

FOURTH SUPPLEMENT
TO
The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY, the 2nd of OCTOBER, 1942

Published by Authority

Registered as a newspaper

TUESDAY, 6 OCTOBER, 1942

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

6th October, 1942.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the undermentioned appointments to the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, for the following awards of the George Medal and of the British Empire Medal, in the Merchant Navy, and for the publication in the London Gazette of the names of those specially shown below as having received an expression of Commendation for brave conduct:—

To be an Additional Officer of the Civil Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:—

Captain David Dykes, Master.

To be an Additional Member of the Civil Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:—

Robert Beckwith Arthur, Esq., Second Officer.

Awarded the British Empire Medal (Civil Division):—

Roy Douglas Cagney, Able Seaman.

The ship was subjected to air attacks throughout six days and five nights of almost continuous fire and bombing.

The Master showed great bravery and coolness throughout and twice, by skilful manœuvring, avoided torpedoes. The Second Officer and Seaman Cagney showed courage and determination under heavy enemy bombing on a port during which four bombs only just missed the ship.

To be Additional Members of the Civil Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:—

William McClymart Keating, Esq., Chief Officer.

Alfred Jack Medway, Esq., Third Officer.

The Chief and Third Officers showed fine seamanship and devotion to duty after their ship had been sunk. They sailed the ship's lifeboat for seven and a half days during which one or the other was always at the tiller without cover and exposed to severe cold.

To be an Additional Member of the Civil Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:—

George Kenmure Garstin, Esq., Radio Officer.

Awarded the George Medal:—

Percy Grey, Chief Steward.

Awarded the British Empire Medal (Civil Division):—

George Jamieson, Able Seaman.

The ship was torpedoed twice and had to be abandoned. The Radio Officer continued to send messages to the last. The Chief Steward remained on board tending three injured men. He went down with his ship, but, with courage and determination, he was able to swim to a raft, bringing with him an injured officer.

The Radio Officer showed great cheerfulness in the boats. Both he and Able Seaman Jamieson tended those wounded who were with them and showed an indomitable spirit throughout.

To be an Additional Member of the Civil Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:—

David Meredith Lyon Evans, Esq., Second Officer.

Awarded the British Empire Medal (Civil Division):—

Norman William Folwell, Able Seaman.

Jeremiah Holman, Able Seaman.

George Henry Hooper, Able Seaman.

When his ship was sunk the Second Officer took charge of the navigation of a crowded boat and brought her people to land after seven days. When he himself was prostrate with illness, the handling of the craft was carried on by Able Seamen Folwell, Holman