Candidates must be at least 20½ and under 24 years of age on the 1st August, 1951.

But a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

3. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women are eligible, but women will not ordinarily be appointed to posts in the Admiralty, or to the Immigration Service of the Home Office.

(ii) Married women are not eligible for appointment to Branch B of the Foreign Service; a woman member of Branch B must resign her appointment on marriage.

(iii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before the 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible for appointment to the Home Civil Service unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

9. Where tests are prescribed, the regulations will lay down whether they shall be qualifying tests of candidates nominated by the Head of a Department, or competitive tests, and if competitive whether among candidates nominated by the Head of a Department or open to all persons who satisfy the conditions prescribed, and whether by written examination or by written examination and interview or by interview or otherwise.

10. Without prejudice to the provisions of Regulation 6 hereof the Commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with or modify any tests, whether competitive or qualifying, if—

(b) the candidate concerned, having been employed in a quasi-permanent capacity on work which has proved to be of a permanent character and having given throughout a sufficient period of trial proof of fitness to perform the duties required, is put forward with the approval of the Treasury by the Head of the Department for establishment, or

(c) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Treasury and the Commissioners that the transfer or promotion of an established civil servant from one situation to another not in the customary course of promotion is desirable in the interests of the public service, or

(d) the Head of the Department or other appointing authority has satisfied the Treasury and the Commissioners that the admission of a particular candidate to a specified situation is for special and exceptional reasons justified by the needs of the public service and the proved merits of the candidate, or

(e) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Treasury and the Commissioners that it is desirable that the candidate concerned, having been employed on functions which have been transferred to the Crown, should be admitted for employment in the Service, or

(f) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Treasury and the Commissioners that it is desirable, by reason of a shortage of qualified candidates, to admit to a particular situation a candidate who has reached an appropriate standard either in a competition for a higher situation but has failed to secure appointment to that situation or in an examination recognised by the Commissioners as indicating a standard of education appropriate to the situation in question, or

(g) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Treasury and the Commissioners that it is desirable that a candidate already holding a pensionable situation in another Public Service should be admitted for employment in the Service.
