BANK OF ENGLAND.

18th September, 1941.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice:—

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Wednesday, the 8th October, from 11 o'clock in the forenoon till 4 o'clock in the afternoon, for the Election of a Director for the remainder of the year, in the room of the late Lord Stamp.

John Maynard Keynes, Esquire, C.B., is recommended by the Court of Directors to fill the vacancy.

The result of the Election will be declared the same afternoon.

No person other than those recommended for Election by the Court of Directors shall be qualified to be elected at any General Court to the office of Governor, Deputy Governor or Director unless he shall have been nominated as a candidate for such office by notice in writing signed by a member or members qualified to vote at such General Court and delivered to the Secretary of the Bank at its Head Office not less than 14 days before such General Court.

A member is not qualified to vote in any General Court unless he holds £500 Stock whether in his own right or in trust for another person, and has been possessed thereof for at least six calendar months unless he has acquired the said Stock by transmission on death or by marriage.

Where Stock stands in the joint names of two or more members, they may by writing under their hands, in a form provided on application at the Bank of England, nominate one of their number to vote in respect of such Stock: and if none of them is so nominated the one whose name stands first in the register of members shall be qualified to vote.

The nomination referred to must be lodged at the Head Office of the Bank in London, for examination, not less than 10 clear days before the first General Court at which the nominee desires to vote.
