ordinary capital of the Company and to empower the Company in certain circumstances to apply their profits in payment of dividends at a rate in excess of the basic rate and in forming or increasing a reserve fund and for the benefit of all or some of the employees of the Company and to make provision for determining from time to time the amount of the profits to be applied as aforesaid.

18. To make provisions with respect to the payment of half-yearly dividends by the directors without the sanction or direction of a general meeting and with respect to the Company's accounts.

19. To empower the Company or the directors thereof to establish a reserve fund a special purposes fund and a renewal fund, to provide for the application of those funds respectively and to make provision with respect to the appropriation of the moneys standing to the credit of the reserve fund account of the Company.

20. To make temporary provision as to the period in which gas supplied in the limits of supply shall be deemed to have been supplied by the Company in case meter indices are read before or after such date or dates as the intended Order may prescribe.

21. To make provisions as to the supply of gas to premises abutting on streets etc. forming the boundary of but outside the limits of supply and as to the breaking up of such streets for the purpose of affording such supply.

22. To make provisions with respect to the following matters:—the position of meters, the prevention of the improper use of gas, fittings, etc. let for hire not being subject to distress and remaining the property of the Company, the inspection and testing of meters and the charges for special readings of meters.

23. To make provisions with respect to the acquisition holding and use of patent rights or licences by the Company and with respect to the grant of patents to the Company jointly with other persons.

24. To authorise the Company to establish superannuation schemes to make payments to any superannuation fund formed for the benefit of their employees and to apply their revenues for those purposes.

25. To provide for the setting up of schemes for enabling employees of the Company to participate in the profits of the undertaking, for the issue of shares or stock of the Company in connection with such schemes, to empower the directors to accept money on deposit and to pay interest thereon and to provide for the disposal of shares or stock and deposits on the death of any employee.

26. To make provisions with respect to the recovery of sums due or payable to the Company in respect of the sale or hire of apparatus and fittings for or in connection with the consumption or use of gas or the provision of materials and work in connection therewith or the fixing, setting up, repairing, altering, maintaining or removal thereof.

27. To provide that for the purposes of Section 41 of the Prescott Gas Order, 1929, the expression "employee" shall include a managing director and a director appointed under Section 26 of the Gas Undertakings Act, 1934.

28. To repeal alter or amend all or some of the provisions of the Prescott Gas Acts and Orders, 1867 to 1929, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking.

29. To incorporate with the Order with or without modification or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871.

Any local or other public authority, company, or person, desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W.1, and despatched on or before the 25th day of July, 1939.

No. 00439 of 1939.

In the Matter of THE INSTITUTE OF COST AND WORKS ACCOUNTANTS Limited and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1929.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition was on the 16th June 1939 presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company for the confirmation of an alteration of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to the Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution passed at the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on the 28th April 1939 whereby it was resolved that there be substituted for the existing objects clause the following new objects clause:—

"(a) To promote the adoption of scientific methods in Cost and Works Accountancy.

"(b) To provide a professional organisation for Cost and Works Accountants and by means of examinations to test the skill and knowledge of persons desiring to enter the profession and to issue qualifying certificates in appropriate cases.

"(c) To improve the facilities available to persons entering the profession for acquiring the necessary training and education.

"(d) To exercise professional supervision over the Members of the Institute and to frame and establish rules for observance in all matters pertaining to professional practice.

"(e) To hold conferences and meetings for the discussion of professional subjects.

"(f) To collect, collate and publish information of service and/or of interest to members of the profession.

"(g) To form a library for the use of Members.

"(h) To procure the Institute to be registered or recognised in any British colony or dependency or in any foreign country.

"(i) To assist necessitous Members, and any of the dependent kindred of deceased Members and the widows of Members, to act as managers and distributors of any benevolent fund or funds which may be contributed by Members or others for these purposes or any of them, and subject to the provisions of Clause 4 (prohibiting payments being made to Members) to make any contribution out of the surplus assets or income of the Institute from time to time to any such benevolent fund or funds.

"(j) To grant pensions or gratuities to any persons who are for the time being or shall at any time have been paid officers or employees of the Institute or the relations or dependents of any such persons.

"(k) To provide scholarships, prizes, medals or awards in connection with the subjects of the examinations held by the Institute or otherwise in relation to the profession of Cost and Works Accountancy.

"(l) To purchase, have, hold, rent, lease or dispose of, subject to the provisions of section 14 of the Companies Act, 1929, any buildings for the purposes of the Institute.

"(m) To apply, petition for, or promote any Act of Parliament, Royal Charter, or other authority with a view to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

"(n) Generally to do all such lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them."

A copy of the Memorandum of Association containing the present objects clause will be sent on request to any person whose interests will be affected by the proposed alteration and such a copy may be inspected by any such person at the registered office of the Company situate at 23 Queen Square in the county of London or at the office of Messrs.
