The Board of Trade in pursuance of Condition (iii) of the Open General Export Licence No. G.L. 168 (dated 14th July, 1937, hereby order that that Licence is suspended with effect from the 1st September, 1939, except in respect of:—

(i) any aircraft registered outside the United Kingdom; or

(ii) any aircraft flying in accordance with the terms and conditions of a dispensation issued by the Secretary of State for Air under paragraph 2 of the Air Navigation (Emergency Restriction) Order, 1939; or

(iii) any aircraft clearing from an aerodrome for the time being approved as a customs aerodrome by directions issued by the Secretary of State for Air, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, under paragraph 2 of Schedule VIII to the Air Navigation (Consolidation) Order, 1923; provided such aircraft is engaged in the operation of a regular line or service of public air transport or in the performance of a flight authorised by the local Air Ministry Control Officer.

The Order made by the Board of Trade on the 29th day of August, 1939, suspending the operation of the said Open General Export Licence No. G.L. 168 is hereby revoked.

By Order of the Board of Trade.

Dated this thirty-first day of August, 1939.

WAR RISKS INSURANCE ACT, 1939.

WAR RISKS INSURANCE OF CARGOES.

Notice is hereby given that on and from 11 a.m. on Monday, 4th September, 1939, the Board of Trade will commence to carry on the business of insuring cargoes against war risks at an office, to be called the War Risks Insurance Office, which is being opened for the purpose in Lloyd's Building, Leadenhall Street, London, E.C.3.

Merchants and shippers requiring information as to the facilities available should make enquiries at this office through their usual insurance brokers.

In accordance with the terms of the War Risks Cargo Pool Scheme no war risks insurances will be accepted as and from 11 a.m. on Monday, 4th September, for reinsurance by the Board of Trade under the scheme. Sailings or departures by air or despatches by post after the said date under war risks insurances accepted prior to the said date will, however, remain insured if the sailing or departure or despatch takes place within thirty days from the acceptance of the risk by or the declaration of the risk to the underwriter, but if the sailing or departure or despatch does not take place within 30 days the cargoes will cease to be insured. Declarations after the said date under insurance contracts existing at the said date will be accepted in respect of sailings or departures by air or by post which have taken place prior to the said date.

Where goods have been consigned for carriage by sea or by air from a place outside the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or any of the Channel Islands to a place in any of those countries or from a place in any of those countries to a place outside those countries and have on or before the above-mentioned date been discharged from their importing ship or aircraft, or despatched from the premises in any of the said countries from which they are consigned, as the case may be, or where goods are so discharged or despatched within seven days after the above-mentioned date the owners thereof will be entitled under the provisions of Section 3 of the War Risks Insurance Act, 1939, to claim compensation for any loss or damage occasioned to such goods in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands in consequence of King's Enemy Risks, if such loss or damage occurs whilst the goods are in transit between the ship or aircraft from which they are discharged and their destination or whilst the goods are in transit from the premises from which they are consigned and the ship or aircraft as the case may be.

WAR RISKS INSURANCE ACT, 1939
(PART II).

NOTICE PUTTING INTO OPERATION THE COMMODITY INSURANCE SCHEME.

The Board of Trade in the exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 7 of the War Risks Insurance Act, 1939, hereby put into operation a scheme whereby the Board undertake, in relation to persons carrying on business in the United Kingdom as sellers of goods, the liabilities of insuring such persons against King's enemy risks in respect of goods insurable under Part II of the said Act which are from time to time owned by such persons in the course of such business.

Any liability of the Board of Trade as insurers under the scheme will be determined by a policy of insurance issued in such form and in respect of such period as is prescribed by order of the Board of Trade.

The premium payable under a policy so issued will be at such rate and in respect of such period as is prescribed by order of the Board of Trade.

The amount of any one premium payable under a policy so issued will be not less than such sum as is prescribed by order of the Board of Trade.

Orders prescribing the above matters have been made by the Board and are respectively entitled the War Risks (Commodity Insurance) (No. 1) Order, 1939, and the War Risks (Commodity Insurance) (No. 2) Order, 1939.

Applications for insurance may be made to any of the corporations designated by notice of the Board of Trade dated the 24th August, 1939, as authorised to receive applications for registration under Section 8 of the said Act on forms to be approved by the Board of Trade, and policies of insurance will be issued on behalf of the Board by such corporations, who are further authorised to receive the premiums payable.

Pending the approval by the Board of Trade of forms of application for insurance and during the period of twenty-eight days from the date of this notice, a person may apply to be insured (provided that the application relates to all goods insurable under Part II of the Act, which are for the time being owned by him in the course of his business, and is in respect of a sum representing not less than the value of the said goods for the time being) by letter, or on the prescribed form of application for registration under Section 8 of the Act suitably amended, giving his name and address, the nature of his business, and the sum for which he desires to be insured. A remittance for the amount of the premium must accompany the letter or form. In any case, where application for insurance is duly made in accordance with this paragraph, and such application is approved, the policy issued will afford cover, where the application is received on behalf of the Board within ten days from the date declared by the Board to be the date of the outbreak of war, as from the date, and where the application is received after the expiration of the said ten days, as from the date on which it is so received.

The Board of Trade hereby declare 3rd September, 1939, to be the date of the outbreak of war.

AN ORDER AUTHORIZING GENERAL OR FIELD OFFICERS TO ISSUE REQUISITIONS OF EMERGENCY.

(Under the Army Act, Section 115.)

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by Section 115 of the Army Act it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order distinctly stating that a case of emergency exists, and signified by a Secretary of State, to authorise any General or Field Officer Commanding the Regular Forces in any military district or place in Great Britain and Northern Ireland to issue a Requisition of Emergency under his hand, requiring Justices of the Peace to issue warrants for the provision, for the purposes mentioned in the Requisition, of such carriages, animals and vessels as are mentioned in the said Act, and also of food, forage and stores of every description:

And whereas by the said Section it is provided that a Requisition of Emergency may prohibit during such period and to such extent as may be specified in the Requisition the sale and purchase of horses or carriages or the sale and purchase of horses or carriages of any class or description so specified to or by any person other than a person appointed by the Army Council to purchase horses or carriages:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that whenever a Proclamation ordering the Army Reserve to be called out on permanent service is in force, His Majesty's Order may authorise such Officers to extend such Requisitions to the provision of carriages, animals, vessels, food, forage and stores, for the purpose of being purchased, as well as of being hired, on behalf of the Crown:

And whereas a Proclamation ordering the Army Reserve to be called out on permanent service is in force:

And whereas a case of emergency exists within the meaning of the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act is pleased to order and authorise any General or Field Officer Commanding the Regular Forces in any military district or place in Great Britain and Northern Ireland to issue Requisitions of Emergency under the said Act for all the purposes mentioned in the said Section of the said Act and to extend such Requisitions as by the said Act authorised.

1st day of September, 1939.

Leslie Hore-Belisha.

AN ORDER AUTHORIZING GENERAL OR FIELD OFFICERS TO ISSUE BILLETING REQUISITIONS.

(Under the Army Act, Section 108A).

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by Section 108A of the Army Act it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order, distinctly stating that a case of emergency exists, and signified by a Secretary of State, to authorize any General or Field Officer commanding any part of His Majesty's Forces in any military district or place in the United Kingdom to issue a Billeting Requisition under his hand requiring chief officers of police to provide billets in such places and for such number of officers and soldiers and their horses, of women enrolled for employment by the Army Council and of vehicles in use for the purposes of His Majesty's Military Forces and for such period as may be specified in the Requisition in accordance with the provisions of the said Section:

And whereas a case of emergency exists within the meaning of the said Act;

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, is pleased to order and authorize any General or Field Officer Commanding any part of His Majesty's Forces in any military district or place in the United Kingdom to issue Billeting Requisitions under the said Act.

30th day of August, 1939.

(Under the Air Force Act, Section 115.)

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by Section 115 of the Air Force Act it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order distinctly stating that a case of emergency exists, and signified by a Secretary of State, to authorize any officer not below the rank of squadron leader holding any appointment designated for the purposes of the said Section by the Air Council or commanding any portion of the regular air force in Great Britain and Northern Ireland to issue a Requisition of Emergency under his hand, requiring Justices of the Peace to issue warrants for the provision, for the purposes mentioned in the Requisition, of such carriages, animals, vessels and aircraft as are mentioned in the said Act, and also of food, forage and stores of every description:

And whereas by the said Section it is provided that Requisitions of Emergency may prohibit during such period and to such extent as may be specified in the Requisition the sale and purchase of horses or carriages or aircraft, or the sale and purchase of horses or carriages or aircraft of any class or description so specified, to or by any person other than a person appointed by the Air Council to purchase horses or carriages or aircraft:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act that whenever a Proclamation ordering the Air Force Reserve to be called out on permanent service is in force, His Majesty's order may authorize such officers to extend such Requisitions to the provision of carriages, animals, vessels, aircraft, food, forage and stores, for the purpose of being purchased, as well as of being hired, on behalf of the Crown:

And whereas a Proclamation ordering the Air Force Reserve to be called out on permanent service is in force:

And whereas a case of emergency exists within the meaning of the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, is pleased to order and authorize any officer not below the rank of squadron leader holding any appointment designated for the purposes of the said Section by the Air Council or commanding any portion of the regular air force in Great Britain and Northern Ireland to issue Requisitions of Emergency under the said Act for all the purposes mentioned in the said Section of the said Act and to extend such Requisitions as by the Act authorized.

By His Majesty's Command,

Kingsley Wood.

1st day of September, 1939.

AN ORDER AUTHORIZING AIR FORCE OFFICERS TO ISSUE BILLETING REQUISITIONS.

(Under the Air Force Act, Section 108A.)

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by Section 108A of the Air Force Act it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order, distinctly stating that a case of emergency exists, and signified by a Secretary of State, to authorize any officer not below the rank of squadron leader commanding any portion of His Majesty's air forces in the United Kingdom to issue a Billeting Requisition under his hand requiring chief officers of police to provide billets in such places and for such number of officers and airmen and their horses, of women enrolled for employment by the Air Council and of vehicles in use for the purposes of His Majesty's air forces and for such period as may be specified in the Requisition in accordance with the provisions of the said Section:

And whereas a case of emergency exists within the meaning of the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, is pleased to order and authorize any officer not below the rank of squadron leader commanding any portion of His Majesty's air forces in the United Kingdom to issue Billeting Requisitions under the said Act.

30th day of August, 1939.
